

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at <http://books.google.com/>

Stanford University Libraries

3 6105 120 890 566

HANDBOOK
OF SOCIAL RESOURCES
OF THE
UNITED STATES

HEAVEN WAS COLLECTION

THE AMERICAN RED CROSS
WASHINGTON, D. C.

1. For the purpose of the present study
(the purpose of the study)
the following data were collected

ARC 412
June, 1921

HANDBOOK
OF
SOCIAL RESOURCES OF THE
UNITED STATES

*Introduction: S. P. ...
Sheet 1 ...
Page 12 ...
By ...*

GENEVIEVE POYNEER HENDRICKS
11

*...
and possibly wanted
...
also ...
within the ...
for ...*

THE AMERICAN RED CROSS
WASHINGTON, D. C.

PRICE $1.00

Sc

116

22218

HOW TO USE THE HANDBOOK

See page IX

Copyright 1921 by
THE AMERICAN NATIONAL RED CROSS

WABLS

The "Handbook of Social Resources of the U. S." has been compiled in response to an urgent demand. It has been prepared for the use of Red Cross workers and others who are in need of information on the health, nursing, social service, educational, recreational, and civic and community betterment resources of the country.

It is hoped that the material it includes will fulfill its purpose of aiding Red Cross Chapter workers and other readers in the task of bringing individuals and communities into touch with the agencies which can help them.

*W. FRANK PERSONS
Vice-Chairman
In Charge of Domestic Operations*

INTRODUCTION

DURING the War, the American Red Cross prepared a "Handbook of Information and Instructions for Home Service Sections" for the aid of Red Cross Chapters and Branches throughout the country which were called upon to give service to soldiers, sailors, and marines, and their families, and to supply information on subjects of special interest to these.

The work with the ex-service man and his family continues to be a responsibility of the Red Cross. The Handbook for Home Service Sections is still in regular use.

The peace-time activities of the Red Cross have brought with them need for information regarding the social resources of the country, not merely in relation to soldiers and sailors, but in a great variety of other fields as well. To meet this need, the Red Cross is issuing peace-time handbooks of information and other informative material. The present volume, a Handbook of national resources, has been prepared by Red Cross National Headquarters. Since the former war service resources Handbook is still available, the new Handbook does not attempt to include information regarding agencies whose sole purpose is to render aid to soldiers and sailors, and their dependents. The supplying of information in regard to organizations and institutions of this character is left to the section of Service Claims and Information of the Post War Services of the Red Cross which keeps up-to-date the war-time Handbook and also sends out information in other forms.

The "Handbook of Social Resources of the U. S.", however, includes material in regard to agencies for the benefit of service men or ex-service men and their families if these agencies have a peace-time program as well.

The present Handbook also does not attempt to cover activities of a temporary nature, as to which information may be better furnished by circular letters, individual correspondence, and other means.

The peace-time national Handbook does not include information in regard to agencies which are regional, State, or local in scope, and therefore likely to be of interest only to individual Division Offices or Chapters of the Red Cross.

Certain of the Divisions of the Red Cross are issuing peace-time State Handbooks of information covering the social resources of some of the States. A volume on North Carolina has already been issued. This was prepared in cooperation by the State departments, the University of North Carolina, and the Southern Division Office of the Red Cross.

There are some institutions which might possibly be termed national which, however, it has been thought best to omit from the national Handbook as being in the main regional in service. For example, schools of nursing, schools of social service, public health and sociological departments in colleges and universities, general hospitals, homes for children, and homes for the aged have been left to the Division Information Services as drawing more especially from their own States and Divisions though many of them are to some extent nation-wide in scope. Exception has been made, however, in the case of a few which render a nation-wide service of unique character such as the Federal Leprosarium, the Columbia Institution for the Deaf, and the like.

It will be understood that to obtain information in regard to social resources available in any given State, Red Cross workers will need to consult both National Headquarters Information Service material and the information material of the Division Office.

The Handbook is a digest of social resources of the U. S. and does not furnish descriptions of agencies operating abroad and having no organization in this country except to support their activities elsewhere.

No attempt has been made to include in the Handbook the great number of fraternal, mutual benefit, pension fund, and related associations, which do not render service outside their membership. Beneficiaries are familiar with their activities and will not need to be informed regarding them. Maternity insurance organizations, however, because of their relation to infant welfare, are made an exception to this rule.

Omission from the Handbook in no sense implies disapproval. In many cases, agencies giving important and valuable service are omitted because Red Cross workers and others need to make contacts with the State or regional sub-divisions or affiliated bodies and not with the national organization. To include a description of the national organization might cause workers to take the unnecessary step of writing to the national office with the result only of being referred back for the service desired to the regional or State sub-division or member or affiliated body. Some agencies also are omitted from the Handbook because the service they render is of a technical character and offered to technical experts in their field who will already be familiar with it.

Inclusion in the Handbook is not to be construed as endorsement of either purpose or methods. Should a Red Cross worker desire information regarding the standing or efficiency of any national or interstate agency engaged in social, civic, or philanthropic work, and appealing to the public for funds, inquiry should be made of the National Information Bureau, 1 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y., the work of which is described on page 210. The Bureau does not investigate local, political, or denominational groups.

Information supplementary to that in the National Handbook may be obtained by Red Cross workers from the files of National Headquarters. Information Service at National Headquarters has material, in some cases preliminary and in others very comprehensive, regarding over 1,700 agencies, of which only a part are described in the Handbook.

The space given to an agency does not necessarily bear any relation to the importance of its work. An agency having a large membership and extensive service may have a simple form of organization. An association carrying on a much smaller work, on the other hand, may be very complex.

The statements published have been compiled with the cooperation of the agencies listed. The information is current and is authoritative except in one case where an asterisk and footnote indicate that it was not possible before the book went to press to obtain the official approval of the agency for the description as finally corrected.

For the convenience of readers, the descriptions in general follow a definite order.

The headquarters address has been given for organizations maintaining a national office. Because of the shortness of time in which such information becomes out of date, the names of officers and their individual addresses have been included only in statements concerning those agencies which do not maintain a central office and which could not be located otherwise.

Endeavor has been made to include for each organization mention of its general program; its specific activities; the annual meeting, and whether it is open to the public; the names and work of special and standing committees and commissions; field work and lecture service, to whom available and on what terms; information service and clearing house work, and how this service may be secured; reference and library facilities; survey and investigational activities.

Information is supplied concerning those publications which would seem to be of value to workers in the field of health or social service. The names of individual pieces of literature of temporary character have not usually been included; instead are stated the general topics discussed and the form in which they appear, as bulletins, books, or circulars. For periodicals the title, frequency of publication, and the price to members and to the general public have been given. When the periodical is issued from an address different from that of the organization, there has been included the editorial, publication, or subscription office address to which correspondence should be sent.

Wherever possible, requirements for active membership are stated and methods of support are indicated.

Distinct departments and divisions which are conducting work of social service or health interest will usually be found described in paragraphs following the statement covering the general work of the agency. Addresses are given only for those units which are not located at the headquarters offices.

Criticisms and suggestions together with important additional matter will be gladly received by Information Service at National Headquarters of the American Red Cross.

It is a pleasure to acknowledge our indebtedness in compiling material for the Handbook to the aid given by the National Information Bureau, the Russell Sage Foundation Library, the Federal Council of Churches of Christ, the National Catholic Welfare Council, the Survey, the National Social Workers Exchange, the Foreign Language Information Service, the Department of Agriculture, and the U. S. Bureau of Education.

The labor of writing the Handbook fell to Miss Genevieve P. Hendricks, Assistant Director of this Service, to whom is due the major credit for any usefulness the volume may have. A considerable part of the work on the Index, which has also an important relation to the value of the book, was prepared by Miss Harriet E. Dart.

EMILY W. DINWIDDIE,
Director

Social Resources Information Service

HOW TO USE THE HANDBOOK OF SOCIAL RESOURCES

If the exact name of an agency is known the description can be found in its alphabetical place in the body of the text.

If the character of the work of an agency is known but not its exact title, it can be found by consulting the Subject Index, page XIII.

If the address of the headquarters of an agency is known but not its exact title nor the character of its work, it can be found under the State and city in which it is located, in the Index by Locality, page LXV.

OW TO USE THE HANDBOOK OF SOCIAL RESOURCES

See page IX

SUBJECT INDEX

In this Index the agencies are classified under headings describing their purposes or the nature of the whole or part of their work. When looking up an agency of which the name is known it is not necessary to use the Index. The agency can be found as in an encyclopedia by following the alphabetical sequence in the body of the text.

	PAGE		PAGE
Attention		Agriculture, Dairy
1 Cross, First Aid ...	29	Amer. Public Health Assn.....	49
of Industrial Accident		Certified Milk Producers' Assn.....	79
Missions.....	151	Commission on Milk Standards.....	88
Incil.....	225	Dept. of Agriculture, U. S.....	98
		Bur. of Animal Industry.....	99
Municipal Research and		Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public of for Public Service.	239	Health Service, Div. of Scientific Research.....	121
	1	Natl. Dairy Council.....	201
ernment Agencies		Natl. Milk Producers' Fed.....	217
Affiliated Agencies		Agriculture, Directory of it		Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Office of Women Voters.....	213	Farm Management and Farm Ecoomes, Aged		nomics.....	102
orsement of		Agriculture, Index
		Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Div. of on Bur.....	210	Publications.....	101
usion in Handbook		Agriculture, Training
		Amer. Missionary Assn.....	25
ission from Hand-		Amer. Soc. of Agricultural Engineers.	54
		Baron de Hirsch Fund.....	63
		Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Bur. of Experiment Stations		Animal Industry.....	99
ure, U. S., States Re-		States Relations Service.....	103
.....	103	Fedl. Bd. for Vocational Education..	127
		Jewish Agricultural and Industrial Life Assn.....	12	Aid Soc.....	154
and Fed.....	14	Julius Rosenwald Fund.....	157
abor.....	16	M. E. Church, Bd. of Home Missions
y Assn.....	25	and Church Extension.....	170
gricultural Engineers	54	Natl. Florence Crittenton Mission...	206
quity.....	55	Natl. Grange.....	207
Fund.....	63	Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Inst.	281
Big Sister Fed.....	64	United Presbyterian Church, Bd. of f Washington, Dept.		Freedmen's Missions.....	288
Research.....	77	Woman's Natl. Farm and Garden
ture, U. S.....	98	Assn.....	291
rice, U. S., Bur. of the		Y. M. C. A.....	295
	105	Alaska
erior, U. S., Office of		Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Forest
U. S.....	111	Service.....	102
armers.....	113	Dept. of Commerce, U. S., Bur. of ural and Industrial	132	Fisheries.....	105
	154	Dept. of the Interior, U. S.....	107
or Committee.....	187	Genl. Land Office.....	110
rittenton Mission...	206	Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Coast
	207	Guard.....	119
usiness League, Natl.		Home Missions Council.....	142
s' Assn.....	219	M. E. Church, Woman's Home Mis-ver and Fruit Guild..	222	sionary Soc., Alaska Bur.....	172
Council.....	224	Natl. Woman's Christian Temperance rian Church, Bd. of		Union.....	235
issions.....	288	Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.,
Farm and Garden		Bd. of Home Missions.....	250
	291	Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.,
		Woman's Bd. of Home Missions...	252
		Woman's Amer. Baptist Home Mission Soc.....	291

	PAGE		PAGE
Aliens. See Americanization; Foreign Language and Foreign National Groups, Agencies for		Natl. Committee for Constructive Immigration Legislation.....	189
Allotments, Government		Natl. Conference of Social Work....	196
See Introduction re Service Men		Natl. Council of Women.....	200
Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Home Service	31	Natl. Economic League.....	201
Post War Services, Service Claims and Information.....	38	Natl. Education Assn.....	202
Jewish Welfare Bd.....	156	Natl. Liberal Immigration League...	215
Allowances, Government		Natl. Org. for Public Health Nursing	219
See Introduction re Service Men		Natl. Reform Assn.....	224
Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Home Service	31	Natl. Security League.....	226
Post War Services, Service Claims and Information.....	38	Natl. Soc. of Children of the Amer. Revolution.....	228
Fedl. Bd. for Vocational Education..	127	Natl. Soc. of the Daughters of the Amer. Revolution.....	229
Jewish Welfare Bd.....	156	Natl. Woman's Christian Temperance Union.....	235
Ambassadors		Neighbors' League.....	239
Embassies and Legations to the U. S.	124	No. Amer. Civic League for Immigrants.....	240
American Agricultural Organizations, Directory of		Peoples of Amer. Soc.....	243
Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Office of Farm Management and Farm Economics.....	102	People's Univ.—The Temple.....	244
American Citizens Abroad, Protection of Interests of		Polish Falcons Alliance.....	246
Dept. of State, U. S., Consular Bur..	117	Polish Natl. Alliance.....	247
Americanization. See also Foreign Language and Foreign National Groups, Agencies for		Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., Bd. of Home Missions, City and Immigrant Work Dept.....	251
Allied Citizens of Amer.....	1	Service Star Legion.....	266
Amer. Baptist Home Mission Soc....	9	Study of Methods of Americanization	278
Amer. Fed. of Labor.....	16	United Soc. of Christian Endeavor...	288
Amer. Legion.....	22	U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce..	288
Amer. Library Assn.....	23	Woman's Relief Corps.....	292
Amer. Unitarian Assn.....	57	Y. M. C. A.....	295
Amer. Women's Legion.....	58	Y. W. C. A.....	298
Baron de Hirsch Fund.....	63	Animal Inspection
Council of Jewish Women.....	93	Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Bur. of Animal Industry.....	99
Czecho-Slovak Natl. Alliance.....	97	Animal Pathology. See also Pathology
Czecho-Slovak Natl. Council.....	97	Rockefeller Inst. for Medical Research.....	259
Dept. of Labor, U. S., Bur. of Immigration.....	114	Animal Protection
Bur. of Naturalization.....	114	Amer. Humane Education Soc.....	20
Foreign Language Information Service.....	135	Dept. of Commerce, U. S., Bur. of Fisheries.....	105
Genl. Fed. of Women's Clubs, Dept. of Amer. Citizenship.....	137	Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Coast Guard.....	119
Hebrew Sheltering and Immigrant Aid Soc.....	141	Natl. Parks Assh.....	221
Home Missions Council.....	142	Arbitration
Immigrant Publication Soc.....	144	Dept. of Labor, U. S.....	113
Independent Order of B'nai B'rith...	145	Natl. Industrial Conference Bd.....	209
Independent Order Free Sons of Israel	146	Army
Industrial Removal Office.....	147	See Introduction
Knights of Columbus.....	159	Amer. Legion.....	22
M. E. Church, Genl. Deaconess Bd..	171	Amer. Natl. Red Cross.....	26
M. E. Church, Woman's Home Missionary Soc.....	171	Home Service.....	31
Natl. Catholic Welfare Council.....	184	Military Relief.....	35
		Nursing Service.....	36
		Post War Services.....	38
		Amer. Women's Legion.....	58

	PAGE		PAGE
the Interior, U. S., St. Eliza- Hospital.....	112	Girls' Friendly Soc.....	139
the Treasury, U. S., Public Service.....	120	Immigrant Publication Soc.....	144 for Vocational Education..	127	Intercollegiate Vocational Guidance Assn.....	149
artmental Social Hygiene U. S.....	150	Library of Congress.....	163
elfare Bd.....	156	Natl. Catholic Welfare Council, Edu- cational Dept.....	185
A.....	295	Russell Sage Foundation, Library....	261
and Navy Nurses, Care of the Treasury, U. S., Public Service, Div. of Marine Hos- and Relief.....	120	Sulgrave Inst.....	278
		Universalist Church, Commission on Social Service.....	289
ed. of Arts.....	15	Biology
d. of Women's Clubs.....	138	Carnegie Inst. of Washington.....	76 of Congress.....	163	Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Bur. of Biological Survey.....	99
ian Inst., Natl. Gallery of	271	Life Extension Inst.....	165
al Limbs		Natl. Research Council.....	224
Crippled and Disabled Men. 147		Rockefeller Inst. for Medical Research	259
ica. See Physical Education;		Smithsonian Inst., Natl. Museum....	271
recreation		Births, Registration of. See Registration of Births and Deaths
obile Legislation		Blind
onference of Commissioners		Amer. Assn. of Workers for the Blind. 8
iform State Laws.....	194	Amer. Library Assn.....	23
uries, Red Cross		Council of Jewish Women.....	93
atl. Red Cross, Div. Offices		Eye Sight Conservation Council....	126
apters.....	43	Fedl. Bd. for Vocational Education..	127
ior Red Cross.....	33	Natl. Committee for the Prevention of Blindness.....	191
ology. See Medical and Medi-		Natl. Org. for Public Health Nursing.	219
Aid		Presbyterian Church, Bd. of Temper- ance and Moral Welfare.....	249
Jewish Farmers.....	132	Boarding and Lodging Houses
egro Business League, Natl.		Amer. Seamen's Friend Soc.....	52
Bankers' Assn.....	219	Catholic Daughters of Amer.....	77
Land		Council of Jewish Women.....	93
the Treasury, U. S., Fedl.		Polish Natl. Alliance.....	247
Loan Bd.....	119	Salvation Army.....	262
ange.....	207	Soc. for the Friendless.....	273
, Postal Savings		Volunteers of Amer.....	290
ange.....	207	Y. M. C. A.....	295
ice Dept., U. S., Div. of Post- ings.....	248	Y. W. C. A.....	298
t		Bohemian. See Czecho-Slovak aptist Home Mission Soc....	9	Boys and Girls. See also Girls' Pro- ductive and Friendly Agencies
aptist Publication Soc.....	9	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Junior Red Cross.....	33
Young People's Union.....	63	Amer. School Citizenship League....	51
ptist Convention.....	181	Amer. School Hygiene Assn.....	52
Baptist Convention.....	241	Baptist Young People's Union.....	63
s Amer. Baptist Home Mis- sion.....	291	Big Brother and Big Sister Fed.....	64
ographies. (Many agencies e bibliographies upon request. y a few are listed here.).....		Boys' Club Fed.....	66
aptist Publication Soc.....	9	Boy Scouts.....	67
ibrary Assn.....	23	Brotherhood of St. Andrew.....	69
atl. Red Cross, Junior Red		Camp Fire Girls.....	74
	33	Christ Child Soc.....	83
		Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., States Relations Service.....	109
		Epworth League.....	125

	PAGE		PAGE
Evangelical Assn.....	126	Camp Service, Army and Navy
Fed. of Jewish Farmers.....	132	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Military Re-
Genl. Fed. of Women's Clubs.....	137	lief.....	35
Girl Scouts.....	138	Camps. See also Vacations, Fresh Air
Girls' Friendly Soc.....	139	Big Brother and Big Sister Fed.....	64
Internatl. Order of the Knights of		Boys' Club Fed.....	66
King Arthur.....	153	Boy Scouts.....	67
Jewish Agricultural and Industrial		Camp Fire Girls.....	74
Aid Soc.....	154	Christ Child Soc.....	83
Junior League.....	158	Community Service.....	90
M. E. Church, Genl. Deaconess Bd... 171		Council of Jewish Women.....	93
M. E. Church, Woman's Home Mis-		Girl Scouts.....	138
sionary Soc.....	171	Internatl. Order of the Knights of
Natl. Catholic Welfare Council, Natl.		King Arthur.....	153
Council of Catholic Men.....	186	M. E. Church, Genl. Deaconess Bd... 171
Natl. League of Girls' Clubs.....	212	Natl. League of Girls' Clubs.....	212
Natl. Soc. of Children of the Amer.		Salvation Army.....	262
Revolution.....	228	Woodcraft League.....	293
Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Inst. 281		Y. M. C. A.....	295
United Daughters of the Confederacy,		Y. W. C. A.....	298
Children of the Confederacy.....	287	Cancer
United Soc. of Christian Endeavor... 288		Amer. Soc. for the Control of Cancer. 54
Woodcraft League.....	293	Natl. Org. for Public Health Nursing. 219
Y. M. C. A.....	295	Canteens. See also Cafeterias
Young Men's Hebrew and Kindred		Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Volunteer
Assns.....	297	Service.....	41
Y. W. C. A.....	298	Carnegie Foundations
Braille. See Blind		Carnegie Endowment for Internatl.
Branches, Red Cross		Peace.....	75
Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Div. Offices		Carnegie Foundation for the Advance-and Chapters.....	43	ment of Teaching.....	76
Brotherhoods. See also Boys and		Carnegie Inst. of Washington.....	76
Girls; Church and Denominational		Church Peace Union.....	85
Organizations		Study of Methods of Americanization. 278
Brotherhood of St. Andrew.....	69	Catalogue Cards
Finnish Natl. Temperance Brother-		Library of Congress.....	163
hood.....	133	Catholic
Northern Baptist Convention, Com-		Bur. of Catholic Indian Missions.... 69
mittee on Baptist Brotherhood.... 241		Catholic Daughters of Amer.....	77
World Brotherhood Fed.....	294	Catholic Hospital Assn.....	78
Bubonic Plague, Control of		Catholic Slovak Sokol.....	78
Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Bur. of		Catholic Sokol Union.....	79
Biological Survey.....	99	Christ Child Soc.....	83
Budget		First Catholic Slovak Ladies' Union.. 134
Inst. for Government Research.....	148	First Catholic Slovak Union.....	134
N. Y. Bur. of Municipal Research and		Knights of Columbus.....	159
Training School for Public Service.. 239		Natl. Catholic Welfare Council.....	184
U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce.. 288		Natl. Conference of Catholic Charities 194
Burial. See also Death Benefits		Natl. Fed. of Czech Catholics.....	203
Actors' Fund.....	1	Polish Roman Catholic Union.....	247
Amer. Women's Legion.....	58	Soc. of St. Vincent de Paul.....	274
Independent Order of B'nai B'rith... 145		Census
Jewish Welfare Bd.....	156	Council of Jewish Women.....	93
Natl. Negro Business League, Natl.		Dept. of Commerce, U. S., Bur. of the
Negro Undertakers' Assn.....	219	Census.....	105
Cafeterias		Natl. Committee for Mental Hygiene. 190
Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Exec. Secy... 28		Central Committee, Red Cross
Y. W. C. A.....	298	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Central Committee.....	26

SUBJECT INDEX

XVII

	PAGE		PAGE
man, Red Cross. See also		Natl. Fed. of Day Nurseries.....	204
Chairman, Red Cross		Natl. Health Council.....	208
Natl. Red Cross, Chairman...	27	National Tuberculosis Assn., Child
Members of Commerce		Health Crusade.....	233
er of Commerce of the U. S....	80	Negro Rural School Fund, Anna T.
Junior Chamber of Commerce...	288	Jeannes Foundation.....	238
tars, Red Cross		Playground and Recreation Assn....	245
Natl. Red Cross, Div. Offices		Progressive Education Assn.....	254
Chapters.....	43	Child Labor
ity. See Social Service		Amer. Assn. for Labor Legislation...	5
nistry		Amer. Fed of Labor.....	16
Medical Assn.....	24	Church Assn. for the Advancement of of Agriculture, U. S., Bur. of		the Interests of Labor.....	84
nistry.....	99	Council of Jewish Women.....	93 of the Treasury, U. S., Bur. of		Dept. of Labor, U. S., Children's Bur.	115
nal Revenue, Div. of Technol-		Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Bur. of
.....	118	Internal Revenue, Child Labor Tax
tension Inst.....	165	Div.....	118
Research Council.....	224	Genl. Fed. of Women's Clubs.....	137
eller Foundation.....	258	Natl. Child Labor Committee.....	187
eller Inst. for Medical Research	259	Natl. Conference of Commissioners
l Care. See Child Welfare; Day		on Uniform State Laws.....	194
nseries		Natl. Congress of Mothers and Par-l Helping. See Child Welfare		ent-Teachers Assns.....	197
l Hygiene. See also Hygiene		Natl. Consumers' League.....	198
Child Hygiene Assn.....	10	Natl. League of Women Voters....	213
Home Economics Assn.....	19	Child Welfare. See also Child Hy-
Natl. Red Cross		giene; Mothers, Care of
th Service.....	30	Amer. Baptist Home Mission Soc....	9
ie Service.....	31	Amer. Child Hygiene Assn.....	10
uction in Home Hygiene and		Amer. Home Economics Assn.....	19
re of the Sick.....	32	Amer. Natl. Red Cross or Red Cross.....	33	Health Service.....	30
ing Service.....	36	Home Service.....	31
tion Service.....	37	Junior Red Cross.....	33
ic Health Nursing Service....	41	Nutrition Service.....	37
Medical Assn.....	24	Public Health Nursing Service....	41
Pediatric Soc.....	47	Amer. Unitarian Assn.....	57
School Hygiene Assn.....	52	Big Brother and Big Sister Fed....	64
of Women in Public Health...	62	Child Health Org.....	81
outs.....	67	Child Welfare League.....	82
Fire Girls.....	74	Christ Child Soc.....	83
Health Org.....	81	Circle for Negro Relief.....	86
of Agriculture, U. S., States Re-		Commonwealth Fund.....	89
lance Service.....	103	Conference of State and Provincial of the Interior, U. S., Bur. of		Health Authorities.....	91
cation.....	108	Council of Jewish Women.....	93
of Labor, U. S., Children's Bur.	115	Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., States Reof the Treasury, U. S., Public		lations Service.....	103
th Service.....	120	Dept. of Labor, U. S., Children's Bur.	115
outs.....	138	Genl. Fed. of Women's Clubs.....	137
dist Child Welfare Soc.....	168	Internatl. Order of the King's Daugh-
Child Health Council.....	186	ters and Sons.....	153
Child Labor Committee.....	187	Methodist Child Welfare Soc.....	168
Child Welfare Assn.....	188	M. E. Church, Genl. Deaconess Bd..	171
Conference of Social Work....	196	M. E. Church, Woman's Home Mis-
Congress of Mothers and Par-		sionary Soc.....	171
Teachers Assns.....	197	Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.,
Education Assn.....	202	Welfare Div.....	175

	PAGE		PAGE
Natl. Catholic Welfare Council, Social Action Dept.....	186	Amer. Missionary Assn.....	25
Natl. Child Labor Committee.....	187	Amer. Protestant Hospital Assn.....	49
Natl. Child Welfare Assn.....	188	Amer. Unitarian Assn.....	57
Natl. Conference of Social Work....	196	Baptist Young People's Union.....	63
Natl. Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers Assn.....	197	Brotherhood of St. Andrew.....	69
Natl. Council of Women.....	200	Bur. of Catholic Indian Missions....	69
Natl. League of Compulsory Education Officials.....	211	Catholic Daughters of Amer.....	77
Natl. League of Women Voters, Child Welfare Committee.....	214	Catholic Hospital Assn.....	78
Natl. Org. for Public Health Nursing.	219	Catholic Slovak Sokol.....	78
Natl. Woman's Christian Temperance Union.....	235	Catholic Sokol Union.....	79
Norwegian Lutheran Church.....	242	Christ Child Soc.....	83
Presbyterian Church, Bd. of Temperance and Moral Welfare.....	249	Christian Church, Bur. of Social Service.....	84
Russell Sage Foundation, Dept. of Child Helping.....	260	Church Assn. for the Advancement of the Interests of Labor.....	84
Survey Associates.....	279	Church League for Industrial Democracy.....	85
Woman's Relief Corps.....	292	Church Peace Union.....	85
Child Welfare Units		Church Temperance Soc.....	86
Amer. Natl. Red Cross		Congregational Church, Social Service Commission.....	92
Foreign Commissions.....	28	Daughters of the King.....	98
Nursing Service.....	36	Dept. of Commerce, U. S., Bur. of the Census.....	105
Children, Undernourished. See also Child Hygiene		Epworth League.....	125
Amer. Friends Service Committee... 18		Evangelical Assn.....	126
Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Nutrition Service.....	37	Evangelical Lutheran Augustana Synod.....	126
Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., States Relations Service.....	103	Fedl. Council of the Churches of Christ.....	130
Children's Codes		Finnish Evangelical Lutheran Church	133
Dept. of Labor, U. S., Children's Bur. 115		Finnish Evangelical Lutheran Natl. Church.....	133
Natl. Child Labor Committee.....	187	Finnish Friends Temperance Assn... 133
Children's Courts. See Juvenile Courts		First Catholic Slovak Ladies' Union.. 134
Chinese in the U. S.		First Catholic Slovak Union.....	134
Amer. Missionary Assn.....	25	Five Years Meeting of Friends, Bd. of Home Missions.....	135
Dept. of Labor, U. S., Bur. of Immigration.....	114	Girls' Friendly Soc.....	139
M. E. Church, Woman's Home Missionary Soc., Chinese Bur.....	172	Home Missions Council.....	142
Y. M. C. A.....	295	Internatl. Order of the King's Daughters and Sons.....	153
Christian Church. See also Disciples of Christ		Knights of Columbus.....	159
Christian Church, Bur. of Social Service.....	84	Lord's Day Alliance.....	167
Church and Denominational Organizations. (For organizations connected with the several churches, see denominational headings.)		Methodist Child Welfare Soc.....	168
Amer. Baptist Home Mission Soc.... 9		M. E. Church, Bd. of Education for Negroes.....	169
Amer. Baptist Publication Soc..... 9		M. E. Church, Bd. of Home Missions and Church Extension.....	170
Amer. Friends Service Committee... 18		M. E. Church, Bd. of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals.... 170
		M. E. Church, Genl. Deaconess Bd.. 171
		M. E. Church, Woman's Home Missionary Soc.....	171
		M. E. Church, South, Commission on Temperance and Social Service.... 175
		Methodist Fed. for Social Service.... 175
		Missionary Education Movement.... 176
		Natl. Baptist Convention.....	181

	PAGE		PAGE
olic Welfare Council.....	184	M. E. Church, Bd. of Home Missions
erence of Catholic Charities	194	and Church Extension.....	170
of Czech Catholics.....	203	M. E. Church, Woman's Home Mis-of Temple Sisterhoods....	205	sionary Soc.....	171
eran Council.....	215	Missionary Education Movement....	176
nan's Relief Soc.....	236	Natl. Baptist Convention.....	181
Baptist Convention.....	241	Natl. Indian Assn.....	209
Lutheran Church.....	242	Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.,
nan Catholic Union.....	247	Bd. of Home Missions.....	250 an Church, Bd. of Temper-		Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., New
d Moral Welfare.....	249	Era Movement.....	251
an Church, U. S. A., Bd. of		Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.,
fissions.....	250	Woman's Bd. of Home Missions....	252
an Church, U. S. A., New		Presbyterian Church in the U. S.
vement.....	251	(South), Exec. Committee of Home
an Church, U. S. A., Wo-		Missions.....	252
d. of Home Missions.....	252	Reformed Church in Amer., Bd. of an Church in the U. S.		Domestic Missions.....	256
, Exec. Committee of Home		Seamen's Church Inst.....	265
s.....	252	United Christian Missionary Soc....	283
: Episcopal Church in the		United Lutheran Church.....	287
, Dept. of Christian Social		United Presbyterian Church, Bd. of
.....	254	Freedmen's Missions.....	288
Church in Amer, Bd. of		Woman's Amer. Baptist Home Mis-ic Missions.....	256	sion Soc.....	291
Church in the U. S., Com-		Citizenship. See Civics and Citizen- on Social Service and Rural		ship
.....	257	City's Manager Plan. See also
Education Assn.....	257	Civics and Citizenship
Church Inst.....	265	Natl. Short Ballot Org.....	227
ay Adventists, Medical Mis-		City Planning. See Civic, City Plan-
Dept.....	267	ning
testant Union.....	270	Civic, City Planning
Vincent de Paul.....	274	Amer. Civic Assn.....	11
ristian Missionary Soc....	283	Amer. Fed. of Arts.....	15 theran Church.....	287	Amer. Soc. for Municipal Improve-esbyterian Church, Bd. of		ments.....	55
en's Missions.....	288	Chamber of Commerce of the U. S....	80
z. of Christian Endeavor... 288		Natl. Conference on City Planning.	194 st Church, Commission on		Civics and Citizenship. See also ervice.....	289	Americanisation
Amer. Baptist Home Mis-		Allied Citizens of Amer.....	1
.....	291	Amer. Civic Assn.....	11
iance for Internatl. Friend-		Amer. Council on Education.....	11
.....	293	Amer. Legion.....	22
therhood Fed.....	294	Amer. Patriotic League.....	46
Home Missions		Amer. School Citizenship League....	51
ptist Home Mission Soc....	9	Amer. Soc. for Municipal Improvesionary Assn.....	25	ments.....	55
atholic Indian Missions....	69	Boy Scouts.....	67
al Assn.....	126	Catholic Daughters of Amer.....	77
ncil of the Churches of		Chamber of Commerce of the U. S... 80
.....	130	Community Service.....	90
vangelical Lutheran Church		Dept. of Labor, U. S., Bur. of Nat-
s Meeting of Friends, Bd. of	133	uralization.....	114
fissions.....	135	Genl. Fed. of Women's Clubs, Dept.
sions Council.....	142	of Amer. Citizenship.....	137
		Immigrant Publication Soc.....	144
		Independent Order Free Sons of Israel	146

	PAGE		PAGE
Intercollegiate Community Service Assn.....	149	Clinics, Hygiene or General
Junior League.....	158	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Health Service	30
Natl. Assn. of Civic Secretaries.....	177	Nursing Service.....	36
Natl. Assn. of Colored Women.....	178	Council of Jewish Women.....	93
Natl. Catholic Welfare Council, Social Action Dept.....	186	Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public Health Service, Div. of Venereal Diseases.....	122
Natl. Committee for Constructive Immigration Legislation.....	189	Internatl. Order of the King's Daughters and Sons.....	153
Natl. Committee for Teaching Citizenship.....	192	Natl. Committee for Mental Hygiene	190
Natl. Community Bd.....	193	Natl. Medical Assn.....	216
Natl. Council of Women.....	200	Natl. Woman's Relief Soc.....	236
Natl. Fed. of College Women.....	203	Rockefeller Inst. for Medical Research	259
Natl. Indian Assn.....	209	Salvation Army.....	262
Natl. League of Women Voters.....	213	Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Inst	281
Natl. Municipal League.....	217	Clipping Bureaus. See News Service
Natl. Public Welfare League.....	223	Clothing
Natl. Security League.....	226	Amer. Friends Service Committee...	18
Natl. Short Ballot Org.....	227	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Junior Red Cross.....	33
Natl. Woman's Christian Temperance Union.....	235	Preparedness for Disaster Relief...	40
Natl. Woman's Relief Soc.....	236	Volunteer Service.....	41
Natl. Women's Trade Union League.....	237	Amer. Posture League.....	48
Negro Natl. Educational Congress...	238	Blue Anchor Soc.....	65
Neighbors' League.....	239	Christ Child Soc.....	83
N. Y. Bur. of Municipal Research and Training School for Public Service.....	239	Czecho-Slovak Natl. Alliance.....	97
No. Amer. Civic League for Immigrants.....	240	Needlework Guild.....	237
People's Univ.—The Temple.....	244	Salvation Army.....	262
Polish Women's Alliance.....	247	Soc. for the Friendless.....	273
Service Star Legion.....	266	Soc. of St. Vincent de Paul.....	274
Soc. of Amer. Indians.....	272	Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Inst., Dept. of Girls' Industries.....	281
Soc. for Visual Education.....	275	Clubs. See also Boys and Girls; Church and Denominational Organizations; Foreign Language and Foreign National Groups, Agencies for; Fraternal
Survey Associates.....	279	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Health Service.....	30
U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce..	288	Amer. Red Mogen David.....	50
Civil Service		Boys' Club Fed.....	66
Amer. Legion.....	22	Brotherhood of St. Andrew.....	69
Amer. Library Assn.....	23	Carnegie Endowment for Internatl. Peace.....	75
Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Bur. of Pensions.....	109	Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., States Relations Service.....	103
Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public Health Service, Div. of Marine Hospitals and Relief.....	120	Fed. of Jewish Farmers.....	132
Natl. Civil Service Reform League...	189	Genl. Fed. of Women's Clubs.....	137
Natl. Municipal League.....	217	Girl Scouts.....	138
Civilian Relief. See Home Service, Red Cross		Jewish Agricultural and Industrial Aid Soc.....	154
Claims. See Service Claims and Information		Knights of Lithuania.....	160
Clinics, Dental		Natl. Economic League.....	201
Council of Jewish Women.....	93	Natl. League of Girls' Clubs.....	212
Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., Bd. of Home Missions, Spanish-Speaking Work Dept.....	251	Sons of Norway.....	277
		Woodcraft League.....	293
		Y. M. C. A.....	295
		Y. W. C. A.....	298

	PAGE		PAGE
Coast and Geodetic Survey		Natl. Community Center Assn.....	193
Dept. of Commerce, U. S., Coast and		Natl. Fed. of Settlements.....	205
Geodetic Survey.....	107	Presbyterian Church, Bd. of Temper-
Coast Guard		ance and Moral Welfare.....	249
Blue Anchor Soc.....	65	Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., Wo-
Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Coast		man's Bd. of Home Missions.....	252
Guard.....	119	Salvation Army.....	262
Public Health Service, Div. of Ma-		United Christian Missionary Soc....	283
rine Hospitals and Relief.....	120	Y. M. C. A.....	295
Coast Pilots		Young Men's Hebrew and Kindred
Dept. of Commerce, U. S., Coast and		Assns.....	297
Geodetic Survey.....	107	Y. W. C. A.....	298
College Organizations. See also		Community Welfare. See also Social
Education, Universities and Col-		Service
leges		Amer. Assn. for Community Org....	3
Assn. of Colleges for Negro Youth...	59	Amer. Assn. for Organizing Family
Assn. of Collegiate Alumnae.....	59	Social Work.....	5
Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., States Re-		Amer. Baptist Home Mission Soc....	9
lations Service.....	103	Amer. Civic Assn.....	11
Intercollegiate Community Service		Amer. Country Life Assn.....	12
Assn.....	149	Amer. Home Economics Assn.....	19
Intercollegiate Vocational Guidance		Amer. Missionary Assn.....	25
Assn.....	149	Amer. Natl. Red Cross
Natl. Fed. of College Women.....	203	Health Service.....	30
University Commission on Southern		Home Service.....	31
Race Questions.....	289	Junior Red Cross.....	33
Y. M. C. A.....	295	Preparedness for Disaster Relief...	40
Y. W. C. A.....	298	Public Health Nursing Service....	41
Colored Race. See Negro		Amer. Unitarian Assn.....	57
Commerce. See also Economics		Baptist Young People's Union.....	63
Chamber of Commerce of the U. S....	80	Bohemian-Slavonic Benevolent Socs.	66
Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Weather		Boy Scouts.....	67
Bur.....	104	Brotherhood of St. Andrew.....	69
Dept. of Commerce, U. S.....	104	Camp Fire Girls.....	74
Natl. Conference of Commissioners on		Catholic Slovak Sokol.....	78
Uniform State Laws.....	194	Chamber of Commerce of the U. S....	80
U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce..	288	Christian Church, Bur. of Soc. Service	84
Commerce, Foreign		Community Motion Picture Bur....	89
Chamber of Commerce of the U. S.,		Community Service.....	90
Dept. of Foreign Commerce.....	80	Congregational Church, Social Service
Dept. of State, U. S., Consular Bur...	117	Commission.....	92
Community Centers		Council of Jewish Women.....	93
Amer. Civic Assn.....	11	Czecho-Slavonian Fraternal Benefit
Amer. Missionary Assn.....	25	Union.....	96
Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Health Ser-		Czecho-Slovak Natl. Alliance.....	97
vice.....	30	Czecho-Slovak Natl. Council.....	97
Christ Child Soc.....	83	Fedl. Council of the Churches of
Council of Jewish Women.....	93	Christ.....	130
Finnish Evangelical Lutheran Church	133	First Catholic Slovak Union.....	134
Genl. Fed. of Women's Clubs.....	137	Girl Scouts.....	138
Intercollegiate Community Service		Independent Order Free Sons of Israel	146
Assn.....	149	Intercollegiate Community Service
Jewish Welfare Bd.....	156	Assn.....	149
Knights of Columbus.....	159	Junior League.....	158
M. E. Church, Genl. Deaconess Bd..	171	Knights of Columbus.....	159
M. E. Church, Woman's Home Mis-		M. E. Church, Bd. of Home Missions
sionary Soc.....	171	and Church Extension.....	170
Natl. Catholic Welfare Council.....	184	M. E. Church, Woman's Home Mis-
Natl. Community Bd.....	193	sionary Soc.....	171

	PAGE		PAGE
Natl. Catholic Welfare Council.....	184	Conciliation
Natl. Community Bd.....	193	Dept. of Labor, U. S., Commissioner
Natl. Conference of Jewish Social		on Conciliation.....	115
Service.....	195	Confederate
Natl. Conference of Social Work....	196	Sons of Confederate Veterans.....	276
Natl. Congress of Mothers and Par-		United Daughters of the Confederacy	286
ent-Teachers Assns.....	197	Congregational
Natl. Education Assn.....	202	Amer. Missionary Assn.....	25
Natl. Grange.....	207	Congregational Church, Social Ser-
Natl. Org. for Public Health Nursing	219	vice Commission.....	92
Natl. Public Welfare League.....	223	Congressional Directory
Natl. Slovak Soc.....	227	Government Printing Office, U. S....	140
Natl. Urban League.....	234	Conservation of Human Life. See
Natl. Woman's Relief Soc.....	236	also Accident Prevention; Child
Neighbors' League.....	239	Hygiene; Child Welfare; Hygiene;
Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.,		Medical and Medical Aid
Bd. of Home Missions, Church and		Amer. Natl. Red Cross.....	26
Country Life Work Dept.....	250	Life Extension Inst.....	165
Reformed Church in the U. S., Com-		Natl. Safety Council.....	225
mission on Social Service and Rural		Rockefeller Foundation.....	258
Work.....	257	Rockefeller Inst. for Medical Research	259
Sisterly Benevolent Union.....	268	Safety Inst. of Amer.....	261
Slovak Gymnastic Union.....	269	Conservation of Natural Resources
Slovak League.....	270	Amer. Forestry Assn.....	18
Soc. of the Taborites.....	275	Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Forest
Sokol Gymnastic Org.....	276	Service.....	102
Sons of Norway.....	277	Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Natl.
Study of Methods of Americanization	278	Park Service.....	111
Survey Associates.....	279	Genl. Fed. of Women's Clubs.....	137
Union of Czech Women.....	283	Natl. Parks Assn.....	221
United Christian Missionary Soc....	283	Constitutional Government. See
United Czecho-Slovak Legion.....	286	also Civics and Citizenship
United Soc. of Christian Endeavor...	288	Natl. Assn. for Constitutional Gov-
U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce.	288	ernment.....	178
Western Czech Fraternal Union.....	290	Consular Service, U. S.
Y. M. C. A.....	295	Dept. of State, U. S., Consular Bur..	117
Y. W. C. A.....	298	Consular Service, U. S., Directory
Zivena, Benefit Soc. of Slovak Chris-		of tian Women.....	299	Government Printing Office, U. S....	140
Compensation, Government. See		Contract Labor Law
also Workmen's Compensation and		Dept. of Labor, U. S., Bur. of Immi-consult "Amer. Red Cross Hand-		gration.....	114 book of Information and Instruc-		Natl. Liberal Immigration League...	215
tions for Home Service Sections"		Cooperation
(A. R. C. 207).		Amer. Farm Bur. Fed.....	14
Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Home Ser-		Amer. Soc. of Equity.....	55
vice.....	31	Church Assn. for the Advancement of Post War Services, Service Claims		the Interests of Labor.....	84
and Information.....	38	Cooperative League.....	92
Employees' Compensation Commis-		Fed. of Jewish Farmers.....	132
sion, U. S.	124	Natl. Milk Producers' Fed.....	217
Fedl. Bd. for Vocational Education..	127	Cooperative Credit Unions
Jewish Welfare Bd.....	156	Fed. of Jewish Farmers.....	132
Compensation, Teachers'		Copyright
Natl. Education Assn.....	202	Library of Congress, Copyright Office	163
Comptroller, Red Cross		Corporation Laws
Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Comptroller.	27	Natl. Conference of Commissioners on Compulsory Education. See Educa-		Uniform State Laws.....	194
tion, Compulsory

PAGE	PAGE
of Public Officials of and Correction..... 7	Credit Unions. See Cooperative Credit Unions of Criminal Law and y..... 21	Criminal. See Correction
Assn..... 48	Cripples. See Disabled and Big Sister Fed..... 64	Crop Production. See also Agric- ulture mercial Economics..... 70	Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Bur. of Plant Industry..... 101
ice, U. S.	Czecho-Slovaks in the U. S.
chief of Bur. of Investiga- 113	Bohemian-Slavonian Union..... 65
isons..... 113	Bohemian-Slavonic Benevolent Socs.. 66
Women's Clubs..... 138	Catholic Slovak Sokol..... 78
Order of B'nai B'rith.. 145	Catholic Sokol Union..... 79
ttee for Mental Hygiene. 190	Council of Higher Education..... 93
nittee on Prisons and or..... 192	Czecho-Slavonian Fraternal Benefit Union..... 96
ence of Social Work... 196	Czecho-Slovak Natl. Alliance..... 97
ce Crittenton Mission... 206	Czecho-Slovak Natl. Council..... 97
-Hand Soc..... 214	First Catholic Slovak Ladies Union... 134
Immigration League... 215	First Catholic Slovak Union..... 134
ion Assn..... 223	Foreign Language Information Ser- vice..... 135
s Fund..... 244	Natl. Fed. of Czech Catholics..... 203
Church, Bd. of Temper- moral Welfare..... 249	Natl. Slovak Soc..... 227
my..... 262	Natl. Slovak Union..... 227
Friendless..... 273	Sisterly Benevolent Union..... 268
incient de Paul..... 274	Slovak Gymnastic Union..... 269
f Amer..... 290	Slovak League..... 270
ference with Foreign Chil-	Slovak Protestant Union..... 270
Red Cross, Junior Red	Soc. of the Taborites..... 275
..... 33	Sokol Gymnastic Org..... 276
Red Cross	Union of Czech Women..... 283
Red Cross, Counselor... 27	United Czecho-Slovak Legion..... 286
gricultural Agencies	Western Czech Fraternal Union... 290
Bur. Fed..... 14	Zivena, Benefit Soc. of Slovak Chris- tian Women..... 299 iculture, U. S., States Re- vice..... 103	Danes in the U. S.
overnment Reform	Foreign Language Information Ser- vice..... 135
Ballot Org..... 227	Day Nurseries me Demonstration. See	Christ Child Soc..... 83
emonstration Agents	Internatl. Order of the King's Daugh- ters and Sons..... 153
aining Schools	Knights of Columbus..... 159
tion Bd..... 136	M. E. Church, Woman's Home Mis- sionary Soc..... 171
er Fund..... 157	Natl. Fed. of Day Nurseries..... 204
l School Fund, Anna T.	Salvation Army..... 262
oundation..... 238	Volunteers of Amer..... 290
See also Correction; Do- relations Courts; Juvenile	Deaconesses ice, U. S..... 113	Evangelical Assn..... 126
ence of Commissioners on	Evangelical Lutheran Augustana Synod..... 126
tate Laws..... 194	M. E. Church, Genl. Deaconess Bd.. 171
ion Assn..... 223	M. E. Church, Woman's Home Mis- sionary Soc..... 171
ituralization	Norwegian Lutheran Church..... 242 or, U. S., Bur. of Natu- 114	Deaf and Deafened
a. See Agriculture, Dairy	Amer. Assn. for the Hard of Hearing. 3

	PAGE		PAGE
Amer. Assn. to Promote the Teaching of Speech to the Deaf.....	6	Methodist Child Welfare Soc.....	168
Columbia Inst. for the Deaf.....	87	Natl. Catholic Welfare Council, Social Action Dept.....	186
Gallaudet College.....	87	Natl. Child Labor Committee.....	187
Kendall School.....	87	Natl. Committee for Mental Hygiene	190
Council of Jewish Women.....	93	Natl. Conference of Social Work....	196
Fedl. Bd. for Vocational Education..	127	Natl. Fed. of Temple Sisterhoods....	205
Natl. Assn. of the Deaf.....	179	Natl. Florence Crittenton Mission...	206
Natl. Soc. for the Study and Correction of Speech Disorders.....	231	Natl. League of Women Voters.....	213
N. Y. League for the Hard of Hearing	240	Natl. Probation Assn.....	223
Presbyterian Church, Bd. of Temperance and Moral Welfare.....	249	Presbyterian Church, Bd. of Temperance and Moral Welfare.....	249
Soc. of Progressive Oral Advocates...	274	Russell Sage Foundation.....	259
Death Benefits. See also Insurance, Life		Salvation Army.....	262
See Introduction		Universalist Church, Commission on Social Service.....	289
Bohemian-Slavonian Union.....	65	Dependent, Defective, and Delinquent Classes, State Institutions for, Directory of
Bohemian-Slavonic Benevolent Soc..	66	Dept. of Commerce, U.S., Bur. of the Census.....	105
Catholic Slovak Sokol.....	78	Desertion, Family
Czecho-Slavonian Fraternal Benefit Union.....	96	Natl. Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws.....	194
First Catholic Slovak Ladies Union...	134	Natl. Desertion Bur.....	201
First Catholic Slovak Union.....	134	Salvation Army.....	262
Knights of Columbus.....	159	Dietetics. See Food
Ladies of the Maccabees.....	162	Diplomatic Service, Directory of Natl. Slovak Soc.....	227	Embassies and Legations to the U. S.	124
Natl. Slovak Union.....	227	Government Printing Office, U. S....	140
Polish Natl. Alliance.....	247	Directory of Catholic Education
Polish Women's Alliance.....	247	Natl. Catholic Welfare Council, Educational Dept.....	185
Sisterly Benevolent Union.....	268	Directory of Social Agencies
Slovak Gymnastic Union.....	269	See Introduction
Slovak Protestant Union.....	270	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Social Resources Information Service.....	32
Soc. of the Taborites.....	275	Natl. Information Bur.....	210
Sokol Gymnastic Org.....	276	Survey Associates.....	279
Sons of Norway.....	277	Disabled
Union of Czech Women.....	283	See Introduction
United Christian Missionary Soc....	283	Amer. Legion.....	22
Western Czech Fraternal Union.....	290	Amer. Natl. Red Cross.....	26
Zivena, Benefit Soc. of Slovak Christian Women.....	299	Home Service.....	31
Deaths, Registration of. See Registration of Births and Deaths.		Post War Services.....	38
Delinquent and Defective. See also Mental Hygiene		Amer. Women's Legion.....	58
Amer. Assn. for the Study of the Feeble-Minded.....	8	Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public Health Service.....	120
Amer. Prison Assn.....	48	Fedl. Bd. for Vocational Education..	127
Amer. Social Hygiene Assn.....	52	Inst. for Crippled and Disabled Men.	147
Big Brother and Big Sister Fed.....	64	Natl. Soc. for the Promotion of Occupational Therapy.....	230
Dept. of Commerce, U. S., Bur. of the Census.....	105	Sailors' Snug Harbor.....	261
Dept. of Labor, U. S., Children's Bur.	115	Disaster Relief
Genl. Fed. of Women's Clubs, Dept. of Public Welfare, Div. on Industrial and Social Conditions.....	138	Amer. Natl. Red Cross.....	26
Independent Order of B'nai B'rith..	145	Military Relief.....	35
Interdepartmental Social Hygiene Bd., U. S.....	150	Nursing Service.....	36
		Preparedness for Disaster Relief...	40
		Volunteer Service.....	41

	PAGE		PAGE
loc.....	65	Natl. Conference of Social Work....	196
Treasury, U. S., Coast		Natl. Consumers' League.....	198
er of the King's Daugh-	119	Natl. Economic League.....	201
as.....	153	Natl. Industrial Conference Bd.....	209
lumbus.....	159	Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.,
Life Insurance Co.,		Bd. of Home Missions.....	250
.....	175	Soc. for Visual Education.....	275
y, Emergency Dept....	264	Y. M. C. A.....	295
Christ		Y. W. C. A.....	298
ian Missionary Soc....	283	Education. See also Blind; Deaf; ee Hygiene		Hygiene; Physical Education and ed Cross		headings under Education
m		Amer. Baptist Home Mission Soc....	9
Red Cross, Div. Offices		Amer. Council on Education.....	11
rs.....	43	Amer. Country Life Assn.....	12
ee Marriage and Divorce		Amer. Library Assn.....	23
		Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Junior Red
		Cross.....	33
Index of Congressional		Amer. School Citizenship League....	51
Printing Office, U. S....	140	Bohemian-Slavonian Union.....	65
Index of Public		Bohemian-Slavonic Benevolent Soc.	66
Printing Office, U. S....	140	Bur. of Catholic Indian Missions....	69
State, Monthly List of		Bur. of Commercial Economics.....	70
gress, Document Div.	164	Bur. of Vocational Information.....	73
perations, Red Cross		Catholic Slovak Sokol.....	78
Red Cross, Vice-Chair-		Columbia Institution for the Deaf	87
rge of Domestic Opera-		Gallaudet College.....	87
.....	28	Kendall School.....	87
relations Courts. See		Commonwealth Fund.....	89
ts; Juvenile Courts		Community Motion Picture Bur....	89
on Assn.....	223	Cooperative League.....	92
service.....	90	Council of Higher Education.....	93
.....	298	Council of Jewish Women.....	93
l Assn.....	24	Czecho-Slavonian Fraternal Benefit
Health Assn.....	49	Union.....	96
f State and Provincial		Czecho-Slovak Natl. Alliance.....	97 authorities.....	91	Czecho-Slovak Natl. Council.....	97 culture, U. S., Bur. of		Dept. of Agriculture, States Relations
Treasury, U. S., Bur. of	99	Service.....	103 venue.....	118	Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Bur. of ance of Commissioners on		Education.....	108
ate Laws.....	194	Office of Indian Affairs.....	111
Church, Bd. of Temper-		Finnish Natl. Temperance Brother-oral Welfare.....	249	hood.....	133
ny, Free Drug Dispen-		Genl. Education Bd.....	136
.....	262	Genl. Fed. of Women's Clubs, Dept.
o U. S.		of Applied Education.....	137
uage Information Ser-		Jewish Publication Soc.....	155
.....	135	Junior League.....	158
See also Home Eco-		Knights of Columbus.....	159
nic Assn.....	13	Knights of Kaleva.....	160
ercial Economics.....	70	Knights of Lithuania.....	160
lowment for Internatl.		Ladies of Kaleva.....	161
.....	75	Library of Congress.....	163
Economic Research....	184	Lithuanian Patriots.....	167
		M. E. Church, Bd. of Home Missions and Church Extension.....	170
		M. E. Church, Bd. of Temperance,
		Prohibition and Public Morals....	170

	PAGE		PAGE
M. E. Church, Genl. Deaconess Bd...	171	United Czecho-Slovak Legion.....	286
Missionary Education Movement....	176	United Daughters of the Confederacy	286
Natl. Baptist Convention.....	181	United Presbyterian Church, Bd. of Natl. Catholic Welfare Council, Edu-		Freedmen's Mission.....	288
cational Dept.....	185	Western Czech Fraternal Union.....	290
Natl. Child Labor Committee.....	187	Young Men's Hebrew and Kindred
Natl. Committee for Constructive		Assns.....	295
Immigration Legislation.....	189	Zivena, Benefit Soc. of Slovak Chris-
Natl. Congress of Mothers and Par-		tian Women.....	299
ent-Teachers Assns.....	197	Education, Agriculture. See Agri-
Natl. Council of Women.....	200	culture, Training
Natl. Economic League.....	201	Education, Compulsory
Natl. Education Assn.....	202	Amer. Assn. of Workers for the Blind	8
Natl. Fed. of College Women.....	203	Amer. Fed. of Labor.....	16
Natl. Fed. of Temple Sisterhoods....	205	Natl. Child Labor Committee.....	187
Natl. Housing Assn.....	208	Natl. League of Compulsory Educa-
Natl. Indian Assn.....	209	tion Officials.....	211
Natl. Kindergarten Assn.....	211	Natl. League of Women Voters.....	213
Natl. League of Compulsory Educa-		Education, Foundations
tion Officials.....	211	Amer. Scandinavian Foundation....	50
Natl. League of Girls' Clubs.....	212	Baron de Hirsch Fund.....	63
Natl. League of Women Voters.....	213	Carnegie Endowment for Internatl.
Natl. Malaria Committee.....	216	Peace.....	75
Natl. Probation Assn.....	223	Carnegie Foundation for the Ad-
Natl. Research Council.....	224	vancement of Teaching.....	76
Natl. Security League.....	226	Genl. Education Bd.....	136
Natl. Slovak Soc.....	227	Isabel Hampton Robb Memorial
Natl. Soc. of the Daughters of the		Fund.....	154
Amer. Revolution.....	229	John F. Slater Fund.....	157
Natl. Soc. for Vocational Education..	231	Julius Rosenwald Fund.....	157
Natl. Woman's Relief Soc.....	236	Negro Rural School Fund, Anna T.
Negro Natl. Educational Congress...	238	Jeannes Foundation.....	238
Negro Rural School Fund, Anna T.		N. Y. Foundation.....	240
Jeannes Foundation.....	238	Phelps Stokes Fund.....	244
Neighbors' League.....	239	Presser Foundation.....	252
N. Y. Bur. of Municipal Research		Rockefeller Foundation.....	258
and Training School for Public Ser-		Russell Sage Foundation.....	259
vice.....	239	World Peace Foundation.....	294
Phelps Stokes Fund.....	244	Education, Industrial. See Voca-
Polish Falcons Alliance.....	246	tional Training and Vocational
Polish Natl. Alliance.....	247	Guidance
Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., New		Education, Kindergarten. See Kin-
Era Movement.....	251	dergarten
Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.,		Education, Negro
Woman's Bd. of Home Missions...	252	Amer. Missionary Assn.....	25
Presser Foundation.....	252	Assn. of Colleges for Negro Youth...	59
Progressive Education Assn.....	254	Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Howard
Rockefeller Foundation.....	258	Univ.....	111
Russell Sage Foundation, Dept. of		Five Years Meeting of Friends, Bd.
Education.....	260	of Home Missions.....	135
Sisterly Benevolent Union.....	268	Genl. Education Bd.....	136
Slovak Gymnastic Union.....	269	John F. Slater Fund.....	157
Smithsonian Inst.....	271	Julius Rosenwald Fund.....	157
Soc. of the Taborites.....	275	M. E. Church, Bd. of Education for
Soc. for Visual Education.....	275	Negroes.....	169
Sons of Norway.....	277	Natl. Assn. for the Advancement of
Study of Methods of Americanization	278	Colored People.....	177
Union of Czech Women.....	283	Natl. Assn. of Teachers in Colored
United Christian Missionary Soc....	283	Schools.....	180

	PAGE		PAGE
Natl. Baptist Convention.....	181	Amer. Assn. of Workers for the Blind..	8
Negro Natl. Educational Congress...	238	Amer. Dietetic Assn.....	13
Negro Rural School Fund, Anna T. Jeannes Foundation.....	238	Amer. Fed. of Arts.....	15
Phelps Stokes Fund.....	244	Amer. Gymnastic Union.....	19
Reformed Church in Amer., Bd. of Domestic Missions.....	256	Amer. Home Economics Assn.....	19
Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Inst.	281	Amer. Medical Assn.....	24
United Presbyterian Church, Bd. of Freedmen's Missions.....	288	Amer. Missionary Assn.....	25
Univ. Commission on Southern Race Questions.....	289	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Educational Service.....	42
Education, Nurses'. See also Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick		First Aid.....	29
See Introduction		Health Service.....	30
Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Nursing Service.....	36	Instruction in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick.....	32
Amer. Nurses' Assn.....	45	Nursing Service.....	36
Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Freedmen's Hospital.....	109	Public Health Nursing Service....	41
St. Elizabeth's Hospital.....	112	Scholarship Committees.....	43
Isabel Hampton Robb Memorial Fund.....	154	Vocational Rehabilitation Service..	39
M. E. Church, Genl. Deaconess Bd..	171	Amer. Nurses' Assn.....	45
Natl. Assn. of Colored Graduate Nurses.....	178	Amer. Pediatric Soc.....	47
Natl. League of Nursing Education..	212	Amer. Social Hygiene Assn.....	52
Natl. Org. for Public Health Nursing.	219	Boys' Club Fed.....	66
Natl. Woman's Relief Soc.....	236	Boy Scouts.....	67
Norwegian Lutheran Church.....	242	Columbia Inst. for the Deaf.....	87
Rockefeller Foundation.....	258	Gallaudet College.....	87
Rockefeller Inst. for Medical Research.....	259	Kendall School.....	87
Salvation Army, Dept. of Women's Social Work.....	263	Dept. of Labor, U. S., Bur. of Naturalization, Div. of Citizenship Training.....	114
Seventh-Day Adventists, Medical Missionary Dept.....	267	Fedl. Bd. for Vocational Education..	127
Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Inst., Nurses' Training.....	282	Fedl. Council of the Churches of Christ.....	130
Education, Primary. See also Kindergarten		Finnish Evangelical Lutheran Natl. Church.....	133
Internatl. Kindergarten Union.....	152	Inst. for Crippled and Disabled Men.	147
Natl. Council of Primary Education.	199	Internatl. Kindergarten Union.....	152
Natl. Kindergarten Assn.....	211	Isabel Hampton Robb Memorial Fund.....	154
Education, Primary, Deaf		Jewish Agricultural and Industrial Aid Soc.....	154
Columbia Inst. for the Deaf, Kendall School.....	87	M. E. Church, Woman's Home Missionary Soc.....	171
Soc. of Progressive Oral Advocates..	274	Natl. Assn. of the Deaf.....	179
Education, Special Training. See also Blind; Deaf and Deafened; Physical Education		Natl. Baptist Convention.....	181
Amer. Assn. for Community Org....	3	Natl. Catholic Welfare Council.....	184
Amer. Assn. for the Hard of Hearing.	3	Natl. Council of Catholic Men....	185
Amer. Assn. for Org. Family Social Work.....	5	Natl. Council of Catholic Women..	186
Amer. Assn. to Promote the Teaching of Speech to the Deaf.....	6	Natl. Committee for Mental Hygiene	190
Amer. Assn. for the Study of the Feeble-Minded.....	8	Natl. Committee for Teaching Citizenship.....	192
		Natl. Community Bd.....	193
		Natl. Inst. of Social Sciences.....	211
		Natl. League of Girls' Clubs.....	212
		Natl. Reform Assn.....	224
		Natl. Safety Council.....	225
		Natl. Soc. for the Promotion of Occupational Therapy.....	230
		Natl. Soc. for the Study and Correction of Speech Disorders.....	231
		Natl. Tuberculosis Assn.....	233

	PAGE		PAGE
N. Y. Bur. of Municipal Research and Training School for Public Service.	239	Evangelical Lutheran Augustana Synod.	126
N. Y. League for the Hard of Hearing	240	Finnish Evangelical Lutheran Church	133
Northern Baptist Convention.	241	Genl. Education Bd.	136
Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., Board of Home Missions.	250	Intercollegiate Community Service Assn.	149
Religious Education Assn.	257	Intercollegiate Vocational Guidance Assn.	149
Rockefeller Foundation.	258	Knights of Columbus, Education Dept.	160
Soc. of Progressive Oral Advocates.	274	M. E. Church, Bd. of Home Missions and Church Extension.	170
Woman's Amer. Baptist Home Mission Soc.	291	Natl. Fed. of College Women.	203
Y. M. C. A.	295	Norwegian Lutheran Church, Bd. of Education.	242
Y. W. C. A.	298	Univ. Commission on Southern Race Questions.	289
Education, Teachers		Y. M. C. A.	295
Amer. Assn. to Promote the Teaching of Speech to the Deaf.	6	Educational Service, Red Cross
Amer. Physical Education Assn.	47	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Educational Service.	42
Assn. of Collegiate Alumnae.	59	Eight-Hour Day
Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching.	76	Church Assn. for the Advancement of the Interests of Labor.	84
John F. Slater Fund.	157	Dept. of Labor, U. S., Bur. of Labor Statistics.	114
Natl. Assn. of Teachers in Colored Schools.	180	Natl. Consumers' League.	198
Natl. Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers Assns.	197	Natl. Industrial Conference Bd.	209
Natl. Education Assn.	202	Natl. League of Women Voters.	213
Natl. League of Teachers' Assns.	213	Natl. Women's Trade Union League.	237
Natl. Org. for Public Health Nursing	219	Y. W. C. A.	298
Negro Rural School Fund, Anna T. Jeannes Foundation.	238	Election Laws
Phelps Stokes Fund.	244	Natl. League of Women Voters.	213
Salvation Army.	262	Embassies
Seventh-Day Adventists, Medical Missionary Dept.	267	Embassies and Legations to the U. S.	124
Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Inst.	281	Emergency Relief. See Disaster Relief; Relief
United Christian Missionary Assn.	283	Employees' Compensation
United Lutheran Church.	287	Amer. Fed. of Labor.	16
United Presbyterian Church, Bd. of Freedmen's Missions.	288	Employees' Compensation Commission, U. S.	124
Education, Universities and Colleges. See also College Organizations		Employer's Liability. See Workmen's Compensation
Amer. Council on Education.	11	Employment. See also Unemployed, Aid for
Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Educational Service.	42	Amer. Assn. for the Hard of Hearing.	3
Amer. Scandinavian Foundation.	50	Amer. Assn. for Labor Legislation.	5
Amer. Students Health Assn.	57	Amer. Assn. to Promote the Teaching of Speech to the Deaf.	6
Assn. of Colleges for Negro Youth.	59	Amer. Assn. of Social Service Exchanges.	7
Assn. of Collegiate Alumnae.	59	Amer. Friends Service Committee.	18
Boy Scouts.	67	Amer. Library Assn.	23
Bur. of Commercial Economics.	70	Amer. Prison Assn.	48
Carnegie Endowment for Internatl. Peace.	75	Amer. Public Health Assn.	49
Columbia Inst. for the Deaf.	87	Big Brother and Big Sister Fed.	64
Council of Higher Education.	93	Boys' Club Fed.	66
Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Howard Univ.	111	Bur. of Commercial Economics.	70
Evangelical Assn.	126	Cooperative League.	92

	PAGE		PAGE
wish Women.....	93	Amer. Soc. of Agricultural Engineers.....	54 or, U. S., Employment.....	116	Conference of State and Provincial Health Authorities.....	91
Vocational Education..	127	Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Bur. of Public Roads.....	101
tering and Immigrant.....	141	Dept. of Commerce, U. S., Bur. of Standards.....	106
Order of B'nai B'rith..	145	Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Alaska Engineering Commission.....	107
Med and Disabled Men..	147	Natl. Park Service.....	111
ultural and Industrial.....	154	Reclamation Service.....	112
lumbus.....	159	Engineering Foundation of N. Y....	125
ers' Assn.....	165	Natl. Bd. of Fire Underwriters.....	182
Welfare Council, Natl.		Natl. Malaria Committee.....	216
Catholic Women.....	186	Natl. Research Council.....	224
ittee on Prisons and.....	192	Natl. Safety Council.....	225
ence of Jewish Social.....	195	Safety Inst. of Amer.....	261 on Bur.....	201	English, Courses in College Women.....	203	Council of Jewish Women.....	93
e Crittenton Mission...	206	Dept. of Labor, U. S., Bur. of Naturalization.....	114
of Women Voters.....	213	Y. M. C. A.....	295
Hand Soc.....	214	Y. W. C. A.....	298
Welfare League.....	223	Entomology
Workers' Exchange.....	228	Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Bur. of Entomology.....	100
the Promotion of Occu-		Natl. Malaria Committee.....	216
erapy.....	230	Epidemics. See Disaster Relief ;
League.....	234	Hygiene
for the Hard of Hearing		Epilepsy
nd Recreation Assn....	245	Natl. Assn. for the Study of Epilepsy and the Care and Treatment of Epileptics.....	179
ication Assn.....	257	Natl. Committee for Mental Hygiene	190
ny.....	262	Presbyterian Church, Bd. of Temperance and Moral Welfare.....	249
'riendless.....	273	Episcopal. See Protestant Episcopal Equipment, Red Cross Nurses' ncent de Paul.....	274	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Nursing Service.....	36
ries Assn.....	277	Equity
iates.....	279	Amer. Soc. of Equity.....	55
f Christian Endeavor...	288	Ethnology
Church, Commission on		Smithsonian Inst., Bur. of Amer. Ethnology.....	271
ice.....	289	Eugenics
ntl. Farm and Garden		Carnegie Inst. of Washington, Dept. of Genetics.....	77
.....	291	Life Extension Inst.....	165
.....	298	Executive Committee, Red Cross
at, Negro		Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Exec. Committee.....	26 or, U. S., Commissioner		Executive Secretary, Red Cross
ation.....	116	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Exec. Secy..	28
Business League.....	218	Exhibits. See also Lantern Slides ;
League.....	234	Motion Pictures; Pageants. rt, Nurses		(Many agencies not listed here)
Red Cross, Nursing Ser-
.....	36
of Nursing Education..	212
g Assn. Headquarters...	219
r Public Health Nursing	219
nt of Agencies.
ion
ation Bur.....	210
g. For Landscape En-see under Civic, City
; Parks

	PAGE		PAGE
make exhibits at times or have photographs on view.)		Expenditures, Public
Amer. Assn. for the Hard of Hearing.	3	Dept. of Commerce, U. S., Bur. of the Census	105
Amer. Assn. of Hospital Social Work- ers	4	Dept. of the Treasury, U. S.	118
Amer. Child Hygiene Assn.	10	Experiment Stations. See Agricul- tural Experiment Stations
Amer. Fed. of Arts	15	Explosives
Amer. Natl. Red Cross		Dept. of the Interior, U. S.; Bur. of Mines	108
Exec. Secy.	28	Natl. Fire Protection Assn.	206
Health Service	30	Post Office Dept., U. S., Chief In- spector	249
Junior Red Cross	33	Exports
Public Information Service	42	Dept. of State, U. S., Consular Bur. .	117
Amer. Scandinavian Foundation	50	Ex-Service Men. See Introduction
Amer. Social Hygiene Assn.	52	Amer. Legion	22
Amer. Soc. of Agricultural Engineers.	54	Amer. Library Assn.	23
Amer. Soc. for the Control of Cancer.	54	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Home Ser- vice	31
Boy Scouts	67	Post War Services	38
Camp Fire Girls	74	Amer. Women's Legion	58
Child Health Org.	81	Fedl. Bd. for Vocational Education .	127
Christ Child Soc.	83	Grand Army of the Republic	141
Church Assn. for the Advancement of the Interests of Labor	84	Inst. for Crippled and Disabled Men.	147
Dept. of Agriculture, U. S.	98	Knights of Columbus	159
Bur. of Chemistry	99	Natl. Committee for Mental Hygiene	190
Bur. of Public Roads	101	No. Amer. Civic League for Immi- grants, Order and Liberty Alliance.	241
Dept. of Labor, U. S., Women's Bur. .	116	Service Star Legion	266
Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Coast Guard	119	Woman's Relief Corps	292
Public Health Service	120	Y. M. C. A.	295
Fedl. Council of the Churches of Christ	130	Ex-Service Men, Catholic
Hospital Library and Service Bur. . .	144	Natl. Catholic Welfare Council	184
Life Extension Inst.	165	Ex-Service Men, Jewish
Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., Welfare Div.	175	Jewish Welfare Bd.	156
Natl. Assn. of Travelers Aid Soc. . . .	180	Extension Service
Natl. Child Labor Committee	187	Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., States Relations Service	103
Natl. Child Welfare Assn.	188	Jewish Agricultural and Industrial Aid Soc.	154
Natl. Committee for the Prevention of Blindness	191	Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Inst.	281
Natl. Conference on City Planning . .	194	Extradition
Natl. Medical Assn.	216	Dept. of Labor, U. S., Bur. of Immi- gration	114
Natl. Safety Council	225	Natl. Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws	194
Natl. Soc. for the Promotion of Occu- pational Therapy	230	Natl. Desertion Bur.	201
Negro Natl. Educational Congress . . .	238	Fairs. See also Exhibits
Peoples of Amer. Soc.	243	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Membership Activities	42
Playground and Recreation Assn. . . .	245	Famine
Natl. Physical Education Service . . .	246	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Prepared- ness for Disaster Relief	40
Religious Education Assn.	257	Farm Bureaus. See also Agricul- ture
Russell Sage Foundation, Dept. of Surveys and Exhibits	261	Amer. Farm Bur. Fed.	14
Safety Inst. of Amer.	261	Farm Loans
Salvation Army	262	Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Fedl. Farm Loan Bd.	119
Scientific Temperance Fed.	264
Seamen's Church Inst.	265
Smithsonian Inst., Natl. Museum . .	271
Woodcraft League	293
Y. M. C. A.	295

	PAGE		PAGE
Jewish Agricultural and Industrial Aid Soc.....	154	N. Y. Bur. of Municipal Research and Training School for Public Service.....	239
Farm Management. See also Agriculture and headings under Agriculture		First Aid
Dept. of Agriculture, U. S.....	98	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, First Aid....	29
Office of Farm Management and Farm Economics.....	102	Boy Scouts.....	67
States Relations Service.....	103	Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Bur. of Mines.....	108
Farms. See Agriculture		Girl Scouts.....	138
Federal and Affiliated Agencies		Fisheries
Amer. Natl. Red Cross.....	26	Dept. of Commerce, U. S., Bur. of Fisheries.....	105
Columbia Inst. for the Deaf.....	87	Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Coast Guard.....	119
Dept. of Agriculture, U. S.....	98	Floods
Dept. of Commerce, U. S.....	104	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Preparedness for Disaster Relief.....	40
Dept. of the Interior, U. S.....	107	Flowers. See also Agriculture
Dept. of Justice, U. S.....	113	Natl. Plant, Flower and Fruit Guild.....	222
Dept. of Labor, U. S.....	113	Food. See also Home Economics
Dept. of State, U. S.....	116	Amer. Dietetic Assn.....	13
Dept. of the Treasury, U. S.....	118	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Nutrition Service.....	37
Employees' Compensation Commission, U. S.....	124	Amer. Public Health Assn.....	49
Fedl. Bd. for Vocational Education..	127	Child Health Org.....	81
Fedl. Leprosarium.....	131	Council of Jewish Women.....	93
Government Printing Office, U. S....	140	Dept. of Agriculture, U. S.....	98
Interdepartmental Social Hygiene Bd., U. S.....	150	Bur. of Chemistry.....	99
Post Office Dept., U. S.....	248	Bur. of Markets.....	100
Smithsonian Inst.....	271	States Relations Service.....	103
Feeble-Minded. See Mental Hygiene		Dept. of Commerce, U. S., Bur. of Fisheries.....	105
Fellowships. See Scholarships		Natl. Child Health Council.....	186
Field Service, Red Cross		Natl. Consumers' League.....	198
Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Field Service.	42	Natl. League of Women Voters....	213
Filipinos in the U. S.		Natl. Plant, Flower and Fruit Guild.	222
Y. M. C. A.....	295	Woman's Natl. Farm and Garden Assn.....	291
Films. See Motion Pictures		Food Selection
Finance. See Revenue		Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Nutrition Service.....	37
Firms in the U. S.		Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., States Relations Service.....	103
Finnish Evangelical Lutheran Church	133	Foreign Agencies. See Introduction
Finnish Evangelical Lutheran Natl. Church.....	133	Foreign Commissions, Red Cross
Finnish Friends Temperance Assn...	133	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Foreign Commissions.....	28
Finnish Natl. Temperance Brotherhood.....	133	Foreign Language and Foreign National Groups and Agencies for. See also Americanization and agencies under national headings
Foreign Language Information Service.....	135	Amer. Baptist Home Mission Soc....	9
Knights of Kaleva.....	160	Amer. Baptist Publication Soc.....	9
Ladies of Kaleva.....	161	Amer. Gymnastic Union.....	19
Fire Prevention, and Protection from. See also Insurance, Fire		Amer. Jewish Committee.....	21
Amer. Forestry Assn.....	18	Amer. Library Assn.....	23
Amer. Soc. for Municipal Improvements.....	55	Amer. Red Mogen David.....	50
Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Forest Service.....	102	Amer.'s Lithuanian Medical Assn....	58
Natl. Bd. of Fire Underwriters.....	182	Assn. of Collegiate Alumnae.....	59
Natl. Fire Protection Assn.....	206
Natl. Safety Council.....	225

	PAGE		PAGE
Baron de Hirsch Fund.....	63	Slovak Protestant Union.....	270
Bohemian-Slavonian Union.....	65	Soc. of the Taborites.....	275
Bohemian-Slavonic Benevolent Socs.....	66	Sokol Gymnastic Org.....	276
Bur. of Jewish Social Research.....	72	Sons of Norway.....	277
Catholic Slovak Sokol.....	78	Union of Czech Women.....	283
Catholic Sokol Union.....	79	United Czecho-Slovak Legion.....	286
Church Peace Union.....	85	Western Czech Fraternal Union.....	290
Council of Higher Education.....	93	Y. M. C. A.....	295
Council of Jewish Women.....	93	Young Men's Hebrew and Kindred Assns.....	297
Czecho-Slavonian Fraternal Benefit Union.....	96	Y. W. C. A.....	298
Czecho-Slovak Natl. Alliance.....	97	Zivena, Benefit Soc. of Slovak Christian Women.....	299
Czecho-Slovak Natl. Council.....	97	Foreign Languages, Courses in
Evangelical Lutheran Augustana Synod.....	126	People's Univ.—The Temple.....	244
Fed. of Jewish Farmers.....	132	United Christian Missionary Soc., Dept. of Foreign Missions.....	284
Finnish Evangelical Lutheran Church.....	133	Y. M. C. A.....	295
Finnish Evangelical Lutheran Natl. Church.....	133	Y. W. C. A.....	298
Finnish Friends Temperance Assn.....	133	Foreign Operations, Red Cross
Finnish Natl. Temperance Brotherhood.....	133	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Foreign Commissions.....	28
First Catholic Slovak Ladies Union.....	134	Insular and Foreign Div.....	44
First Catholic Slovak Union.....	134	Insular and Foreign Information Service.....	32
Foreign Language Information Service.....	135	Vice-Chairman in Charge of Foreign Operations.....	27
Hebrew Sheltering and Immigrant Aid Soc.....	141	Forestry
Immigrant Publication Soc.....	144	Amer. Forestry Assn.....	18
Independent Order of B'nai B'rith.....	145	Boy Scouts.....	67
Independent Order Free Sons of Israel.....	146	Camp Fire Girls.....	74
Industrial Removal Office.....	147	Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Forest Service.....	102
Jewish Agricultural and Industrial Aid Soc.....	154	Dept. of Commerce, U. S., Bur. of the Census.....	105
Jewish Publication Soc.....	155	Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Genl. Land Office.....	110
Jewish Welfare Bd.....	156	Natl. Park Service.....	111
Knights of Kaleva.....	160	Genl. Fed. of Women's Clubs.....	137
Knights of Lithuania.....	160	Girl Scouts.....	138
Ladies of Kaleva.....	161	Woodcraft League.....	293
Lithuanian Patriots.....	167	Forums. (Many agencies other than those listed here hold an annual meeting open to the public for discussion of problems in the field of the agency.)
Natl. Conference of Jewish Social Service.....	195	Amer. Academy of Political and Social Science.....	2
Natl. Desertion Bur.....	201	Amer. Prison Assn.....	48
Natl. Fed. of Czech Catholics.....	203	Amer. Social Hygiene Assn.....	52
Natl. Fed. of Temple Sisterhoods.....	205	Knights of Columbus.....	159
Natl. Slovak Soc.....	227	Natl. Conference of Catholic Charities.....	194
Natl. Slovak Union.....	227	Natl. Conference on City Planning.....	194
Northern Baptist Convention, Committee on the Coordination of Baptist Bodies Using Foreign Languages.....	242	Natl. Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws.....	194
People's Univ.—The Temple.....	244	Natl. Conference of Jewish Social Service.....	195
Polish Falcons Alliance.....	246
Polish Natl. Alliance.....	247
Polish Roman Catholic Union.....	247
Polish Women's Alliance.....	247
Sisterly Benevolent Union.....	268
Slovak Gymnastic Union.....	269
Slovak League.....	270

	PAGE		PAGE
Natl. Conference of Social Work . . .	196	Germans in the U. S.
Natl. Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers Assns	197	Foreign Language Information Service	135
Natl. Economic League	201	Girls. See Boys and Girls
Natl. Housing Assn	208	Girls' Protective and Friendly Agencies. See also Boys and Girls
Natl. Org. for Public Health Nursing	219	Big Brother and Big Sister Fed.	64
Universalist Church, Commission on Social Service	289	Council of Jewish Women	93
Foundations. See Education, Foundations		Girls' Friendly Soc.	139
Fraternal. See also Foreign Language and Foreign National Groups and Agencies for		Natl. Assn. of Travelers Aid Socs. . .	180
See Introduction		Natl. Catholic Welfare Council, Natl. Council of Catholic Women	186
Bohemian-Slavonian Union	65	Natl. Florence Crittenton Mission . .	206
Bohemian-Slavonic Benevolent Socs. .	66	Natl. Woman's Christian Temperance Union	235
Catholic Slovak Sokol	78	Norwegian Lutheran Church	242
Caecho-Slavonian Fraternal Benefit Union	96	Salvation Army	262
Independent Order of B'nai B'rith . .	145	Y. W. C. A.	298
Independent Order Free Sons of Israel	146	Good Roads. See Highways
Internatl. Order of the Knights of King Arthur	153	Government Agencies. See Federal and Affiliated Agencies
Knights of Columbus	159	Government Claims of Ex-Service Men. See Introduction
Ladies of the Maccabees	161	Amer. Legion	22
Natl. Grange	207	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Post War Services	38
Natl. Slovak Soc.	227	Gymnastics. See Physical Education
Polish Natl. Alliance	247	Handbook of Information and Instructions for Home Service Sections See Introduction
Polish Roman Catholic Union	247	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Post War Services, Service Claims and Information	38
Polish Women's Alliance	247	Handbook of Social Resources
Slovak Gymnastic Union	269	See Introduction
Sons of Norway	277	How to Use	IX
Western Czech Fraternal Union	290	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Social Resources Information Service	32
Free Speech. See Forums		Handbooks, State
Fresh Air. See Vacations, Fresh Air		See Introduction
Friends		Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Social Resources Information Service	32
Amer. Friends Service Committee . . .	18	Health. See Hygiene
Five Years Meeting of Friends, Bd. of Home Missions	135	Health, Child. See Child Hygiene
Fruit. See also Agriculture		Health, Departments of, Cooperation with Natl. Plant, Flower and Fruit Guild. .	222	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Health Service	30
Funds. See Education, Foundations		Health Centers
Gardens. See also Agriculture		Amer. Child Hygiene Assn	10
Amer. Civic Assn	11	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Health Service	30
Amer. Country Life Assn	12	Circle for Negro Relief	86
Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Junior Red Cross	33	Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public Health Service	120
Natl. Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers Assns	197	Health Clown
Natl. Plant, Flower and Fruit Guild. .	222	Child Health Org.	81
Woman's Natl. Farm and Garden Assn	291
General Board, Red Cross
Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Genl. Bd. . . .	26
Geodetic Survey. See Coast and Geodetic Survey

	PAGE		PAGE
Health Demonstrations		Home Demonstration Agents
Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Health Service.....	30	Amer. Farm Bur. Fed.....	14
Child Health Org.....	81	Amer. Soc. of Agricultural Engineers.....	54
Dept. of Labor, U. S., Children's Bur.....	115	Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., States Relations Service.....	103
Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public Health Service.....	120	Home Economics. See also Economics; Food
Natl. Child Health Council.....	186	Amer. Dietetic Assn.....	13
Natl. Tuberculosis Assn.....	233	Amer. Home Economics Assn.....	19
Rockefeller Foundation.....	258	Amer. Natl. Red Cross
Health Service, Red Cross. See also Hygiene		Instruction in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick.....	32
Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Health Service.....	30	Nutrition Service.....	37
Hebrew. See Jewish		Camp Fire Girls.....	74
Highways. (Only a few national agencies dealing with highways are included in the Handbook. Readers, as a rule, in looking up information relating to roads will find it necessary to make contacts with local and state agencies rather than national bodies.)		Council of Jewish Women.....	93
Amer. Soc. for Municipal Improvements.....	55	Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., States Relations Service.....	103
Chamber of Commerce of the U. S., Transportation and Communication Dept.....	80	Fedl. Bd. for Vocational Education..	127
Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Bur. of Public Roads.....	101	Genl. Fed. of Women's Clubs, Dept. of Applied Education.....	137
Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Natl. Park Service.....	111	Girl Scouts.....	138
Natl. Grange.....	207	Natl. Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers Assns.....	197
Natl. Parks Assn.....	221	Natl. League of Women Voters, Committee on Food Supply and Demand.....	214
U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce..	288	Neighbors' League.....	239
Hindus in the U. S.		Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Inst.	281
Y. M. C. A.....	295	United Presbyterian Church, Bd. of Freedmen's Missions.....	288
Historical		Y. W. C. A.....	298
Amer. Economic Assn.....	13	Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick
Amer. Legion.....	22	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Instruction in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick.....	32
Assn. for the Study of Negro Life and History.....	62	Internatl. Order of the King's Daughters and Sons.....	153
Carnegie Endowment for Internatl. Peace.....	75	Seventh-Day Adventists, Medical Missionary Dept.....	267
Carnegie Inst. of Washington.....	76	Y. W. C. A.....	298
Knights of Columbus.....	159	Home Missions. See Church Home Missions
Natl. Catholic Welfare Council, Dept. of Historical Records.....	185	Home Nursing. See Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick
Natl. Soc. of Children of the Amer. Revolution.....	228	Home Service, Red Cross
Natl. Soc. of the Daughters of the Amer. Revolution.....	229	See Introduction
Natl. Soc. U. S. Daughters of 1812..	231	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Home Service	31
Neighbors' League.....	239	Military Relief.....	35
Smithsonian Inst.....	271	Post War Services, Medical Social Service.....	38
Sons of Confederate Veterans.....	276	Home Study Courses
Sulgrave Inst.....	278	Y. M. C. A.....	295
United Daughters of the Confederacy	286	Y. W. C. A.....	298
		Homes, Aged
		Actors' Fund.....	1
		Amer. Seamen's Friend Soc.....	52
		Evangelical Assn.....	126

	PAGE		PAGE
Lutheran Augustana		Salvation Army.....	262
Order of B'nai B'rith..	126	Volunteers of Amer.....	290
Order of the King's Daugh-	145	Homesteads
.....	153	Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Genl.
Ly Asylum.....	168	Land Office.....	110
Genl. Deaconess Bd..	171	Hookworm Disease
Heran Church.....	242	Rockefeller Foundation.....	258
Harbor.....	261	Hospital Social Service. See also n Missionary Soc.....	283	Invalids
d Music Teachers'		Amer. Assn. of Hospital Social Work-tion, Presser Home for		ers.....	4
ic Teachers.....	253	Amer. Hospital Assn.....	20
Iron's		Amer. Library Assn.....	23
Service Committee....	18	Amer. Natl. Red Cross
c.....	83	Junior Red Cross.....	33
n.....	126	Medical Social Service.....	38
Lutheran Augustana		Military Relief.....	35
Order of B'nai B'rith..	126	Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public
Genl. Deaconess Bd..	145	Health Service.....	120
Woman's Home Mis-	171	Evangelical Lutheran Augustana
.....	171	Synod.....	126
n Missionary Soc.....	262	Hospital Library and Service Bur...	144
mer.....	283	Jewish Welfare Bd.....	156
mer.....	290	Natl. Org. for Public Health Nursing	219
ral		Natl. Plant, Flower and Fruit Guild.	222
Lutheran Augustana		Needlework Guild.....	237
Slovak Union.....	126	Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., Bd. of Order of the King's Daugh-	134	Home Missions.....	250
.....	153	Shut-in Soc.....	268
Id Fund.....	157	United Soc. of Christian Endeavor..	288
Imbus.....	159	Hospitals, Maternity
Genl. Deaconess Bd..	171	Amer. Friends Service Committee...	18
Woman's Home Mis-		Natl. Florence Crittenton Mission...	206
.....	171	Hospitals and Sanatoria
Travelers Aid Socs...	180	Amer. Friends Service Committee...	18
iance.....	247	Amer. Hospital Assn.....	20
n Missionary Soc.....	262	Amer. Medical Assn.....	24
mer.....	283	Amer. Missionary Assn ..	25
mer.....	290	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Medical
.....	295	Social Service.....	38
.....	298	Amer. Protestant Hospital Assn.....	49
See also Vacation		Catholic Hospital Assn.....	78
Soc.....	139	Daughters of the King.....	98
Order of the King's Daugh-		Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Freed-
.....	153	men's Hospital.....	109
Genl. Deaconess Bd..	171	St. Elizabeth's Hospital.....	112
Woman's Home Mis-		Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public
.....	171	Health Service, Div. of Marine
Crittenton Mission...	206	Hospitals and Relief.....	120
Heran Church.....	242	Employees' Compensation Commis-
.....	262	sion, U. S.....	124
.....	298	Evangelical Assn.....	126
no		Evangelical Lutheran Augustana
Crittenton Mission...	206	Synod.....	126
		Fedl. Leprosarium.....	131
		Hospital Library and Service Bur...	144
		Independent Order of B'nai B'rith..	145
		Internatl. Order of the King's Daughters and Sons.....	153

	PAGE		PAGE
Knights of Columbus.....	159	Instruction in Home Hygiene and
M. E. Church, Genl. Deaconess Bd..	171	Care of the Sick.....	32
M. E. Church, Woman's Home Mis-		Junior Red Cross.....	33
sionary Soc.....	171	Nursing Service.....	36
Natl. Committee for Mental Hygiene	190	Nutrition Service.....	37
Natl. Conference of Jewish Social		Public Health Nursing Service....	41
Service.....	195	Amer. Physical Education Assn.....	47
Natl. Indian Assn.....	209	Amer. Posture League.....	48
Natl. Tuberculosis Assn.....	233	Amer. Public Health Assn.....	49
Norwegian Lutheran Church.....	242	Amer. School Hygiene Assn.....	52
Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.,		Amer. Social Hygiene Assn.....	52
Bd. of Home Missions, Alaskan		Amer. Students Health Assn.....	57
Work Dept.....	250	Amer. Unitarian Assn.....	57
Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.,		Amer.'s Lithuanian Medical Assn....	58
Woman's Bd. of Home Missions...	252	Assn. of Women in Public Health...	62
Rockefeller Foundation.....	258	Boy Scouts.....	67
Rockefeller Inst. for Medical Re-		Camp Fire Girls.....	74
search.....	259	Circle for Negro Relief.....	86
Salvation Army.....	262	Commission on Milk Standards.....	88
Seventh-Day Adventists, Medical		Conference of State and Provincial
Missionary Dept.....	267	Health Authorities.....	91
Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Inst.,		Council of Jewish Women.....	93
John A. Andrews Memorial Hospital	282	Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., States
United Christian Missionary Soc....	283	Relations Service.....	103
United Soc. of Christian Endeavor..	288	Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Bur. of Housing		Education.....	108
Amer. Civic Assn.....	11	Office of Indian Affairs.....	111
Assn. of Collegiate Alumnae.....	59	Dept. of State, U. S., Consular Bur..	117
Church Assn. for the Advancement		Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public of the Interests of Labor.....	84	Health Service.....	120
Council of Jewish Women.....	93	Engineering Foundation of N. Y.....	125
Girls' Friendly Soc.....	139	Eye Sight Conservation Council.....	126
Natl. Housing Assn.....	208	Genl. Fed. of Women's Clubs.....	138
Natl. Org. for Public Health Nursing	219	Girl Scouts.....	138
N. Y. Bur. of Municipal Research and		Girls' Friendly Soc.....	139
Training School for Public Service...	239	Hospital Library and Service Bur....	144
Presbyterian Church, Bd. of Temper-		Knights of Columbus.....	159
ance and Moral Welfare.....	249	Life Extension Inst.....	165
Russell Sage Foundation.....	259	Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.,
Soc. of St. Vincent de Paul.....	274	Welfare Div.....	175
Y. M. C. A.....	295	Natl. Catholic Welfare Council.....	184
Y. W. C. A.....	298	Natl. Conference of Jewish Social
Housing, Negro		Service.....	195
Natl. Baptist Convention.....	181	Natl. Conference of Social Work....	196
Natl. Urban League.....	234	Natl. Congress of Mothers and Par-
Hungarians in the U. S.		ent-Teachers Assns.....	197
Foreign Language Information Ser-		Natl. Education Assn.....	202
vice.....	135	Natl. Health Council.....	208
Hygiene. See also Child Hygiene;		Natl. League of Nursing Education..	212
Health Centers; Health Demon-		Natl. Malaria Committee.....	216
strations; Health Departments;		Natl. Medical Assn.....	216
Social Hygiene		Natl. Org. for Public Health Nursing	219
Amer. Civic Assn.....	11	Natl. Safety Council.....	225
Amer. Country Life Assn.....	12	Natl. Soc. for the Promotion of Occu-
Amer. Home Economics Assn.....	19	pational Therapy.....	230
Amer. Medical Assn.....	24	Natl. Tuberculosis Assn.....	233
Amer. Natl. Red Cross		Natl. Woman's Christian Temper-
Health Service.....	30	ance Union.....	235
Home Service.....	31

	PAGE		PAGE
ur. of Municipal Research and ing School for Public Service.	239	Natl. Soc. for the Promotion of Oc- cupational Therapy.....	230
Univ.—The Temple.....	244	Natl. Women's Trade Union League.	237
erian Church, U. S. A., Bd. of erance and Moral Welfare....	249	Prudential Insurance Co.....	255
erian Church, U. S. A., an's Bd. of Home Missions..	252	Safety Inst. of Amer.....	261
sive Education Assn.....	254	Hygiene, Legislation	P 1
tial Insurance Co.....	255	Amer. Assn. for Labor Legislation...	[5
ller Foundation.....	258	Conference of State and Provincial Health Authorities.....	91
ller Inst. for Medical Re- h.....	259	Hygiene, Mental. See Mental Hy- giene
Sage Foundation.....	259	Hygiene, Motion Pictures. See also Motion Pictures
Inst. of Amer.....	261	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Public Infor- mation Service.....	42
ic Temperance Fed.....	264	Amer. Social Hygiene Assn.....	52
1-Day Adventists, Medical onary Dept.....	267	Child Health Org.....	81
Amer. Indians.....	272	Community Motion Picture Bur....	89
Visual Education.....	275	Natl. Motion Picture League.....	217
f Methods of Americanization	278	Natl. Org. for Public Health Nursing.	219
Associates.....	279	Natl. Safety Council.....	225
ee Normal and Industrial Inst.	281	Natl. Tuberculosis Assn.....	233
Brotherhood Fed.....	294	Hygiene, Mouth
... A.....	295	Amer. School Hygiene Assn.....	52
... A.....	298	Life Extension Inst.....	165
me, Charts		Hygiene, Negro
Posture League.....	48	Circle for Negro Relief.....	86
f the Treasury, U. S., Public h Service.....	120	Natl. Medical Assn.....	216 tension Inst.....	165	Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Inst.	281 list Child Welfare Soc.....	168	Hygiene, Surveys. (A number of other agencies listed under Hy- giene make surveys at times in certain fields.)
hild Welfare Assn.....	188	Amer. Child Hygiene Assn.....	10
ommittee for Mental Hygiene	190	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Medical Social Service.....	38
tial Insurance Co.....	255	Council of Jewish Women.....	93
ic Temperance Fed.....	264	Dept. of Labor, U. S., Children's Bur.	115 me, Eye		Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public Health Service.....	120
ht Conservation Council.....	126	Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., Welfare Div.....	175 me, Industrial		Natl. Congress of Mothers and Par- ent-Teachers Assns.....	197
Assn. of Industrial Physicians urgeons.....	4	Natl. Org. for Public Health Nursing.	219
Assn. for Labor Legislation...	5	Rockefeller Foundation, Internatl. Health Bd.....	258
Fed. of Labor.....	16	Ice Patrol
Public Health Assn.....	49	Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Coast Guard.....	119
f Labor, U. S.....	113	Illegitimate Children, Status and Protection of f Labor Statistics.....	114	Natl. Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws.....	194
f the Treasury, U. S., Public h Service, Div. of Scientific rch.....	121	Presbyterian Church, Bd. of Temper- ance and Moral Welfare.....	249 ring Foundation of N. Y....	125	Immigrant. See Americanisation ht Conservation Council...	126
tension Inst.....	165
list Child Welfare Soc.....	168
ommittee for the Prevention indness.....	191
Conference of Commissioners niform State Laws.....	194
ndustrial Conference Bd.....	209
safety Council.....	225

	PAGE		PAGE
Income Tax		Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.,
Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Bur. of		Welfare Div.	175
Internal Revenue.	118	Natl. Bur. of Economic Research.	184
Index, Locality, How to Use.	LXIII	Natl. Catholic Welfare Council, Social
Index, Subject, How to Use.	xi	Action Dept.	186
Indians. See also Ethnology		Natl. Child Labor Committee.	187
Amer. Baptist Home Mission Soc.	9	Natl. Committee on Prisons and
Amer. Missionary Assn.	25	Prison Labor.	192
Bur. of Catholic Indian Missions.	69	Natl. Conference of Commissioners
Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Bd. of		on Uniform State Laws.	194
Indian Commissioners.	107	Natl. Conference of Social Work.	196
Office of Indian Affairs.	111	Natl. Consumers' League.	198
Five Years Meeting of Friends, Bd.		Natl. Economic League.	201 of Home Missions.	135	Natl. Fed. of College Women.	203
Home Missions Council.	142	Natl. Florence Crittenton Mission.	206
Indian Rights Assn.	146	Natl. Industrial Conference Bd.	209
M. E. Church, Woman's Home Mis-		Natl. League of Women Voters, Com-sionary Soc., Indian Work Bur.	173	mittee on Women in Industry.	214
Natl. Indian Assn.	209	Natl. Negro Business League.	218
Phelps Stokes Fund.	244	Natl. Reform Assn.	224
Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.,		Natl. Safety Council.	225
Bd. of Home Missions, Indian		Natl. Soc. for the Promotion of Oc-
Dept.	251	cupational Therapy.	230
Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.,		Natl. Urban League.	234
Woman's Bd. of Home Missions.	252	Natl. Women's Trade Union League	237
Smithsonian Inst., Bur. of Amer.		N. Y. League for the Hard of Hearing	240
Ethnology.	271	No. Amer. Civic League for Immi-
Soc. of Amer. Indians.	272	grants.	240
Study of Methods of Americanization	278	Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.,
United Christian Missionary Soc.	283	Bd. of Home Missions.	250
Y. W. C. A.	298	Russell Sage Foundation, Dept. of Industrial		Industrial Studies.	260
Amer. Assn. for Labor Legislation.	5	Safety Inst. of Amer.	261
Amer. Fed. of Labor.	16	Smithsonian Inst., Natl. Museum.	271
Amer. Unitarian Assn.	57	Survey Associates.	279
Baron de Hirsch Fund.	63	Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Inst.	281
Bur. of Commercial Economics.	70	United Christian Missionary Soc.	283
Chamber of Commerce of the U. S.	80	United Presbyterian Church, Bd. of Church Assn. for the Advancement of		Freedmen's Mission.	288
the Interests of Labor.	84	Y. M. C. A.	295
Church League for Industrial De-		Y. W. C. A.	298
mocracy.	85	Industrial Diseases. See Hygiene,
Congregational Church, Social Service		Industrial
Commission.	92	Industrial Disputes
Dept. of Labor, U. S.	113	Dept. of Labor, U. S.	113
Employees' Compensation Commis-		Natl. Conference of Commissioners
sion, U. S.	124	on Uniform State Laws.	194
Engineering Foundation of N. Y.	125	Industrial Education. See Voca-
Fedl. Bd. for Vocational Education.	127	ational Training and Vocational Genl. Fed. of Women's Clubs, Dept.		Guidance of Public Welfare, Div. on Indus-		Industrial Safety trial and Social Conditions.	138	Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Bur. of Industrial Removal Office.	147	Chemistry.	99
Internatl. Assn. of Industrial Acci-		Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Bur. of dent Bds. and Commissions.	151	Mines.	108
Jewish Agricultural and Industrial		Dept. of Labor, U. S., Bur. of Labor
Aid Soc.	154	Statistics.	114
John F. Slater Fund.	157	Internatl. Assn. of Industrial Accident Bds. and Commissions.	151

	PAGE		PAGE
Safety Council.....	225	Insurance, Fire
Inst. of Amer.....	261	Fed. of Jewish Farmers.....	132
nt Mortality. See Child Hygiene		Natl. Bd. of Fire Underwriters.....	182 rmation Service. See also For-		Insurance, Government. (See gn Language and Foreign Na-		"Handbook of Information and onal Groups; Introduction.		Instructions for Home Service
Practically all agencies included		Sections" (A. R. C. 207).
the Handbook offer informa-		Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Home Ser-on service in their fields.)		vice.....	31
Academy of Political and		Post War Services.....	38
ial Science.....	2	Insurance, Health. See also Sick
Assn. for Community Org....	3	Benefits
Assn. to Promote the Teaching		Amer. Assn. for Labor Legislation...	5
peech to the Deaf.....	6	Ladies of the Maccabees.....	161
Assn. of Social Service Ex-		Natl. Consumers' League.....	198
anges.....	7	Natl. Industrial Conference Bd.....	209
Natl. Red Cross		Prudential Insurance Co.....	255
rmation Service.....	32	Insurance, Life. See also Death ocial Resources Information Ser-		Benefits vice.....	32	See Introduction
itary Relief.....	35	Knights of Columbus.....	159
ing Service.....	36	Ladies of the Maccabees.....	161
t War Services		Life Extension Inst.....	165
edical Social Service.....	38	Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.....	175
ervice Claims and Information		Natl. Negro Business League, Natl.
Service.....	38	Negro Insurance Assn.....	219
ocial Rehabilitation Ser-		Polish Women's Alliance.....	247
vice.....	39	Prudential Insurance Co.....	255
ic Information Service.....	42	Sons of Norway.....	277
Prison Assn.....	48	Zivena, Benefit Soc. of Slovak Chris-
Scandinavian Foundation....	50	tian Women of the U. S. A.....	299
Social Hygiene Assn.....	52	Insurance, Maternity. See Mothers, f Vocational Information.....	73	Care of; Pensions, Mothers
gie Endowment for Internatl.		Insurance, Retirement
ce.....	75	Carnegie Foundation for the Advance-
Welfare League.....	82	ment of Teaching.....	76
Council of the Churches of		Interlibrary Loans ist.....	130	Amer. Library Assn.....	23
gn Language Information Ser-		Library of Congress.....	163
ice.....	135	Internal Revenue
ry of Congress.....	163	Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Bur. of
Catholic Welfare Council.....	184	Internal Revenue.....	118
Health Council.....	208	International Health
Information Bur.....	210	Conference of State and Provincial
Negro Business League.....	218	Health Authorities.....	91
Nursing Assn. Headquarters...	219	Rockefeller Foundation.....	258
Research Council.....	224	International Law
Safety Council.....	225	Carnegie Endowment for Internatl.
Amer. Civic League for Immi-		Peace.....	75
nents.....	240	International Peace. See Peace
y Associates.....	277	Introduction	v
ma. See Mental Hygiene		Invalid. See also Disabled; Hos- acts, Extermination of		pital Social Service; Sick Benefits
of Agriculture, U. S., Bur. of		Christ Child Soc.....	83
mal Industry.....	99	Jewish Welfare Bd.....	156
of Commerce, U. S.....	104	M. E. Church, Genl. Deaconess Bd..	171
lar Work, Red Cross		M. E. Church, Woman's Home Mis-
. Natl. Red Cross, Insular and		sionary Soc.....	171
sign Div.....	44	Natl. Plant, Flower and Fruit Guild..	222

	PAGE		PAGE
Salvation Army.....	262	Juvenile Courts
Shut-in Soc.....	268	Big Brother and Big Sister Fed.....	64
Soc. of St. Vincent de Paul.....	274	Dept. of Labor, U. S., Children's Bur.	115
Volunteers of Amer.....	290	Independent Order of B'nai B'rith..	145
Investigations		Natl. Congress of Mothers and Par-
Amer. Medical Assn.....	24	ent-Teachers Assns.....	197
Carnegie Endowment for Internatl.		Natl. Florence Crittenton Mission...	206
Peace.....	75	Natl. Probation Assn.....	223
Child Welfare League.....	82	Soc. for the Friendless.....	273
Dept. of Justice, U. S., Dir. and Chief		Soc. of St. Vincent de Paul.....	274 of the Bur. of Investigation.....	113	Kindergarten
Natl. Consumers' League.....	198	Christ Child Soc.....	83
Natl. Information Bur.....	210	Council of Jewish Women.....	93
Irrigation. See Land Drainage		Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Bur. of Italians in the U. S.		Education.....	106
Foreign Language Information Ser-		Internatl. Kindergarten Union.....	152
vice.....	135	Natl. Congress of Mothers and Par-
Japanese in the U. S.		ent-Teachers Assns.....	197
Amer. Missionary Assn.....	25	Natl. Council of Primary Education.	199
Home Missions Council.....	142	Natl. Kindergarten Assn.....	211
M. E. Church, Woman's Home Mis-		Koreans in the U. S.
sionary Soc., Japanese and Korean		M. E. Church, Woman's Home Mis-
Work Bur.....	173	sionary Soc., Japanese and Korean
United Christian Missionary Soc....	283	Work Bur.....	173
Y. M. C. A.....	295	Labeling. See also Marking and
Jewish		Labeling
Amer. Jewish Committee.....	21	Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Bur. of
Amer. Red Mogen David.....	50	Chemistry.....	99
Baron de Hirsch Fund.....	63	Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Patent
Bur. of Jewish Social Research.....	72	Office.....	112
Council of Jewish Women.....	93	Natl. Grange.....	207
Fed. of Jewish Farmers.....	132	Labor and Labor Unions. See Ind-
Foreign Language Information Ser-		ustrial vice.....	135	Labor Statistics
Hebrew Sheltering and Immigrant		Dept. of Labor, U. S., Bur. of Labor
Aid Soc.....	141	Statistics.....	114
Home Missions Council.....	142	Internatl. Assn. of Industrial Acci-
Independent Order of B'nai B'rith..	145	dent Bds. and Commissions.....	151
Independent Order Free Sons of Israel	146	Land, Drainage
Industrial Removal Office.....	147	Amer. Soc. of Agricultural Engineers	54
Jewish Agricultural and Industrial		Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Bur. of
Aid Soc.....	154	Public Roads.....	101
Jewish Publication Soc.....	155	Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Office of Jewish Welfare Bd.....	156	Indian Affairs.....	111
Natl. Conference of Jewish Social		Reclamation Service.....	112
Service.....	195	Land, Public
Natl. Desertion Bur.....	201	Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Genl.
Natl. Fed. of Temple Sisterhoods....	205	Land Office.....	110
People's Univ.—The Temple.....	244	Land, Settlement
Young Men's Hebrew and Kindred		Natl. Grange.....	207
Assn.....	297	Land Titles, Registration of Judicial Decisions. See Legal		Natl. Conference of Commissioners on
Questions		Uniform State Laws.....	194
Jugoslavs in the U. S.		Landscape Engineering. See Civic,
Foreign Language Information Ser-		City Planning; Parks vice.....	135	Lantern Slides
Junior Red Cross		Amer. Assn. for Labor Legislation...	5
Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Junior Red		Amer. Fed. of Arts.....	15
Cross.....	33	Amer. Friends Service Committee...	18

	PAGE		PAGE
Humane Education Soc.....	20	Law Enforcement. See Legislation and Law Enforcement
Medical Assn.....	24	Legal Questions
Missionary Assn.....	25	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Counselor...	27
Natl. Red Cross, Public Infor-		Legal Adviser.....	27
mation Service.....	42	Dept. of Justice, U. S.....	113
Nature League.....	48	Natl. Assn. for the Advancement of Social Hygiene Assn.....	52	Colored People.....	177
Soc. for the Control of Cancer	54	Natl. Conference of Commissioners on its.....	67	Uniform State Laws.....	194
for Free Girls.....	74	Natl. Indian Assn.....	209
Milk Producers' Assn.....	79	Natl. Negro Business Assn., Natl.
Assn. for the Advancement		Negro Bar Assn.....	219
Interests of Labor.....	84	Salvation Army.....	262
Five League.....	92	Soc. of Amer. Indians.....	272
Czechoslovak Natl. Council.....	97	Legations
Agriculture, U. S., Bur. of		Embassies and Legations to the U. S.	124
Roads.....	101	Legislation and Law Enforcement.
Service.....	102	(Practically all agencies listed in the Interior, U. S., Bur. of		the Handbook further legisla-
Education.....	108	tion in their fields.)
Labor, U. S., Women's Bur.	116	Allied Citizens of Amer.....	1
the Treasury, U. S., Public		Amer. Assn. for the Hard of Hearing	3
Service.....	120	Amer. Assn. for Labor Legislation...	5
Council of the Churches of		Amer. Assn. of Workers for the Blind	8
the United States.....	130	Amer. Baptist Home Mission Soc....	9
Annual Meeting of Friends, Bd.		Amer. Council on Education.....	11 of Christian Missions.....	135	Amer. Country Life Assn.....	12
Crippled and Disabled Men	147	Amer. Farm Bur. Fed.....	14
and Women's Mission Inst.....	165	Amer. Fed. of Labor.....	16
National Child Welfare Soc.....	168	Amer. Forestry Assn.....	18
Church, Bd. of Home Missions		Amer. Home Economics Assn.....	19
Church Extension.....	170	Amer. Humane Education Soc.....	20
Church, Bd. of Temperance,		Amer. Inst. of Criminal Law and
Education and Public Morals.....	170	Criminology.....	21
National of Travelers Aid Soc....	180	Amer. Medical Assn.....	24
Child Labor Committee.....	187	Amer. Patriotic League.....	46
Committee for Mental Hygiene	190	Amer. Prison Assn.....	48
Committee for the Prevention		Amer. Public Health Assn.....	49
of Tuberculosis.....	191	Amer. Social Hygiene Assn.....	52
Conference on City Planning...	194	Amer. Soc. for Municipal Improve-
County Council.....	201	ments.....	55
County Assn.....	208	Assn. of Collegiate Alumnae.....	59
School of Nursing Education...	212	Church Assn. for the Advancement
Warren Council.....	215	of the Interests of Labor.....	84
County Council.....	225	Commission on Milk Standards.....	88
Society of the Daughters of the		Conference of State and Provincial Revolution.....	229	Health Authorities.....	91
Rock Guild.....	237	Cooperative League.....	92
Rock Civic League for Immi-		Council of Jewish Women.....	93
grants.....	240	Dept. of Justice, U. S.....	113
Id and Recreation Assn.....	245	Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Coast
Iranian Church, U. S. A., New		Guard.....	119
Yorkment.....	251	Genl. Fed. of Women's Clubs, Dept.
Army.....	262	of Applied Education.....	137
Temperance Fed.....	264	Dept. of Legislation.....	138
Day Adventists, Medical		Indian Rights Assn.....	146
Department.....	267	Internatl. Kindergarten Union.....	152
Physical Education.....	275
Christian Missionary Soc.....	283

	PAGE		PAGE
Library of Congress, Legislative Reference Div.	164	edl. Leprosarium.....	131
Natl. Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.....	177	Liberty Bonds
Natl. Assn. of the Deaf.....	179	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Post War Services, Service Claims and Information.....	38
Natl. Bd. of Fire Underwriters.....	182	Librarians, Library Extension and Training
Natl. Catholic Welfare Council, Educational Dept.....	185	Amer. Library Assn.....	23
Laws and Legislation Dept.....	185	Amer. Missionary Assn.....	25
Natl. Child Health Council.....	186	Library Workers' Assn.....	165
Natl. Child Labor Committee.....	187	Special Libraries Assn.....	277
Natl. Civil Service Reform League.....	189	Libraries. See also Package Libraries; Reading Rooms
Natl. Committee for Constructive Immigration Legislation.....	189	Amer. Assn. to Promote the Teaching of Speech to the Deaf.....	6
Natl. Committee for Mental Hygiene	190	Amer. Natl. Red Cross
Natl. Committee on Prisons and Prison Labor.....	192	Exec. Secy.....	28
Natl. Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws.....	194	Health Service.....	30
Natl. Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers Assns.....	197	Amer. Seamen's Friend Soc.....	52
Natl. Consumers' League.....	198	Amer. Social Hygiene Assn.....	52
Natl. Council of Women.....	200	Bohemian-Slavonic Benevolent Soc.....	66
Natl. Education Assn.....	202	Boy Scouts.....	67
Natl. Fed. of Remedial Loan Assns.....	204	Carnegie Endowment for Internatl. Peace.....	75
Natl. Fed. of Settlements.....	205	Community Motion Picture Bur....	89
Natl. Grange.....	207	Council of Jewish Women.....	93
Natl. Health Council.....	208	Dept. of Agriculture, U. S.....	98
Natl. Housing Assn.....	208	Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Bur. of Education.....	108
Natl. Kindergarten Assn.....	211	Hospital Library and Service Bur....	144
Natl. League of Compulsory Education Officials.....	211	Inst. for Crippled and Disabled Men	147
Natl. League of Women Voters.....	213	Intercollegiate Vocational Guidance Assn.....	149
Natl. Liberal Immigration League....	215	Library of Congress.....	163
Natl. Municipal League.....	217	Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., Welfare Div.....	175
Natl. Org. for Public Health Nursing	219	Natl. Catholic Welfare Council.....	184
Natl. Probation Assn.....	223	Natl. Committee for Mental Hygiene	190
Natl. Public Welfare League.....	223	Natl. Education Assn.....	202
Natl. Soc. for Vocational Education..	231	Natl. Org. for Public Health Nursing	219
Natl. Woman's Christian Temperance Union.....	235	Natl. Safety Council.....	225
Natl. Woman's Relief Soc.....	236	Polish Natl. Alliance.....	247
Natl. Women's Trade Union League..	237	Polish Roman Catholic Union.....	247
Playground and Recreation Assn....	245	Polish Women's Alliance.....	247
Natl. Physical Education Service.....	246	Prudential Insurance Co.....	255
Protestant Episcopal Church in the U. S. A., Dept. of Christian Social Service.....	254	Religious Education Movement.....	257
Russell Sage Foundation.....	259	Russell Sage Foundation, Library....	261
Soc. of American Indians.....	272	Safety Inst. of Amer.....	261
Soc. of Progressive Oral Advocates..	274	Scientific Temperance Fed.....	264
Universalist Church, Commission on Social Service.....	289	Shut-in Soc.....	268
World Alliance for Internatl. Friendship.....	293	Sisterly Benevolent Union.....	268
Leprosy		Smithsonian Inst.....	271
Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public Health Service, Div. of Scientific Research.....	121	Sons of Norway.....	277
		Union of Czech Women.....	283
		Western Czech Fraternal Union.....	290
		World Peace Foundation.....	294
		Life Insurance. See Insurance, Life

	PAGE		PAGE
Commerce, U. S., Bur. of	105	Lynching. See Negro . (Practically all the Negro agencies are interested in anti-lynching activities.)
Red Cross, First Aid...	29	Mail Service, Foreign
Interior, U. S., Bur. of	67	Post Office Dept., U. S.....	248
Service		Mail Service, Rural
Commerce, U. S., Bur. of	108	Natl. Grange.....	207
Systems		Post Office Dept., U. S., Div. of Rural
of Agricultural Engineers	54	Mails.....	249
Commerce, U. S., Bur. of	105	Mails, Misuse of
Observation Council....	126	Post Office Dept., U. S., Chief Inspector.....	249
Health Council.....	186	Malaria
in the U. S.		Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public
Manian Medical Assn....	58	Health Service.....	120
Language Information Ser-		Natl. Malaria Committee.....	216
.....	135	Rockefeller Foundation.....	258
Lithuania.....	160	Manufacturing. See also Industrial
Patriots.....	167	Dept. of Commerce, U. S., Bur. of
Temple.....	244	the Census.....	105
Alliance.....	247	Marine Hospitals
Post of. See also Eco-		Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public
Home Economics		Health Service, Div. of Marine rial Conference Bd.....	209	Hospitals and Relief.....	120
See also Scholarships		Marines
Red Cross		See Introduction
Relief.....	35	Amer. Legion.....	22
Services.....	38	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Military Re-
Higher Education.....	93	lief.....	35
Jewish Women.....	93	Post War Services.....	38
Treasury, U. S., Fedl.		Dept. of the Interior, U. S., St. Eliz-
Bd.....	119	abeth's Hospital.....	112
Vocational Education..	127	Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public
Wh Farmers.....	132	Health Service, Div. of Marine cultural and Industrial		Hospitals and Relief.....	120
.....	154	Markets and Marketing
Remedial Loan Assns..	204	Amer. Farm Bur. Fed.....	14
Alliance.....	247	Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Bur. of Education.....	252	Markets.....	100
e Foundation, Div. of		Natl. Consumers' League.....	198
Loans.....	260	Natl. Milk Producers' Fed.....	217
Index, How to Use.....	LXIII	Marking and Labeling. See also Houses. See Boarding		Labeling
ing Houses		Amer. Farm Bur. Fed.....	14
See School Lunches		Natl. Conference of Commissioners
Lutheran Augustana		on Uniform State Laws.....	194
.....	126	Marriage and Divorce Laws
Angelic Lutheran Church	133	Amer. Assn. for Organizing Family
Angelic Lutheran Natl.		Social Work.....	5
.....	133	Natl. Conference of Commissioners
an Council.....	215	on Uniform State Laws.....	194
Lutheran Church.....	242	Natl. League of Women Voters....	213
eran Church.....	287	Presbyterian Church, Bd. of Temperance and Moral Welfare.....	249
		Maternity. See Mothers, Care of
		Meat Inspection
		Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Bur. of
		Animal Industry.....	99

	PAGE		PAGE
Medical and Medical Aid. See also		Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public
Hygiene; Hospitals and Sanatoria		Health Service.....	120
Amer. Assn. of Industrial Physicians		Engineering Foundation of N. Y....	125 and Surgeons.....	4	Life Extension Inst.....	165
Amer. Friends Service Committee...	18	Methodist Child Welfare Soc.....	168
Amer. Hospital Assn.....	20	Natl. Committee for Mental Hygiene	190
Amer. Medical Assn.....	24	Natl. Conference of Commissioners
Amer. Natl. Red Cross, First Aid...	29	on Uniform State Laws.....	194
Amer. Social Hygiene Assn.....	52	Natl. Conference of Social Work....	196
Amer. Soc. for the Control of Cancer.	54	Natl. Health Council.....	208
Amer.'s Lithuanian Medical Assn....	58	Presbyterian Church, Bd. of Temper-
Conference of State and Provincial		ance and Moral Welfare.....	249
Health Authorities.....	91	Rockefeller Foundation.....	258
Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public		Metal Trades. See also Women
Health Service.....	120	Workers in Metal Trades
Employees' Compensation Commis-		Natl. Safety Council.....	225
sion, U. S.....	124	Methodist Episcopal
Genl. Education Bd.....	136	Epworth League.....	125
Hospital Library and Service Bur...	144	Methodist Child Welfare Soc.....	168
Interdepartmental Social Hygiene		M. E. Church, Bd. of Education for
Bd., U. S.....	150	Negroes.....	169
M. E. Church, Woman's Home Mis-		M. E. Church, Bd. of Home Missions
sionary Soc.....	171	and Church Extension.....	170
Natl. Assn. for the Study of Epilepsy		M. E. Church, Bd. of Temperance, and the Care and Treatment of		Prohibition and Public Morals...	170
Epileptics.....	179	M. E. Church, Genl. Deaconess Bd...	171
Natl. Child Health Council.....	186	M. E. Church, Woman's Home Mis-
Natl. Committee for Mental Hygiene	190	sionary Soc.....	171
Natl. Malaria Committee.....	216	M. E. Church South, Commission
Natl. Medical Assn.....	216	on Temperance and Social Service.	175
Natl. Research Council.....	224	Methodist Fed. for Social Service...	175
Natl. Soc. for the Promotion of Occu-		Mexicans in the U. S.
pational Therapy.....	230	Amer. Missionary Assn.....	25
Natl. Tuberculosis Assn.....	233	Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., Wo-
People's Univ.—The Temple.....	244	man's Bd. of Home Missions.....	252
Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.,		Y. W. C. A.....	298
Bd. of Home Missions.....	250	Military Service
Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.,		See Introduction
Woman's Bd. of Home Missions..	252	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Military Re-
Rockefeller Foundation.....	258	lief.....	35
Rockefeller Inst. for Medical Re-		Milk. See Agriculture, Dairy
search.....	259	Milk Inspection. See also Agricul-
Seventh-Day Adventists, Medical		ture, Dairy
Missionary Dept.....	267	Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public
Medical Social Service, Red Cross		Health Service, Div. of Scientific
Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Post War		Research.....	121
Services.....	38	Milk Standards. See Agriculture,
Scholarship Committees.....	43	Dairy
Volunteer Service.....	41	Mines and Mining
Membership, Red Cross		Dept. of Commerce, U. S., Bur. of the
Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Membership		Census.....	105
Activities.....	42	Bur. of Standards.....	106
Mental Hygiene		Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Bur. of
Amer. Assn. for the Study of the Fee-		Mines.....	108
ble-Minded.....	8	Genl. Land Office.....	110
Amer. School Hygiene Assn.....	52	Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Bur. of
Dept. of the Interior, U. S., St. Eliza-		Internal Revenue, Child Labor Tax
beth's Hospital.....	112	Div.....	118
		Engineering Foundation of New York	125

	PAGE		PAGE
Council.....	225	Community Service.....	90
Diplomatic. See Embassy		Council of Jewish Women.....	93
Legations to the U. S.		Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Div. of slatives		Publications.....	101
wish Women.....	93	Forest Service.....	102 on Bur.....	201	Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Bur. of ny, Inquiry Dept.....	264	Education.....	108
. See Church Home		Natl. Park Service.....	111
		Dept. of Labor, U. S., Women's Bur.	116
s, National		Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public
Interior, U. S., Natl.		Health Service, Public Health Ed-
ce.....	111	ucation Section.....	122
Assn.....	221	Genl. Fed. of Women's Clubs.....	137
Agencies concerned with		Inst. for Crippled and Disabled Men	147
na Council.....	142	Natl. Bd. of Review of Motion Pic-
Assn.....	224	tures.....	183
's Relief Soc.....	236	Natl. Child Labor Committee.....	187
		Natl. Committee on Prisons and cultural and Industrial		Prison Labor.....	192
.....	154	Natl. Congress of Mothers and Par-
nce of Commissioners on		ent-Teachers Assns.....	197
ate Laws.....	194	Natl. Fed. of College Women.....	203 are of		Natl. Motion Picture League.....	217
Hygiene Assn.....	10	Natl. Org. for Public Health Nursing.	219
s Service Committee... 18		Natl. Safety Council.....	225
Red Cross		Natl. Tuberculosis Assn.....	233
vice.....	30	Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., New ice.....	31	Era Movement.....	251
in Home Hygiene and		Salvation Army.....	262
he Sick.....	32	Soc. for Visual Education.....	275
rvice.....	36	Motion Pictures, Censorship of ervice.....	37	Council of Jewish Women.....	93
g People's Union.....	63	Natl. Bd. of Review of Motion Pic-
Society.....	83	tures.....	183
gro Relief.....	86	Natl. Motion Picture League.....	217 wish Women.....	93	Presbyterian Church, Bd. of Temper-
r, U. S., Children's Bur.	115	ance and Moral Welfare.....	249
Women's Clubs, Dept.		Motor Corps, Red Cross
on.....	138	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Volunteer
Maccabees.....	161	Service.....	41
abor Committee.....	187	Mountaineers, Work for elfare Assn.....	188	Amer. Missionary Assn.....	25
ss of Mothers and Par-		Five Years Meeting of Friends, Bd.
ra Assns.....	197	of Home Missions.....	135
e Crittenton Mission... 206		Natl. Soc. of Children of the Amer.
of Women Voters.....	213	Revolution.....	228
s Christian Temperance		Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.,
.....	235	Bd. of Home Missions.....	250
ny.....	262	Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.,
tures. See also Hygiene,		Woman's Bd. of Home Missions..	252
ictures		Presbyterian Church in the U. S.
Red Cross, Public Infor-		(South), Exec. Committee of Home
vice.....	42	Missions.....	252
Hygiene Assn.....	52	Municipal. See Civics and Citizen-
.....	67	ship
mercial Economics.....	70	Museums
irls.....	74	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Exec. Secy. 28
erance Soc.....	86	Safety Inst. of Amer.....	261
Motion Picture Bur.... 89		Smithsonian Inst., Natl. Museum.. 271

	PAGE		PAGE
Music		Military Relief	35
Amer. Missionary Assn.....	25	Nursing Service	36
Community Service.....	90	Post War Services	38
Genl. Fed. of Women's Clubs.....	137	Dept. of the Interior, U. S., St. Elizabeth's Hospital.....	112
Library of Congress.....	163	Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Coast Guard.....	119
Natl. Assn. of Colored Women.....	178	Public Health Service, Div. of Marine Hospitals and Relief.....	120
Natl. Assn. of Negro Musicians.....	179	Fedl. Bd. for Vocational Education..	127
Natl. Education Assn.....	202	Interdepartmental Social Hygiene Bd., U. S.....	150
Presser Foundation.....	252	Jewish Welfare Bd.....	156
Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Inst	281	Y. M. C. A.....	295
Music Teachers, Relief of		Negro. See also Education, Negro; Housing, Negro
Presser Foundation.....	252	Amer. Baptist Home Mission Soc...	9
National Children's Fund		Amer. Missionary Assn.....	25
Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Junior Red Cross.....	33	Assn. of Colleges for Negro Youth..	59
Natl. Committee on Red Cross Nursing Service		Assn. for the Study of Negro Life and History.....	62
Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Nursing Service	36	Circle for Negro Relief.....	86
National Staff Council, Red Cross		Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Freedmen's Hospital.....	109
Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Natl. Staff Council.....	28	Dept. of Labor, U. S., Commissioner on Conciliation.....	116
Naturalization		Fedl. Council of the Churches of Christ.....	130
Dept. of Labor, U. S., Bur. of Immigration.....	114	Five Years Meeting of Friends, Bd. of Home Missions.....	135
Bur. of Naturalization.....	114	Genl. Education Bd.....	136
Dept. of State, U. S., Div. of Passport Control.....	117	Home Missions Council.....	142
Genl. Fed. of Women's Clubs, Dept. of Amer. Citizenship.....	137	John F. Slater Fund.....	157
Hebrew Sheltering and Immigrant Aid Soc.....	141	Julius Rosenwald Fund.....	157
Natl. Committee for Constructive Immigration Legislation.....	189	M. E. Church, Bd. of Education for Negroes.....	169
Natl. League of Women Voters.....	213	M. E. Church, Woman's Home Missionary Soc., Burs. for Negro Work	173
Neighbors' League.....	239	Natl. Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.....	177
No. Amer. Civic League for Immigrants.....	240	Natl. Assn. of Colored Graduate Nurses.....	178
Nature Study		Natl. Assn. of Colored Women.....	178
Boy Scouts.....	67	Natl. Assn. of Negro Musicians.....	179
Camp Fire Girls.....	74	Natl. Assn. of Teachers in Colored Schools.....	180
Girl Scouts.....	138	Natl. Baptist Convention.....	181
Soc. for Visual Education.....	275	Natl. Catholic Welfare Council, Educational Dept.....	185
Woodcraft League.....	293	Natl Medical Assn.....	216
Navigation. See also Shipping; Transportation		Natl. Negro Business League.....	218
Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Weather Bur.....	104	Natl. Urban League.....	234
Dept. of Commerce, U. S., Bur. of Lighthouses.....	106	Negro Natl. Educational Congress...	238
Coast and Geodetic Survey.....	107	Negro Rural School Fund, Anna T. Jeannes Foundation.....	238
Dept. of State, U. S., Consular Bur..	117	Phelps Stokes Fund.....	244
Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Coast Guard.....	119	Presbyterian Church in the U. S. (South), Exec. Committee of Home Missions.....	252
Natl. Safety Council.....	225
Navy
See Introduction
Amer. Legion.....	22
Amer. Natl. Red Cross.....	26
Home Service.....	31

	PAGE		PAGE
urch in Amer., Bd. of		Nursing. See also Education, missions.....	256	Nurses'; Employment, Nurses'; mal and Industrial Inst.	281	Home Hygiene and Care of the
terian Church, Bd. of		Sick
Missions.....	288	Amer. Missionary Assn.....	25
mission on Southern		Amer. Natl. Red Cross
ons.....	289	Nursing Service.....	36
.....	295	Public Health Nursing Service....	41
.....	298	Scholarship Committees.....	43
od. See Community		Amer. Nurses' Assn.....	45
Community Welfare		Amer. Social Hygiene Assn.....	52
ed Cross, Public Infor-		Assn. of Women in Public Health...	62
mice.....	42	Circle for Negro Relief.....	86
the Control of Cancer.	54	Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public culture, U. S., Bur. of		Health Service.....	120
lications.....	100	Internatl. Order of the King's Daugh-
Treasury, U. S., Public	101	ters and Sons.....	153
ice.....	120	Isabel Hampton Robb Memorial uage Information Ser-		Fund.....	154
.....	135	M. E. Church, Genl. Deaconess Bd..	171
Women's Clubs, Dept.		M. E. Church, Woman's Home Mis-
of Publicity.....	138	sionary Soc.....	171
Welfare Council, Dept.		Natl. Assn. of Colored Graduate
, Press and Literature.	185	Nurses.....	178
n Dept.....	186	Natl. Catholic Welfare Council, Social in Council, Lutheran		Action Dept.....	186
.....	216	Natl. Child Health Council.....	186
Business League, Natl.		Natl. Health Council.....	208
Assn.....	219	Natl. League of Nursing Education.	212
osis Assn.....	233	Natl. Nursing Assn. Headquarters..	219
Fund.....	244	Natl. Org. for Public Health Nursing	219 is		Natl. Tuberculosis Assn.....	233
/ocational Education..	127	Natl. Woman's Relief Soc.....	236
lumbus.....	159	Salvation Army.....	262
.....	295	Nursing, Public Health
.....	298	Amer. Child Hygiene Assn.....	10
of Women, Prohibition		Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Public Health
ers' League.....	198	Nursing Service.....	41
of Women Voters.....	213	Assn. of Women in Public Health...	62
in the U. S.		Circle for Negro Relief.....	86
uage Information Ser-		Conference of State and Provincial
.....	135	Health Authorities.....	91
theran Church.....	242	Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public
y.....	277	Health Service, Div. of Marine
See Public Nuisances		Hospitals and Relief.....	120
of Training Schools for		Natl. Org. for Public Health Nursing	219
Assn.....	45	Natl. Tuberculosis Assn.....	233
ignment, Red Cross		Nutrition
ed Cross, Nursing Ser-		Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Nutrition Ser-
.....	36	vice.....	37
oliment, Red Cross		Amer. School Hygiene Assn.....	52
ed Cross, Nursing Ser-		Carnegie Inst. of Washington, Nutri-
.....	36	tion Laboratory.....	77
ining. See Education,		Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., States
n		Relations Service.....	103
		Natl. Child Health Council.....	186
		Nutrition, Classes in Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Nutrition
		Service.....	37

	PAGE		PAGE
Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., States Relations Service.....	103	Patents
Occupational Diseases. See Hygiene, Industrial		Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Patent Office.....	112
Occupational Therapy		Pathology
Natl. Soc. for the Promotion of Occupational Therapy.....	230	Life Extension Inst.....	165
One Day Rest in Seven. See also Sabbath Observance		Rockefeller Inst. for Medical Research.....	259
Amer. Assn. for Labor Legislation...	5	Patriotic. See also Americanization
Amer. Fed. of Labor.....	16	Allied Citizens of Amer.....	1
Lord's Day Alliance.....	167	Amer. Legion.....	22
Natl. Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws.....	194	Amer. Natl. Red Cross.....	26
Natl. Reform Assn.....	224	Amer. Patriotic League.....	46
Orphans, Care of. See also Child Welfare; Homes, Children's		Amer. Women's Legion.....	58
Amer. Red Mogen David.....	50	Boy Scouts.....	67
Catholic Daughters of Amer.....	77	Camp Fire Girls.....	74
Dept. of Labor, U. S., Children's Bureau.....	115	Girl Scouts.....	138
Evangelical Assn.....	126	Grand Army of the Republic.....	141
Evangelical Lutheran Augustana Synod.....	126	Independent Order of B'nai B'rith..	145
Norwegian Lutheran Church.....	242	Natl. Fed. of College Women.....	203
United Christian Missionary Soc....	283	Natl. Security League.....	226
Package Libraries		Natl. Soc. of Children of the Amer. Revolution.....	228
Amer. Seamen's Friend Soc.....	52	Natl. Soc. of the Daughters of the Amer. Revolution.....	229
Natl. Org. for Public Health Nursing	219	Natl. Soc. U. S. Daughters of 1812..	231
Natl. Safety Council.....	225	No. Amer. Civic League for Immigrants.....	240
Pageants		Peoples of Amer. Soc.....	243
Amer. Home Economics Assn.....	19	Red Triangle League.....	256
Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Membership Activities.....	42	Service Star Legion.....	266
Girls' Friendly Soc.....	140	Sons of Confederate Veterans.....	276
Sulgrave Inst.....	278	Sulgrave Inst.....	278
Y. W. C. A.....	298	United Daughters of the Confederacy	286
Parcel Post		Woman's Relief Corps.....	292
Post Office Dept., U. S., Parcel Post.	249	Peace
Pardons		Amer. Peace Soc.....	47
Dept. of Justice, U. S., Attorney in Charge of Pardons.....	113	Amer. Unitarian Assn.....	57
Parks		Carnegie Endowment for Internatl. Peace.....	75
Amer. Civic Assn.....	11	Church Peace Union.....	85
Amer. Soc. for Municipal Improvements.....	55	Natl. Reform Assn.....	224
Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Natl. Park Service.....	111	Sulgrave Inst.....	278
Genl. Fed. of Women's Clubs, Dept. of Applied Education, Div. on Conservation of Natural Resources.	138	Universalist Church, Commission on Social Service.....	289
Natl. Parks Assn.....	221	World Alliance for Internatl. Friendship.....	293
Passports		World Peace Foundation.....	294
Dept. of State, U. S., Consular Bur.	117	Peace-Time Activities, Red Cross. See Introduction
Div. of Passport Control.....	117	Amer. Natl Red Cross.....	26
Pasteurization. See Agriculture, Dairy; Milk Inspection		Pediatric. See Child Hygiene
Pasturage		Pellagra
Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Forest Service.....	102	Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public Health Service, Div. of Scientific Research.....	121
		Natl. Medical Assn.....	216

	PAGE		PAGE
See also Death Benefits; Claims and Information; Benefits		Child Health Org.....	81
Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching.....	76	Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public Health Service.....	120
the Interior, U. S., Bur. of		Life Extension Inst.....	165
.....	109	Natl. Child Labor Committee.....	187
for Government Research..	148	Plants
Education Assn.....	202	Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Bur. of Plant Industry.....	101
League of Teachers' Assns....	213	Natl. Plant, Flower and Fruit Guild..	222
Christian Missionary Soc....	283	Playgrounds
Mothers'		Amer. Civic Assn.....	11
Child Labor Committee.....	187	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Junior Red Cross.....	33
Congress of Mothers and Par- tners Assns.....	197	Community Service.....	90
League of Women Voters....	213	Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Forest Service.....	102
Natl. Red Cross		Industrial Removal Office.....	147
Natl. Red Cross		Internatl. Order of the King's Daughters and Sons.....	153
ional Service.....	42	Natl. Child Labor Committee.....	187
Agency.....	28	Natl. Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers Assns.....	197
Personnel Service.....	43	Playground and Recreation Assn....	245
Introduction		Presbyterian Church, Bd. of Temperance and Moral Welfare.....	249
Natl. Red Cross, Preparedness Disaster Relief.....	40	United Soc. of Christian Endeavor...	288
the Treasury, U. S., Public Service.....	120	Plays, Lists of
Acropolis, U. S.		Amer. Library Assn.....	23
Agriculture, U. S., Bur. of Industry.....	99	Plumbing Systems
raphs. See note under Ex-		Amer. Soc. of Agricultural Engineers	54
Education. See also Edu-		Poisonous Plants, Eradication of
Special Training; Hygiene		Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Bur. of Plant Industry.....	101
Gymnastic Union.....	19	Forest Service.....	102
Missionary Assn.....	25	Police
Physical Education Assn.....	47	N. Y. Bur. of Municipal Research and Training School for Public Service.....	239
Stature League.....	48	Poles in the U. S.
School Hygiene Assn.....	52	Foreign Language Information Service.....	135
ts.....	67	Polish Falcons Alliance.....	246
Girls.....	74	Polish Natl. Alliance.....	246
Slovak Sokol.....	78	Polish Roman Catholic Union.....	247
ts.....	138	Polish Women's Alliance.....	247
Order of the Knights of Arthur.....	153	Political Science. See also Economics nation Inst.....	165	Academy of Political Science.....	1 and Recreation Assn....	245	Amer. Academy of Political and Social Science.....	2
Physical Education Service..	246	Population
Polons Alliance.....	246	Dept. of Commerce, U. S., Bur. of the Census.....	105
George Foundation.....	259	Post Office. See also Mail Service, Foreign; Mail Service, Rural
Gymnastic Union.....	269	Post Office Dept., U. S.....	248
Gymnastic Org.....	276	Post War Services, Red Cross
ic. of Christian Endeavor...	288	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Post War Services.....	38
t League.....	293
A.....	295
A.....	298
Examinations
Physical Education Assn.....	47
School Hygiene Assn.....	52

	PAGE		PAGE
Postal Savings Banks. See Banks, Postal Savings		Protection of American Citizens Abroad
Posters		Dept. of State, U. S., Consular Bur.	117
Amer. Medical Assn.	24	Div. of Passport Control.	117
Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Publications Service.	42	Protestant Episcopal
Amer. Social Hygiene Assn.	52	Brotherhood of St. Andrew.	69
Boy Scouts.	67	Church Assn. for the Advancement of the Interests of Labor.	84
Child Health Org.	81	Church League for Industrial Democracy.	85
Dept. of the Treasury, U. S.; Public Health Service, Public Health Education Section.	122	Church Temperance Soc.	86
Inst. for Crippled and Disabled Men	147	Daughters of the King.	98
Life Extension Inst.	165	Girls' Friendly Soc.	139
Natl. Child Welfare Assn.	188	Protestant Episcopal Church in the U. S. A., Dept. of Christian Social Service.	254
Natl. Committee for the Prevention of Blindness.	191	Seamen's Church Inst.	265
Natl. Dairy Council.	201	Psychology. See Mental Hygiene
Natl. Fed. of Temple Sisterhoods.	205	Public Health. See Hygiene
Natl. Org. for Public Health Nursing	219	Public Health Administration
Natl. Safety Council.	225	Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public Health Service.	120
Neighbors' League.	239	Life Extension Inst.	165
Presbyterian Church, Bd. of Temperance and Moral Welfare.	249	Public Health Nursing. See Nursing, Public Health
Salvation Army.	262	Public Health Service Hospitals. See also Hospital Social Service; Hospitals and Sanatoria
Scientific Temperance Fed.	264	Amer. Library Assn.	23
United Christian Missionary Soc.	283	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Medical Social Service.	38
Y. M. C. A.	295	Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public Health Service.	120
Posture. See Physical Education		Fedl. Leprosarium.	131
Presbyterian		Public Nuisances. See also Insects, Extermination of; Poisonous Plants, Eradication of; Rats, Extermination of
Presbyterian Church, Bd. of Temperance and Moral Welfare.	249	Amer. Civic Assn.	11
Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., Bd. of Home Missions.	250	Boy Scouts.	67
Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., New Era Movement.	251	Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Bur. of Biological Survey.	99
Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., Woman's Bd. of Home Missions.	252	Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public Health Service.	120
Presbyterian Church in the U. S. (South), Exec. Committee of Home Missions.	252	Natl. Malaria Committee.	216
United Presbyterian Church, Bd. of Freedmen's Missions.	288	Public Safety
Press Bureaus. See News Service		Natl. Safety Council.	225
Primary Schools. See Education, Primary		Public Service, Training for
Printing, Government		N. Y. Bur. of Municipal Research and Training School for Public Service.	239
Government Printing Office, U. S.	140	Public Speakers. See Speakers
Prisons. See Correction		Public Utilities. See also Civics and Citizenship
Probation. See also Juvenile Courts		Amer. Soc. for Municipal Improvements.	55
Natl. Probation Assn.	223	Natl. Safety Council.	225
Phelps Stokes Fund.	244	Publication Societies
Soc. for the Friendless.	273	Amer. Baptist Publication Soc.	9
Profit Sharing		Immigrant Publication Soc.	144
Natl. Industrial Conference Bd.	209
Prohibition. See Temperance

	PAGE		PAGE
Publication Soc.....	155	Boys' Club Fed.....	66
Associates.....	279	Boy Scouts.....	67
ations. (Practically all agen-		Bur. of Commercial Economics.....	70 included in the Handbook		Camp Fire Girls.....	74
: publications; for descrip-		Church Temperance Soc.....	86
see text.)		Community Motion Picture Bur....	89
ations, Government		Community Service.....	90
ent Printing Office, U. S.....	140	Council of Jewish Women.....	93
ations Service, Red Cross		Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Forest
atl. Red Cross, Publications		Service.....	102
.....	42	Epworth League.....	125
time		Genl. Fed. of Women's Clubs.....	137
the Treasury, U. S., Coast		Girl Scouts.....	138
.....	119	Girls' Friendly Soc.....	139
Health Service.....	120	Jewish Welfare Bd.....	156
es		Knights of Lithuania.....	160
Commerce, U. S., Bur. of the		Natl. Child Labor Committee.....	187
.....	105	Natl. Child Welfare Assn.....	188
the Interior, U. S., Bur. of		Natl. Community Center Assn.....	193
.....	108	Natl. Congress of Mothers and Par-
the Treasury, U. S., Bur. of		ent-Teachers Assns.....	197
al Revenue, Child Labor		Natl. League of Girls' Clubs.....	212
iv.....	118	Natl. Motion Picture League.....	217
Governmental Agencies. See		Natl. Story Tellers' League.....	232
ral and Affiliated Agencies		Natl. Urban League.....	234
II		N. Y. League for the Hard of Hearing	240
Agriculture, U. S., Weather		Playground and Recreation Assn....	245
.....	104	Presbyterian Church, Bd. of Temper-
Extermination of		ance and Moral Welfare.....	249
Agriculture, U. S., Bur. of		Russell Sage Foundation, Dept. of ical Survey.....	99	Recreation.....	260
ing Rooms. See also Libraries		Woodcraft League.....	293
n-Slavonic Benevolent Soc.s.	66	Y. M. C. A.....	295
Temperance Soc.....	86	Young Men's Hebrew and Kindred of Jewish Women.....	93	Assns.....	297
of Lithuania.....	160	Y. W. C. A.....	298
of Congress.....	163	Reformed Church
mnastic Org.....	276	Reformed Church in Amer., Bd. of
. A.....	295	Domestic Missions.....	256
. A.....	298	Reformed Church in the U. S., Com-nation		mission on Social Service and Rural orestry Assn.....	18	Work.....	257
xc. of Agricultural Engineers.	54	Registration of Births and Deaths
f the Interior, U. S., Genl.		Dept. of Commerce, U. S., Bur. of Office.....	110	the Census.....	105
nation Service.....	112	Dept. of Labor, U. S., Children's Bur.	115 ange.....	207	Natl. Conference of Commissioners on nior Chamber of Commerce.	288	Uniform State Laws.....	194
tion		Rehabilitation. See Disabled; Vo- aptist Home Mission Soc....	9	cational Rehabilitation hild Hygiene Assn.....	10	Relief. See also Social Service ivic Assn.....	11	Actors' Fund.....	1
ountry Life Assn.....	12	Amer. Allied Fund.....	2 orestry Assn.....	18	Amer. Assn. for the Hard of Hearing	3
latl. Red Cross, Junior Red		Amer. Friends Service Committee...	18
.....	33	Amer. Natl. Red Cross.....	26
al Social Service.....	38	Amer. Nurses' Assn., Nurses' Relief
ry Relief.....	35	Fund.....	46
hysical Education Assn.....	47	Amer. Unitarian Assn.....	57

	PAGE		PAGE
Commonwealth Fund.....	89	Natl. Research Council.....	224
Czecho-Slovak Natl. Alliance.....	97	Natl. Safety Council.....	225
Czecho-Slovak Natl. Council.....	97	Natl. Short Ballot Org.....	227
Girls' Friendly Soc.....	139	Natl. Social Workers' Exchange.....	228
Independent Order of B'nai B'rith... 145		Natl. Soc. for the Promotion of Occu- pational Therapy.....	230
M. E. Church, Genl. Deaconess Bd... 171		Natl. Tuberculosis Assn.....	233
Natl. League of Teachers' Assns..... 213		Natl. Urban League.....	234
Natl. Woman's Relief Soc.....	236	N. Y. Bur. of Municipal Research and Training School for Public Service	239
Northern Baptist Convention, Min- isters' and Missionaries' Relief Bd. 242		Presbyterian Church, Bd. of Temper- ance and Moral Welfare.....	249
Norwegian Lutheran Church.....	242	Rockefeller Foundation.....	258
Polish Natl. Alliance.....	247	Rockefeller Inst. for Medical Research	259
Polish Roman Catholic Union.....	247	Russell Sage Foundation.....	259
Prusser Foundation.....	252	Smithsonian Inst.....	271
Salvation Army.....	262	Survey Associates.....	279
Slovak League.....	270	Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Inst.	281
Soc. for the Friendless.....	273	World Peace Foundation.....	294
Sons of Confederate Veterans.....	276	Y. W. C. A.....	298
United Christian Missionary Soc..... 283		Rest Periods for Industrial Work- ers
United Czecho-Slovak Legion..... 286		Amer. Assn. for Labor Legislation... 5
United Daughters of the Confederacy 286		Amer. Fed. of Labor.....	16
Volunteers of Amer.....	290	Natl. Industrial Conference Bd..... 209
Woman's Relief Corps.....	292	Rest Rooms
Religious. See also Church and Denominational Organizations		Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Health Ser- vice.....	30
Salvation Army.....	262	Girls' Friendly Society.....	139
Y. M. C. A.....	295	Revenue
Y. W. C. A.....	298	Dept. of the Treasury, U. S.....	118
Research		Bur. of Internal Revenue.....	118
Amer. Assn. for the Hard of Hearing 3		N. Y. Bur. of Municipal Research and Training School for Public Service	239
Amer. Assn. for Labor Legislation... 5		Roads. See Highways
Amer. Economic Assn.....	13	Roman Catholic. See Catholic
Amer. Home Economics Assn.....	19	Room Registries
Amer. Soc. for the Control of Cancer. 54		Y. W. C. A.....	298
Bur. of Commercial Economics.....	70	Room Registries, Negro
Bur. of Jewish Social Research.....	72	Natl. Urban League.....	234
Bur. of Vocational Information.....	73	Roumanians in the U. S.
Carnegie Inst. of Washington.....	76	Baron de Hirsch Fund.....	63
Chamber of Commerce of the U. S... 80		Rural. See also Mail Service , Rural
Commonwealth Fund.....	89	Amer. Baptist Home Mission Soc.... 9
Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Bur. of Chemistry.....	99	Amer. Civic Assn.....	11
Office of Farm Management and Farm Economics.....	102	Amer. Country Life Assn.....	12
States Relations Service.....	103	Amer. Natl. Red Cross.....	26
Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public Health Service, Div. of Scientific Research.....	121	Council of Jewish Women.....	93
Engineering Foundation of N. Y.... 125		Dept. of Agriculture, U. S.....	98
Genl. Education Bd.....	136	Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Bur. of Education.....	106
Inst. for Government Research.....	148	Dept. of Labor, U. S., Children's Bur. 115
Interdepartmental Social Hygiene Bd., U. S.....	150	Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public Health Service, Div. of Scientific Research.....	121
Life Extension Inst.....	165	Fed. of Jewish Farmers.....	132
Natl. Bur. of Economic Research.... 184		Genl. Education Bd.....	136
Natl. Catholic Welfare Council.....	184	Julius Rosenwald Fund.....	157
Natl. Fire Protection Assn.....	206
Natl. Industrial Conference Bd..... 209
Natl. Malaria Committee.....	216

	PAGE		PAGE
Church, Bd. of Home Missions		Amer. Soc. of Agricultural Engineers	54
Church Extension.....	170	Amer. Soc. for Municipal Improve-
Episcopal Convention.....	181	ments.....	55
Catholic Welfare Council, Ed-		Amer.'s Lithuanian Medical Assn...	58
mal Dept.....	185	Commission on Milk Standards.....	88
Congress of Mothers and Par-		Conference of State and Provincial enchers Assns.....	197	Health Authorities.....	91
Education Assn.....	204	Council of Jewish Women.....	93
Housing Assn.....	208	Dept. of Agriculture, U. S.....	98
Bur. for Public Health Nursing	219	Bur. of Animal Industry.....	99
Plant, Flower and Fruit Guild.	222	Bur. of Chemistry.....	99
Robtation Assn.....	223	Dept. of State, U. S., Consular Bur..	117
Soc. of Children of the Amer.		Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public itation.....	228	Health Service.....	120
Intl. Educational Congress....	238	Jewish Agricultural and Industrial
Rural School Fund, Anna T.		Aid Soc.....	154
es Foundation.....	238	Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.,
Stokes Fund.....	244	Welfare Div.....	175
Land and Recreation Assn....	245	Natl. Child Health Council.....	186
Eprian Church, Bd. of Temper-		Natl. Malaria Committee.....	216
and Moral Welfare.....	249	Natl. Safety Council.....	225
Eprian Church in the U. S. A.,		Negro Rural School Fund, Anna T.
f Home Missions, Church and		Jeannes Foundation.....	238
try Life Work Dept.....	250	People's Univ.—The Temple.....	244
ial Insurance Co.....	255	Soc. for Visual Education.....	275
ed Church in the U. S., Com-		Savings. See Banks, Postal Sav- on Social Service and		ings; Thrift
Work.....	257	Scandinavian. See also Norwegian;
Sage Foundation.....	259	Swedish
e Normal and Industrial Inst.	281	Amer-Scandinavian Foundation.....	50
Christian Missionary Soc....	283	Scenic. See Parks
's Natl. Farm and Garden		Scholarships
.....	291	Amer. Assn. for the Hard of Hearing	3
..... A.....	295	Amer. Council on Education.....	11
Delivery. See Mail Service,		Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Scholarship
and		Committees.....	43
Assn in the U. S.		Amer.-Scandinavian Foundation....	50
e Hirsch Fund.....	63	Assn. of Collegiate Alumnae.....	59
Intl. Alliance.....	247	Baron de Hirsch Fund.....	63
..... A.....	295	Bur. of Commercial Economics.....	70
th Observance. See also One		Carnegie Endowment for Internatl.
Rest in Seven		Peace.....	75
Day Alliance.....	167	Council of Jewish Women.....	93
r. See Industrial Safety; Pub-		Intercollegiate Community Service
Safety		Assn.....	149
r Codes		Isabel Hampton Robb Memorial
Safety Council.....	225	Fund.....	154
..... See Seamen		Jewish Agricultural and Industrial
r Standards		Aid Soc.....	154
Assn. for Organizing Family		Knights of Columbus.....	159
Work.....	5	M. E. Church, Bd. of Home Missions
aria, Tuberculosis. See Hos-		and Church Extension.....	170
Is and Sanatoria		M. E. Church, Woman's Home Misitation. See also Hygiene		sionary Soc.....	171
Country Life Assn.....	12	Natl. Child Labor Committee.....	187
ed. of Labor.....	16	Natl. Fed. of College Women.....	203
Public Health Assn.....	49	Natl. Fed. of Temple Sisterhoods...	205
chool Hygiene Assn.....	52	Natl. Florence Crittenton Mission...	206
ocial Hygiene Assn.....	52	Natl. Org. for Public Health Nursing	219

	PAGE		PAGE
Natl. Research Council.....	224	Secretary, Red Cross
Natl. Soc. of Children of the Amer. Revolution.....	228	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Secy.....	27
Natl. Urban League.....	234	Seeds
Phelps Stokes Fund.....	244	Natl. Plant, Flower and Fruit Guild	222
Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., Bd. of Home Missions, Church and Country Life Work Dept.....	250	Service Claims and Information
Presser Foundation.....	252	See also Introduction
Rockefeller Foundation.....	258	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Service Claims and Information.....	38
United Daughters of the Confederacy	286	Settlements. See Community Centers
Woman's Natl. Farm and Garden Assn.....	291	Sewage Disposal. See also Sanitation
Woman's Relief Corps.....	292	Amer. Soc. of Agricultural Engineers	54
Y. M. C. A.....	295	Amer. Soc. for Municipal Improvements.....	55
School Attendance. See Education, Compulsory		Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public Health Service, Div. of Scientific Research.....	121
School Children. See Boys and Girls		Shipping. See also Transportation
School Enrollment, Red Cross		Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Weather Bur.....	104
Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Junior Red Cross.....	33	Dept. of Commerce, U. S.....	104
School Lunches		Shipwrecked
Amer. Natl Red Cross, Nutrition Service.....	37	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Preparedness for Disaster Relief.....	40
School Republics		Blue Anchor Soc.....	65
Amer. Patriotic League.....	46	Dept. of State, U. S., Consular Bur..	117
Schools, Erecting and Equipping of. See also Education, Foundations		Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Coast Guard.....	119
Amer. Civic Assn.....	11	Sick Benefits. See also Insurance, Health
Julius Rosenwald Fund.....	157	Actors' Fund	1
Negro Rural School Fund, Anna T. Jeannes Foundation.....	238	Amer. Nurses' Assn., Nurses' Relief Fund.....	46
Schools, Industrial Training. See Vocational Training and Vocational Guidance		Bohemian-Slavonian Union.....	65
Seamen		Bohemian-Slavonic Benevolent Socs.	66
See also Introduction		Catholic Slovak Sokol.....	78
Amer. Legion.....	22	Czecho-Slavonian Fraternal Benefit Union.....	96
Amer. Natl Red Cross.....	26	First Catholic Slovak Ladies Union..	134
Military Relief	35	First Catholic Slovak Union.....	134
Post War Services	38	Knights of Columbus.....	159
Amer. Seamen's Friend Soc.....	52	Natl. Slovak Soc.....	227
Blue Anchor Soc.....	65	Natl. Slovak Union.....	227
Dept. of Commerce, U. S.....	104	Sisterly Benevolent Union.....	268
Dept. of State, U. S., Div. of Passport Control.....	117	Slovak Gymnastic Union.....	269
Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public Health Service.....	120	Slovak Protestant Union.....	270
Evangelical Lutheran Augustana Synod.....	126	Sons of Norway.....	277
Fedl. Bd. for Vocational Education..	127	Union of Czech Women.....	283
Jewish Welfare Bd.....	156	United Christian Missionary Soc....	283
Mariners' Family Asylum.....	168	United Czecho-Slovak Legion.....	286
Sailors' Snug Harbor.....	261	Western Czech Fraternal Union.....	290
Seamen's Church Inst.....	265	Zivena, Benefit Soc. of Slovak Christian Women.....	299
Secretaries		Sisterhoods
Natl. Assn. of Civic Secretaries.....	177	Natl. Conference of Catholic Charities	194
		Natl. Fed. of Temple Sisterhoods...	205
		Slovak. See Czecho-Slovak

S U B J E C T I N D E X

LV

	PAGE		PAGE
agencies, Directory of. See		Child Welfare League.....	82
y of Social Agencies		Christ Child Soc.....	83
centers. See Community		Christian Church, Bur. of Social Service.....	84
plans		Commonwealth Fund.....	89
al Assn.....	24	Congregational Church, Social Ser-
l Hygiene Assn.....	52	vice Commission.....	92
Hygiene Assn.....	52	Council of Jewish Women.....	93
men in Public Health...	62	Daughters of the King.....	98
of State and Provincial		Epworth League.....	125 authorities.....	91	Fedl. Council of the Churches of Jewish Women.....	93	Christ.....	130
Treasury, U. S., Public		Finnish Evangelical Lutheran Church	133
Service, Div. of Venereal		Girls' Friendly Soc.....	139
	122	Independent Order of B'nai B'rith..	145
Vocational Education..	127	Intercollegiate Community Service
ail of the Churches of		Assn.....	149
mental Social Hygiene Bd.,		Internatl. Order of the King's Daugh-
	150	ters and Sons.....	153
ae Crittenton Mission...	206	Knights of Columbus.....	159
Council.....	208	Methodist Child Welfare Soc.....	168
of Women Voters, Com-		M. E. Church, Bd. of Temperance, social Hygiene.....	214	Prohibition and Public Morals...	170
r Public Health Nursing	219	M. E. Church, South, Commission
's Christian Temperance		on Temperance and Social Service	175
	235	Methodist Fed. for Social Service...	175
Church, Bd. of Temper-		Natl. Assn. of Colored Women.....	178
mental Welfare.....	249	Natl. Baptist Convention.....	181
	295	Natl. Catholic Welfare Council.....	184
ources Information Ser-		Natl. Conference of Catholic Char-
vice Cross		ities.....	194
Red Cross, Information		Natl. Conference of Jewish Social
	32	Service.....	195
science		Natl. Conference of Social Work.....	196 ny of Political and Social		Natl. Desertion Bur.....	201
	2	Natl. Fed. of Czech Catholics.....	203
Social Science.....	211	Natl. Fed. of Settlements.....	205
vice. See also Hospital		Natl. Fed. of Temple Sisterhoods...	205
service; Medical Social Ser-		Natl. Florence Crittenton Mission..	206
viological. (In the broad		Natl. Information Bur.....	210
ation of the term, all of		Natl. Lutheran Council.....	215
encies included in the		Natl. Plant, Flower and Fruit Guild.	222 work render social service.)		Natl. Public Welfare League.....	223 for the Hard of Hearing	3	Natl. Slovak Soc.....	227 for Organizing Family		Natl. Social Workers' Exchange....	228 work.....	5	Natl. Soc. U. S. Daughters of 1812..	231
of Public Officials of		Natl. Urban League.....	234 and Correction.....	7	Natl. Woman's Christian Temper-of Social Service Ex-		ance Union.....	235
	7	Natl. Woman's Relief Soc.....	236
t Home Mission Soc...	9	Needlework Guild.....	237
t Publication Soc.....	9	Negro Natl. Educational Congress....	238
s Service Committee...	18	Neighbors' League.....	239
Red Cross.....	26	N. Y. Foundation.....	240
ian Assn.....	57	N. Y. League for the Hard of Hearing	240
g People's Union.....	63	Northern Baptist Convention.....	241
Phelps Stokes Fund.....	66	Norwegian Lutheran Church.....	242
of St. Andrew.....	69	Polish Women's Alliance.....	247

	PAGE		PAGE
Protestant Episcopal Church in the U. S. A., Dept. of Christian Social Service.....	254	Spanish-Speaking Peoples in the U. S.
Reformed Church in the U. S., Commission on Social Service and Rural Work.....	257	Home Missions Council.....	142
Rockefeller Foundation.....	258	M. E. Church, Woman's Home Missionary Soc., Spanish Work Bur..	173
Rockefeller Inst. for Medical Research	259	Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., Bd. of Home Missions.....	251
Russell Sage Foundation, Charity Org. Dept.....	260	Y. M. C. A.....	295
Salvation Army.....	262	Speakers. (Many other agencies are prepared to furnish speakers.)
Sisterly Benevolent Union.....	268	Amer. Assn. for Community Org.....	3
Slovak Gymnastic Union.....	269	Amer. Assn. for the Hard of Hearing.....	3
Soc. of St. Vincent de Paul.....	274	Amer. Assn. for Labor Legislation... ..	5
Soc. of the Taborites.....	275	Amer. Humane Education Soc.....	20
Survey Associates.....	279	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Membership Activities.....	42
Union of Czech Women.....	283	Public Information Service.....	42
United Christian Missionary Soc.....	283	Amer. Nurses' Assn.....	45
United Czecho-Slovak Legion.....	286	Amer. Posture League.....	48
United Daughters of the Confederacy	286	Amer. Prison Assn.....	48
United Lutheran Church.....	287	Amer.-Scandinavian Foundation... ..	50
United Soc. of Christian Endeavor ..	288	Amer. Social Hygiene Assn.....	52
Universalist Church, Commission on Social Service.....	289	Amer. Soc. for the Control of Cancer	54
Volunteers of Amer.....	290	Amer.'s Lithuanian Medical Assn....	58
Western Czech Fraternal Union.....	290	Bohemian-Slavonic Benevolent Socs..	66
World Brotherhood Fed.....	294	Boys' Club Fed.....	66
Y. M. C. A.....	295	Bur. of Commercial Economics.....	70
Young Men's Hebrew and Kindred Assns.....	297	Bur. of Vocational Information.....	73
Y. W. C. A.....	298	Child Health Org.....	81
Zivena, Benefit Soc. of Slovak Christian Women.....	299	Cooperative League.....	92
Social Service, Negro Training		Council of Jewish Women.....	93
Natl. Urban League.....	234	Finnish Natl. Temperance Brotherhood.....	133
Social Settlements. See Community Centers		Indian Rights Assn.....	146
Sociological. See also Social Service		Inst. for Crippled and Disabled Men.	147
Academy of Political Science.....	1	Intercollegiate Community Service Assn.....	149
Amer. Academy of Political and Social Science.....	2	Intercollegiate Vocational Guidance Assn.....	149
Amer. Country Life Assn.....	12	Knights of Columbus.....	159
Amer. Sociological Soc.....	56	Knights of Lithuania.....	160
Assn. for the Study of Negro Life and History.....	62	Lithuanian Patriots.....	167
Bur. of Jewish Social Research.....	72	M. E. Church, Bd. of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals....	170
Soldiers. See also Ex-Service Men		Methodist Fed. for Social Service....	175
See Introduction		Natl. Assn. of Civic Secretaries.....	177
Amer. Legion.....	22	Natl. Bd. of Review of Motion Pictures.....	183
Amer. Natl. Red Cross.....	26	Natl. Catholic Welfare Council....	184
Military Relief.....	35	Natl. Child Welfare Assn.....	188
Post War Services.....	38	Natl. Civil Service Reform League ..	189
Amer. Women's Legion.....	58	Natl. Committee on Constructive Immigration Legislation.....	189
Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public Health Service, Div. of Marine Hospitals and Relief.....	120	Natl. Committee for the Prevention of Blindness.....	191
Fedl. Bd. for Vocational Education ..	127	Natl. Community Bd.....	193
Jewish Welfare Bd.....	156	Natl. Economic League.....	201
		Natl. Fed. of Day Nurseries.....	204
		Natl. Grange.....	207

	PAGE		PAGE
arten Assn.....	211	States Relations lower and Fruit Guild.	222	Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., States
ouncil.....	225	Relations Service.....	103
League.....	226	Natl. Conference of Commissioners
the Daughters of the		on Uniform State Laws.....	194
lution.....	229	Natl. Research Council.....	224
r the Study and Cor-		Statistics. See also Vital Statis- peech Disorders.....	231	tics. (Many other agencies are ellers' League.....	232	prepared to furnish statistical in-losis Assn.....	233	formation on subjects within League.....	234	their fields.)
ivic League for Immi-		Amer. Statistical Assn.....	56
.....	240	Dept. of Commerce, U. S., Bur. of —The Temple.....	244	the Census.....	105
nd Recreation Assn. . .	245	Dept. of Labor, U. S., Bur. of Labor
s Alliance.....	246	Statistics.....	114
Church, Bd. of Temper-		Statistics, Red Cross
oral Welfare.....	249	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Statistical
Church in the U. S. A.,		Service.....	43
ie Missions.....	250	Steamboat Inspection Service. See f Amer.....	261	Shipping; Transportation. perance Fed.....	264	Story Telling
Indians.....	272	Natl. Story Tellers' League.....	232
borites.....	275	United Soc. of Christian Endeavor..	288
stic Org.....	276	Strikes
ay.....	277	Amer. Fed. of Labor.....	16
h Women.....	283	Dept. of Labor, U. S.....	113
ian Missionary Soc.....	283	Natl. Industrial Conference Bd.....	209
h Fraternal Union.....	290	Student Nurses, Recruiting of
æ for Internatl. Friend-		Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Nursing Ser-
.....	293	vice.....	36
arles		Students. See College Organiza- ies Assn.....	277	tions; Education, Universities and rection. See also Deaf		Colleges
o Promote the Teaching		Students, Music
o the Deaf.....	6	Presser Foundation.....	252
t. for the Deaf.....	87	Subject Index, How to use.....	xi
the Study and Correc-		Suicide, Prevention of ch Disorders.....	231	Salvation Army, Anti-Suicide Bur...	263 for the Hard of Hearing	240	Sunday Rest. See One Day Rest asive Oral Advocates..	274	in Seven; Sabbath Observance
er, Control of		Surgeon General, U. S. Public
iculture, U. S., Bur. of		Health Service
urvey.....	99	Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public Health Service.....	120
x Municipal Improve-		Surveys, Physical iculture, U. S., Bur. of	55	Dept. of Commerce, U. S., Coast and
.....	100	Geodetic Survey.....	107
merce, U. S., Bur. of		Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Genl.
.....	106	Land Office.....	110
ies		Geological Survey.....	110
uction		Reclamation Service.....	112
f State and Provincial		Smithsonian Inst.....	271
horities.....	91	Surveys, Social. See also Hygiene, nce of Commissioners		Surveys. (A number of agencies
State Laws.....	194	other than those listed here make surveys upon request.)
		Amer. Baptist Home Mission Soc....	9
		Amer. Child Hygiene Assn.....	10

	PAGE		PAGE
Amer. Civic Assn.....	11	Natl. Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws.....	194
Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Field Service Service Claims and Information...	42 38	Natl. Industrial Conference Bd.....	209
Amer. Social Hygiene Assn.....	52	N. Y. Bur. of Municipal Research and Training School for Public Service.	239
Amer. Unitarian Assn.....	57	U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce.	288
Baptist Young People's Union.....	63	Teachers. See Education, Teachers
Boys' Club Fed.....	66	Telephone Systems, Extension of
Bur. of Commercial Economics.....	70	Natl. Grange.....	207
Bur. of Jewish Social Research.....	72	Temperance
Child Welfare League.....	82	Allied Citizens of Amer.....	1
Council of Jewish Women.....	93	Amer. Baptist Home Mission Soc....	9
Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Bur. of Education.....	108	Church Temperance Soc.....	86
Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public Health Service.....	120	Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Office of Indian Affairs.....	111
Fedl. Bd. for Vocational Education..	127	Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Bur. of Internal Revenue, Prohibition Unit	118
Genl. Education Bd.....	136	Fedl. Council of the Churches of Christ.....	130
Intercollegiate Vocational Guidance Assn.....	149	Finnish Friends Temperance Assn. .	133
Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., Welfare Div.....	175	Finnish Natl. Temperance Brother- hood.....	133
Natl. Catholic Welfare Council....	184	M. E. Church, Bd. of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals. .	170
Natl. Child Labor Committee.....	187	M. E. Church, Woman's Home Mis- sionary Soc.....	171
Natl. Committee for Mental Hygiene	190	M. E. Church, South, Commission on Temperance and Social Service....	175
Natl. Committee for the Prevention of Blindness.....	191	Natl. Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws.....	194
Natl. Committee on Prisons and Prison Labor.....	192	Natl. Reform Assn.....	224
Natl. Congress of Mothers and Parent- Teachers Assns.....	197	Natl. Woman's Christian Temper- ance Union.....	235
Natl. Florence Crittenton Mission...	206	Post Office Dept., U. S., Chief In- spector.....	249
Natl. Soc. for Vocational Education.	231	Presbyterian Church, Bd. of Temper- ance and Moral Welfare.....	249
Natl. Tuberculosis Assn.....	233	Scientific Temperance Fed.....	264
Natl. Urban League.....	234	Seventh-Day Adventists, Medical Missionary Dept.....	267
N. Y. Bur. of Municipal Research, and Training School for Public Service.....	239	Therapy. See Occupational Ther- apy
Phelps Stokes Fund.....	244	Thrift
Playground and Recreation Assn. .	245	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Junior Red Cross.....	33
Presbyterian Church, Bd. of Temper- ance and Moral Welfare.....	249	Natl. Congress of Mothers and Par- ent-Teachers Assns.....	197
Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., Bd. of Home Missions.....	250	Natl. Education Assn.....	202
Religious Education Assn.....	257	Post Office Dept., U. S.....	248
Russell Sage Foundation.....	259	Service Star Legion.....	266
Dept. of Surveys and Exhibits....	261	Town Planning. See Civic, City Planning
Seamen's Church Inst.....	265	Toys
Survey Associates.....	279	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Junior Red Cross.....	33
United Christian Missionary Soc. .	283	Trade Marks
Swedes in the U. S.		Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Patent Office.....	112
Evangelical Lutheran Augustana Synod.....	126
Foreign Language Information Service	135
Taxation
Amer. Fed. of Labor.....	17
Dept. of Commerce, U. S., Bur. of the Census.....	105
Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Bur. of Internal Revenue.....	118

	PAGE		PAGE
is. See Industrial		Natl. Tuberculosis Assn.....	233
resses. See Education ,		Rockefeller Foundation, Internatl.
ed Cross Personnel		Health Bd.....	258
ed Cross, Educational		Russell Sage Foundation.....	259
.....	42	Typhus
.....	42	Amer. Friends Service Committee...	18
sonnel Service.....	43	Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public hools. See Vocational		Health Service.....	120 and Vocational Guid-		Ukrainians in the U. S. on		Foreign Language Information Ser-
ur, Fed.....	14	vice.....	135
r Municipal Improve-		Unemployed, Aid for. See also
.....	55	Employment; Social Service ommerce of the U. S....	80	Amer. Fed. of Labor.....	16
ulture, U. S., Bur. of		Salvation Army.....	262
.....	100	Volunteers of Amer.....	290
nerce, U. S.....	104	Unions. See Industrial on Furnished. See also		Unitarian
ocial Service		Amer. Unitarian Assn.....	57
ence of Jewish Social		U. S. Public Health Service Hos-
.....	195	pitals. See Hospital Social Ser- riendless.....	273	vice; Hospitals and Sanatoria; ld		Public Health Service Hospitals avian Foundation....	50	Universalist
League.....	82	Universalist Church, Commission on ish Women.....	93	Social Service.....	281
, Genl. Deaconess Bd..	171	University. See College Organisa-
, Woman's Home Mis-		tions; Education, Universities and
.....	171	Colleges
Travelers Aid Soc....	180	Vacation Homes
ice of Jewish Social Ser-		Council of Jewish Women.....	93
.....	195	Girls' Friendly Soc.....	139
ssn.....	221	Natl. League of Girls' Clubs.....	212
ivic League for Immi-		Vacations, Fresh Air
.....	240	Big Brother and Big Sister Fed.....	64
.....	295	Christ Child Soc.....	83
.....	298	Independent Order of B'nai B'rith... 145
Red Cross		M. E. Church, Genl. Deaconess Bd.. 171
ed Cross, Treas.....	27	Salvation Army.....	262
also Forestry; Parks		Soc. of St. Vincent de Paul.....	274 ssn.....	11	Veneral Diseases. See Social Hy-
y Assn.....	18	giene
Interior, U. S., Natl.		Ventilation
e.....	111	Natl. Child Health Council.....	186
egion.....	266	Veterans. See Ex-Service Men
is		Vice-Chairman, Red Cross
Red Cross, Health Ser-		Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Vice-Chair-
.....	30	man in Charge of Domestic Operervice.....	36	ations.....	28
th Nursing Service....	41	Vice-Chairman in Charge of For-ish Women.....	93	eign Operations.....	27
Treasury, U. S., Public		Vision, Defective. See also Blind rice.....	120	Eye Sight Conservation Council.....	126
ence of Jewish Social		Vital Statistics
.....	195	Amer. Public Health Assn.....	49
l Assn.....	216	Dept. of Commerce, U. S., Bur. of Public Health Nursing.	219	the Census.....	105
		Natl. Conference of Commissioners
		on Uniform State Laws.....	191

	PAGE		PAGE
Vocational Rehabilitation		Natl. Fed. of Czech Catholics.....	203
Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Vocational		Natl. Lutheran Council.....	215
Rehabilitation Service.....	39	Natl. Soc. of Children of the Amer.
Fedl. Bd. for Vocational Education..	127	Revolution.....	228
Vocational Training and Vocational		Natl. Soc. of the Daughters of the Guidance		Amer. Revolution.....	229
Amer. Assn. for Organizing Family		Service Star Legion.....	266
Social Work.....	5	War Risk Insurance, Cooperation
Amer. Council on Education.....	11	with
Amer. Missionary Assn.....	25	Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Home Service	31
Amer. Natl. Red Cross, Vocational		Medical Social Service.....	38
Rehabilitation Service.....	39	Service Claims and Information...	38
Assn. of Collegiate Alumnae.....	59	War-Time Handbook, Red Cross
Bur. of Commercial Economics.....	70	See Introduction
Bur. of Vocational Information.....	73	Water Supply
Fedl. Bd. for Vocational Education..	127	Amer. Soc. for Municipal Improve-
Inst. for Crippled and Disabled Men.	147	ments.....	55
Intercollegiate Vocational Guidance		Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Forest
Assn.....	149	Service.....	102
Knights of Columbus.....	159	Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Reclama-
M. E. Church, Genl. Deaconess Bd..	171	tion Service.....	112
M. E. Church, Woman's Home Mis-		Dept. of the Treasury, S., Public sionary Soc.....	171	Health Service, Div. . Scientific
Natl. Child Labor Committee.....	187	Research.....	121
Natl. Education Assn.....	202	Waterworks
Natl. Fed. of College Women.....	203	Amer. Soc. for Municipal Improve-
Natl. League of Girls' Clubs.....	212	ments.....	55
Natl. League of Women Voters.....	213	Weather
Natl. Social Workers' Exchange.....	228	Dept. of Agriculture, U. S., Weather
Natl. Soc. for Vocational Education.	231	Bur.....	104
Natl. Vocational Guidance Assn.....	235	Weights and Measures
Negro Rural School Fund, Anna T.		Dept. of Commerce, U. S., Bur. of
Jeannes Foundation.....	238	Standards.....	106
N. Y. League for the Hard of Hearing	240	Widows, Aid for. See also Homes,
Polish Natl. Alliance.....	247	Aged; Pensions; Pensions, Math-
Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., Wo-		ers; Relief; Social Service man's Bd. of Home Missions.....	252	See Introduction re families of service
Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Inst.	281	men
United Presbyterian Church, Bd. of		Amer. Natl. Red Cross.....	26
Freedmen's Missions.....	288	Home Service.....	31
Y. M. C. A.....	295	Post War Services.....	38
Y. W. C. A.....	298	Amer. Women's Legion.....	58
Wages		United Christian Missionary Soc.....	283
Amer. Fed. of Labor.....	16	Wills, Decent, and Distribution
Church Assn. for the Advancement		Dept. of the Interior, U. S., Office of of the Interests of Labor.....	84	Indian Affairs.....	111
Dept. of Labor, U. S., Bur. of Labor		Natl. Conference of Commissioners
Statistics.....	114	on Uniform State Laws.....	194
Natl. Consumers' League.....	198	Women. See also Boys and Girls;
Natl. Industrial Conference Bd.....	209	Girls' Protective and Friendly
Natl. League of Women Voters.....	213	Agencies
Natl. Women's Trade Union League.	237	Amer. Legion, Women's Auxiliary..	22
War Relief		Amer. Women's Legion.....	58
See also Introduction		Assn. of Collegiate Alumnae.....	59
Amer. Friends Service Committee..	18	Assn. of Women in Public Health...	62
Amer. Natl. Red Cross.....	26	Bur. of Vocational Information.....	73
Amer. Red Mogen David.....	50	Catholic Daughters of Amer.....	77
Jewish Welfare Bd.....	156	Council of Jewish Women.....	93
Natl. Catholic Welfare Council.....	184	Daughters of the King.....	98

	PAGE		PAGE
Dept. of Labor, U. S., Children's		Amer. Dietetic Assn.....	13
Bur.....	115	Amer. Fed. of Labor.....	16
Women's Bur.....	116	Amer. Nurses' Assn.....	45
First Catholic Slovak Ladies' Union.....	134	Assn. of Women in Public Health...	62
Genl. Fed. of Women's Clubs.....	137	Bur. of Vocational Information.....	73
Intercollegiate Community Service		Council of Jewish Women.....	93
Assn.....	149	Dept. of Labor, U. S., Bur. of Labor
Intercollegiate Vocational Guidance		Statistics.....	114
Assn.....	149	Women's Bur.....	116
Ladies of Kaleva.....	161	Natl. Assn. of Colored Graduate
Ladies of the Maccabees.....	161	Nurses.....	178
M. E. Church, Woman's Home Mis-		Natl. Consumers' League.....	198
sionary Soc.....	171	Natl. Industrial Conference Bd.....	209
Natl. Assn. of Colored Women.....	178	Natl. League of Girls' Clubs.....	212
Natl. Baptist Convention, Women's		Natl. League of Nursing Education..	212
Convention.....	181	Natl. League of Women Voters.....	213
Natl. Catholic Welfare Council, Natl.		Natl. Nursing Assn. Headquarters...	219
Council of Catholic Women.....	186	Natl. Org. for Public Health Nursing.	219
Natl. Congress of Mothers and Par-		Natl. Safety Council.....	225
ent-Teachers Assns.....	197	Natl. Woman's Christian Temper-
Natl. Council of Women.....	200	ance Union.....	235
Natl. Fed. of College Women.....	203	Natl. Women's Trade Union League.	237
Natl. Fed. of Temple Sisterhoods....	205	Y. W. C. A.....	298
Natl. League of Women Voters.....	213	Women Workers in Metal Trades
Natl. Soc. of the Daughters of the		Natl. Industrial Conference Bd.....	209
Amer. Revolution.....	229	Woodcraft. See Nature Study
Natl. Soc. U. S. Daughters of 1812.	231	Working Men's Hotels
Natl. Woman's Christian Temperance		Salvation Army, Dept. of Men's Social
Union.....	235	and Industrial Work.....	263
Natl. Woman's Relief Soc.....	236	Y. M. C. A.....	295
Natl. Women's Trade Union League.	237	Working Women's Hotels
Needlework Guild.....	237	Salvation Army, Dept. of Women's
Polish Women's Alliance.....	247	Social Work.....	263
Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., Wo-		Y. W. C. A.....	298
man's Bd. of Home Missions.....	252	Workmen's Compensation
Salvation Army, Dept. of Women's		Amer. Assn. for Labor Legislation...	5
Social Work.....	263	Amer. Fed. of Labor.....	16
Service Star Legion.....	266	Dept. of Labor, U. S., Bur. of Labor
Sisterly Benevolent Union.....	268	Statistics.....	114
Union of Czech Women.....	283	Employees' Compensation Commis-
United Daughters of the Confederacy	286	sion, U. S.....	124
Woman's Amer. Baptist Home Mis-		Fedl. Bd. for Vocational Education..	127
sion Soc.....	291	Internatl. Assn. of Industrial Accident
Woman's Natl. Farm and Garden		Bds. and Commissions.....	151
Assn.....	291	Natl. Conference of Commissioners
Woman's Relief Corps.....	292	on Uniform State Laws.....	194
Y. W. C. A.....	298	Natl. Industrial Conference Bd.....	209
Women in Industry, Business, and		Yellow Fever
the Professions		Dept. of the Treasury, U. S., Public
Amer. Assn. for Labor Legislation...	5	Health Service.....	120
Amer. Council on Education, Com-		Rockefeller Foundation, Internatl.
mittee on the Training of Women		Health Bd.....	258 for Professional Service.....	12	Yiddish. See Jewish

INDEX BY LOCALITY

In this Index the agencies are classified according to the addresses of their headquarters office or corresponding officer, grouped under first the State, and then the city. If the exact name of an agency is known it is not necessary to use this Index. The agency can be found in its alphabetical place in the body of the text. If neither the exact name nor the headquarters address of an agency is known, see page IX for directions for finding it.

INDEX BY LOCALITY

LXV

PAGE	PAGE
Baptist Convention..... 181	Mexico..... 124
Assn. of Negro Musicians. 179	Peru..... 124
e Normal and Industrial	Russia..... 124
..... 281	Spain..... 124
CUT	Employees' Compensation Commission, U. S..... 124
oc. U. S. Daughters of	Fedl. Bd. for Vocational Educa-
..... 231	tion..... 127
a	Genl. Fed. of Women's Clubs... 137
of Columbus..... 159	Government Printing Office, U.S. 140
OF COLUMBIA	Inst. for Government Research. 148
a	Interdepartmental Social Hy-
Assn. of Hospital Social	giene Bd., U. S..... 150
ers..... 4	Internatl. Assn. of Industrial Ac-
Assn. to Promote the	cident Bds. and Commissions. 151
ing of Speech to the Deaf	Legations:
iving Assn..... 11	Bolivia..... 124
Council on Education.... 11	Bulgaria..... 124
ed. of Arts..... 15	China..... 124
ed. of Labor..... 16	Colombia..... 124
Forestry Assn..... 18	Costa Rica..... 124
Intl. Red Cross..... 26	Cuba..... 124
Peace Soc..... 47	Czecho-Slovakia..... 124
Women's Legion..... 58	Denmark..... 124
r the Study of Negro Life	Dominican Republic..... 124
History..... 62	Ecuador..... 124
Catholic Indian Missions,	Finland..... 124
or the Preservation of the	Greece..... 124
th Among Indian Chil-	Guatemala..... 124
n..... 69	Haiti..... 124
Commercial Economics . 70	Honduras..... 124
e Endowment for Inter-	Luxemburg..... 124
Peace..... 75	Netherlands..... 124
e Inst. of Washington... 76	Nicaragua..... 124
r of Commerce of the	Norway..... 124
..... 80	Panama..... 124
Child Soc..... 83	Persia..... 124
ia Inst. for the Deaf.... 87	Poland..... 124
udet College..... 87	Portugal..... 124
all School..... 87	Roumania..... 124
Agriculture, U. S..... 98	Salvador..... 124
Commerce, U. S..... 104	Serbs, Croats, and Slovenes... 124
the Interior, U. S..... 107	Siam..... 124
Justice, U. S..... 113	Sweden..... 124
Labor, U. S..... 113	Switzerland..... 124
State, U. S..... 116	Uruguay..... 124
the Treasury, U. S.... 118	Venezuela..... 124
ies:	Library of Congress..... 163
tina..... 124	M. E. Church, Bd. of Temper-im..... 124	ance, Prohibition and Public
..... 124	Morals..... 170
..... 124	Natl. Assn. for Constitutional
e..... 124	Government..... 178
Britain..... 124	Natl. Assn. of the Deaf..... 179
..... 124	Natl. Catholic Welfare Council . 184
..... 124	Natl. Child Health Council.... 186
..... 124	Natl. Committee for Teaching
..... 124	Citizenship..... 192
..... 124	Natl. Community Bd..... 193

	PAGE		PAGE
Natl. Conference of Catholic Charities.....	194	Natl. Dairy Council.....	201
Natl. Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers Assns.....	197	Natl. Fed. of College Women....	203
Natl. Education Assn.....	202	Natl. Fed. of Czech Catholics....	203
Natl. Florence Crittenton Mission.....	206	Natl. Safety Council.....	225
Natl. Health Council.....	208	Natl. Story Tellers' League.....	232
Natl. League of Women Voters.....	213	Natl. Women's Trade Union League.....	237
Natl. Milk Producers' Fed.....	217	People's Univ.—The Temple....	244
Natl. Negro Business League....	218	Polish Natl. Alliance.....	246
Natl. Parks Assn.....	221	Polish Roman Catholic Union ..	247
Natl. Research Council.....	224	Polish Women's Alliance.....	247
Natl. Soc. of Children of the Amer. Revolution.....	228	Religious Education Assn.....	257
Natl. Soc. of the Daughters of the Amer. Revolution.....	229	Soc. for Visual Education.....	275
Playground and Recreation Assn., Natl. Physical Education Service.....	246	Sokol Gymnastic Org.....	276
Post Office Dept., U. S.....	248	Decatur
Progressive Education Assn.....	254	Woman's Relief Corps.....	292
Seventh-Day Adventists, Medical Missionary Dept. of the Genl. Conference.....	267	Evanston
Smithsonian Inst.....	271	Natl. Woman's Christian Temperance Union.....	235
Soc. of Amer. Indians.....	272	Springfield
GEORGIA		Conference of State and Provincial Health Authorities.....	91
Atlanta		INDIANA
M. E. Church, South, Commission on Temperance and Social Service.....	175	Indianapolis
Presbyterian Church in the U. S., South, Exec. Committee of Home Missions.....	252	Amer. Gymnastic Union.....	19
Augusta		Amer. Legion.....	21
Natl. Assn. of Teachers in Colored Schools.....	180	Richmond
ILLINOIS		Five Years Meeting of Friends, Bd. of Home Missions.....	135
Champaign		Valparaiso
Amer. Dietetic Assn.....	13	Amer. Soc. for Municipal Improvements.....	55
Chicago		IOWA
Amer. Farm Bur. Fed.....	14	Ames
Amer. Hospital Assn.....	20	Amer. Soc. of Agricultural Engineers.....	54
Amer. Library Assn.....	23	Boxholm
Amer. Medical Assn.....	24	Evangelical Lutheran Augustana Synod.....	126
Amer. Sociological Soc.....	56	Cedar Rapids
Amer.'s Lithuanian Medical Assn.....	58	Western Czech Fraternal Union	290
Baptist Young People's Union..	63	Iowa City
Bohemian-Slavonian Union.....	65	Council of Higher Education....	95
Czecho-Slovak Natl. Alliance....	97	Sioux City
Czecho-Slovak Natl. Council....	97	Library Workers' Assn.....	16
Epworth League.....	125	KENTUCKY
Hospital Library and Service Bur.....	144	Louisville
Independent Order of B'nai B'rith.....	145	Amer. Assn. for Community Organization.....
Knights of Lithuania.....	160	LOUISIANA
		Carville
		Fedl. Leprosarium.....	13
		MARYLAND
		Baltimore
		Amer. Child Hygiene Assn.....	16
		Amer. Home Economics Assn....	19
		MASSACHUSETTS
		Amherst
		Amer. Country Life Assn.....	12

	PAGE		PAGE
Assn. of Workers for the		Sons of Norway.....	277
.....	8	MISSISSIPPI
Human Education Soc. .	20	Biloxi
School Citizenship League	51	Sons of Confederate Veterans...	276
Unitarian Assn.....	57	MISSOURI
National Church, Social		Columbia
Service Commission.....	92	Natl. Council of Primary Educa-
Legiate Community Ser-		tion.....	199
vice Assn.....	149	Kansas City
Legiate Vocational Guid-		Natl. Public Welfare League....	223
ance Assn.....	149	Negro Natl. Educational Con-
Conference on City Plan-		gress.....	238
ning.....	194	Soc. for the Friendless.....	273
Economic League.....	201	St. Louis
Ed. of Settlements.....	205	Natl. Council of Women.....	200
Fire Protection Assn.....	206	Northern Baptist Convention...	241
C. for the Study and Cor-		Soc. of Progressive Oral Advo-
rection of Speech Disorders... 231		cates.....	274
Mer. Civic League for Im-		United Christian Missionary Soc.	283
migrants.....	240	U. S. Junior Chamber of Com-
Michigan Temperance Fed.....	264	merce.....	288
Society of Christian En-		NEBRASKA
lightenment.....	288	Lincoln
Peace Foundation.....	294	Grand Army of the Republic....	141
Women in Public Health	62	NEW JERSEY
Illinois		Newark
Italian Patriots.....	167	Prudential Insurance Co.....	255
Physical Education Assn..	47	Zivena, Benefit Soc. of Slovak
Age		Christian Women.....	299
Ally Church, Commission		New Brunswick
on Social Service.....	289	Commission on Milk Standards.	88
Indiana		Orange
Students Health Assn.....	57	Natl. Medical Assn.....	216
Sokol Union.....	79	Passaic
Fed. of Remedial Loan		Catholic Slovak Sokol.....	78
Agency of Compulsory Ed-		Perth Amboy
ucation Officials.....	211	Slovak Gymnastic Union of So-
Evangelical Lutheran		kols.....	269
Church.....	133	NEW YORK
Evangelical Lutheran		Albany
Church.....	133	Amer. Assn. of Public Officials of Natl. Temperance Broth-		Charity and Correction.....	7
erhood.....	133	Certified Milk Producers' Assn..	79
of Kaleva.....	161	Natl. Probation Assn.	223 of the Maccabees.....	161	Brooklyn of the Maccabees.....	161	Council of Jewish Women.....	93
of the Maccabees.....	161	Knights of Kaleva.....	160 of the Maccabees.....	161	Buffalo of the Maccabees.....	161	M. E. Church, Genl. Deaconess of the Maccabees.....	161	Bd.....	171
of the Maccabees.....	161	Corona of the Maccabees.....	161	Union of Czech Women.....	283
of the Maccabees.....	161	Ithaca of the Maccabees.....	161	Amer. Economic Assn.....	13 of the Maccabees.....	161	Assn. of Collegiate Alumnae....	59
of the Maccabees.....	161	New Brighton, Staten Island of the Maccabees.....	161	Sailors' Snug Harbor.....	261 of the Maccabees.....	161	New York City of the Maccabees.....	161	Academy of Political Science....	1

	PAGE		PAGE
Actors' Fund.....	1	Girl Scouts.....	138
Allied Citizens of Amer.....	1	Girls' Friendly Soc.....	139
Amer. Allied Fund.....	2	Hebrew Sheltering and Immigrant Aid Soc.....	141
Amer. Assn. for the Hard of Hearing.....	3	Home Missions Council.....	142
Amer. Assn. for Labor Legislation.....	5	Immigrant Publication Soc.....	144
Amer. Assn. for Organizing Family Social Work.....	5	Independent Order Free Sons of Israel.....	146
Amer. Baptist Home Mission Soc.....	9	Industrial Removal Office.....	147
Amer. Jewish Committee.....	21	Inst. for Crippled and Disabled Men.....	147
Amer. Missionary Assn.....	25	Internatl. Kindergarten Union.....	152
Amer. Nurses' Assn.....	45	Internatl. Order of the King's Daughters and Sons.....	153
Nurses' Relief Fund.....	46	Jewish Agricultural and Industrial Aid Soc.....	154
Amer. Posture League.....	48	Jewish Welfare Bd.....	156
Amer. Prison Assn.....	48	John F. Slater Fund.....	157
Amer. Public Health Assn.....	49	Junior League.....	158
Amer. Scandinavian Foundation.....	50	Legation of Paraguay.....	124
Amer. Seamen's Friend Soc.....	52	Life Extension Inst.....	165
Amer. Social Hygiene Assn.....	52	Lord's Day Alliance.....	167
Amer. Soc. for the Control of Cancer.....	54	Methodist Child Welfare Soc.....	168
Amer. Statistical Assn.....	56	Methodist Fed. for Social Service.....	175
Baron de Hirsch Fund.....	63	Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., Welfare Div.....	175
Big Brother and Big Sister Fed..	64	Missionary Education Movement	176
Blue Anchor Soc.....	65	Natl. Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.....	177
Boys' Club Fed.....	66	Natl. Assn. of Colored Graduate Nurses.....	178
Boy Scouts.....	67	Natl. Assn. of Travelers Aid Socs.	180
Bur. of Catholic Indian Missions, Marquette League.....	70	Natl. Bd. of Fire Underwriters..	182
Bur. of Jewish Social Research..	72	Natl. Bd. of Review of Motion Pictures.....	183
Bur. of Vocational Information..	73	Natl. Bur. of Economic Research	184
Camp Fire Girls.....	74	Natl. Child Labor Committee...	187
Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching.....	76	Natl. Child Welfare Assn.....	188
Child Health Org.....	81	Natl. Civil Service Reform League.....	188
Child Welfare League.....	82	Natl. Committee for Constructive Immigration Legislation..	188
Church Assn. for the Advancement of the Interests of Labor.	84	Natl. Committee for Mental Hygiene.....	195
Church Peace Union.....	85	Natl. Committee for the Prevention of Blindness.....	195
Church Temperance Soc.....	86	Natl. Committee on Prisons and Prison Labor.....	195
Circle for Negro Relief.....	86	Natl. Community Center Assn..	195
Commonwealth Fund.....	89	Natl. Conference of Jewish Social Service.....	195
Community Motion Picture Bur.	89	Natl. Consumers' League.....	195
Community Service.....	90	Natl. Desertion Bur.....	200
Cooperative League of Amer....	92	Natl. Fed. of Day Nurseries.....	200
Council of Jewish Women, Dept. of Immigrant Aid.....	95	Natl. Health Council.....	200
Czecho-Slavonian Fraternal Benefit Union.....	96	Natl. Housing Assn.....	200
Daughters of the King.....	98	Natl. Indian Assn.....	200
Engineering Foundation of N. Y.	125	Natl. Industrial Conference Bd..	200
Eye Sight Conservation Council.	126
Fedl. Council of Churches.....	130
Fed. of Jewish Farmers.....	132
Foreign Language Information Service.....	135
Genl. Education Bd.....	136

	PAGE		PAGE
Information Bur.....	210	Special Libraries Assn.....	277
Inst. of Social Sciences ...	211	Study of Methods of Americani-
Kindergarten Assn.....	211	zation.....	278
League of Girls' Clubs.....	212	Sulgrave Inst.....	278
League of Nursing Educa-		Survey Associates.....	279
tion.....	212	United Lutheran Church.....	287
lend-a-Hand Soc.....	214	Volunteers of Amer.....	290
Liberal Immigration League	215	Woman's American Baptist
Lutheran Council.....	215	Home Mission Soc.....	291
Motion Picture League...	217	Woman's Natl. Farm and Garden
Municipal League.....	217	Assn.....	291
Nursing Assn. Headquar-		Woodcraft League.....	293
ters.....	219	World Alliance for Internatl.
Org. for Public Health		Friendship.....	293
ing.....	219	World Brotherhood Fed.....	294
Plant, Flower and Fruit		Y. M. C. A.....	295
Library.....	222	Young Men's Hebrew and Kin-
Security League.....	226	dred Assns.....	297
Short Ballot Org.....	227	Y. W. C. A.....	298
Social Workers' Exchange.	228	Rochester
Soc. for the Promotion of		Isabel Hampton Robb Memorial
Paternal Therapy.....	230	Fund.....	154
Soc. for Vocational Edu-		Natl. Assn. for the Study of Epi-cation.....	231	lepsy and the Care and Treat-
Tuberculosis Assn.....	233	ment of Epileptics.....	179
Urban League.....	234	Stapleton, Staten Island
Vocational Guidance Assn.	235	Mariners' Family Asylum.....	168
Workers' League.....	239	Utica
Bur. of Municipal Re-		Catholic Daughters of Amer....	77
search and Training School for		NORTH CAROLINA
Public Service.....	239	Raleigh
Foundation.....	240	Assn. of Colleges for Negro Youth	59
League for the Hard of		OHIO
hearing.....	240	Cincinnati
League of Amer. Soc.....	243	M. E. Church, Bd. of Education
Stokes Fund.....	244	for Negroes.....	169
Sports and Recreation Assn.	245	M. E. Church, Woman's Home
Methodist Church, in the U. S.		Missionary Soc.....	171
Board of Home Missions....	250	Natl. Conference of Social Work	196
Methodist Church, U. S. A.,		Natl. Fed. of Temple Sisterhoods	205
Young People's Movement.....	251	Cleveland
Methodist Church, U. S. A.,		Amer. Protestant Hospital Assn.	49
Woman's Bd. of Home Mis-		Bohemian-Slavonic Benevolent
sions.....	252	Socs.....	66
Methodist Episcopal Church,		Evangelical Assn.....	126
Board of Christian Social Ser-		Natl. Assn. of Civic Secretaries.	177
vice.....	254	Sisterly Benevolent Union.....	268
Triangle League.....	256	Soc. of the Taborites.....	275
Methodist Church in Amer., Bd.		United Czecho-Slovak Legion...	286 of Domestic Missions.....	256	Lima
Miller Foundation.....	258	Christian Church, Bur. of Social
Miller Inst. for Medical Re-		Service.....	84
search.....	259	Marblehead
Sage Foundation.....	259	First Catholic Slovak Union....	134
Inst. of Amer.....	261	Tippecanoe City
United States Army.....	262	Natl. Grange.....	207
Methodist Church Inst.....	265	Toledo
Methodist Soc.....	268	Service Star Legion.....	266
St. Vincent de Paul.....	274

	PAGE		PAGE
Xenia		Presbyterian Church, Bd. of
Natl. Assn. of Colored Women..	178	Temperance and Moral Wel-	249
PENNSYLVANIA		fare.....	270
Duquesne		Slovak League.....	283
Slovak Protestant Union.....	270	United Presbyterian Church, Bd.
McKee's Rocks		of Freedmen's Missions.....	283
Natl. Slovak Union	227	Polk
Media		Amer. Assn. for the Study of the Internatl. Order of the Knights		Feeble-Minded.....	8
of King Arthur	153	Reading
Philadelphia		First Catholic Slovak Ladies
Amer. Academy of Political and		Union.....	134
Social Science.....	2	SOUTH CAROLINA
Amer. Assn. of Industrial Phy-		Columbia
sicians and Surgeons.....	4	University Commission on South-
Amer. Assn. of Social Service		ern Race Questions.....	289
Exchanges.....	7	Newberry
Amer. Baptist Publication Soc. .	9	United Daughters of the Con-
Amer. Friends Service Commit-		federacy..	286
tee.....	18	TENNESSEE
Amer. Inst. of Criminal Law and		Memphis
Criminology	21	Natl. Malaria Committee.....	216
Amer. Patriotic League.....	46	Nashville
Amer. Pediatric Soc.....	47	Julius Rosenwald Fund.....	157
Amer. Red Mogen David.....	50	UTAH
Brotherhood of St. Andrew.....	69	Salt Lake City
Church League for Industrial		Natl. Woman's Relief Soc.....	236
Democracy.....	85	VIRGINIA
Indian Rights Assn.....	146	Charlottesville
Jewish Publication Soc.....	155	Negro Rural School Fund, Anna
M. E. Church, Bd. of Home Mis-		T. Jeannes Foundation.....	238
sions and Church Extension ..	170	WASHINGTON
Needlework Guild.....	237	Seattle
Presser Foundation.....	252	Natl. League of Teachers' Assns.	213
Reformed Church in the U. S.,		WISCONSIN
Commission of Social Service		Iron Belt and Rural Work.....	257	Finnish Friends Temperance
Pittsburgh		Assn.....	133
Amer. School Hygiene Assn.....	52	Madison
Natl. Reform Assn.....	224	Amer. Soc. of Equity.....	55
Natl. Slovak Sec.....	227	Natl. Conference of Commis-
Polish Falcons Alliance.....	246	sioners on Uniform State Laws	194
		Milwaukee
		Catholic Hospital Assn.....	78

HOW TO USE THIS DIRECTORY

See page IX

ALPHABETICAL LIST

Following is the encyclopedic directory of agencies.

Academy of Political Science (org. 1880, inc. 1910), 509 Kent II, Columbia Univ., New York, N. Y. To cultivate the political sciences and apply them to the solution of social and political problems. Seeks to focus attention on important topics, give them initial consideration, and educate the public regarding them. Holds annual and semi-annual meetings for the discussion of problems and reading of reports and papers; open to members and guests. Membership open to libraries, chambers of commerce, and all interested persons. Publishes Political Science Quarterly, $5 a year; "Annual Record of Political Events"; Proceedings, two issues yearly, containing reports of annual and semi-annual meetings. Publications are not generally available for free distribution; they may be secured by paying in advance $5 annual membership dues. Supported by endowment made up of life membership fees, and by special contributions and annual subscriptions.

Academy of Political and Social Science. See American Academy of Political and Social Science.

Actors' Fund of America (inc. 1882), 701 Seventh Ave., New York, N. Y. Grants relief to the aged, sick, disabled and needy of the theatrical profession throughout the U. S. Provides for burial of actors leaving no funds. Maintains the Actors' Fund Home, at New Brighton, Staten Island, N. Y., for aged and worn-out actors and actresses. Supported by voluntary contributions, money collected at benefit performances, and by membership dues, $2 up.

Agricultural Engineers' Society. See American Society of Agricultural Engineers. see p 54

Agricultural and Industrial Aid Society. See Jewish Agricultural and Industrial Aid Society. see p 154 Agriculture Department. See Department of Agriculture, U. S.

Alliance for International Friendship through the Churches. See Alliance for International Friendship through the Churches.

Citizens of America (inc. 1919), 906 Broadway, New York, Supplements, but does not supplant, the Anti-Saloon League. Promotes the enforcement of the 18th amendment to the Constitution and aids in the enactment and enforcement of State and Federal legislation furthering health, morality, and general welfare. Seeks to spread Americanism through encouraging, by written and spoken words, belief in and enthusiasm for the Constitution. Plans to organize in each town, village or city, and in each county and State, without regard to party or creed, a body of citizens, both men and women, for effective cooperation for the accomplishment of these purposes, and for the supporting of honest, capable public officials to make local government effective and responsive to public opinion. Non-partisan and non-sectarian. Membership open to all persons who are able to read, and who sign and agree to the covenant upholding the Constitution and American ideals. No dues, assessments or initiation fees. Supported by contributions.

Allied Fund. See American Allied Fund.

initialed American Academy of Political and Social Science (org. 1889), Logan Hall, 36th St. and Woodland Ave., Philadelphia, Pa. To provide a national forum for the discussion of political and social problems. Does not take sides upon controverted questions but seeks to secure and spread reliable information and to assist the public in forming intelligent and accurate opinions regarding important matters. Maintains a bureau of information to supply to members comprehensive and up-to-date reference on any topic about which inquiry is made. Holds five scientific sessions each year during the winter months, with admission by invitation only, and an annual meeting, open to the public, usually called in April or May. Papers presented at these meetings and other original articles are published in the Academy's bi-monthly magazine, The Annals, $1 a copy, $6 year, free to members. Each number of The Annals contains from 22 to 25 papers on one general subject. Supplements to The Annals are issued from time to time. Membership granted on application and election. Supported by membership dues, $5 and up.

American Allied Fund (org. and inc. 1920), Treasurer's Office Metropolitan Trust Co., 716 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y. Is continuing the fund-raising work formerly carried on by the National Allied Relief Committee and the French Heroes Lafayette Memorial Fund. Raises money for organizations operating in the U. S. and abroad. Does not itself carry on relief work but issues appeals in behalf of other organizations. All money designated for any particular relief work is turned over intact by the Fund without any deduction for expenses. Undesignated money received by the Fund is used for the cost of circulars and other expenses and also for grants for relief.

American Association of Clinical Criminology. See American Prison Association.

American Association for Community Organization (org. 1918), Secy., Elwood Street, 652 South 4th St., Louisville, Ky. For the exchange of information and published material between affiliated financial federations, councils of social agencies, and community organizations. Acts as a bureau of information and clearing house, answering inquiries from interested cities and associations as well as from members. Distributes bulletins, exchanges material, and, through annual meetings, provides further opportunity for dissemination of information. Assisted in establishing and conducting the Training School for Federation and Community Executives held during the summer of 1920 at Columbus, Ohio. This course was made possible through the Ohio State University and the American Red Cross. Members are available for speaking at meetings throughout the country, provided expenses are paid. Supported by membership dues: individual, $2; non-financial councils, $10; financial federations, $25.

American Association for the Hard of Hearing (org. and inc. 1919), 126 East 59th St., New York, N. Y. To improve the condition and relieve the misfortunes of persons whose hearing has been lost or impaired. Encourages scientific research as to the causes and treatment of deafness; the development of special methods of instruction; and the establishment of scholarships. Assists deafened persons in procuring and retaining employment and furnishes relief when the applicant is destitute. Acts both nationally and internationally in the fields of social service. Serves as a bureau of information for the exchange and development of ideas. Service is rendered free and without restriction to anyone applying. Association seeks to prevent deafness by educating the public through lectures, publications, and exhibits showing correct care of the ears, the need of otological examination of all school children, and the value of treatment given when needed. Works to procure legislation making deafness reportable. Plans to collect exhibit material for lending, to gather statistics, and to publish a monthly bulletin. If expenses are paid, Corresponding Secretary will visit groups desiring advice and assistance in organizing. Supported by subscriptions and membership dues: constituent which are local organizations doing social work for the hard of hearing, $50 annually; individual, $2 and up.

American Association of Hospital Social Workers (org. 1918). Exec. Secy., Miss Ruth V. Emerson, American Red Cross, National Headquarters, Washington, D. C. To maintain and improve standards of social work in hospitals and dispensaries. Acts as an organ of intercommunication for hospital social workers and through correspondence and publicity, serves as a free bureau of information for workers and others interested in the subject. Meets annually with the National Conference of Social Work and semi-annually with the American Hospital Association for the discussion of topics of special interest to hospital social workers. (For description of these organizations see elsewhere in the Handbook.) All meetings are open to the interested public. The Association collects records and reports from social service departments in hospitals, and exchanges information with other organizations interested in health and social work. Will arrange traveling exhibits or give information, both for use of existing departments in hospitals or for conferences. Issued in 1919 a "Directory of Departments of Social Work in Hospitals and Dispensaries in the U. S. and Canada", 30 cents a copy, obtainable from the Executive Secretary. Publishes bi-monthly bulletins, distributed free to members. Membership open to persons or organizations doing social work in hospitals or dispensaries.

American Association of Industrial Physicians and Surgeons (org. 1916), Secy., Francis D. Patterson, M. D., P. O. Box 4061, West Philadelphia Station, Philadelphia, Pa. To foster the study and discussion of the problems peculiar to the practice of industrial medicine and surgery; to develop methods adapted to the conservation of health among workers in industries; to promote a more general understanding of the purposes and results of the medical care of employees; to unite into one organization members of the medical profession specializing in industrial medicine and surgery for their mutual advancement in the practice of their profession. Has organized local chapters in several States. National Association holds annual meetings at the same time and place as the meetings of the American Medical Association (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook) but at different hours, so as not to conflict with the sessions of the American Medical Association. These meetings are open to the public. Supported by annual membership dues, $5 a year.

American Association of Instructors of the Blind. See American Association of Workers for the Blind.

American Association for Labor Legislation (org. 1906), 131 East 23d St., New York, N. Y. Studies industrial conditions, urges the enforcement of existing labor laws, drafts new measures, organizes campaigns to secure enactment of desirable laws and improvement of existing laws, and seeks to protect such laws against attempts to undermine them. Special committees study and make reports on standard schedules for the uniform reporting of industrial injuries, on industrial diseases, women's work, industrial safety and health, workmen's compensation for industrial accidents, health insurance, public employment conditions, one day of rest in seven, and similar topics. No definite field work organization, but upon request members of headquarters' staff supervise research work and deliver lectures. Association holds an annual meeting for members; also open to the public. Has published pamphlets and leaflets on industrial diseases and accidents, health insurance, and associated subjects. Has lantern slides on unemployment, occupational diseases, health insurance, and similar topics; no rental charge, but shipping expenses are to be defrayed by the borrower. Publishes reports of national conferences dealing with industrial hygiene and kindred topics, Proceedings of annual meetings, an annual summary of new labor laws and proposed legislation in the various States; available to non-members at nominal prices. Issues a quarterly magazine, The American Labor Legislation Review; $1 a copy, $3 a year. Membership open to interested persons. Members attend meetings, are notified of legislative activities requiring their support or opposition and receive free all publications. Supported by subscriptions and membership dues, $3 and up.

American Association for Organizing Family Social Work (org. 1911), 130 East 22d St., New York, N. Y. To promote the establishment, cooperation, and development of societies for family social work throughout the U. S. and Canada. At request of communities where work has not been effectively developed and where the field has not been covered by any other organization, the Association corresponds with local groups; its field secretaries make personal visits to them to assist in founding new societies, outlining programs, and reorganizing old societies. The field workers also undertake the study of social agencies in a community with a view to defining and coordinating functions. The central office gives to any applicant free information and advice in regard to methods of organizing family social work organizations. Special work is conducted by committees on Salary Standards; Recruiting and Training of New Workers; Marriage Laws and Their Administration in the Several States. Association publishes The Family, monthly magazine, 10 issues a year, 20 cents a copy, $1.50 a year; the "Directory of Family Social Work Societies in the U. S. and Canada", annually, $1 a copy; other manuals and pamphlets, 25 cents and 75 cents a copy, respectively. Supported by contributions and by annual membership dues, $10 a year.

7

1

American Association to Promote the Teaching of Speech to the Deaf (org. and inc. 1890), 1601 Thirty-fifth St. NW., Washington, D. C. To increase and diffuse knowledge relating to the deaf; to aid schools for the deaf in their efforts to teach speech and speech-reading. Holds an annual meeting and a literary summer meeting for members; both meetings are open to the interested public. Promotes the teaching of speech to deaf children in schools, and encourages parents to train their deaf children prior to school age. Urges hard-of-hearing adults to study the art of lip-reading as means of increasing their efficiency and wage-earning ability. Membership open to teachers and other interested persons. Supported by membership dues, $2 annually, and by endowment fund. Owns and operates the Volta Bureau through which specific work is carried on.

Volta Bureau (est. 1887), same address, acts as an information bureau on all subjects pertaining to the deaf, furnishing data by letter and literature. All services are rendered free, except as mentioned on page 7. Bureau offers helpful suggestions in cases of imperfect speech and deafness, but does not give medical advice or suggest special remedies. Conducts an employment agency for teachers desiring positions, and for schools or parents in need of teachers. Keeps in touch with schools for the deaf all over the world. Furnishes lists of schools for the deaf and gives advice regarding them. Assists local workers in any way possible. Is carrying on a campaign to educate the public to perceive the economic value of conserving hearing. Cooperates with health officials in an effort to eliminate the causes of deafness and diseases which are followed by deafness. Maintains a reference library containing books, periodicals, pamphlets, and circulars relating to all phases of deafness. Books are not lent, but transcripts are made if cost of transcribing is paid. Bureau aims to include in this library every publication on deafness and related subjects, issued at any time, in any language and in any part of the world. Publishes and distributes reprints from its magazine, pamphlets, and charts; free of charge. Publishes The Volta Review, monthly, $2 a year, free to Association members; this magazine contains lists of lip-reading teachers, and names of schools for deaf children, as well as articles of special interest to teachers of the deaf. Has published, in both English and French, a manual of lip-reading for soldiers who lost their hearing in the war; free on application.

American Association of Public Officials of Charity and Correction (org. 1910), Pres., Charles H. Johnson, State Board of Charities, Albany, N. Y. Holds an annual conference of public officials of charity and corrections, open to the public, for the discussion of questions of interest in social work; 1921 meeting held in Jacksonville, Fla., in October.

American Association of Social Service Exchanges (org. 1919), Secy., 1432 Pine St., Philadelphia, Pa. To unite more closely the social service exchanges in the U. S. and Canada. Acts as a central office for the interchange of information between member exchanges and for the dissemination of information and advice regarding the work of these exchanges. Endeavors to standardize forms and technique used. Distributes to member exchanges results of special studies and copies of all new forms developed in the work by members. Makes investigations and studies concerning problems affecting exchanges. Answers specific questions asked by any organization or individual regarding social service exchanges, but gives only to members the results of its studies, standardization work, and other work of a purely technical nature. Secretary and local representatives, if part or all of expenses are paid, assist communities in organizing or developing exchanges; address Secretary for particulars. No regular publications. Active membership includes social service exchanges, elected as such, paying annual dues, $5 to $15 according to population of city in which exchange is located. Associate members include societies, organizations, and committees not eligible for active membership; $15 annual dues. Contributing members include persons and societies elected to membership and paying $20 annual dues. Supported by membership dues.

American Association for the Study of the Feeble-Minded (org. 1876), Secy., J. M. Murdoch, M. D., Polk, Pa. To study questions relating to the causes of feeble-mindedness and the treatment of the feeble-minded; to formulate plans for the training and education of the feeble-minded. Seeks to stimulate public opinion toward the establishment of institutions for the care of feeble-minded and special classes in public schools for the education of backward children. Individual members sometimes supervise mental defectives, both outside and in institutions, and aid in the establishment of appropriate institutions. Association holds an annual conference of members; also open to interested non-members. Publishes Annual Transactions; sent free to members. Active membership open to persons engaged in the care and training of the feeble-minded; annual dues $5. Associate membership open to other interested persons; dues $3. Association is not engaged in field work; this is carried on by the National Committee for Mental Hygiene (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook).

American Association of Workers for the Blind (org. 1895), Secy., Charles B. Hayes, 4 Park St., Boston, Mass. To secure provision for the higher education of the blind. Holds a biennial convention, open to the public. Seeks to secure the introduction of embossed books into public libraries throughout the U. S. Affiliated societies in many large cities seek out and teach the adult blind and bring them into touch with the libraries. Facilitates the publication and distribution of periodicals and other literature printed in Braille. Favors compulsory education of the blind and urges passage of laws enforcing it. In conjunction with the Massachusetts Association for Promoting the Interests of the Blind and the American Association of Instructors of the Blind, publishes Outlook for the Blind, quarterly, 50 cents a copy, $1.50 a year. Although membership is open to interested persons, for the most part the Association is composed of blind people. Supported by membership dues, $1 a year.

American Baptist Home Mission Society (org. 1832, inc. 1843), 23 East 26th St., New York, N. Y. Establishes and maintains missions. Conducts educational work. Departments of English-Speaking Missions and Indian Work, Education, City and Foreign-Speaking Missions, Social Service and Rural Community Work, Church and Parsonage Erection, Evangelism, and Latin North America conduct activities as indicated in their titles. Missionaries extend work in rural communities, cities, industrial centers, and among foreign-speaking groups, Indians, and Negroes. Society also conducts welfare work for immigrants at ports. Promotes community service through rural churches. Holds an annual meeting, open to the public, in connection with that of the Northern Baptist Convention (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook). Publishes occasional bulletins on social service. Supported by contributions.

Department of Social Service and Rural Community Work (org. 1918): To coordinate and integrate social service activities with the missionary and evangelistic work of the American Baptist Home Mission Society. Stimulates and directs the churches in community activities. Makes surveys to determine special community tasks within the scope and obligations of churches. Is organizing the Baptist Social Service Federation to join in a national organization all brotherhoods, leagues, clubs, ushers' unions, and similar groups, together with such Bible-school classes as can be induced to undertake some definite task in social service. Activities are along the lines of temperance, law enforcement, child welfare, family rehabilitation, recreation, surveys, cooperation of boards of public welfare, good citizenship, industrial relations, community leadership, and Americanization.

American Baptist Woman's Home Mission Society. See Woman's American Baptist Home Mission Society.

American Baptist Publication Society (org. 1824, inc. 1845), 1701 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa. Publishes and distributes literature on social subjects as related to the Church. Its Department of Social Education seeks to secure adequate literature interpreting social gospel and social service. It prepares study lists, educational material, and bibliographies which are issued as leaflets; sent free on request. Bible and Field Department organizes and establishes Bible Schools, distributes Bibles and Christian literature among native and foreign-speaking groups, and employs field workers to extend its work. Religious Education Department through its headquarters' staff and field workers seeks to increase the efficiency of churches and church groups in their work of religious education. In cooperation with the American Baptist Home Mission Society (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook), it conducts field work and publishes the Social Service News and other material. Membership includes delegates appointed by Baptist churches, Baptist missionaries, and delegates to the Northern Baptist Convention (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook) in connection with which the Society holds its annual meeting. Supported by budget from Baptist churches in the North and through sale of its books and other literature.

American Child Hygiene Association (org. 1909), 1211 Cathedral St., Baltimore, Md. To study child hygiene in its various phases; to stimulate and encourage measures for proper care of the mother before, during and after confinement, and for the child from birth through adolescence. Through its committees and affiliated societies the Association keeps in touch with advances being made along all lines of maternal, infant and child hygiene, and collects other information regarding methods of preventing morbidity and mortality among children. Acts as a central bureau for the exchange and distribution of this information which is offered free to applicants and distributed to its members through correspondence and its publications. Seeks to arouse public interest in community responsibility in matters relating to the health of mothers and children; stimulates the establishment of divisions of child hygiene in city and State departments of health. On invitation the Association conducts studies of State and local needs for maternal and child welfare work and offers constructive suggestions and plans. Seeks to strengthen cooperation between existing local organizations and helps them to adopt programs suited to the needs of individual communities. Works for the establishment of local child welfare activities and for health centers and the employment of public health nurses trained in child hygiene. Has a field director who is trained nurse; she will conduct local surveys and outline maternal and child welfare work. Holds an annual meeting, open to the public, for the reading of papers, discussion of problems, round table conference.

practical demonstrations, and display of exhibits. Publishes Transactions of the annual meetings. Publishes an annual statistical report of infant mortality in cities of the U. S. and other similar statistical data, available on request. Publishes Mother and Child, a monthly magazine concerned with the health of mothers and children, $5 a year; Annual Transactions, $3 a copy, plus postage; publications sent free to members. Issues booklets and leaflets on maternal and child care; prenatal, postnatal, and child care record forms; single copies free on request. Membership open to all interested persons, and to societies wishing to affiliate. Supported by donations and membership dues, $5 and up. Association is a member of the National Child Health Council (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook).

American Civic Association (org. 1904), 914 Union Trust Bldg., Washington, D. C. Seeks to make American living conditions clean, healthful, and attractive. Works for the extension of public parks and the opening of gardens and playgrounds for children and recreation centers for adults. Seeks to abate public nuisances; to make the buildings and surroundings of railway stations, schools, and factories attractive; to promote proper housing conditions; to protect existing trees and to encourage intelligent tree planting; to preserve great scenic wonders for the public and protect them from commercial exploitation. Central office carries on correspondence with members, furnishing them with up-to-date information. Services are not limited to members or particular groups; any person may receive general information free upon request. Association holds an annual meeting of members; open also to the public. Publishes books and bulletins covering field of urban, suburban, and rural community improvement. Bulletins are sent free to members; for sale to non-members at nominal prices with discount if bought in quantity lots. Publications include civic surveys; civic planning studies; housing, school building, war memorial, and other studies. In conjunction with the National Municipal League (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook), Association publishes National Municipal Review, monthly, 50 cents a copy, $5 a year; free to members of the Association. Membership open to interested persons and local civic bodies. Supported by contributions and by annual membership dues, $7.50 and up.

American Conference on Hospital Service. See Hospital Library and Service Bureau of the American Conference on Hospital Service.

American Council on Education (org. 1918), 818 Connecticut

Ave. NW., Washington, D. C. To promote and carry out cooperative action in educational matters of common interest and to act as a central clearing house of the national educational associations that comprise its membership. Standing committees conduct studies and make reports on each of the Council's major projects.

Committee on Federal Legislation digests educational bills before Congress and issues a classified summary of the more important ones and an analysis and discussion of the principles of the more far-reaching measures.

Committee on International Education works to bring about cooperation between the different agencies in the field of international education, so that duplication may be avoided and the situation made clear to foreigners. Seeks to bring about a uniform treatment of foreign degree holders by American universities and to interpret to foreign educational officials existing lists of approved American institutions. Participates in the entertainment of official foreign delegations of scholars.

Committee on Education for Citizenship studies citizenship training in higher institutions with particular reference to questions of military training.

Committee on the Training of Women for Professional Service studies possible openings for highly trained women in public service, the qualifications required, and the type of academic training best adapted to meet the various needs.

Committee on the Status and Problems of the College of Arts and Sciences studies the relation of the College of Arts and Sciences to the universities, to professional schools, and to vocational schools, such as Schools of Commerce, Journalism, and Engineering that are on the same academic level.

Council administers exchange of scholarships between American and French colleges and universities; for particulars regarding application and appointment address central office. Three types of membership: constituent members, including national educational associations, $100 annual dues; associate members, including educational or scientific institutions having interests related to the work of the Council, $10 annual dues; institutional members, including colleges, universities, and professional and technical schools, $100 annual dues. All reports are published in the Council's quarterly magazine, The Educational Record, $2 a year, free to members. Supported by membership dues.

American Country Life Association (org. 1918), Pres., Kenyon

L. Butterfield, Amherst, Mass. To bring together a body of people thoroughly interested in rural life and its social problems in order to facilitate discussion of problems and objectives in country life and the means of their solution and attainment. Seeks to further the efforts and increase the efficiency of persons, agencies, and institutions engaged in this field; to disseminate information calculated to promote better understanding of country life and to aid in rural improvement. Works for the social welfare of the farmer. Standing committees, assisted by specialists acting as advisers, study country life problems as follows: rural health and sanitation, rural home-making, means of rural education, rural government and legislation, rural charities and corrections, rural recreation and social life, rural religion and morals, investigation of rural social problems, teaching of rural sociology, rural leadership training, country life organization, international country life movement, means of rural communication, means of public information for rural problems, and town and country planning. Association gives national publicity to approved methods of meeting problems of country life. Holds an annual conference, the Proceedings of which are published in book form and sold at $3 a copy; free to members. Membership open to all persons, organizations, and institutions engaged in or interested in rural affairs. Members receive all literature free. Supported by contributions, subscriptions, and membership dues, $3 and up.

American Dietetic Association (org. 1917), 801 South Wright St., Champaign, Ill. To establish higher standards of training for dietitians, to raise the standards of work of dietitians, and, through strengthening and elevating the profession generally, to promote better feeding of all groups of people. Holds an annual meeting, open to the public, for the exchange of information, for the reading and discussion of papers and reports, and for the display of food products and culinary machinery. Proceedings of annual meetings are published. Members are informed of current information of value in their work through circular letters issued irregularly. Sections on Education, Social Welfare, Dietotherapy, and Administration conduct special work. Membership is limited. The organization is supported by returns from commercial exhibits at annual meetings and by membership dues.

American Economic Association (org. 1885), Ithaca, N. Y. To stimulate the study of current problems from an economic point of view; to encourage, through group discussion and publication, economic research and the historical and statistical study of the actual conditions of industrial life. Upholds freedom of economic discussion but does not take any partisan attitude or commit its members to any position on practical economic questions. Special committees carry on studies in particular fields of economics. Association holds an annual meeting of members, usually during the Christmas holidays, the Proceedings of which are published. Annual meetings are open to the public. Has published a number of monographs on special economic topics dealing mainly with current problems. Publishes quarterly, in March, June, September, and December, The American Economic Review, each number of which contains such book reviews, records of special investigations, reports, bibliographical notes, and special articles as will inform readers of events of fundamental economic importance; $1.25 a copy, $5 a year; Publication Office, Princeton, N. J.; Editorial Office, 222 Charles River Rd., Cambridge, Mass.; Subscription Office, Yale Station, New Haven, Conn. All publications are sent free to members. Membership is granted upon application and endorsement by a member; open to anyone interested in promoting scientific discussion of economic problems. Supported by subscriptions and membership dues, $5 and up.

American Engineering Standards Committee. See National Safety Council.

American Ethnology, Bureau of. See Smithsonian Institution.

American Farm Bureau Federation (org. and inc. 1920), 58 East Washington St., Chicago, Ill. To develop, strengthen, and correlate the work of the State Farm Bureau Federations of the nation; to encourage and promote cooperation of all representative agricultural organizations in efforts to improve facilities and conditions for the economic and efficient production, conservation, marketing, transportation and distribution of farm products; to further the study and enactment of constructive agricultural legislation; to advise with representatives of the public agricultural institutions cooperating with Farm Bureaus in the determination of nation-wide policies, and to inform Farm Bureau members regarding movements that affect their interests. Non-political organization. Uses the referendum to obtain the viewpoint of its membership upon public questions. Maintains field representatives to extend its work. Legislative Department of the national Federation, located at 1411 Pennsylvania Ave. NW., Washington, D. C., seeks to safeguard the rights and interests of the farmers and to assert their needs whenever occasion demands. Department of Cooperative Marketing is seeking to develop a perfected national scheme of marketing farm products so as to reduce the margin between the producers' and the consumers' prices. Establishes local cooperative enterprises which can obtain assistance and representation through the Farm Bureau. Department of Transportation works to improve the service of the railroads, to prevent excessive transportation burdens upon farm producers, to investigate tendencies in rates and regulations affecting agricultural products, and to secure an advantageous allocation of cars. Department of Education and Publicity seeks to keep the general public sympathetically informed as to the ideas and accomplishments of organized agriculture. It is also a service bureau to the other departments of the Federation. Organization, Finance, and Legal Departments conduct special work. Federation issues a Weekly News-Letter for farm papers, issues special bulletins to daily papers and press associations, prepares feature stories for farm publications and other magazines or syndicates, and prints and distributes pamphlets and speeches. The Federation is supported by funds provided through the individual Farm Bureau membership fees, of which it receives sums not to exceed 50 cents per member annually.

American Federation of Arts (org. 1909, inc. 1916), 1741 New York Ave. NW., Washington, D. C. To bind together art institutions and associations and unify their efforts. Aims to serve as a channel by which public opinion and appreciation of art may be expressed and developed through personal contact and knowledge. Works for better art education, development of industrial art, uniform and beneficial art legislation, and the establishment of competent art commissions. Holds an annual convention, open to the public, for the discussion of topics of popular interest. Central office serves as a clearing house of information and issues study courses on art. Sends out on carefully routed circuits, traveling exhibitions of art of various kinds, assembled by experts and taken from leading exhibitions of contemporary work, from museums, artists' collections, and other sources. Exhibitions are rented at from $10 to $200 each; this includes cost of assembling, listing, packing, insurance, and redelivery. Local chapters of the Federation receive 10 per cent reduction of charges. Agencies using exhibitions prepay shipment by express to next place on circuit. Applications for exhibitions should be made at least three months in advance. Exhibitions cover the fields of paintings, arts and crafts, town planning, printing, lithographs, war memorials, photographic engravings, prints for home decoration, house design, sculptural arts, wall papers, textiles, and the like. Under the slogan "For Every Home", the Federation is circulating exhibitions of prints in color and in black and white, for sale at from 25 cents each. Other exhibitions on home furnishings are to be given. Circulates lectures accompanied by illustrative lantern slides. In certain lectures, application should be made as far in advance as possible. Rental fee of $5 and transportation charges must be paid in advance. Chapters of the Federation receive three lectures a year free of charge. Organizations using lectures may charge admission fee but must have the understanding that the lectures are for the benefit of the public for educational intent, and not for private gain. Lectures are on sculpture, prints, decorative arts, civic art, and miscellaneous subjects. Federation publishes descriptive leaflets and pamphlets: "The Art Annual", a directory of art and artists; The American Art Annual, monthly, 25 cents a copy, $2.50 a year. Membership open to interested persons. Supported by contributions and by annual membership dues, $3 and up.

American Federation of Labor (org. 1881), A. F. of L., Washington, D. C. Non-secret federation of trade and labor unions. For the organization of labor and for the improvement of social and industrial conditions. Conducts non-partisan political campaigns in the interest of all the people. Holds annual delegate meetings, open to the public. Pays strike benefits to Locals directly affiliated with it; gives financial assistance to other labor organizations. State branches and central bodies are chartered for legislative, educational, and other purposes; they have no power to call strikes or negotiate for better wages or working conditions. Local unions are grouped into national and international unions representing special types of workers. Representatives organize unions, conduct State and national legislative and political campaigns. Federation works for the abolition of industrial evils and the writ of injunction in labor disputes; conducts free schools, free textbooks, and compulsory education; for the reduction of the hours of labor and at least one rest day in the week; urges sanitary inspection of factories, workshops, and mines; enforces laws fixing liability of employers for injury to body or loss of limb; opposes child labor and demands that it be prohibited by law. For the prohibition of immigration for at least two years; public profits and the enactment of laws providing for Federal licensing of all corporations organized for profit; cooperation to protect farmers and wage-earners from profiteers; expenditure of public funds to relieve unemployment by the building of houses; legislation placing a graduated tax upon all usable lands above the cultivated acreage; taxation of profits and of land values to render the holding of land unprofitable without putting it to use; a system of public education under Government supervision, giving to the children of wage-earners opportunity for the fullest possible development; placing control over credit capital in a public agency to administer credit as a public trust in the interests of all the people; Federal and State ownership for developing and operating all water power over which they have jurisdiction; the election of all judges for terms not exceeding six years; limiting the Supreme Court in its powers "to declare unconstitutional acts enacted by the representatives of the people"; collective bargaining in industrial controversies, with right of workers to choose their own representatives. Demands that military service for the nation should be carefully distinguished from police service in industrial disputes. Declares that public and semi-public utilities and all public wharves and docks connected with public harbors should be owned, operated, or regulated by the Government; that seamen must be accorded the same "rights and privileges as rightfully exercised by the workers in all other employments, public and private". Opposes all forms of compulsory arbitration of industrial disputes; the enactment of laws requiring trade unions to incorporate; the enactment of laws prohibiting or restricting the right of workers to quit work, individually or collectively; the enactment of laws interfering with the right to withhold or dispose of patronage; the enactment of laws prohibiting free speech, free assemblage, free press, and free travel. Publishes for general circulation the American Federationist, monthly, 10 cents a copy, $1 a year; "History, Encyclopedia, Reference Book", $2 a copy; for information of the labor press, the Weekly News-Letter, no subscription; pamphlets on economic questions, issued at frequent intervals, usually 5 or 10 cents a copy. Membership includes international, national, and Federal labor and trade unions, State federations of labor, and city central labor organizations. Has fraternal relations with the British Trades Union Congress, Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, Pan-American Federation of Labor, and Woman's International Labor League of America. Supported by fixed dues of State federations of labor and central bodies, and by per capita dues, paid by international, national, Federal labor, and local trade unions.

— American Forestry Association (org. 1882, inc. 1892), 1214 Sixteenth St. NW., Washington, D. C. For the dissemination of information relative to forestry, woodlands, trees, and kindred subjects. Is independent of any Federal or State department; is devoted to public service conducive to national prosperity. Works for the inculcation and spread of a forest policy on a scale adequate to our economic needs. Asserts that forestry means the propagation and care of forest and timber as a crop, the protection of watershed, utilization of non-agricultural soil, and the use of forests for public recreation. Works for the adoption of policies calling for National and State forests under Federal and State ownership, administration and management; State acquirement of waste lands for planting; protection against forest fires; encouragement of forest planting by communal and private owners; forest taxation reform. Seeks to protect public interests in forestry through the enactment and enforcement of legislation, by educational measures, and by securing liberal State and Federal appropriations for forestry work. Offers free information to members and interested persons for lectures, discussion, and articles. Holds an annual meeting for the presentation of reports and discussion of problems. Membership is open to any interested person. Association publishes a monthly magazine, American Forestry, 40 cents a copy, $4.50 a year; free to members. Supported by advertising income of its magazine and by membership dues, $4 and up.

— American Friends Service Committee (org. 1917), 20 South 12th St., Philadelphia, Pa. To extend relief to the innocent victims of war in the stricken countries of Europe, and to offer opportunities in America for young people to study and engage in social reform service. In France, Germany, Austria, Serbia, Poland, and Russia, the Committee maintains relief missions where food, clothing, and medical and hospital supplies are distributed. It has established feeding centers in Germany where one hot meal is furnished daily to undernourished children. It provides supplementary rations for underfed children, distributes clothing, and stimulates agricultural production in Austria. Maintains hospital and district medical nursing service in Serbia. In Poland it distributes clothing and food to the children, and stock, tools, and seeds to peasants; it also fights typhus. Has maternity hospital and relief centers in France. Distributes food, clothing, and medicines to children's hospitals and orphanages in Russia. Maintains a bureau for placing interested young people in short-term service as officers in prisons, reform schools, and in social work in America. Issues bulletins and pamphlets, free upon application. Has lantern slides descriptive of work in various European countries, obtainable free of charge by persons who guarantee to put them to profitable use. Members of the Committee are representatives of all branches of the Religious Society of Friends in America. Supported by contributions.

American Gymnastic Union (org. 1850), Pres., Theo. Stempfel, Fletcher American National Bank, Indianapolis, Ind. To further physical education and to disseminate ideas. Union is the coordinating office for the district offices and local branches of the association. Local branches are known as Turnverein (gymnastic and athletic societies). Members carry on athletic exercises and work for physical education in the public schools and other community agencies. Maintains at the Athenæum in Indianapolis a normal school for the training of teachers of physical education. Publishes an Annual Report, free to members, available to non-members upon request. Local branches are supported by membership dues ranging from $6 to $18 a year; national office is supported by per capita tax paid by members.

American Home Economics Association (org. 1908, inc. 1909), 1211 Cathedral St., Baltimore, Md. To improve conditions of living in the home, the institutional home, the school, and the community. Central office acts as a bureau of information, answering questions on household problems or directing inquirers to other sources of information. Association, both as a national body and through its local groups, fosters the establishment and maintenance, in the elementary grades, of home economics teaching for girls and of appropriate instruction for boys as well as girls in matters relative to the welfare of the individual and the home; the founding of departments of home economics and of courses dealing with public health, the latter open to men as well as women, in normal schools and colleges; the extension of home economics instruction to housewives desiring it; the furtherance of child welfare and community health campaigns and the promotion of educational research and investigation. National organization assists local groups in extending their work. Supports legislation, both State and Federal, which would further ends for which the Association is working. Administers the Ellen H. Richards Memorial Fund, the income of which is devoted to investigations, research, and publications related to home economics problems. Holds an annual conference, open to the public, the Proceedings of which are published in its Journal and Bulletin. Publishes numerous pamphlets, a few plays and pageants for home economics students, "A Syllabus of Home Economics", and a household account book, each for sale at small cost; reprints from its monthly magazine, 10 and 15 cents each. Issues The Bulletin of the American Home Economics Association, quarterly, free to members, and The Journal of Home Economics, monthly, 30 cents a copy, $2.50 a year. Supported by sale of literature, contributions, and by membership dues, $2 a year.

American Hospital Association (org. 1898), 22 East Ontario St., Chicago, Ill. To promote the efficiency of hospitals through the study of hospital management. Endeavors to advance the education of hospital workers through discussion of hospital problems. Aims to promote public welfare by standardization of methods of establishment, management and care of hospitals and dispensaries. Gives free information and advice on general problems to anyone applying, and on specific problems when requested by individuals stating their connection with hospitals. Cooperates with the Hospital Library and Service Bureau of the American Conference on Hospital Service (for description of which bureau see elsewhere in the Handbook). Conducts service bureaus on dispensaries and community relations and on social service. Holds an annual meeting, open to members and invited guests. Publishes Proceedings and occasional bulletins. Institutional membership open to corporations and associations organized for the promotion of public health or for the care of sick or injured; individual membership (active) open to officials of such organizations and members of hospital medical staffs, and (as associate members) heads of departments in hospitals. Supported by annual dues: for hospitals, $10 and up, according to capacity; $10 for other institutional members; $2 and up for individual members.

American Humane Education Society (org. and inc. 1889), 180 Longwood Ave., Boston, Mass. To promote humane education in schools and elsewhere. Works for the enactment and enforcement of humane legislation. Field workers address audiences of all kinds throughout the country; prepare articles for the press; assist local groups and distribute free literature. Central press committee issues articles for the press, circular letters, and leaflets. The Society has prepared study outlines, stereopticon slides, and a film which may be borrowed; free upon request. Serves as a clearing house for information and literature on humane education. The Band of Mercy organizes local groups among school children throughout the country. The Jack London Club seeks to create public sentiment against the trained animal performance. Society publishes books and pamphlets; its official organ is Our Dumb Animals, monthly, $1 a year. Membership open to all. Supported by contributions, subscriptions, and membership fees, $1 and up.

American Indians' Society. See Society of American Indians.

American Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology (org. 1909), 1028 Land Title Bldg., Philadelphia, Pa. To further the study of criminal law and criminology and modern penology. Formulates and promotes measures for solving problems of crime and punishment. Special studies are made by committees which report at the annual meeting on the following subjects: insanity and criminal responsibility, crime and immigration, criminal procedure, indeterminate sentence, release on parole and pardon, narcotic drugs and crime, criminal statistics, criminal law and procedure, and the like. Holds an annual meeting, open to the public. Services free to anyone requesting them. Publishes with the American Prison Association (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook) and the American Society of Military Law, the Journal of the American Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology, quarterly, 75 cents a copy, $3 a year. Occasionally issues special bulletins and leaflets on pertinent subjects; available to members and subscribers. Institute is composed of national and State organizations whose individual membership is by application. Supported by contributions, subscriptions, and membership dues, $5 a year.

American Institute of International Law. See Carnegie Endowment for International Peace.

American Jewish Committee (org. 1906, inc. 1911), 171 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y. To prevent the infraction of the civil and religious rights of Jews in any part of the world. Aims to render all lawful assistance and to take appropriate remedial action in the event of threatened or actual invasion or restriction of such rights or of unfavorable discrimination with respect thereto. Seeks to secure for Jews equality of economic, social, and educational opportunities. Works to alleviate the consequences of persecution, and to afford relief from calamities affecting Jews wherever they may occur. Compiles up-to-date information as to the condition of the Jewish people of the world.

Holds an annual meeting for members. Publishes an Annual Report, which, with its other literature, is sent free to members and to others applying. Membership open to interested persons. Supported by voluntary contributions.

American Judicature Society. See National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws.

American Legion (org. and inc. 1919), Meridian Life Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind. A patriotic society organized to promote the welfare of all ex-service men of the World War and to cooperate in rendering service to the community, State, and Nation. Has State departments composed of local Posts which must have membership of at least 15. Holds an annual convention. Is pledged to uphold the Constitution of the U. S.; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of the War. Advocates patriotic exercises and courses in citizenship in public and private schools. Urges adequate Government compensation for disabled men; strict immigration laws; punishment of "slackers"; exclusion of Japanese immigrants; land grants and farm credit for service men and women; preference in Civil Service employment to disabled men, ex-service men, and the widows of those who died in service. Has a commission to plan, establish, and conduct an educational system to combat anti-Americanism tendencies; to work for the education of immigrants and to foster the teaching of citizenship in the schools. Cooperates with other agencies seeking to eliminate illiteracy throughout the U. S. National Executive Committee plans to organize a movement to raise a subscription fund for the erection of a memorial in France; to cooperate with other agencies in memorial service; and to arrange with the people of France to maintain as a permanent memorial the cemeteries where American soldiers are buried. Legion publishes The American Legion Weekly; 10 cents a copy, $2 a year, free to members. Membership is open to all persons who were in the military or naval service of the U. S. during the period between April 6, 1917 and November 11, 1918, both dates inclusive, and to U. S. citizens who served in the forces of the allied countries during the World War. National organization supported by annual membership fees of 25 cents per capita from local Posts in which dues vary.

Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion admits to membership mothers, wives, daughters, and sisters of members of the American Legion and of men who died in the War or from the effects of the War.

American Library Association (org. 1876, inc. 1879), Secy., +
Carl H. Milam, 78 East Washington St., Chicago, Ill. An organization of librarians, library trustees, and other persons interested in libraries. To foster the development of libraries and promote the use of books; to raise the professional standards, dignify library service, and improve library salaries; to assist in making books a vital, working, educational force in American life, and in making libraries easily accessible to all the people; to give through its headquarters and committees advisory assistance to all who are interested in library establishment, extension, and development; to attract to library work as a profession young men and women who have the necessary personal and educational qualifications. Maintains a free Employment Bureau to serve librarians seeking positions, and libraries which need librarians and assistants. Association holds an annual conference, open to the public, for the discussion of library topics. Publishes Conference Papers and Proceedings; available to members. Association publishes books, periodicals, and pamphlets to aid in the establishment of libraries and help trustees and librarians in rendering library service. Publications include pamphlets and books ranging in price from 5 cents to $6 each: book-selection and book-buying aids; lists of children's books and books on special subjects; lists of books in foreign languages; various indexes, as, for example, an index to kindergarten songs and an index to plays for children; an A. L. A. Manual of Library Economy; pamphlets on library establishment, on library buildings and equipment, on library training, cataloging, children's libraries, school libraries, mending and binding, and other related topics. Active committees, including those on Civil Service Relations, Federal and State Relations, Institutional Libraries, International Relations, Library Cooperation with other Countries, Work with the Blind, and Work with the Foreign Born, carry on special work. Maintains library service for disabled ex-service men in U. S. Public Health Service and county hospitals. Membership is open to any person or institution engaged in or interested in library work; annual dues, $2 for individuals, $5 for libraries and institutions. Individual members also pay an initiation fee of $1. Supported by membership fees, contributions, and a small endowment fund.

American Medical Association (org. 1847, inc. 1897), 535 North Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill. To promote the science and art of medicine and the betterment of public health. The Association is a federation of its constituent State and territorial associations; these constituent associations, in turn, are federacies of their component county and district medical societies. The legislative powers of the Association reside in its House of Delegates. The Association holds annual sessions for the presentation and discussion of subjects pertaining to the science and art of medicine. It disseminates information regarding medical topics to both the medical profession and the general public; works to elevate the standards of medical education and service and to assist the public to understand and appreciate medical knowledge in order that public health work may be intelligently supported. It maintains (1) a Chemical Laboratory which analyzes nostrums of various kinds and makes original investigations of a purely scientific nature; (2) the Council on Pharmacy and Chemistry which investigates and passes on medicines used by physicians; (3) the Council on Health and Public Instruction which (a) cooperates with other organizations interested in public health, (b) prepares and distributes pamphlets and educational posters on various subjects relating to public health, (c) conducts a bureau of information regarding laws, ordinances, and regulations affecting and conserving public health; (4) the Council on Medical Education and Hospitals which (a) conducts a clearing house for information regarding hospitals, medical colleges, medical and premedical education and licensure, (b) inspects and classifies medical colleges and investigates hospitals, and (c) publishes annual statistics on these subjects and issues pamphlets for the information of physicians, prospective medical students, and other interested persons; (5) the Propaganda Department which has for its primary object the dissemination of information on the nostrum evil, quackery, and allied subjects through (a) the Propaganda Department of The Journal of the American Medical Association, (b) letters sent in answer to inquiries, (c) matter published in books and pamphlets, (d) educational placards, (e) public lectures, illustrated with lantern slides. Association publishes The Journal of the American Medical Association, a weekly paper, 20 cents a copy, $6 a year. It also issues the following monthly magazines: Archives of Internal Medicine, 50 cents a copy, $5 a year; American Journal of Diseases of Children, 40 cents a copy, $4 a year; Archives of Neurology and Psychiatry, 50 cents a copy, $6 a year; Archives of Dermatology and Syphilology, 50 cents a copy, $6 a year. These periodicals are offered at special combination prices. Issues "Quarterly Cumulative Index to Current Medical Literature", $6 a year; "Handbook of Laws Regulating the Practice of Medicine in the U. S. and Elsewhere", 60 cents a copy; "Handbook of Useful Drugs", 60 cents a copy; a 700-page book, "Nostrums and Quackery", $1 a copy; pamphlets on the nostrum evil and quackery, at prices ranging from 5 to 20 cents each, and educational posters, 40 cents each. Address central office for complete list of publications and their prices; sent free on request. The Association is supported by the sale of its publications and by annual fellowship dues of $6.

American Missionary Association (org. 1846, inc. 1862), 287 Fourth Ave., New York, N. Y. To enlighten the less privileged races in American territory and better their condition. Works among Negroes, mountain highlanders, Indians, Chinese, Japanese, Mexicans, and Porto Ricans. Has activities in all the southern States, in Nebraska, the two Dakotas, the Hawaiian Islands, and Porto Rico. Through colleges and secondary schools promotes higher education among Negroes. Has established hospitals and supervises their work. Aids in the support of Negro churches. Maintains a teaching force, including, besides the regular academic teachers, instructors of agriculture, music, mechanical industries, manual arts, and physical education; also maintains librarians, nurses, and community workers. Schools serve as social settlements where practical training is given. Local and State organizations of women work under the Bureau of Woman's Work. Association can supply information on all home mission work of the Congregational Church. Publishes, in conjunction with other Congregational societies, The American Missionary, a monthly magazine, 50 cents a year. Pamphlets and leaflets explaining the work may be obtained free upon application. Lantern slides, with descriptive lectures, are lent free to anyone willing to pay express charges, make a donation, or take up a collection for the Association; these may be secured from the central office or district offices: 14 Beacon St., Boston, Mass.; 19 South La Salle St., Chicago, Ill.; 423 Phelan Bldg., San Francisco, Calif. Association is composed of membership of the National Council of Congregational Churches and a limited number of especially elected persons. Supported by income from invested funds, and gifts from churches, benevolent societies, and individuals.

American National Red Cross (org. and inc. 1881, reinc. 1905), 17th and D Sts. NW., Washington, D. C. To furnish volunteer aid to the sick and wounded of armies in time of war; to act in matters of voluntary relief and in accord with the military and naval authorities as a medium of communication between the people of the U. S. and their Army and Navy; to act in such matters between similar national societies of other governments through the International Committee, and the Government and the people and the Army and Navy of the U. S.; to continue and carry on a system of national and international relief in time of peace and to apply this system in mitigating the sufferings caused by pestilence, famine, fire, floods, and other great national calamities; to devise and carry on measures for preventing such sufferings, and generally to promote measures of humanity and welfare. The work of the Red Cross in this country is carried on largely through the Chapter, the local unit of organization, which consists of the Red Cross members in a given territory, usually covering a county.

GENERAL BOARD

The General Board consists of the Incorporators and their successors; the Central Committee; the Chapter delegates; the five Associates named by the President of the United States, representing the Departments of State, War, Navy, Treasury, and Justice; the members of the Red Cross National Service Committees; and the delegates of the Collective Members. The Board meets annually on the Wednesday before the second Thursday in December.

CENTRAL COMMITTEE

The Central Committee consists of eighteen members, of whom six are elected for three-year terms by the Incorporators and six for three-year terms by Chapter delegates at the annual meeting, and six are appointed annually by the President, of whom one is designated by him as chairman and one each is named by him from the Departments of State, War, Navy, Treasury, and Justice. The entire control and administration of the affairs of the American Red Cross are vested in the Central Committee by the provisions of the Congressional Charter.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The Central Committee appoints from its own membership an Executive Committee of nine members, five of whom constitute a quorum, and who, when the Central Committee is not in session, exercise all powers of the Central Committee.

The Legal Adviser to the Executive Committee is the active law officer of the organization. To him are referred questions affecting the legal status of the corporation, both those of internal policy and those concerning the relations of the corporation with the Government and with the public at large.

CHAIRMAN

The Chairman of the Central Committee is also Chairman of the Executive Committee. He is the executive head of the Red Cross.

SECRETARY

The Secretary issues notices of all meetings; keeps the minutes of the General Board, Central Committee, and Executive Committee, and performs such other duties as are incident to the office.

TREASURER

The Treasurer collects, disburses, and attends to the banking of all American Red Cross Funds. The books of the Treasurer are audited annually by the War Department of the U. S.

COMPTROLLER

The Comptroller is in charge of the accounting of the Red Cross.

COUNSELOR

The duties of the Counselor are chiefly the rendering of advice on matters affecting the general legal status of the Red Cross.

VICE-CHAIRMAN IN CHARGE OF FOREIGN OPERATIONS

The Vice-Chairman in Charge of Foreign Operations has supervision and general conduct of foreign activities. He is responsible for the conduct of correspondence by cable and letter with the Foreign Commissions of the American Red Cross. He keeps in close touch with the State, War, and Navy Departments, and other branches of the Federal Government, with the League of Red Cross Societies, and with the various other agencies interested in the betterment of conditions in foreign countries. He has the consideration of proposals looking to the establishing of new Red Cross enterprises abroad and to the cooperation of the American Red Cross with other organizations in work in our Insular Possessions and elsewhere outside the U. S.

FOREIGN COMMISSIONS

The general and medical relief work of the American Red Cross abroad is carried on by commissions which report to the Vice-Chairman in Charge of Foreign Operations. The Commissioner to Europe directs the operations of the various units working in the different countries of Europe. The headquarters of the Commissioner are at 4, rue de Chevreuse, Paris, France.

VICE-CHAIRMAN IN CHARGE OF DOMESTIC OPERATIONS

The Vice-Chairman in Charge of Domestic Operations is immediately responsible for the administration of all Red Cross operations in the U. S. In addition to the work at National Headquarters, he has authority over the Managers of the Red Cross Divisions in the U. S. and through them directs the entire activities of the organization in this country. Attached to and forming a part of the office of the Vice-Chairman in Charge of Domestic Operations is the office of the Executive Secretary.

The Executive Secretary has charge of operative Services, correspondence, and files. Records of personnel are under his supervision as well as the Red Cross Cafeteria, the Red Cross Library at National Headquarters, and the Museum. He is also responsible for the purchase and handling of supplies, including the shipment abroad of supplies produced by Chapters for foreign relief. He has supervision of insurance work, which, in addition to special service for Red Cross National Headquarters, Divisions, and Foreign Commissions, secures life, health, and accident insurance for Red Cross foreign personnel. Chapters in contact with former overseas workers of the Red Cross, incapacitated as a result of their service abroad, should report their cases to Division Offices for necessary action.

The National Staff Council is composed of heads of the Services at National Headquarters under the Vice-Chairman in Charge of Domestic Operations. Its function is that of an advisory board to the Vice-Chairman. The relationship between the Services at National Headquarters and the corresponding Services in the Red Cross Division Offices is as follows: in each Division Headquarters organization there are operating units corresponding in the main to the Services at National Headquarters. The Services at National Headquarters are responsible for the study of problems in connection with their particular functions; the collection of information and data from the field which may be of interest to all Divisions and the Vice-Chairman, and the formulation of plans and procedure which are necessary in actual field operation. The Headquarters' Services and corresponding Division Services are in constant communication. This is useful for the prompt and effective conducting of work, but does not affect the responsibility and authority of the Division Manager.

Services of various types, which may be grouped under two main headings, are conducted by the Red Cross. Project Services which define the nature and standards of the activities which may be carried out by Chapters under local direction, but with the aid of National and Divisional related offices are as follows: First Aid, Health, Home, Information, Instruction in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick, Junior Red Cross, Military Relief, Nursing, Nutrition, Post War Services (Medical Social, Vocational Rehabilitation, and Service Claims and Information), Preparedness for Disaster Relief, Public Health Nursing, and Volunteer. To assist Chapters in carrying on their work the following Advisory Services are maintained at National Headquarters and at Division Offices: Educational, Field, Membership Activities, Publications, Public Information, Scholarships, Statistical, and Trained Personnel.

PROJECT SERVICES are as follows:

First Aid to the injured endeavors to train men and women to administer First Aid treatment promptly and intelligently in emergencies. It is not intended to take the place of a physician's services, but rather to teach persons to meet the immediate situation at times when a physician cannot be secured. It includes the following activities:

(a) Offers First Aid courses consisting of not less than 10 lectures and demonstrations of 1½ hours each or a total of 15 hours' instruction. Classes may be formed of individual members of communities, social or other organizations, industries, high or preparatory schools, colleges or universities, or persons in summer normal schools or other teaching institutes. Instructors for adult classes are physicians. Arrangements for organizing classes in First Aid should be made with the nearest Red Cross Chapter. Certificates are issued to students who have attended at least 80 per cent of the lectures and have attained an average of 75 per cent or more in the examination.

(b) To stimulate interest in First Aid instruction among groups of industrial workers, the American Red Cross offers its assistance in the holding of First Aid contests among such groups, and awards medals and certificates to the members of the winning teams.

(c) To encourage training in life-saving methods, it organizes Life-Saving Corps for Men and Women, and Junior Life-Saving Crews for Boys and Girls, issuing medals, bars, badges, certificates, and bathing-suit emblems for proficiency along prescribed lines.

(d) Makes awards of from $25 to $100 annually for the best First Aid work performed anywhere during the year. Offers similar awards under like conditions to the American Red Cross Life-Saving Corps.

(e) Issues "Textbook on First Aid and Relief Columns", postage prepaid, $1 a copy; with special editions as follows (3 cents extra for postage for each, if sent by mail): Foreign Editions, 40 cents; General Edition, 40 cents; Industrial Edition, 40 cents; Miners' Edition, 40 cents; Railroad Edition, 40 cents; Woman's Edition, 40 cents. These textbooks are revised from time to time; no free distribution. This Service publishes and distributes free of charge: "First Aid Instruction" (A. R. C. 1001); "Life-Saving Corps for Men and Women" (A. R. C. 1002); "Junior Life-Saving Crews for Boys and Girls" (A. R. C. 1004); "Water-Safety Suggestions" (A. R. C. 1005); "First Aid Instruction in Schools" (A. R. C. 1006); "Sanitary Training Detachments" (A. R. C. 1007); "First Aid Contests" (A. R. C. 300); "Catalogue of First Aid Books and Supplies" with price list (A. R. C. 1009). Also supplies equipment at low prices; included in this equipment are First Aid kits designed to meet the particular needs of various industries as well as those of every-day life. Chapters secure publications and supplies through Division Offices, the outside public through the Chapters, or in territory in which there is no active Red Cross Chapter upon application to the Division Office.

Health Service: In addition to various aspects of nursing, the Red Cross is interested in the larger question of public health; this may include any phase of health work needed in any community or any health studies which may seem advisable, made always in cooperation with local health forces. This work is being done in part through the promotion of the health center. The health center, as it is being developed in what are known as rural Chapters (those which have no town with a population of 8,000 or over) and even in cities of 15,000, furnishes a center where (a) any question on health may be answered; (b) the health publications of the U. S. Public Health Service, State health departments, and great national organizations are made available to the people in the community; (c) health demonstrations and exhibits are conducted to awaken interest; (d) health classes and clubs may meet, and from which such clubs and classes are promoted; (e) clinics, as they may be needed in any community, are held. In many of the smaller communities, the health center is being combined with rest rooms, library rooms, and Red Cross work rooms. Communities wishing to start a health center should consult the local Red Cross Chapter. Health Service has published: "The A. R. C. Health Center" (A. R. C. 1012), distributed to Chapters and Branches on request addressed to Division Offices, and "Guides to Health" (A. R. C. 1013), available to directors of Red Cross Health Centers on application to Division Offices.

Home Service: The Red Cross during the World War had important duties within the field of Home Service to the families of our fighting men, including: (a) conservation of human resources in the families; (b) temporary financial relief to cover an emergency or where Governmental payments were delayed; (c) assistance in families not provided for by Government allowance or compensation, but having a moral claim to aid; (d) personal service to returned service men, especially those who were disabled; (e) supplying of information; (f) advancement of home standards. This work with the service and disabled ex-service man and his family continues to be a responsibility of the Red Cross. While engaged in it, Home Service workers had demands made upon them for social service to civilian families and to their communities as a whole. As a result, a large number of Red Cross Chapters have extended their programs to include civilian Home Service. It is the policy of the Red Cross not to duplicate the work of a recognized and properly equipped agency. Social work agencies exist as a rule only in the larger cities. It is, therefore, in the smaller towns and rural communities that Red Cross Chapters are particularly called upon to interest themselves in activities of this kind. Chapters seek to promote family welfare and child welfare and also develop various forms of community service, securing the cooperation of specialized agencies in or outside the Red Cross to fill the needs.

Information Service is carried on by the Red Cross in the two following activities:

Social Resources Information Service collects, indexes, and gives out information in regard to agencies doing social or health work, in order to make it possible to obtain the aid these agencies are prepared to render for the persons and communities with which the Red Cross is in contact, and also in order to enable Red Cross workers and others to cooperate with the agencies. It answers inquiries in regard to social and health resources, made by Red Cross workers and by local agencies and individuals seeking information from Red Cross Chapters and Branches. National Headquarters gathers information on nation-wide resources, Division Offices on regional and State-wide agencies, and Chapters on local resources. All information is at the disposal of Chapters, which call on Division Offices for non-local material as needed, these in turn calling on National Headquarters, where necessary. The Service at National Headquarters has prepared the "Handbook of Social Resources of the U. S.". In addition the Division Offices have compiled Handbooks concerning the resources of some of the States. The Handbooks may be purchased at nominal cost by persons not in the Red Cross.

Insular and Foreign Information Service secures data concerning questions of interest to Red Cross workers regarding transportation, shipping, mail, passports, immigration requirements, and other conditions in or affecting foreign countries and our Insular Possessions. This material is made available from National Headquarters through the Division Offices to Chapters and Branches and through these to local groups and individuals in need of it.

Other special information work of the Red Cross will be found described: (a) for service and ex-service men and their families under Service Claims and Information and (b) regarding the activities of the Red Cross itself under Public Information.

Instruction in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick promotes courses in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick which prepare women and girls to care for the sick in their own homes with the appliances and means which the homes provide. These courses are not intended to equip men to assume the responsibility of a graduate nurse in case of their illness, but to teach them to give intelligent care when minor illnesses or emergencies occur in their households and when trained nurses are not essential or cannot be had. There is one Standard Red Cross Course, with a modification called the Modified Course, and an adaptation called the Adapted Course, a certificate being issued on the successful completion of any one:

(1) Standard Course, taught by enrolled American Red Cross nurses and consisting of 15 lessons or a minimum of 22½ hours, at the end of which an examination in both theory and practice is required.

(2) Adapted Course, consisting of the same number of lessons or hours, and also requiring an examination in theory and practice. The theoretical part of the Adapted Course may be taught by teachers of physiology, biology, physical training, domestic science, or by other specially qualified teachers, an enrolled Red Cross nurse in every instance supervising the instruction and giving the demonstrations.

(3) Modified Course, covering the same number of lessons or hours as the Standard and Adapted Courses. It is based on practical demonstrations and requires no written examinations. This course has been planned for foreigners, factory workers, and others who do not care to take the written examination or who are not qualified to do so. Publications are as follows:

"Textbook on Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick", paper bound, 70 cents; cloth bound, $1.25.

"Guide for Instructors in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick" (free; available to instructors only) (A. R. C. 714).

"College and High School Girls" (free) (A. R. C. 717).

"Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick" (free) (A. R. C. 704).

Junior Red Cross, organized in public, private, and parochial schools, provides a means through which children may share in the service program of the Red Cross, and may receive training in habits and ideals of service. Activities are patriotic and educational as well as humanitarian. Cooperates with the school authorities in making Red Cross activities an integral part of the classroom work. Vitalizes and gives incentive to the established school program. Affords opportunity for school children of America to become acquainted with children in other countries who serve in this country and other lands. Publishes pamphlets dealing with Junior Red Cross activities and distributes them through the Red Cross Chapter School Committees in each Division.

In School Activities two aims are kept in mind: first, the actual service performed; second, the educational values of the activities, especially from a social and civic point of view. Junior activities are grouped under the following heads:

- (a) Manual production activities—gardening, and the making of garments, hospital equipment, playground equipment, and toys;
- (b) Money-earning and thrift activities for service purposes;
- (c) Entertainments to afford recreation to others, especially those who need good cheer;
- (d) Health and play activities with fitness for service as the objective;
- (e) Community projects adapted to the abilities and interests of children and leading to habits and ideals of community and national service.

School Correspondence promotes an interchange of correspondence, handwork, photographs, and other materials illustrative of the interests, customs, and conditions of life in different countries. The international aspect spontaneously grew out of Junior Red Cross participation in American Red Cross relief work in Europe. Correspondence is carried on with countries in which the American Junior Red Cross has projects already under way or in which a national Junior Red Cross of the country is established or under contemplation. Also links Auxiliaries in the U. S. with those in her outlying Territories. Schools enrolled as Junior Red Cross Auxiliaries, wishing to use the plan of the Junior Red Cross School Correspondence, should apply to the Red Cross Division Headquarters for a copy of the "Teachers' Handbook of School Correspondence" (A. R. C. 610).

School Enrollment admits schools as Junior Red Cross Auxiliaries upon receipt of the application of the principal or head teacher, accompanied by remittance for one or more annual subscriptions to the Junior Red Cross News, one annual subscription for each school room. Upon receipt of application, the office sends the school a certificate of membership or a renewal card, a Junior Red Cross membership roll, and Junior Red Cross service buttons. No fee is fixed for membership of individual pupils in the Junior Red Cross. The school is the unit of organization. The only obligation for the individual pupil is that of service. This service obligation implies that pupils will take their part in Junior Red Cross activities carried on by the school, including creating a Junior Red Cross service fund which may be used (a) for local educational or relief purposes and (b) for foreign educational and relief projects.

National Children's Fund is established by contributions from Red Cross School Auxiliaries. Devoted in the main to the support of localized projects in Europe, involving both the relief and education of children made destitute by the World War. Provides a medium for administering contributions received from various sources for child welfare work overseas. An American Red Cross School Auxiliary may designate the particular project in the list of Junior Red Cross projects for the support of which its contributions are to go. If a Division wishes it a list of projects may be assigned it for selection and adoption by schools, but to prevent oversubscription of any project, no one project is assigned to more than one Division.

Junior Red Cross News, monthly, September to May inclusive, 50 cents a year, makes available materials to vitalize school studies such as geography and history; cultivates Red Cross ideals and an understanding of life under conditions different from those of the children reading it. School subscriptions should be forwarded to the local Red Cross Chapter School Committee or to Red Cross Division Headquarters if this committee is unknown to the prospective subscriber. If both the Chapter School Committee and the Division Headquarters are unknown, subscriptions should be sent direct to Junior Red Cross, National Headquarters, Washington, D. C. All subscriptions for individuals should also be sent to Junior Red Cross, National Headquarters, Washington, D. C.

Military Relief serves both the Army and the Navy.

Camp Service conducts the following activities: (a) Home Service for men in the Army and Navy; (b) entertainment and recreation for convalescent patients in the Red Cross convalescent houses, in hospital wards on the various military reservations, and for hospital personnel; (c) communication service, furnishing relatives and friends information regarding soldiers and sailors away from their families; (d) supplemental hospital and am-balance service, distribution of minor supplies for the comfort and welfare of patients, and all such incidentals as may be determined by individual commanding officers to meet their respective local needs; (e) supplemental emergency supplies when required and necessary in an emergency and when lack of time or facilities of the War and Navy Departments makes such a request necessary.

Nursing Service: The Red Cross has a National Committee on Red Cross Nursing Service, composed of representatives of the Army, Navy, the U. S. Public Health Service, the national organizations of nursing, and the American Red Cross. The Committee cooperates with and advises the Nursing Service in the performance of its functions, and is also advisory to the Chairman of the Central Committee.

Nursing Service of the Red Cross maintains:

(a) Enrollment: Enrolls nurses through its local, State, and national committees, primarily as the reserve of the Army and the Navy. Applications for enrollment are routed from local committees through the offices of the Division Directors, in order that they may have full information concerning the nursing resources in their Divisions. The Divisions maintain an enrollment of Home Defense nurses, not eligible for national enrollment, but who may be available for local purposes. From this group are obtained a large number of the instructors in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick. The general enrollment supplies nurses to the U. S. Public Health Service, as well as the Public Health Nursing Service of the Red Cross. All other Red Cross Nursing Services, including foreign, are served through this enrollment.

(b) Assignment: Assigns Red Cross nurses to the Army and Navy Nurse Corps; recommends nurses for appointment with the U. S. Public Health Service; assigns them to Red Cross Public Health Nursing Service and also as instructors in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick, for domestic disaster relief, and Red Cross foreign nursing service. Red Cross foreign service includes the organization of schools for nurses, the establishment of nursing service in dispensaries, clinics, child welfare units, and classes in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick. It also concerns itself with the promotion and advancement of modern nursing in countries hitherto without this. In addition it secures nurses for other organizations.

(c) Equipment: Functions at Branch Office, National Headquarters, 44 East 23d St., New York, N. Y. Provides or furnishes equipment for all Red Cross nurses assigned to active service under the Red Cross.

(d) Affiliated Enterprises: In cooperation with the three national organizations of nursing, conducts a national movement to recruit Student Nurses and assists with the maintenance of a National Nursing Association Headquarters, Penn Terminal Bldg., New York, N. Y. (See description elsewhere in Handbook.)

(e) Publications:

"Information for Nurses Called Upon for Active Service" (A. R. C. 702).

"Information for Nurses Desiring to Enroll With the Red Cross" (A. R. C. 703).

"Red Cross Nursing Service" (A. R. C. 710).

These publications are distributed free of charge.

(For information concerning Red Cross Instruction in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick and Public Health Nursing see descriptions of these Services.)

Nutrition Service activities include:

(a) Food Selection: The course in Food Selection is a study in food and the factors which determine the selection of an adequate diet for the family. This course is taught by enrolled Red Cross dietitians and consists of 15 lessons or a minimum of 22½ hours. It may be given by lecture and discussion; lecture, demonstration, and discussion; or by lecture, demonstration, and laboratory work by the class. There are two courses, the Standard and the Modified. The Standard course requires a written examination, while the Modified may be given without an examination. Requests for instructors should be addressed to the Division Office of the Red Cross through the local Red Cross Chapter. The pamphlet, "Food Selection", was prepared primarily as the textbook for this course in Food Selection. It may be purchased from the Division Office or National Headquarters at 50 cents a copy.

(b) Nutrition Classes: In the Red Cross Chapters in which special nutrition classes are being carried on for undernourished children, a nutrition expert has been placed. These classes may operate in the school, in the health center, community center, or dispensary. This worker has charge of all the nutrition activities of that Chapter and acts as a nutrition adviser. She organizes classes for the undernourished children and follows them into the home where she helps the mother with food problems relative to the feeding of the whole family. An effort is being made to enroll the mothers of the children of the nutrition classes in the course in Food Selection.

(c) Hot School Lunches: In counties not served by a county Home Demonstration Agent and where request has been made for this service, Red Cross Chapters stimulate interest in hot school lunches and help in establishing them. Demand for these lunches sometimes grows out of the work of the nutrition classes.

Post War Services is responsible for continuing to a final conclusion the work included in the Home Service war program. It has three particular activities for the benefit of service and ex-service men and their families as follows:

(a) Service Claims and Information makes investigation of or personal inquiry into claims which service men may have against the Government and in which have arisen complications which they themselves cannot unravel by direct communication. Wherever possible, this Service secures action regarding these claims, which may involve unpaid allotments and allowances, compensation, insurance, back pay, liberty bonds, or the like. Cases of this nature originally taken up with the Red Cross Chapters are handled with the Federal departments at Washington by a special force at National Headquarters. By means of the "Handbook of Information and Instructions for Home Service Sections" (A. R. C. 207) and other material, this office keeps Red Cross personnel throughout the country advised concerning Federal legislation, Governmental procedure and practices relating to service and ex-service men and their dependents, and the beneficial opportunities offered by the Government, in order that Home Service workers may render more efficient aid to the men and their families.

(b) Medical Social Service endeavors to aid the disabled ex-service man wherever he is receiving treatment. It maintains personnel in U. S. Public Health Service Hospitals and the district offices of the U. S. Bureau of War Risk Insurance, and through visits and surveys seeks to reach also the men in private and public hospitals which are under contract with the B. W. R. I.

It also has workers in certain Soldiers' Homes which are caring for War Risk patients. In the hospitals, Red Cross social workers cooperate with the hospital authorities in rendering personal service to the men, necessary for their comfort, happiness, and recovery, but not provided for by Governmental regulations. These workers keep in touch with the Home Service Sections of the Red Cross regarding the home problems of the men in hospitals, and when they are discharged notify the Home Service or other community agencies, in order that they may follow the doctor's instructions and adjust themselves to civilian life as readily as possible. They also furnish supplies such as socks, sweaters, and similar articles, to men in hospitals who are not receiving compensation, and furnish to the hospitals certain recreational equipment which by law the hospitals cannot provide. The workers in the District Offices endeavor to see that men examined by the Medical Section and entitled to treatment understand how to secure it; that they receive it, and also that they understand the procedure concerning compensation, insurance, and Federal Board training. They cooperate with the Home Service workers of the Red Cross in all this work and secure home adjustments of personal or family problems through this channel.

(c) Vocational Rehabilitation Service includes (1) cooperation with the central office of the Federal Board for Vocational Education by a member of the staff at National Headquarters, and (2) cooperation with all district and local offices of the Board by Division and Chapter personnel. The Red Cross formerly had representatives in the Board's district offices. Their work is now conducted by Personal Service Officers of the Board. Many of these were previously Red Cross workers, and the salaries of a number are still paid by the Red Cross. The Federal Board has very few field workers and depends largely on Red Cross Chapters to inform ex-service men of their rights to Federal Board training and to assist them in filing applications, affidavits, and so on. Personal Service workers in the Federal Board offices interview the men, discover their troubles, and send word concerning these to the proper Home Service Sections when their cooperation is required. They also report to Home Service Sections men who discontinue training because of illness or other reasons and Home Service workers assist the men, if possible, toward recovery and reentry into training. Representatives of the Home Service Section discuss with the man and his family the advantage of rehabilitation offered by the Federal Board, encourage the man by insuring such care as may be required for his family while he is away taking training, lend him money if he needs it for his expenses until his training pay arrives from the Federal Board, and offer other assistance. The Red Cross Chapter in the city where he enters school assumes responsibility for rendering him various sorts of personal service. Vocational Rehabilitation Service supervises the management of special funds appropriated by National Headquarters of the Red Cross for loans to men in training or about to enter training under the Federal Board. It also handles service to families drawn to Army camps, hospitals, or Federal Board training center communities by reason of the fact that the man is assigned to that particular place.

Preparedness for Disaster Relief: This Service acts as a clearing house for information upon disaster relief and preparedness, and as adviser in disaster relief methods and procedure, especially in particular emergencies; suggests plans of preparedness for disaster, applicable to local communities, Division Offices, and the national organization; assists Division Offices in promoting disaster preparedness organization through all Red Cross units; maintains relations with Government departments and nation-wide organizations able to assist in disaster relief. Upon the occurrence of a disaster in a community, it is expected that the Red Cross Chapter will undertake whatever forms of emergency relief may be needed, such as providing shelter, clothing or first aid; distributing or serving food; and transporting the injured to hospitals and refugees to places of safety. If the emergency is a serious one, the Chapter will cooperate with public officials and civic agencies in the selection of a Central Disaster Relief Committee, responsible not only for emergency measures but also for a thorough-going survey of the needs of disaster victims and permanent relief measures designed to restore them to their normal manner of living. Through its Division Managers and special representatives the national organization is prepared to advise and assist local Red Cross disaster relief committees in carrying on their relief work, and in circumstances where it appears necessary, or when invited to do so, to assume charge of relief organization. Local Chapters are expected to report to the Red Cross Division Headquarters upon the occurrence of a disaster, indicating whether the community will be able to take care of the emergency or whether it will be necessary for the national organization to mobilize relief workers from the outside in order to meet the situation. Communities can arrange for this work through Red Cross Chapters. The Service has prepared the "Disaster Relief Guide Book" for the use of Red Cross Division offices and the "Manual of Disaster Relief" (A. R. C. 209), available to Red Cross Chapters and to other agencies interested in disaster relief work, on request.

Public Health Nursing Service is concerned with the promotion and administration of public health nursing services in rural communities or counties through the instrumentality of the Red Cross Chapters in close cooperation with State boards of health and other organizations. It sets and maintains standards of public health nursing which require definite postgraduate training or preparation in addition to the regular hospital course. Instructive visiting nursing in the homes, with the improvement of family health as the object in view, is considered of fundamental importance in the program. The other activities extend to prenatal and infant welfare nursing, maternity and child welfare nursing, school nursing, tuberculosis nursing, industrial nursing, mental hygiene nursing, social hygiene nursing, communicable disease control, and educational health work. A local program is determined by the particular needs of the locality. The Red Cross recognizes that public health nursing should be a public responsibility eventually, and conducts its services with that end in view, turning them over to public control as rapidly as the communities and counties are ready and able to assume the responsibility. Public Health Nursing Service has issued the following publications for free distribution:

"Have You a Community Nurse?" (A. R. C. 711).

"Information for Communities Concerning the Red Cross Public Health Nursing Service" (A. R. C. 716).

"Information for Nurses Concerning the Red Cross Public Health Nursing Service" (A. R. C. 715).

"Uniforms for Red Cross Public Health Nurses" (A. R. C. 713).

Volunteer Service recruits volunteers to assist others in the professional services and for the general administration and management of such activities as can be conducted entirely by volunteers. Included in the work are: production of infant layettes, clothing for refugees, hospital supplies, supplies for emergency use in disasters; motor corps service; canteen and other services as needed.

ADVISORY SERVICES are as follows:

Educational Service promotes and participates in training courses for Red Cross personnel and other social workers in colleges and universities.

Field Service trains and supervises the staff of field representatives in Division Offices whose duty it is to visit Red Cross Chapters and assist them in planning their peace-time activities on the basis of local needs and opportunities, and to stimulate and supervise the development of this work.

Membership Activities has charge of the Annual Roll Call of the Red Cross and also enrolls members throughout the year in connection with fairs, public gatherings, lectures, pageants, and conventions. The American Red Cross visualizes its peace-time program by pageantry and other means. Those wishing to aid in the work or to obtain information regarding it should apply to the local Chapter.

Publications Service through Division Offices renders service to Red Cross Chapters when desired by offering suggestions regarding the form and make-up of publications and posters to be issued.

Public Information Service is the channel for conveying information concerning operations of the national organization to Red Cross Chapters and workers and to the public at large. Through it the newspapers, press associations, newspaper syndicates, general periodicals, technical, trade, and class journals and magazines, divisional directors of public information, other Services of the Red Cross, and individuals are regularly supplied with authentic news and information concerning Red Cross activities at home and overseas. Public Information also prepares and circulates standardized exhibits portraying Red Cross work; produces and distributes to the Chapters and other exhibitors Red Cross and other educational and inspirational moving pictures; supplies photographs of Red Cross activities at home and abroad to the newspapers, news syndicates, and periodicals generally; prepares and circulates stereopticon slides portraying Red Cross work, and furnishes to Chapters and public gatherings Red Cross speakers and standardized Red Cross lectures. This Service also keeps the executive officials of the organization informed through newspaper clippings and otherwise as to news developments and the general trend of public opinion in matters directly or indirectly affecting the Red Cross, and answers general requests from organizations and individuals for information concerning the Red Cross. The National Red Cross Bulletin, published weekly, and nine monthly Divisional Bulletins, official journals of the society, are published by the Service; they carry complete official information concerning the Red Cross to Chapters, other Red Cross workers, and the public at large. There is no subscription price for the Bulletins published at National Headquarters and by the Insular and Foreign and the Pacific Divisions. The subscription prices of other Divisional Bulletins are as follows: Atlantic, $1; Central, 50 cents; New England, 50 cents; Lake, 50 cents; Northwestern, $1; Southern, $1; Southwestern, $1.

Scholarship Committees at National Headquarters and in Divisions are composed of representatives of all Red Cross Services granting scholarships for the training of workers needed by the organization. Nursing Service, Medical Social Work, and general social work are represented on this Committee, which passes on all applications for Red Cross scholarships. Chapters wishing to obtain the services of the Committee make application to the Division Office. Individuals desiring information regarding scholarships or wishing to apply for scholarships should ask information of the local Red Cross Chapter.

Statistical Service collects, supplies, and interprets statistics of Red Cross activities in Chapters and Divisions, and works to further among Chapters and in the organization generally a better knowledge and appreciation of existing statistical information relating to subjects within the scope of Red Cross work.

Trained Personnel Service is maintained for the purpose of obtaining qualified Red Cross field representatives and Chapter executives. This service recruits social workers for positions in the Red Cross and for training in social service.

DIVISION OFFICES AND CHAPTERS

The relation between Division Offices and Chapters in the Red Cross is similar to that between National Headquarters and Division Offices. Chapters deal directly with their Division Offices, and the head of each Chapter is responsible to the Manager of his Division in the same way that the Division Manager is responsible to the Vice-Chairman in Charge of Domestic Operations. National Headquarters has contact with the Chapters through the various Division Managers. The Division Manager is the executive head of his Division. Corresponding to the National Staff Council which is made up of those in charge of various Services at National Headquarters he has advisers especially concerned with specific activities in the Division.

The Chapter is the smallest operating unit with which the Division Office deals. The smaller units, known as Branches and Auxiliaries, are parts of Chapter organization and deal with their parent Chapters. The Red Cross maintains the following Division offices:

New England Division, 73 Newbury St., Boston, Mass.; for the States of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, and Rhode Island.

Atlantic Division, 44 East 23d St., New York, N. Y.; for New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, and Connecticut.

Southern Division, 249 Ivy St., Atlanta, Ga.; for Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, and Florida.

Lake Division, Plymouth Bldg., 22d St. and Prospect Ave. Cleveland, Ohio; for Michigan, Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky, and West Virginia.

Central Division, 308 North Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill.; for Montana, Wyoming, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Minnesota, Iowa, Wisconsin, and Illinois.

Southwestern Division, 901 Equitable Bldg., St. Louis, Mo.; for Colorado, New Mexico, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Missouri, and Arkansas.

Pacific Division, Civic Auditorium, Larkin and Grove Sts., San Francisco, Calif.; for California, Nevada, Utah, and Arizona.

Northwestern Division, 315 University St., Seattle, Wash.; for Oregon, Washington, and Idaho.

Insular and Foreign Division, 17th and D Sts. NW., Washington, D. C.

The local work of the Red Cross is carried on in the Chapter through which are conducted in great part the health and social service activities of the organization in this country. Each Chapter has a headquarters town and each, with the exception of those located in a few large cities, has Branches which cover one or more communities. The Chapter organization consists of a chairman, vice-chairman, secretary, treasurer, and executive committee. The Executive Committee is elected by the Chapter members, and may appoint such subcommittees as are called for. The Branches are represented on the executive committee and may also have local committees for carrying on their special activities. Within the scope of Red Cross work the Chapter has autonomy in the choice of its program. The Division and National Staff Councils furnish advice in the making of decisions and in the maintaining of standards. The Chapter employs such trained workers as are necessary, usually a public health nurse, an executive secretary who may also be Home Service secretary, class instructor, and so on. The money for the Chapter's work is raised locally. Outside persons making contacts with the Red Cross should discuss with the Chapter chairman local questions relating to cooperation with the Chapter; agencies seeking to work with the Red Cross in State-wide activities should confer with the Division Office; agencies wishing to work with the Red Cross on a national basis should confer directly with the Vice-Chairman in Charge of Domestic Operations at National Headquarters.

Work carried on by the American Red Cross Chapters in foreign countries and in the Insular Possessions of the U. S. is under the direction of the Manager of the Insular and Foreign Division.

American Nurses' Association (org. 1897, inc. 1901), Penn Terminal Bldg., 370 Seventh Ave., New York, N. Y. To promote the professional advancement of nurses; to elevate the standard of nursing education; to establish and maintain a code of ethics among nurses; to distribute relief among such nurses as may become ill, disabled, or destitute; to disseminate information on the subject of nursing in official publications and through other mediums; to bring into communication with each other, nurses and associations of nurses. Standing and special committees study and report upon specific subjects. Association maintains at times an interstate secretary who travels throughout the country, addressing pupil nurses, graduate nurses, and students and officers of training schools affiliated with this Association or similar organizations. The Isabel Hampton Robb Memorial Fund (see description elsewhere in the Handbook) having educational purposes is available only to members of the American Nurses' Association. Association holds a biennial convention of its entire organization, open to the public, and annual meetings of the State associations. Convention reports are published as a special issue of Association's magazine. Membership consists of State associations whose membership is limited to graduates of accredited nursing schools or persons having had equivalent training. Association publishes "List of Accredited Schools", $1.04 a copy; occasional descriptive leaflets; The American Journal of Nursing, a monthly magazine, 35 cents a copy, $3 a year. Supported by membership dues of State associations, which pay 15 cents per capita annually. Has representation on the National Committee on Red Cross Nursing Service (see American National Red Cross). Board of directors of the Association serves as a member of the joint board of directors of the National League of Nursing Education and the National Organization for Public Health Nursing (for description of these see elsewhere in the Handbook).

Nurses' Relief Fund of the American Nurses' Association (org. 1911), Chmn., Elizabeth Golding, 317 West 45th St., New York, N. Y. A special fund for helping nurses who are ill. Provides financial aid to members in times of emergency, and gives relief to disabled members not otherwise provided for. Relief is generally granted in the form of small monthly payments, at present not exceeding $20 and often amounting to less than $20, the exact amount to be determined by the need and resources of the applicant. Available only to members of the American Nurses' Association on written application. Fund is administered by the Committee of Five, whose decisions are ratified by the directors of the American Nurses' Association. A report showing contributions, balance, and expenditure is published each month in the American Journal of Nursing. Committee publishes occasional descriptive leaflets. Supported by voluntary contributions. In 1921 the Fund amounts to over $36,000.

10 American Patriotic League (inc. 1891), Independence Hall, Philadelphia, Pa. To create a popular demand for moral and civic training; to secure legislation for its introduction and supervision in all schools at home and abroad. Drafts and assists in the enactment of State laws requiring school training in the duties of citizenship. Organizes schools into school republics in which children have legislative, executive, and judicial powers under the instruction of the teacher. The whole school is organized as a little U. S. under the Constitution of the U. S., each room as a city, and groups of cities as school states. The principal civic training is in the school cities, which have commissioners of health, cleanliness, public work, social welfare, and cooperation. League has introduced its system into the Territorial Possessions of the U. S. and into other countries. Has published "The Boys' and Girls' Republic", "Civic Practice for Boys and Girls", "Civic Problems", 60 cents each; these books are intended as textbooks. Has also published "A New Citizenship", $1.15 a copy. Supported by sale of literature and by contributions.

13 p for advice

American Peace Society (org. 1828, inc. 1848), 612 Colorado Bldg., Washington, D. C. To promote permanent international peace. Seeks to arouse and organize public opinion in opposition to war as a means of settling international differences, and to advance the general use of conciliation, judicial methods, and other peaceable means of avoiding and adjusting such differences. It stands for an international peace of justice. Society spreads its doctrine through lectures, at public meetings, and through its literature. It supervises the work of local affiliated societies. Services are free and not limited to any special groups. Publishes The Advocate of Peace, monthly, $2 a year, free to members. Also issues books and pamphlets on pertinent subjects. Membership open to all persons in sympathy with the Society's principles. Supported by membership dues, $2 and up, special contributions, subscriptions, sale of literature, income from its permanent Peace Fund, and by assistance from the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook). nothing but book convau-
?
1 then in n other solid

American Pediatric Society (org. 1888), 1805 Spruce St., Philadelphia, Pa. For the advancement of the knowledge of physiology, pathology, and therapeutics of infancy and childhood. Has an advisory committee on child hygiene which has formulated an outline for didactic instruction in preventive pediatrics and child hygiene for students in medical schools. Holds annual meetings for members and invited guests. The Society publishes its Transactions annually; this is not for sale, but copies are presented to a carefully selected list of large medical libraries.

American Physical Education Association (org. 1886), 93 Westford Ave., Springfield, Mass. For the advancement of physical education and recreation. To awaken a wider and more intelligent interest in physical education, to acquire and disseminate knowledge concerning it, to labor for the improvement and extension of gymnastics, games, athletics, and aquatics. Central office answers free all questions from members regarding physical education. Holds a national annual convention and two district conventions, for the discussion of problems and exchange of ideas; open to members and those paying registration fee. Standing committees as follows carry on special studies and present reports: Publication, Unification, and Standardization of Physical Education Courses for Teachers, Health Examinations, and Standard Physical Efficiency Tests. District and State committees carry on special work within their own provinces. National Association publishes the American Physical Education Review, monthly, 50 cents a copy, $3.50 a year, free to members. Membership open to interested persons upon recommendation by two members, election, and payment of annual dues. Supported by contributions, subscriptions, and dues.

American Posture League (org. 1913, inc. 1914), 1 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y. To increase interest in the improvement of habitual posture, to set up standards of posture training, and to investigate and improve the conditions influencing posture. Special committees on research conduct studies and cooperate with manufacturers in securing standardization of articles of wearing apparel and furniture; these committees have been instrumental in placing on the market clothing, shoes, and school, industrial, and street car seats constructed to meet the anatomical needs of the body. On articles approved, the League places its registered label which may be used free unless for commercial purposes, in which case a small fee is charged. Conducts prize contests among school children. Officers give illustrated lectures, free of charge, on request of educational and other organizations. League issues wall charts, photographs, reprints, lantern slides, and other illustrative material; free to members, for rent to non-members, special prices for 200 or more; price lists on request. Lists of material bearing the League's label and lists of publications and reprints issued by the League may be obtained free on request. Active membership open to individuals engaged or otherwise interested in work related to the purposes of the League; sustaining membership open to anyone interested in its work and objects. Supported by annual membership dues, $2 and up, and by income from its label.

American Prison Association (org. 1870), 135 East 15th St., New York, N. Y. To improve laws relating to public offenses and offenders, and the modes of procedure by which such laws are enforced; to improve penal, correctional and reformatory institutions and their government, management, and discipline. Through its standing committees the Association makes studies of the causes of crime, nature of offenders and their social surroundings, and the best methods of dealing with offenders and of preventing crime. Is also interested in the care of paroled or discharged prisoners and probationers and in riding suitable and remunerative employment for them. Central e serves as a clearing house and information bureau; answers free charge inquiries regarding delinquency and crime; secures free address and lecture service of its members throughout the country for communities applying. Association holds a seven-day annual congress, open to interested persons, providing a free forum for the discussion of problems relating to prisons and prisoners. Representatives of organizations having similar or related interests are invited to these meetings. Association has drawn up resolutions on the care of defectives, delinquents, probationers and paroled prisoners, and on similar subjects. The Juvenile Reformatory Section, and Committees as follows, carry on special studies and present reports at annual meetings: Criminal Law Reform; Prevention, Probation and Parole; Prison Discipline; Penal Farms; Compensation of Prisoners; Prison Statistics; War Problems; Police; Prison Architecture. The following auxiliary associations work in cooperation with the American Prison Association: Wardens' Association, Chaplains' Association, Prison Physicians' Association, National Prisoners' Society, Boards of Parole and Pardon, and the American Association of Clinical Criminology. National office publishes Proceedings of annual meetings; $3 a copy, free to members. Membership open to all interested persons. Supported by membership dues, $5 and up.

American Protestant Hospital Association (org. 1919), Exec. Sec., Frank C. English, M. D., St. Luke's Hospital, Cleveland, Ohio. To foster the cooperation of church hospitals for their own improvement; to coordinate their occupancy of fields; to secure concerted church support for existing and new hospitals. Holds annual meeting, open to the public. Has its own program, but meets during the session of the American Hospital Association (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook), giving part of the program of the latter.

American Public Health Association (org. 1872, inc. 1918), Penn. Terminal Bldg., 370 Seventh Ave., New York, N. Y. To extend and improve public health work, especially through State and local boards of health. Conducts propaganda for desired health legislation, for adequate salaries to health workers, and for public health generally. Prepares model legislation and stimulates its enactment. Answers members' questions on public health subjects. Publishes, reports: Publication, Unification, and Standardization of Physical Education Courses for Teachers, Health Examinations, and Standard Physical Efficiency Tests. District and State committees carry on special work within their own provinces. National Association publishes the American Physical Education Review, monthly, 50 cents a copy, $3.50 a year, free to members. Membership open to interested persons upon recommendation by two members, election, and payment of annual dues. Supported by contributions, subscriptions, and dues.

American Posture League (org. 1913, inc. 1914), 1 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y. To increase interest in the improvement of habitual posture, to set up standards of posture training, and to investigate and improve the conditions influencing posture. Special committees on research conduct studies and cooperate with manufacturers in securing standardization of articles of wearing apparel and furniture; these committees have been instrumental in placing on the market clothing, shoes, and school, industrial, and street car seats constructed to meet the anatomical needs of the body. On articles approved, the League places its registered label which may be used free unless for commercial purposes, in which case a small fee is charged. Conducts prize contests among school children. Officers give illustrated lectures, free of charge, on request of educational and other organizations. League issues wall charts, photographs, reprints, lantern slides, and other illustrative material; free to members, for rent to non-members, special prices for 200 or more; price lists on request. Lists of material bearing the League's label and lists of publications and reprints issued by the League may be obtained free on request. Active membership open to individuals engaged or otherwise interested in work related to the purposes of the League; sustaining membership open to anyone interested in its work and objects. Supported by annual membership dues, $2 and up, and by income from its label.

American Prison Association (org. 1870), 135 East 15th St., New York, N. Y. To improve laws relating to public offenses and offenders, and the modes of procedure by which such laws are enforced; to improve penal, correctional and reformatory institutions and their government, management, and discipline. Through its standing committees the Association makes studies of the causes of crime, nature of offenders and their social surroundings, and the best methods of dealing with offenders and of preventing crime. Is also interested in the care of paroled or discharged prisoners and probationers and in providing suitable and remunerative employment for them. Central office serves as a clearing house and information bureau; answers free of charge inquiries regarding delinquency and crime; secures free advice and lecture service of its members throughout the country for communities applying. Association holds a seven-day annual congress, open to interested persons, providing a free forum for the discussion of problems relating to prisons and prisoners. Representatives of organizations having similar or related interests are invited to these meetings. Association has drawn up resolutions on the care of defectives and delinquents, probationers and paroled prisoners, and on similar topics. The Juvenile Reformatory Section, and Committees as follows carry on special studies and present reports at annual meetings: Criminal Law Reform; Prevention, Probation and Parole; Prison Discipline; Penal Farms; Compensation of Prisoners; Criminal Statistics; War Problems; Police; Prison Architecture. The following auxiliary associations work in cooperation with the American Prison Association: Wardens' Association, Chaplains' Association, Prison Physicians' Association, National Prisoners' Aid Society, Boards of Parole and Pardon, and the American Association of Clinical Criminology. National office publishes Proceedings of annual meetings; $3 a copy, free to members. Membership open to all interested persons. Supported by membership dues, $5 and up.

American Protestant Hospital Association (org. 1919), Exec. Secy., Frank C. English, M. D., St. Luke's Hospital, Cleveland, Ohio. To foster the cooperation of church hospitals for their own improvement; to coordinate their occupancy of fields; to secure concerted church support for existing and new hospitals. Holds an annual meeting, open to the public. Has its own program, but meets during the session of the American Hospital Association (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook), giving part time to the program of the latter.

American Public Health Association (org. 1872, inc. 1918), Penn Terminal Bldg., 370 Seventh Ave., New York, N. Y. To extend and improve public health work, especially through State and local boards of health. Conducts propaganda for desired health legislation, for adequate salaries to health workers, and for public health generally. Prepares model legislation and stimulates its enactment. Answers members' questions on public health subjects. Publishes, reports: Publication, Unification, and Standardization of Physical Education Courses for Teachers, Health Examinations, and Standard Physical Efficiency Tests. District and State committees carry on special work within their own provinces. National Association publishes the American Physical Education Review, monthly, 50 cents a copy, $3.50 a year, free to members. Membership open to interested persons upon recommendation by two members, election, and payment of annual dues. Supported by contributions, subscriptions, and dues.

American Posture League (org. 1913, inc. 1914), 1 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y. To increase interest in the improvement of habitual posture, to set up standards of posture training, and to investigate and improve the conditions influencing posture. Special committees on research conduct studies and cooperate with manufacturers in securing standardization of articles of wearing apparel and furniture; these committees have been instrumental in placing on the market clothing, shoes, and school, industrial, and street car seats constructed to meet the anatomical needs of the body. On articles approved, the League places its registered label which may be used free unless for commercial purposes, in which case a small fee is charged. Conducts prize contests among school children. Officers give illustrated lectures, free of charge, on request of educational and other organizations. League issues wall charts, photographs, reprints, lantern slides, and other illustrative material; free to members, for rent to non-members, special prices for 200 or more; price lists on request. Lists of material bearing the League's label and lists of publications and reprints issued by the League may be obtained free on request. Active membership open to individuals engaged or otherwise interested in work related to the purposes of the League; sustaining membership open to anyone interested in its work and objects. Supported by annual membership dues, $2 and up, and by income from its label.

American Prison Association (org. 1870), 135 East 15th St., New York, N. Y. To improve laws relating to public offenses and offenders, and the modes of procedure by which such laws are enforced; to improve penal, correctional and reformatory institutions and their government, management, and discipline. Through its standing committees the Association makes studies of the causes of crime, nature of offenders and their social surroundings, and the best methods of dealing with offenders and of preventing crime. Is also interested in the care of paroled or discharged prisoners and probationers and in providing suitable and remunerative employment for them. Central office serves as a clearing house and information bureau; answers free of charge inquiries regarding delinquency and crime; secures free advice and lecture service of its members throughout the country for communities applying. Association holds a seven-day annual congress, open to interested persons, providing a free forum for the discussion of problems relating to prisons and prisoners. Representatives of organizations having similar or related interests are invited to these meetings. Association has drawn up resolutions on the care of defectives and delinquents, probationers and paroled prisoners, and on similar topics. The Juvenile Reformatory Section, and Committees as follows carry on special studies and present reports at annual meetings: Criminal Law Reform; Prevention, Probation and Parole; Prison Discipline; Penal Farms; Compensation of Prisoners; Criminal Statistics; War Problems; Police; Prison Architecture. The following auxiliary associations work in cooperation with the American Prison Association: Wardens' Association, Chaplains' Association, Prison Physicians' Association, National Prisoners' Aid Society, Boards of Parole and Pardon, and the American Association of Clinical Criminology. National office publishes Proceedings of annual meetings; $3 a copy, free to members. Membership open to all interested persons. Supported by membership dues, $5 and up.

American Protestant Hospital Association (org. 1919), Exec. Secy., Frank C. English, M. D., St. Luke's Hospital, Cleveland, Ohio. To foster the cooperation of church hospitals for their own improvement; to coordinate their occupancy of fields; to secure concerted church support for existing and new hospitals. Holds an annual meeting, open to the public. Has its own program, but meets during the session of the American Hospital Association (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook), giving part time to the program of the latter.

American Public Health Association (org. 1872, inc. 1918), Penn Terminal Bldg., 370 Seventh Ave., New York, N. Y. To extend and improve public health work, especially through State and local boards of health. Conducts propaganda for desired health legislation, for adequate salaries to health workers, and for public health generally. Prepares model legislation and stimulates its enactment. Answers members' questions on public health subjects. Publishes, reports: Publication, Unification, and Standardization of Physical Education Courses for Teachers, Health Examinations, and Standard Physical Efficiency Tests. District and State committees carry on special work within their own provinces. National Association publishes the American Physical Education Review, monthly, 50 cents a copy, $3. a year, free to members. Membership open to interested persons upon recommendation by two members, election, and payment of annual dues. Supported by contributions, subscriptions, and dues.

American Posture League (org. 1913, inc. 1914), 1 Madison Avenue, New York, N. Y. To increase interest in the improvement of habit of posture, to set up standards of posture training, and to investigate and improve the conditions influencing posture. Special committees on research conduct studies and cooperate with manufacturers in securing standardization of articles of wearing apparel and furniture; these committees have been instrumental in placing on the market clothing, shoes and school, industrial, and street car seats constructed to meet the anatomical needs of the body. On articles approved, the League places registered label which may be used free unless for commercial purposes, in which case a small fee is charged. Conducts prize contests among school children. Officers give illustrated lectures, free of charge on request of educational and other organizations. League issues wall charts, photographs, reprints, lantern slides, and other illustrative material; free to members, for rent to non-members, special prices for 2 or more; price lists on request. Lists of material bearing the League label and lists of publications and reprints issued by the League may be obtained free on request. Active membership open to individuals engaged or otherwise interested in work related to the purposes of the League; sustaining membership open to anyone interested in its work and objects. Supported by annual membership dues, $2 and up, and by income from its label.

— American Prison Association (org. 1870), 135 East 15th Street, New York, N. Y. To improve laws relating to public offenses and offenders, and the modes of procedure by which such laws are enforced; to improve penal, correctional and reformatory institutions and their government, management, and discipline. Through its standing committees the Association makes studies of the causes of crime, nature of offenders and their social surroundings, and the best methods dealing with offenders and of preventing crime. Is also interested in the care of paroled or discharged prisoners and probationers and providing suitable and remunerative employment for them. Central office serves as a clearing house and information bureau; answers free of charge inquiries regarding delinquency and crime; secures free advice and lecture service of its members throughout the country for communities applying. Association holds a seven-day annual congress, open to interested persons, providing a free forum for the discussion of problems relating to prisons and prisoners. Representatives of organizations having similar or related interests are invited to these meetings. Association has drawn up resolutions on the care of defectives and delinquents, probationers and paroled prisoners, and on similar topics. The Juvenile Reformatory Section, and Committees as follows carry on special studies and present reports at annual meetings: Criminal Law Reform; Prevention, Probation and Parole; Prison Discipline; Penal Farms; Compensation of Prisoners; Criminal Statistics; War Problems; Police; Prison Architecture. The following auxiliary associations work in cooperation with the American Prison Association: Wardens' Association, Chaplains' Association, Prison Physicians' Association, National Prisoners' Aid Society, Boards of Parole and Pardon, and the American Association of Clinical Criminology. National office publishes Proceedings of annual meetings; $3 a copy, free to members. Membership open to all interested persons. Supported by membership dues, $5 and up.

American Protestant Hospital Association (org. 1919), Exec. Secy., Frank C. English, M. D., St. Luke's Hospital, Cleveland, Ohio. To foster the cooperation of church hospitals for their own improvement; to coordinate their occupancy of fields; to secure concerted church support for existing and new hospitals. Holds an annual meeting, open to the public. Has its own program, but meets during the session of the American Hospital Association (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook), giving part time to the program of the latter.

American Public Health Association (org. 1872, inc. 1918), Penn Terminal Bldg., 370 Seventh Ave., New York, N. Y. To extend and improve public health work, especially through State and local boards of health. Conducts propaganda for desired health legislation, for adequate salaries to health workers, and for public health generally. Prepares model legislation and stimulates its enactment. Answers members' questions on public health subjects. Publishes, without charge, "Help-Wanted" announcements for public health workers and agencies. (A charge is made for "Position-Wanted" announcements.) Conducts annual meetings at which papers on public health are read and discussed. At these meetings, there are sections on Public Health Administration, Laboratory, Food and Drugs, Industrial Hygiene, Sanitary Engineering, and Vital Statistics. There have recently been special programs on Personal Hygiene and Child Hygiene. Representatives of all organizations interested in health work are invited to attend. Association publishes and sells standard reports for guidance of health workers, e. g., "Model Health Code for Cities" (15 cents); "Pasteurization of Milk" (35 cents); "Standard Methods for the Bacteriological Examination of Milk" (30 cents); "Standard Methods for the Examination of Water and Sewage" ($1.25); News-Letter, monthly, 50 cents a year; The American Journal of Public Health, monthly magazine, $4 a year. Publications are sent free to members. Association is composed largely of persons having professional interest in public health, but those having a general interest in the subject may be proposed for membership. Supported by annual membership dues, $5 and up. Association is affiliated with the National Health Council (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook).

American Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

American Red Mogen David (org. and inc. 1918), 327 South 5th St., Philadelphia, Pa. Is organizing groups throughout the country to raise money to continue its work in caring for war orphans in Palestine, each group to be responsible for either one or two children. Holds public meetings for propaganda and appeals. Through local chapters the order has organized sewing circles and clubs for education and entertainment. Visits of field workers may be secured through application to the central office. The organization publishes circulars and pamphlets; free on request. It is composed of local chapters whose individual membership is limited to men and women of Jewish birth. Annual dues in local groups are $2 and up. National body is supported by contributions. In process of reorganization.

American Revolution Society. See National Society of Children of the American Revolution; National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

American-Scandinavian Foundation (org. and inc. 1911), 25 West 45th St., New York, N. Y. To promote international friendship. Organizes associate chapters made up of local groups of Americans having business or personal interest in Scandinavian countries, in order to discuss and encourage the contribution of Scandinavian culture and progress to American thought and life. Information Bureau answers questions about Scandinavia and gives Scandinavians information about the U. S. Department of Hospitality furnishes personal introductions to travelers going to or coming from Scandinavian countries; arranges lecture tours, art exhibits, and receptions to public officials; establishes cooperating agencies abroad. Department of Student Exchanges arranges for the annual exchange of at least 40 young men and women students between American and Scandinavian colleges and universities and furnishes scholarship aid. Foundation publishes an annual issue of translations from Scandinavian literature and the American-Scandinavian Review, monthly, free to Associates of the Foundation who pay annual dues of $2. Fellowships of the Foundation are maintained by the income of endowment and annual payments pledged by Americans and Scandinavians alike.

American School Citizenship League (org. 1908), 405 Marlboro St., Boston, 17, Mass. To develop an American citizenship which will promote responsible world democracy and cooperation among the nations. Works for the teaching of citizenship and history in public schools according to plans formulated by the League. Holds an annual essay contest to encourage the study of world relationships. Provides speakers for educational meetings, summer schools, and teachers' institutes; these services are offered free. Encourages the placing of literature dealing with international relations in schools, colleges, and traveling libraries. Cooperates with educational agencies in foreign countries for the promotion of better international relations. Holds an annual convention, open to the public, in connection with the National Education Association (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook). Publishes a Year Book annually, and pamphlets and leaflets for teachers and students; free to the public. Is publishing "An American Citizenship Course in U. S. History, with Type Studies". Membership open (1), without dues, to all teachers in schools of the country; students in secondary and normal schools and colleges; all persons engaged in educational work who signify devotion to the purpose of the League; and (2), on payment of dues, to other interested persons. Supported by donations and by annual membership dues, $1 and up.

American School Hygiene Association (org. 1906), Secy., Harry B. Burns, M. D., 1101 Fulton Bldg., Pittsburgh, Pa. For the study and improvement of school hygiene and sanitation. Seeks to stimulate increased interest in school health work. Officers and committees study such subjects as school health service, including medical inspection and physical training, sex education, mental hygiene, mouth hygiene, and nutrition of school children. Association has no field work or branches. At the time of the meeting of the National Education Association (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook) with which it is affiliated, the Association holds an annual congress of members for the discussion of problems and the reading of papers and reports. Publishes Proceedings of annual meetings. Has issued a pamphlet, "The School Child's Health". Supported by membership dues, $3 a year.

American Seamen's Friend Society (org. 1828, inc. 1833), 76 Wall St., New York, N. Y. To improve the social and moral condition of seamen by uniting the efforts in their behalf, by promoting in every port boarding houses of good character, savings banks, libraries, reading rooms, and Bethels. Provides partial support of chaplains in American and foreign ports. Maintains in New York City, the Sailors' Home and Institute with accommodations for 224 seamen, providing separate social and recreational features for the three distinct classes of seamen, officers and engineers, cooks and stewards, sailors and firemen. Places loan libraries ($25 each) on deep-water ships, mostly sailing and freight vessels, for the use of seafaring men while on board ship. Upon request from accredited local representatives, Secretary visits ports and supervises and organizes work for seamen. Services are extended only to seafaring men. Society presents Bibles annually to U. S. Naval graduates. Holds an annual meeting, open to the interested public. Publishes Sailors' Magazine and Seamen's Friend, $1 a year. Supported by contributions and legacies, and by membership dues, $5 and up.

American Social Hygiene Association (org. and inc. 1914), Penn Terminal Bldg., 370 Seventh Ave., New York, N. Y. "To acquire and diffuse knowledge of the established principles and practices and of any new methods which promote or give assurance of promoting social health; to advocate the highest standards of private and public morality; to suppress commercialized vice; to organize the defense of the community by every available means, educational, sanitary, or legislative, against the diseases of vice; to conduct on request inquiries into the present condition of prostitution and the venereal diseases in American towns and cities; and to secure mutual acquaintance and sympathy and cooperation among the local societies for these and similar purposes." The Association maintains six departments. Department of Public Information through pamphlets, periodicals, and advertising keeps the public informed about social hygiene progress; it maintains contact between the various departments of the Association and the public. Department of Field Service trains leaders for work in social hygiene; organizes permanent groups to carry on local work, and furnishes lecturers on the various phases of social hygiene. Department of Educational Activities studies social hygiene education matter and methods, with a view to promoting approved practice by parents, teachers, and others; it maintains a division of graphic exhibits which prepares posters and lantern slides illustrating lecture material, and produces and distributes motion pictures of general educational interest. Department of Protective Social Measures studies and promotes rehabilitative measures for delinquents; makes surveys to determine the methods best adapted to localities, and confers with institutional boards on questions of policy and management. Department of Law Enforcement Activities furnishes opinions on the forms of laws relating to social hygiene and methods of administration for their enforcement; makes surveys of communities with particular relation to prostitution conditions; assists individuals or groups in securing the passage of approved laws. Department of Medical Activities acts as a clearing house in its field for the medical and nursing professions, health departments and allied medical groups, and renders practical service regarding the medical measures for the control of venereal diseases. Library is equipped with authoritative books, periodicals, and documents on the various phases of social hygiene. This library is primarily for the use of members and investigators, although books may also be borrowed by other responsible persons. The Association publishes, primarily for its members, two periodicals: Social Hygiene, quarterly, $3 a year, which provides an open forum for the presentation of scientific discussions on various phases of social hygiene; The Social Hygiene Bulletin, monthly, 50 cents a year. It issues a list of books on social hygiene (publication No. 263-a) which may be had upon request. Publications are sent free to members. Membership open to interested persons. Supported by membership dues, $2 a year. Association is a member of the National Health Council (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook).

— American Society of Agricultural Engineers (org. 1907), Ames, Iowa. To coordinate and correlate activities involving agricultural engineering and to bring into closer relationship the farmer, the agricultural engineer, and persons engaged in agricultural engineering educational work. Holds an annual meeting, open to the public, Transactions of which are published. Serves as a clearing house for scientific information. Cooperates with manufacturers of farm equipment. Is endeavoring to secure a Bureau of Agricultural Engineering as a separate division of the U. S. Department of Agriculture to take over the agricultural engineering work of the various bureaus. Field workers conduct demonstrations of farm machinery. Home Demonstration Agents advertise and on request arrange for three-day visits of agricultural engineers to demonstrate by home equipment exhibits how farm houses may be remodeled at small cost. Exhibits illustrate remodeling of kitchens; heating, lighting and plumbing systems; sewage disposal; power and refrigerating plants. Society encourages land drainage and farm sanitation. Committee on Education emphasizes the importance of courses of agricultural engineering in colleges and universities. Besides its Transactions, which serve as a reference library on agricultural engineering, Society also publishes Agricultural Engineering, monthly, 30 cents a copy, $3 a year. Membership open to those interested in engineering as applied to agriculture. Supported by subscriptions and membership dues.

American Society for the Control of Cancer (org. 1913), 25 West 45th St., New York, N. Y. To disseminate knowledge concerning the symptoms, diagnosis, treatment, and prevention of cancer; to investigate the conditions under which cancer is found; to compile statistics in regard to these. Utilizes all available channels to make known the practical bearings of the present scientific knowledge of cancer; to teach the public the value of early diagnosis and treatment and the prevention or removal of conditions favoring the development of cancer. Endeavors to stimulate appropriate existing agencies, parlarly public health authorities, to undertake research and educational work in this field. Acts as an information bureau and as a clearing house for the circulation and exchange of literature, statistical data, suggestions among individual workers and national, State, and local boards and committees. Provides speakers for public lectures and professional meetings. Also loans lantern slides and exhibit material, at cost of charge; has prepared a lecture syllabus which may be obtained on request. Duplicate sets of slides may be bought at 35 cents a set. Organizes State and local committees. Operates a press service which furnishes leading newspapers and magazines with authoritative articles on cancer. Issues a monthly bulletin, Campaign Notes, for the information of members and other persons interested in the subject. Publishes descriptive bulletins and circulars and reprints of articles appearing in magazines. Publications are furnished free except in quantity lots. Membership open to professional persons and others interested. Supported by contributions and by annual membership dues, $1.00 and up.

American Society of Equity (org. 1903), Secy., Anton Oppedgaard, Room 440, Washington Bldg., Madison, Wis. To promote cooperation among farmers. Conducts educational work on the subjects of cooperative buying and selling. Disseminates information to members, assists in forming cooperative associations. Holds an annual convention, open to the public. Publishes The Equity News, free to members.

American Society for Municipal Improvements (org. 1894), Secy., Charles Carroll Brown, 803 Lincoln Ave., Valparaiso, Ind. For the dissemination of information upon the best methods to be employed in the management of municipal departments and in the construction of municipal works. Serves as a clearing house of information for members and other interested persons who cannot otherwise obtain information. Holds an annual convention for the reading and discussion of papers upon municipal improvement. Any member, with concurrence of the presiding officer, may admit friends to the conventions, but such guests may not without the consent of the meeting be permitted to take part in the discussions. General Committees, appointed annually, study and report on: street paving, sidewalks, street cleaning, parks and highways, city plans, traffic and transportation, street lights, refuse disposal, snow removal, sewerage and sanitation, waterworks and water supply, municipal legislation and finance, fire prevention, and public markets. Specification Committees study and draw up standard specifications regarding sheet asphalt pavements, bituminous macadam, bituminous concrete, asphalt block pavements, broken stone and gravel roads, brick pavements, cement-concrete pavements, stone block pavements, wood block pavements, sidewalks and curbs, and sewers. Society publishes an annual volume of Proceedings, which includes: reports submitted and such specifications for municipal construction as are adopted by the Society. It also issues forms for making municipal reports, and other occasional publications. Membership is granted on application, by presentation of record in public work, and by election. Active membership open to engineers, officers or directors having charge or supervision of public municipal, county, or State work, and officials of any municipality, county, or State ($7.50 annual dues); associate membership open to contractors or contracting agents, manufacturers of or dealers in municipal supplies ($15 annual dues); affiliated membership open to anyone not included in above classes, interested in municipal improvement ($7.50 annual dues). Supported by membership dues and advertising in the Proceedings and programs.

American Sociological Society (org. 1905), 58th St. and Ellis Ave., Chicago, Ill. To encourage sociological research and discussion, and cooperation between persons engaged in the scientific study of sociology. Holds annual meetings, the Proceedings of which are published and sent without charge to members. These meetings, except the business sessions, are open to the public. Publishes bi-monthly The American Journal of Sociology, 50 cents a copy, $3 a year, free to members; reports and other literature, issued for members only. Special work is carried on by committees as needed. Supported by membership dues, $4 a year.

American Statistical Association (org. and inc. 1839), Secy., Robert E. Chaddock, Kent Hall, Columbia Univ., New York, N. Y. To collect, preserve, and diffuse statistical information, and to promote better methods of gathering and handling statistical data. Standing committees conduct advisory work for Federal, State, and municipal bodies, and make studies of special topics, presenting reports at annual meetings, which are open to the public. Reports and Proceedings of annual meetings are published in the Association's Quarterly (see page 57.) Services are extended only through quarterly publications, meetings, and committee reports. Membership is by application and by election following filing of personal record of training and work in statistics. Regular members include interested persons, paying $5 annual dues; fellows include statisticians of established reputation, paying $5 annual dues; honorary members are persons elected for distinguished work in statistics; corporate members pay $100 annual dues. Association publishes a magazine, The American Statistical Association Quarterly, $1.50 a copy, $5 a year. Supported by membership dues and subscriptions.

American Students Health Association (org. 1920), Secy., W. E. Forsythe, M. D., Univ. of Mich., Ann Arbor, Mich. To bring together for cooperation and mutual benefit persons interested primarily in health work among students in American colleges and universities. Holds an annual meeting, Proceedings of which are published and sent free to members. Issues bulletins to members; available free to non-members on application to the Secretary. Membership is institutional and is limited to recognized colleges and universities. Supported by membership dues, $5 a year.

American Unitarian Association (org. 1825), 25 Beacon St., Boston, Mass. To plan and direct the social advance of the Church. Renders social service through its organizations and members, for the relief of suffering, prevention of poverty, disease, crime, and industrial or international warfare, and for the promotion of constructive social reform. A special committee has studied and prepared a report of the social duty of the Church. Department of Community Service acts as a bureau of advice and information concerning forms and methods of service which local churches desire to undertake. Urges churches to make careful study of the social and moral conditions in the community in order to plan work to meet special needs. Encourages the organization of young people to arouse and sustain interest in social service. Publishes series of social service bulletins; single copies, free; quantity lots, 2 to 5 cents each. Women's Alliance has a standing committee on social service. It issues a course of study on social questions; extends publicity for organizations carrying on work under Unitarian auspices; and seeks to unite women of the Unitarian and other churches in their social service activities. The Unitarian Layman's League promotes a program of service and social readjustment, including child welfare, Americanization, and adjustment of labor difficulties.

American Women's Legion (org. 1919), 800 Sixteenth St. NW., Washington, D. C. An organization for patriotic and practical work commemorative of the service of men during the World War. Activities of Units, which may be organized by any 10 women eligible for membership, consist of aiding and encouraging the work of disabled soldiers; furthering of patriotic instruction by giving books on Americanization to public school libraries and offering prizes for patriotic essays; attending funerals of Overseas' Dead at Arlington (National Cemetery, Fort Meyer, Va.), and giving necessary aid and information to relatives; assisting widows and others deprived of support by the War. Holds an annual convention. Membership is open to wives, mothers, daughters, sisters, and those officially named next-of-kin, of men who served under the American Flag during the World War. Supported by contributions and by membership dues, $1 a year.

Americanization Methods Association. See Study of Methods of Americanisation.

America's Lithuanian Medical Association (org. 1912, inc. 1920), Secy., A. L. Graicunas, M. D., 3310 South Halsted St., Chicago, Ill. To unite in one central organization American physicians, surgeons, and dentists of Lithuanian birth and descent. Plans to develop its work through local branches and committees which shall promote social and scientific intercourse among its members, extend free medical and surgical assistance and render financial help to the poor of Lithuanian birth or descent residing in the U. S. or in Lithuania. Seeks to advance the science and practice of the medical profession through lectures, writings, clinical work, and medical instruction, and to extend a wider knowledge of the rudimentary principles of hygiene, sanitation, and prophylaxis by a system of free popular lectures. Supported by annual membership dues, $5 and up.

Animal Industry Bureau. See Department of Agriculture, U. S.

Anna T. Jeannes Foundation. See Negro Rural School Fund, Anna T. Jeannes Foundation.

Association for the Advancement of Colored People. See National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Association for the Advancement of the Interests of Labor. See Church Association for the Advancement of the Interests of Labor.

Association of Civic Secretaries. See National Association of Civic Secretaries.

Association of Colleges for Negro Youth (org. 1913), Pres., J. Cock, Shaw Univ., Raleigh, N. C. To extend and develop institutions for the higher education of Negroes. Holds an annual meeting for discussion of all phases of college work, including curriculum and administration. Admits to membership only institutions doing college grade work of a standard approved by the association. Supported by annual dues of its members and contributions from philanthropic boards.

Association of Collegiate Alumnae (org. 1892, inc. 1899), 934 Cortlandt Ave., Ithaca, N. Y. Works through national committees and branches which have committees corresponding with national committees. Association holds a biennial meeting with special sessions for alumnae associations, branches, women trustees, deans of colleges, school principals, and college professors. Services offered by the association are not limited to any special groups. Membership is corporate and individual, the latter being either general or branch. General membership is open to alumnae of any accepted college or university; annual dues, $2. Branch membership includes regular members who are graduates of accepted colleges and who pay $2 annual dues, and associate members, who have had at least one year's full-time college work in any college granting a B. A. degree, who have been recommended to membership and who pay dues as regulated by the Branch. General association of alumnae of an A. C. A. college may become an affiliated member of the A. C. A. and take part in the Conference of Collegiate Alumnae Associations upon payment of an annual tax of $2.50 per affiliated member. National officers and sectional vice-presidents visit branches and organize new ones, and exercise permanent supervision over local work. Communities may secure a visit from these agents by application to the central office. National Association issues a monthly Journal, and special publications dealing with various subjects and giving the results of investigations. Publications may be obtained from the central office; free on request. Supported by membership dues.

Committee on Fellowships awards a number of fellowships for graduate students in this country and in foreign countries for social service and other work. At the request of the American University Union it awards two fellowships offered by the French Ministry of Education to American women for study in the École Normale Supérieure de Sévres.

Committee on Vocational Opportunities for Women has studied opportunities for women in gainful occupations other than teaching, and has published data on these. It has also published a bulletin listing institutions of the U. S. where women may receive vocational training; also "Opportunities for Women in Domestic Science", giving the results of an occupational census of college women.

Committee on Educational Legislation endeavors to keep the Association informed about both national and State educational legislation, to study bills presented, and to assist in promoting or opposing them.

Committee on Juvenile Vocational Supervision seeks to establish vocational supervision leagues to investigate local conditions, provide vocational guidance, procure scholarships, and carry on campaigns of education among parents, particularly the foreign-born, as to the value of additional school training; works for the extension of the compulsory school age.

Committee on Foreign Relations endeavors to bring about a closer relation between this Association and similar organizations in other countries. Encourages and assists in the formation of new associations. Seeks to facilitate free exchange of women students between this country and other countries, particularly by encouraging the creation of fellowships open to foreign women students. Endeavors to secure for American women studying in foreign countries the same opportunity and recognition as is accorded men students. Offers hospitality and assistance to foreign students of this country, and publishes in foreign countries reliable information in regard to educational opportunities for foreign women in the U. S. In cooperation with the Federation of University Women of Great Britain it has founded the International Federation of University Women, the object of which is to aid in bringing about a better international understanding.

Committee on Housing supplies to the local committees information in regard to the housing problem; these committees in turn call local conferences of city officials and representatives of other organizations to consider local and State housing programs.

Committee on Public Education concerns itself particularly with the problem of better training of teachers for the elementary schools. It is endeavoring through the local branches to create a widespread demand that the elementary teacher shall have at least as much training as the secondary school teacher and that she shall command at least an equal salary. It is working with the colleges and universities that are aining teachers, in the effort to induce them to offer training for elementary teachers; it also seeks to direct the attention of young women preparing for teaching, to the importance of the work in the elementary schools. It is endeavoring to raise the requirements of the normal school to the point where professional training for teaching shall rest upon four full years of college work.

Association of Colored Graduate Nurses. See National Association of Colored Graduate Nurses.

Association of Colored Women. See National Association of Colored Women.

Association for Community Organization. See American Association for Community Organization.

Association for Constitutional Government. See National Association for Constitutional Government.

Association of the Deaf. See National Association of the Deaf.

Association for the Hard of Hearing. See American Association for the Hard of Hearing.

Association of Hospital Social Workers. See American Association of Hospital Social Workers.

Association of Industrial Physicians and Surgeons. See American Association of Industrial Physicians and Surgeons.

Association for Labor Legislation. See American Association for Labor Legislation.

Association of Negro Musicians. See National Association of Negro Musicians.

Association for Organizing Family Social Work. See American Association for Organizing Family Social Work.

Association to Promote the Teaching of Speech to the Deaf. See American Association to Promote the Teaching of Speech to the Deaf.

Association of Public Officials of Charity and Correction. See American Association of Public Officials of Charity and Correction.

Association of Social Service Exchanges. See American Association of Social Service Exchanges.

Association for the Study of Epilepsy and the Care and Treatment of Epileptics. See National Association for the Study of Epilepsy and the Care and Treatment of Epileptics.

Association for the Study of the Feeble-Minded. See American Association for the Study of the Feeble-Minded.

Association for the Study of Negro Life and History (org. and inc. 1915), Dir., C. G. Woodson, 1216 You St. NW., Washington, D. C. To collect and publish sociological and historical documents and to promote studies bearing on Negro life and history. Endeavors to bring about harmony between the races by interpreting one to the other. Holds an annual meeting, open to the public. Publishes books and pamphlets, for sale at moderate prices, giving information as to what the Negro has contributed to civilization. Supplies information to aid in organizing clubs for the study of Negro history. Publishes The Journal of Negro History, quarterly, $2 a year, free to subscribing members. Membership open to interested persons on approval of Executive Council. Supported by contributions and by membership dues, $3 and up.

Association of Teachers in Colored Schools. See National Association of Teachers in Colored Schools.

Association of Travelers Aid Societies. See National Association of Travelers Aid Societies.

Association of Women in Public Health (org. 1920), Secy., Mary R. Lakeman, M. D., 67 Colchester St., Brookline, 46, Mass. To afford women who make public health their profession an opportunity of studying together the problems and interrelationships of public health activities, and of keeping in touch with the national and international developments in public health. Holds meetings for the discussion of problems connected with various divisions in official health organization; also holds open meetings for the discussion of matters of general interest to professional workers in public health. Has special committees on Membership, Publicity, Child Health, Public Health Nursing, Venereal Disease Control, and International Contacts. Membership open to women holding professional positions in Federal, State, county, or city public health services in any phase. Supported by membership dues, $2 a year.

Association of Workers for the Blind. See American Association of Workers for the Blind.

Astrophysical Observatory. See Smithsonian Institution.

Attorney in Charge of Pardons. See Department of Justice, U. S.

Augustana Synod of North America. See Evangelical Lutheran Augustana Synod of N. A.

Band of Mercy. See American Humane Education Society.

Baptist Convention. See National Baptist Convention; Northern Baptist Convention.

Baptist Home Mission Society. See American Baptist Home Mission Society; Woman's American Baptist Home Mission Society.

Baptist Publication Society. See American Baptist Publication Society.

Baptist Young People's Union of America (org. 1891), 125 North Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill. To extend church and community work by the young people. Holds an annual meeting of delegates from local chapters. General Secretary conducts field work, organizing new branches and advising established chapters in the extension and development of their work. Local chapters assist in church activities, conduct entertainments, make layettes for needy mothers, assist local charities in their work, conduct community surveys, and do other related work according to needs of the community. Union directs the work of the Baptist Tithers' League, Quiet Half-Hour League, Life Service League, Junior, Intermediate, and Senior Leagues of the Baptist Church. Issues occasional literature. Its official organs are Young People's Service Quarterly, 60 cents a year, and The Junior World, 60 cents a year, published by the American Baptist Publication Society (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook).

Baron de Hirsch Fund (org. 1890, inc. 1891), 80 Maiden Lane, New York, N. Y. To Americanize Jewish immigrants, especially those from Russia, Galicia, and Roumania and to assimilate them with the masses. Seeks to prevent their congregating in large cities. To this end the Fund assists the Jewish Agricultural and Industrial Aid Society (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook) and has founded the town of Woodbine, N. J., which it organized as a place where immigrant families can rent or purchase farms or build homes in the town proper, on convenient terms, and where they can secure employment in one of the many local industries owned and operated by private concerns. Fund encourages Jewish young men to learn the farming trade by granting scholarships and by sending them to one of the leading agricultural schools in the State of New York, and by subsidizing the National Farm School in Pennsylvania where Jewish young men are given the opportunity to learn theoretical and practical farming. Maintains the Baron de Hirsch Trade School in New York City, for teaching Jewish young men mechanical trades. Supported by endowment.

Benefit Society of Slovak Christian Women of the U. S. A. See Živena, Benefit Society of Slovak Christian Women of the U. S. A.

Big Brother and Big Sister Federation (org. 1904, inc. 1909), 200 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y. To organize and direct a body of men and women of good will, whose purpose shall be to interest themselves individually in the welfare and improvement of children who have been arraigned before children's courts and similar courts throughout the U. S. and Canada, and of any other children whose physical, mental, or moral development has been hindered or endangered because of bad environment or other conditions. Members, who are called Big Brothers or Big Sisters, take and secure others to take a friendly interest in such children and their families; provide methods and means whereby their physical, mental, and moral welfare may be promoted; keep in touch with schools and churches and various social agencies which deal with children. Conducted principally in New York City but also operates in over 100 cities throughout the States and Territorial Possessions of the U. S., Canada, and in foreign countries. Local branches serve as autonomous groups; they conduct parallel programs of activities but are not directed through a central office. Local groups usually have a staff of paid workers who are supplemented in their work by volunteers selected because of their ability to do effective work with boys and girls. Branches and individual members avail themselves of agencies within their reach to secure results: hospitals for examination and operation; local Y. M. C. A., Y. M. H. A., Y. W. C. A., and Y. W. H. A. branches; churches and settlements; gymnasiums; industrial classes; Boy Scout schools; camps; and farm schools. Non-sectarian and not limited to any race. Many branches conduct Americanization work, seek to place homeless boys and girls in proper homes and institutions, aid boys and girls in finding employment, help children who are in reformatories, and conduct vacation camps. Federation holds an annual conference.

Big Sister Federation. See Big Brother and Big Sister Federation.

Blue Anchor Society, Aid to the Shipwrecked (org. 1880, inc. 1882), 105 East 22d St., New York, N. Y. Supplies the U. S. Coast Guard Stations with clothing and blankets and other necessities for rendering aid to the shipwrecked. Advances the interest of keepers and crews of the U. S. Coast Guard Stations and aids them in cases of emergency. Cooperates with other agencies and workers in general measures for relief in times of public or national calamity. Services rendered free. Membership open to interested persons following application and election. Supported by donations, steamship collections, and by membership dues, $5 and up.

Board of Domestic Missions. See Reformed Church in America, Board of Domestic Missions.

Board of Education for Negroes. See Methodist Episcopal Church, Board of Education for Negroes.

Board of Fire Underwriters. See National Board of Fire Underwriters.

Board of Home Missions. See Five Years Meeting of Friends, Board of Home Missions.

Board of Home Missions and Church Extension. See Methodist Episcopal Church, Board of Home Missions and Church Extension.

Board of Indian Commissioners. See Department of the Interior, U. S.

Board of Review of Motion Pictures. See National Board of Review of Motion Pictures.

Board of Temperance and Moral Welfare. See Presbyterian Church, Board of Temperance and Moral Welfare.

Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals. See Methodist Episcopal Church, Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals.

Bohemian-Slavonian Union (Česko-Slovanská Jednota) (org. 1892, inc. 1895), Pres., Karel Neumann, M. D., 1441 West 18th St., Chicago, Ill. Mutual benefit and educational organization of men and women, operating in the U. S. only. The Supreme Lodge supervises 63 lodges in local communities. All members are the organizers. The lodges in local communities pay a sick benefit of $5 a week up to 13 weeks according to amount of insurance carried, while the patient is under doctor's care. Death benefits are paid by the assessment of all members of the Union. The death benefits are $250, $500, $750, and $1,000, respectively. The Supreme Lodge holds a general meeting at which questions of welfare of members and public interest are discussed. Lodges in local communities must conduct educational lectures for the benefit of all Czecho-Slovaks. The Union's official publication is Organ of Czecho-Slavonian Union (Orgán Česko-Slovanské Jednoty) (Editor, F. Masek, 2849 West 22d St., Chicago, Ill.), published in the Czech language; it is available only to members, to whom it is sent without extra charge.

0 Bohemian-Slavonic Benevolent Societies of the U. S. and Canada (Jednota Česko-Slovanských Podporujících Spolků ve Spojených Státech a Kanadě) (org. and inc. 1911), Secy., J. V. Lunak, 4939 Broadway, Cleveland, Ohio. Social welfare organization of men and women for mutual benefit. Gives educational lectures, maintains reading rooms, publishes informative pamphlets for free distribution. Local lodges are under the supervision of the national office and under a district grand lodge, which is formed by the delegates of several lodges in one or two neighboring States. When necessary, the Supreme Lodge sends a worker at request of a community to aid in establishing a local lodge; expenses of such a visit are paid partly by the Supreme Lodge and partly by local lodges. Societies pay death benefit of $250 to $1,000; these benefits are paid by assessments on total membership. Local lodges pay sick benefits of $5 or $6 a week while patient is under doctor's care; these are paid from special funds raised by the lodges and from members' dues. Lodges carry on and contribute to community betterment, welfare and educational work, not only for the benefit of their members but for others as well. Some lodges maintain libraries open to the public. Societies hold a quadrennial meeting, open to the public, at which questions of interest to the Czecho-Slovaks in America and Canada are discussed. Brotherhood Organ of C. S. P. S. (Orgán Bratrstva) (Editor, F. J. Kuták, 4514 Broadway, Cleveland, Ohio), monthly, published in Czech with a section in English, is the official publication of the Societies; this is sent free to all members; not for sale to the public. Local lodge dues are $1.50 a quarter.

Boys' Club Federation (org. and inc. 1906), World's Tower Bldg., 110 West 40th St., New York, N. Y. To bring together into one central body the boys' clubs of the country for advancement and increased cooperation. Serves as a clearing house for the exchange of ideas, methods, and plans, and keeps affiliated clubs informed as to matters of mutual benefit. Employs field secretaries to visit and counsel local clubs, and conduct boy-life surveys in local communities. Places an organizer in new fields and in disorganized fields, and provides speakers on boy problems for a variety of occasions. Services of field workers are usually free. Federation organizes educational courses for workers with boys. Conducts a free Employment Exchange which furnishes workers to clubs and helps members find employment. Holds an annual conference for the discussion of problems and reading of reports; open to the public. Publishes a Year Book, free on request; The Boys' Workers Round Table, quarterly, 30 cents a copy, $1 a year, free to members; descriptive pamphlets and leaflets, free upon application. Club membership is open without fee to local clubs which offer to boys a place of entertainment and recreation under proper supervision; active membership open to individuals contributing $2 or more a year. Supported by contributions and membership dues.

Boy Scouts of America (inc. 1910, chartered 1916), 200 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y. To promote, through team work and cooperation with other agencies, the ability of boys to do things for themselves and others. Is primarily for boys in their teens. No boys under 12 may be enrolled. As a national movement it desires to supplement the work and best influences of home, school, church, and similar agencies in making good American citizens who will be physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight. National Council, composed of delegates from local councils and other leaders in Scout work elected to it, serves as the administrative body. It provides stimulus and guidance for the organization; sees that its standards are maintained; awards merits for Scout system of boy training; and keeps constantly in touch with local needs. Through its Executive Board and Staff of Experts, the Council directs the national work of Boy Scouts, such as organizing community work, conducting educational work, introducing Scout courses of study in colleges and universities, providing speakers for rallies, conducting correspondence courses for Scout leaders, and maintaining schools for Scout Masters and executives. Through its Field Department, the National Council extends the Boy Scout movement throughout the U. S. Has divided the country into 12 districts, each under the supervision of a field representative who perfects the organization of local groups, institutes new local Councils, assists in conducting local financial campaigns, and has general supervision over the groups in his territory. Local organization of Scouts consists of troops of not more than 32 boys, divided into patrols made up of eight boys each, under a patrol leader. Troops are under the direction of a Scout Master, who works as a volunteer and must be a citizen of the U. S. and of approved character and proven interest in boys. The local troop is sponsored by a local Council, which applies for the Troop's charter, appoints committees, and becomes responsible for its success. Through Troop activities boys receive training in Scout-craft, patriotism, courage, and self-reliance. Boy Scouts are urged to participate in wholesome outdoor activities and to live up to the Scout Oath and Law, and are required to do at least one good deed daily. Scout Masters supervise local groups, giving boys instruction (or securing experts to give such instruction) in first aid, life-saving, chivalry, nature study, camp craft, wood craft and other handicrafts. Local bodies of Scouts cooperate with boards of health, fire departments, police departments, and public schools in their communities; conduct campaigns for the elimination of flies, mosquitoes, and other public nuisances; assist in traffic regulation; and otherwise aid in community work as occasion demands. National standing committees and the Departments of Field Education, Library, Camping, and Sea-Scouting conduct special work and distribute and fix responsibility for activities of the organization. Central office has prepared an exhibit showing Boy Scout activities; also pictures and posters descriptive of Boy Scout work which may be obtained from central office. Address this office for prices. Lantern slides and toupes of Boy Scout work are available through Underwood and Underwood, New York, N. Y., to whom application should be made for lists, rental prices and other information. The following moving pictures may be rented from the corporations issuing them: "Knights of the Square Table", issued by New Era Films, 207 South Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill.; "America's Heritage", issued by the Goodyear Tire Co., Akron, Ohio; address firms releasing pictures for prices. Central office, through its Division of Publications, issues "Boy Scout Handbook", 50 cents a copy; "Handbook for Scout Masters", $1.50 a copy, for sale by central office; Boys' Life, monthly magazine for boys, 20 cents a copy, $2 a year; Scouting, free monthly bulletin for Scout Masters and Assistants. It also publishes technical and inspirational pamphlets and folders. Issues catalogue of publications;

about new info etc.

how

free on request. Department of Supplies gives information and quotes prices on Scout wearing-apparel, camp equipment, uniforms, and other supplies which it offers for sale. See "Supply Catalog of Boy Scouts of America", sent free to applicants. Profit from sales of supplies goes to the support of the national organization. Associate, contributing, and sustaining members, paying annual dues of $1 and up, represent adult membership which is open to interested persons. Boy members pay dues of 50 cents each to local groups which in turn pay registration fee to central office. National organization is supported by contributions and subscriptions, dues, registration fees, and profits from sales of equipment.

Brighter Day League. See Salvation Army.

Brotherhood Federation. See World Brotherhood Federation.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew in the U. S. (org. 1883), Church House, 19th and Walnut Sts., Philadelphia, Pa. Protestant Episcopal body. To further Christian service among men and boys. Has diocesan assemblies in many but not all of the dioceses in the U. S. Has local chapters, members of which take part in community and social work. Membership in both Senior and Junior Departments is limited to baptized men and boys. Brotherhood publishes occasional bulletins and reports, and a monthly magazine, St. Andrew's Cross, 20 cents a copy, $2 a year. Supported by annual dues of $2, by a sum supplied by Nation-Wide Campaign of Episcopal Church, and by occasional gifts.

Bureau of American Ethnology. See Smithsonian Institution.

Bureau of Animal Industry. See Department of Agriculture, U. S.

Bureau of Biological Survey. See Department of Agriculture, U. S.

Bureau of Catholic Indian Missions (org. 1874, inc. 1894), 2021 11 St. NW., Washington, D. C. To assist in Christianizing, educating, and civilizing the Indians of the U. S., and to represent the Roman Catholic Church before the Government in all matters affecting its missionary and school work. Provides funds for the support of Roman Catholic boarding schools and day schools and missions for Indians. Publishes The Indian Sentinel, quarterly, $1 a year. Supported by annual collection taken up in Roman Catholic Churches throughout the U. S.

Society for the Preservation of the Faith among Indian Children commonly known as the Preservation Society), Pres., Rt. Rev. William H. Ketcham, Washington, D. C. Through donations and membership fees and by subscriptions to The Indian Sentinel raises funds for Roman Catholic Indian missions and schools.

Marquette League for Indian Welfare, 105 East 22d St., New York, N. Y., an auxiliary to the Preservation Society, assists the Bureau of Catholic Indian Missions in the support of missionaries and native catechists for Indians, and in the collecting of funds for building and maintaining mission schools and chapels. Publishes The Calumet, quarterly; free to members. Supported by contributions and membership dues.

Bureau of the Census. See Department of Commerce, U. S.

Bureau of Chemistry. See Department of Agriculture, U. S.

Bureau of Commercial Economics (org. 1912, inc. 1914), 1901 F St. NW., Washington, D. C. An altruistic association using the facilities and instrumentalities of governments, manufacturers, and educational institutions in disseminating useful information by motion pictures displayed invariably to audiences admitted free. Not a Government bureau. International both in source and display of films. Is affiliated with educational institutions in various countries of the world. Does not produce films except in rare instances. Circulates films produced by other agencies and moving picture companies. Displays its reels in universities, colleges, technical and agricultural schools, public libraries, public institutions, settlement houses, missions, factories, and public schools; before chambers of commerce, boards of trade, commercial clubs, Rotary Clubs, welfare organizations, fraternal institutions, and educational, scientific, and trade conventions. Displays in penal institutions all over the country, films showing industrial and vocational subjects; secures employment for discharged prisoners and assists them in starting industrial life anew under wholesome conditions. Has equipped a number of automobile trucks with electric generators, motion picture machines of standard size, demountable screens and grafonolas, for use in the open, in city parks, playgrounds, on recreation piers, and in country districts. Maintains a lecture service for large organizations such as chambers of commerce and universities. Every week sends out two or four films, according to subject, on each of a number of circuits, approximately two months long, covering different sections of the U. S. and Canada. Centers on these circuits include camps, cantonments, Army and Navy hospitals, city parks, schools, churches, and manufacturing concerns. Bureau also sends films in large consignments to cooperating universities for exhibition first in the university itself, and then in the extension centers of that university in its own State and in circuits lasting from six to nine months according to State population. University extension directors act as agents of the Bureau and have custody of films for general distribution within their States. Scholarships Division procures scholarships in universities and colleges all over the country and places foreign students in them with an idea of promoting increased international friendship. American Indian Service displays educational films on Indian reservations throughout the U. S. and in Canada; gives public lectures and displays films concerning Indians, and otherwise works for their welfare and an enlightened public knowledge of their needs. The Division of Survey of National Resources, Division of Public Welfare and Service, and other divisions conduct research work along economic, industrial, and social lines. Bureau's services are rendered to any person, organization, or aggregation of people who, it is believed, can display the pictures so as to be of service and to aid in general relief and education. No fees are charged or accepted for the use of Bureau films. Persons using them agree to:

- (1) Pay transportation charges from and to distributing center;
- (2) Use films on standard motion-picture projectors handled by competent operators;
- (3) Send in a report to distributing center after each performance, giving names of films used and attendance;
- (4) Return films immediately after use;
- (5) Accept full responsibility for films in their possession;
- (6) Charge no admission fees nor allow collections during or after exhibition.

Application for the use of films should be made to the central office. Each application must contain statement that the agency wishing to use films is an accredited one. Bureau holds an annual congress of members. Maintains a large number of film-distributing exchanges and staff for the care and circulation of films. Affiliated exchanges are located in different parts of the civilized world. Trained educators besides those in university extension work are also engaged in activities of the Bureau. Central office publishes booklets and leaflets descriptive of its work and lists of films available. All publications are supplied free of charge. The public is invited to membership. Supported mainly by endowment and voluntary contributions and partially by membership dues, $5 and up.

Bureau of Economic Research. See National Bureau of Economic Research.

Bureau of Education. See Department of the Interior, U. S.

Bureau of Entomology. See Department of Agriculture, U. S.

Bureau of Immigration. See Department of Labor, U. S.

Bureau of Internal Revenue. See Department of the Treasury, U. S.

Bureau of Investigation. See Department of Justice, U. S.

Bureau of Jewish Social Research (org. 1919), 114 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y. An organization for investigation and research to study the problems of American Jewry and to advance standards of administration in Jewish philanthropic agencies. Serves as a center for information on Jewish philanthropic activities and on matters of sociological interest to Jews. Conducts research and makes surveys and investigations of individual organizations and communities in any part of the country. This Bureau is a merger of the former Bureau of Philanthropic Research, of the Bureau of Statistics of the American Jewish Committee, and of the Field Bureau of the National Conference of Jewish Charities, now the National Conference of Jewish Social Service. (For description of the Committee and the Conference see elsewhere in the Handbook.) Bureau is supported by contributions and subsidies from individuals and organizations.

Bureau of Labor Statistics. See Department of Labor, U. S.

Bureau of Markets. See Department of Agriculture, U. S.

Bureau of Mines. See Department of the Interior, U. S.

Bureau of Municipal Research and Training School for Public Service. See New York Bureau of Municipal Research and Training School for Public Service.

Bureau of Naturalization. See Department of Labor, U. S.

Bureau of Pensions. See Department of the Interior, U. S.

Bureau of Plant Industry. See Department of Agriculture, U. S.

Bureau of Public Health Service. See Department of the Treasury, U. S.

Bureau of Public Roads. See Department of Agriculture, U. S.

Bureau of Social Service. See Christian Church, Bureau of Social Service.

Bureau of Standards. See Department of Commerce, U. S.

Bureau of Vocational Information (org. 1919), 2 West 43d St., New York, N. Y. Educational and research organization, established to serve as a connecting link between the education of women and their vocational activities, and to bring about, wherever possible, a closer correlation of the two. Serves to interpret the character and requirements of the working world to women and to the educational institutions in which they are trained. Is not an employment bureau. Makes investigations of vocations and professions for women so as to secure for each field of work definite and authoritative information regarding the training, necessary and desirable, and where it may be secured; personal qualifications required; best methods of entering the field; kinds of positions and duties involved; conditions of work; salary ranges; and ultimate opportunities to which beginning positions may lead. Bureau publishes and distributes the results of these investigations. Gives vocational information, both by letter and in interviews. Cooperates with appointment secretaries, deans, and vocational advisers in the colleges, supplying them at their request with specific data concerning current developments in fields of work in which their students or graduates may be interested. Members of Bureau staff visit colleges on invitation to address the student body on specified vocational subjects, to meet the students individually for conferences relating to their after-college work, and to discuss with members of the faculty or of the administration, the development of vocational information in the college and in the field of work outside for which undergraduates may be planning to prepare themselves. Works in cooperation with colleges in a number of other ways. Serves as a center of information regarding women's work for certain organizations and associations of women and cooperates with a number of non-commercial employment bureaus. Services are offered free and are not restricted to contributors in any way or limited to special groups. Primarily serves individual women and girls, and colleges, schools, and organizations dealing with women. Has published a bulletin on "Vocations for Business and Professional Women", containing analyses of the essential facts regarding 26 fields of work, and four intensive surveys, as follows: "Women in the Law", "Positions of Responsibility in Department Stores and Other Retail Selling Organizations", "Statistical Work for Women", and "The Woman Chemist". All bulletins and reports are for sale at nominal prices. Bureau is directed by a board of managers with the assistance and cooperation of an advisory council made up of college presidents and other educators and men and women interested in the strengthening and broadening of women's work. Supported by voluntary contributions and membership fees.

Camp Fire Girls (org. 1911, inc. 1912), 31 East 17th St., New York, N. Y. An organized effort to teach girls to find romance, beauty, and adventure in every-day life, to work together, to give community and personal service, and to make the homely tasks contribute to the joy of living. Aims to develop the spirit of the home so that it will influence the entire community. Divides woman's work into seven crafts, each with subdivisions into separate tasks: home, health, camp, hand, nature lore, business, and patriotism. Gives rank and honors according to personal attainment. Has organized local groups in every State and in 16 foreign countries. Field secretaries organize and supervise the work of local chapters which are known as Camp Fires, each composed of from six to twenty members. Community desiring visit of field workers should apply to central office. Guardians of the Fire, appointed by the national office, act as leaders of local groups, the activities of which vary according to community needs. Local executives in various cities throughout the country assist and advise local groups. National office has prepared exhibits of handcraft, photographs and charts, slides and films; these are obtainable for a small fee. Publishes descriptive pamphlets, some free, others for sale at small cost, prices on application; a "Manual of Activities", 50 cents a copy; Every-girl's Magazine, 10 cents a copy, $1 a year. Membership open to girls over 12 years of age subscribing to the laws of the organization and paying to their local groups $1 annual dues, to be earned by themselves. National organization is supported by these individual membership dues and by 5 per cent commission on all sales made by the Camp Fire Outfitting Company, the official supply department of the organization.

Camp Service, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross, Military Relief.

Capital Stock Tax Division. See Department of the Treasury, U. S., Bureau of Internal Revenue.

Carnegie Endowment for International Peace (org. 1910), 2 Jackson Pl. NW., Washington, D. C. To promote the cause of peace among the nations, to hasten the abolition of international war, and to encourage peaceful settlement of international differences. Conducts scientific investigation of causes of war and practical methods of avoiding it. Aids in the development of international law and urges general agreement and acceptance of it among nations. Endeavors to establish a better understanding of international rights and duties and a sense of international justice among the inhabitants of civilized countries. Assists associations necessary or useful in accomplishing its purposes. Has appropriated funds to aid in reconstruction and restoration work in Europe. Issues books and pamphlets for general circulation, free to the public. Publications upon special topics are for sale at nominal prices. Books are also made accessible to all applicants, free, through depository libraries located throughout the U. S. and in foreign countries. Lists of these libraries are furnished free on request. Supported by endowment fund.

Division of International Law collects and publishes, in pamphlet and book form, material explaining and interpreting international law and official documents concerning international relations which would otherwise be inaccessible. Has established the American Institute of International Law, a central body having societies in every American country. Offers scholarships to a limited number of students and teachers who desire to fit themselves to teach international law. Promotes, by financial aid, the work of international law journals and societies.

Division of Intercourse and Education, 407 West 117th St., New York, N. Y. Maintains at the various capitals throughout the world, agencies for gathering information on international policies. Endeavors to cultivate friendly relations between the inhabitants of different countries by preparing and circulating reports and records on international subjects. Has plans for the exchange of professors and a limited number of students between South American and North American universities. Has established a chain of international relations clubs in leading colleges and universities to which speakers are sent and books and pamphlets on international subjects supplied. Cooperates with colleges, universities, and State normal schools in offering, in their summer sessions, courses to stimulate intelligent interest in international affairs. Entertains distinguished visitors and commissions upon their arrival in this country.

Institute of International Education (org. 1919): Serves as a clearing house of information and advice for Americans concerning education in foreign countries, and for foreigners concerning educational matters in the U. S. Work is conducted by the following Bureaus: Europe, Far East, Latin-America, Women's Colleges, and International Relations Clubs. Attempts to stimulate exchange of professors and students between the U. S. and foreign countries. Has compiled data regarding exchange of scholarships and fellowships. Division of Economics and History investigates economic, political, and social conditions bearing on questions of peace and war. Publishes results of these investigations. Library and Information Service is available free to the public for reference and information on all subjects pertaining to international relations. Has large collections of publications on international law and the peace movement, as well as literature of the recent war.

Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching (inc. 1906), 522 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y. To provide retiring allowances and pensions for teachers and, in general, to encourage, uphold, and dignify the profession of the teacher and the cause of higher education. Conducts and publishes the results of studies of various special educational problems regarding retiring allowances and general advancement of teaching. Issues one or more educational bulletins each year. Also publishes Annual Reports containing account of business of the year, summary of results of inquiry into educational problems, biographies of recipients of retiring allowances who have died during the year, and other special reports. All publications are sent regularly to universities and colleges in the U. S., Canada, Newfoundland, and to a selected list of libraries; also sent free of charge to representative educators throughout the world. Foundation has organized The Teachers' Insurance and Annuity Association, same address, which provides at cost insurance and annuities for teachers and other persons employed by colleges, universities, and other institutions primarily engaged in educational or research work. The business of this Association is conducted without profit to the corporation or its stockholders.

Carnegie Institution of Washington (org. 1902), 16th and P Sts. NW., Washington, D. C. To encourage investigation, research, discovery, and the application of knowledge for the improvement of mankind. Conducts work through three main channels: (1) it organ-res departments of research within the Institution itself to attack problems requiring a collaboration of several investigators, special equipment, and continued effort; (2) it provides means whereby individuals may undertake and carry to completion investigations not less important but requiring less collaboration and less special equipment; (3) through its Division of Publications it edits and prints books, provides adequate publication of the results of research undertaken by the Institution, and to a limited extent publishes work not likely to be issued under other auspices. General and classified lists of publications may be had on application. Among its divisions are the following:

Department of Genetics, Cold Spring Harbor, Long Island, N. Y. Is engaged in investigation of the laws of inheritance in plants, animals, and man, of the variations in organisms, of the physiology of reproduction, and, in general, of the factors of organic evolution.

Department of Botanical Research, Desert Laboratory, Tucson, Ariz.; Coastal Laboratory, Carmel, Calif. Is engaged in the consideration of fundamental problems concerning desert vegetation, including general water-relations of plants in transpiration and growth, soil-moisture, photosynthesis and carbohydrate metabolism, parasitism, enzymic reactions, and analysis of physical factors of importance in phytobotany.

Nutrition Laboratory, 29 Vila St., Boston, 17, Mass. Is concerned with the study of fundamental laws governing vital activity, including measurements of chemical transformations, heat loss, body temperature, and the influence of digestion and of muscular exercises on mechanical, physiological, and psychological functions.

Department of Embryology, Johns Hopkins Univ., Baltimore, Md. Studies the human embryo at its different stages of development.

Department of Historical Research, 1140 Woodward Bldg., Washington, D. C. Is chiefly occupied with the preparation of publications intended to assist investigators in American history. Issues reports, aids, and guides with respect to historical documents hitherto unclassified and relatively inaccessible.

Catholic Charities Conference. See National Conference of Catholic Charities.

Catholic Daughters of America (formerly National Order of the Daughters of Isabella) (org. 1903), Utica, N. Y. Roman Catholic organization. Local branches organized throughout the country furnish aid to young women; work among orphans, without discrimination as to creed; assist with philanthropic drives and civic work. Order also functions through the Knights of Columbus (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook) although it is not allied with it in any way. Is establishing rooming houses for business girls in many localities, especially in big cities. Holds State and national biennial meetings, none of which are open to the public. Publishes The Daughters of Isabella Herald, monthly; free to members, not for sale to non-members. Supported by membership dues, $4 a year.

10

Catholic Hospital Association of U. S. and Canada (org. 1915), 1212 Majestic Bldg., Milwaukee, Wis. To bring unity of action into the body of Catholic hospitals in the U. S. and Canada and into the larger body of hospital Sisters, thereby standardizing and improving their work. Cooperates with a number of medical societies with a view to improving scientific service to the sick in hospitals. Holds an annual convention for the discussion of problems and exchange of ideas; proposes to hold State, provincial, and sectional conferences. Members of Diocesan Directors' Division conduct field work, including lecturing, hospital visiting, and supervising. Services are rendered free to Catholic hospitals and their staffs regardless of religion and race. Association publishes a monthly journal, Hospital Progress, 40 cents a copy, $3 a year. Supported by annual membership dues: institutional, $5 to $30 according to bed capacity; individual, doctors, $5; nurses, Sisters, and chaplains, $3. Association is affiliated with the National Catholic Welfare Council, Department of Social Action (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook).

Catholic Indian Missions, Bureau of. See Bureau of Catholic Indian Missions.

Catholic Slovak Ladies' Union of U. S. A. See First Catholic Slovak Ladies' Union of U. S. A.

Catholic Slovak Sokol (Katolícky Slovenský Sokol) (org. and inc. 1905), Secy., Michael Kudlac, 205 Madison St., Passaic, N. J. Slovak mutual benefit, gymnastic, educational, and fraternal organization of men, women, and children. Operates in the U. S. and Canada. National office organizes and supervises branches in local communities. Sokol pays death benefits of $250 to $1,000 for men and for women, and $300 for children up to 16 years old. Lodges or unions carry on and contribute to community betterment, welfare, gymnastic, religious, and educational work. Death benefits are paid by assessments on total membership. Local branches pay sick benefits of $5 to $10 a week while patient is under doctor's care. Sick benefits are paid from members' dues and special funds raised by the branches. Organization meets at irregular times, according to agreement made at each meeting. Catholic Falcon (Katolícký Sokol) (Editor, G. Košík, 42 Kent St., Newark, N. J.), published in Slovak, is the official organ for which members pay $1.08 a year, non-members, $1.50; European subscription, $2 a year. Children's Friend (Priateľ Dietok) (115 Hill St., Monton, N. J.) is published monthly for juvenile members.

Catholic Slovak Union. See First Catholic Slovak Union.

Catholic Sokol Union (Katolícká Jednota Sokol) (org. 1908), 98 Holcomb St., Detroit, Mich. To unite the existing independent Catholic Sokol Communities. Operates in the U. S. only. Union organizes, supervises, and directs policies of branches in local communities. Through local branches Union seeks to develop young men and women physically and mentally, and to make better citizens of them. Teaches gymnastics and hygiene. Holds series of lectures and tournaments for its members. Facilities are open to other Catholics, not members. Union does not pay death benefits. Holds meetings at irregular times according to agreement at the last meeting. Meetings are open only to members and Catholics. The Catholic Falcon (Katolícký sokol) (1625 South 11th St., St. Louis, Mo.), monthly, published in Czech and English, 10 cents a copy, 75 cents a year, free to members, the official organ. Union has men's branches and women's branches. Monthly dues, 15 cents.

Catholic Union of America. See Polish Roman Catholic Union of America.

Central Committee, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

Certified Milk Producers' Association of America (org. 1908), cty., Harry B. Winters, Albany, N. Y. To promote the interests of certified milk producers and through the exchange of ideas to improve and unify methods of production and marketing. Holds annual and special meetings. Service is unlimited and offered free of charge. Association acts as a clearing house for the distribution of literature advertising certified milk and giving information in regard to the best methods of producing it. Publishes the Proceedings of the annual conventions and other publications regarding milk, all of which may be secured free from the central office. Upon application and when satisfactory arrangements can be made, Association loans slides showing certified milk plants and approved methods followed in the production of certified milk. The service of field representatives may, under certain conditions, be secured upon application. Membership is open to producers of certified milk and persons interested in its use. Supported by membership dues, $5 a year, plus tax of 10 cents for each cow milked during the year.

Česko-Slovancká Bratrská Podporující Jednota. See Czecho-Slavonian Fraternal Benefit Union.

Česko-Slovancká Jednota. See Bohemian-Slavonian Union.

Československá Národní Rada v Americe. See Czecho-Slovak National Council of America.

Československé Národní Sdružení. See Czecho-Slovak National Alliance.

Chairman, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

Chamber of Commerce, Junior. See U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Chamber of Commerce of the U. S. (org. and inc. 1912), Mills Bldg., Washington, D. C. To encourage trade and commercial intercourse among the States, Territorial and Insular Possessions of the U. S. and with foreign nations; to coordinate into an effective national body the various business, commercial, and industrial organizations of the country and to increase their efficiency and extend their usefulness. Promotes cooperation among chambers of commerce, boards of trade, and other business and industrial organizations. Endeavors to secure cooperative action in the advancement of the common purposes of its members, uniformity and equity in business usages and laws, and proper consideration and concentration of opinion upon questions affecting the financial, commercial, industrial, and civic interests of the country. Field workers are available; for terms and particulars address headquarters. Whenever possible central office answers free of charge inquiries received from the general public. Continuous activities are carried on through administrative Departments of: Fabricated Production, Natural Resources, Production, Insurance, Foreign Commerce, Civic Development, Finance, Transportation and Communication, Domestic Distribution, Resolutions and Referenda, Field and Research. Membership is granted on application: it includes organization members (chambers of commerce, boards of trade, and trade associations), paying annual dues of $10 to $700; individual members, paying annual dues of $25; associate members, paying annual dues of at least $100. Members receive publications free. Individual and associate memberships include individuals, firms, and corporations. The Chamber issues a monthly publication, The Nation's Business, 25 cents a copy, $3 a year; also Legislative, General, and Special Bulletins. Supported by membership fees.

Child Health Council. See National Child Health Council.

Child Health Organization of America (org. 1918), Penn Terminal Bldg., 370 Seventh Ave., New York, N. Y. To raise the health standard of the school child through teaching health habits to children. Seeks to secure adequate health examinations and health records for all children in the public schools of the country. Studies the problem of malnutrition of school children and publishes literature giving results of its studies and other facts regarding correct diet for school children. Through addresses and newspapers and magazine articles, the organization is carrying on a nation-wide campaign to enlighten and interest the public concerning child health matters. It aims to introduce the teaching of health as an integral part of education in all grades and all schools and to make such teaching vitally interesting. Furnishes speakers for meetings if expenses are paid. Originated the use of dramatic characters to present health facts to children. Now has five such characters in the field: "Cho, the Health Clown"; "The Health Fairy"; "Happy, the Health Pinocchio"; "The Jolly Jester, the Ventriiloquist"; "The Mary Gay Suitcase Theatre". These are available for engagements; $25 a single performance plus traveling and living expenses. For details apply to central office. Assists in the organization of local child health programs. Has prepared literature for the use of schools, nurses, health organizations, dietitians, and other social and educational workers in relation to their problems on child health. Also publishes child health pamphlets expressly for teachers; health stories, films, pictures, posters, and weight and health cards prepared particularly for children. For lists and prices address central office. A few publications are available through the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C., by arrangement with the Bureau of Education, U. S. Department of the Interior. Central office has some exhibit material which can be borrowed upon application, transportation to be paid by agencies using it. Other exhibit material may not be borrowed but is on exhibit at headquarters. Not a membership body. Supported by voluntary contributions. Cooperates with the U. S. Bureau of Education, and is a member of the National Child Health Council. (For description of these agencies see elsewhere in the Handbook.)

Child Hygiene Association. See American Child Hygiene Association.

Child Labor Committee. See National Child Labor Committee.

Child Welfare Association. See National Child Welfare Association.

Child Welfare League of America (org. 1915), 130 East 22d St., New York, N. Y. Organized as a bureau for the exchange of information and publications regarding the work of child-helping organizations, in order that all may profit by the successful experiences of each. Lately reorganized and has now established an executive office with field service. All members agree to perform the following services:

- (1) To investigate for any other subscribing society the case of any child, temporarily within its district, in whom this subscribing society may be interested; to report the findings promptly and fully; to bear the expenses of such inquiry provided that full information concerning the case is given by the other society at the time of making the request for investigation;

- (2) To investigate for any other subscribing society any case in which one or more members of a family are temporarily or permanently in its district;

- (3) To meet children at reasonable hours in the city where the organization is located, and give them safe conduct through the city, on condition that they be reimbursed by the society asking for the service for all transportation and other expenses incurred;

- (4) To render other social service of special nature under certain conditions;

- (5) To cooperate with the other members of the League in adopting certain principles of intersociety correspondence.

League plans to develop further intersociety service on individual cases; to furnish its members with statements of standards in the several fields of child welfare and to provide outlines of various fields and suggestions for procedure based upon the experience of other agencies; to furnish information regarding experiments in child welfare that are being carried on, and opinions regarding their value and their results. Members of the staff of the League will visit upon request the field of any agency for the purpose of analyzing the important factors and developments and to make suggestions for their improvement. League also plans to help organize surveys of children's work in any community, or to assist in such portion of general surveys as relates to children's work; to supply any agency member with specialist's service in any particular field of child welfare for a brief period, either for the purpose of analyzing a local problem, or for setting up a new enterprise in the expansion of the agency's work in a new direction; to encourage the gathering of accurate statistics and to assist in standardizing them for better service; to encourage and assist in getting under way research work in various fields of child welfare; to encourage and, if necessary, to publish important results of study in various forms of child welfare; to consult with any agency with a view to assisting it in organizing or reorganizing its children's work. The League is supported by contributions, and by membership dues, $5 a year.

Child Welfare Society. See Methodist Child Welfare Society.

Children's Bureau. See Department of Labor, U. S.

Christ Child Society (org. 1890, inc. 1903), 324 Indiana Ave. NW., Washington, D. C. A Roman Catholic organization. To better the condition of neglected children through relief and social service work. National office organizes and supervises branches in cities throughout the country, which conduct personal service for the children of the poor, regardless of creed, race or color; furnish clothing and shoes for the needy; provide mothers with complete layettes for new-born babies; give Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners; and conduct other social service work. Some local units operate day nurseries and kindergartens, and furnish children with glasses, braces and other valid appliances; maintain settlements with recreation and educational facilities; send children to the country for the summer months, or, if they are delicate, for the entire year. Local Committees on Visiting and Relief keep in touch with families in distress or having illness, report on their needs, and furnish aid. National organization holds a general meeting, open to the public, annually, in April, for the reading of committee and branch reports and for the display of exhibits. Publishes an Annual Report; free on request. Membership open to any interested person agreeing to make one child happy at Christmas and willing to contribute to the support of the work. Sewing members make garments from work cut out and distributed by local committees; active members give two hours a week to work in settlements. Supported by contributions and membership dues, $1 and up.

Christian Church, Bureau of Social Service (org. 1913), Secy., E. A. Watkins, Lima, Ohio. Seeks to develop a sense of community responsibility on the part of the churches. Urges the conducting of community surveys, the holding of rural life institutes, organization of study classes, furtherance of social welfare work, and activities for the maintenance of industrial standards, as well as cooperation with other church bodies. Does not issue publications, but distributes to pastors leaflets prepared by other denominations; occasionally sends out circular letters calling attention to social service work that can be done in the parishes.

Christian Endeavor Society. See United Society of Christian Endeavor.

Christian Temperance Union. See National Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

Christian Women of the U. S. A., Slovak Benefit Society. See Živena, Benefit Society of Slovak Christian Women of the U. S. A.

Church Association for the Advancement of the Interests of Labor (org. 1887), 416 Lafayette St., New York, N. Y. Protestant Episcopal organization to interest the clergy and Church in labor questions now being agitated. To advance industrial interests embracing capital, labor, and the public, and to promote the enactment of Federal and State legislation furthering the best interests of labor. Engaged in an effort to take all manufacturing out of tenement houses as an aid to the abolition of sweatshop and child labor. Strives to promote industrial peace, and to further legislation to procure an eight-hour day and a living wage for workers. Works for better factory and housing conditions and whatever seems best for the interest of the community in industrial advancement; especially strives to promote interest in cooperation, as a means of preventing labor conflicts. Through sermons, lectures, and addresses extends information regarding its principles, and strives to rouse public interest in them. Publishes descriptive circulars. Has some films and exhibit material which may be seen by appointment at the central office. Membership is limited to Protestant Episcopal communicants. Supported by annual dues, 25 cents and up, and by voluntary subscriptions.

Church Institute of America. See Seamen's Church Institute of America.

Church League for Industrial Democracy (org. 1919), 6335 Ross St., Philadelphia, Pa. To unite those within the Protestant Episcopal Church who believe in industrial democracy, and wish to promote movements toward this end. League's activities are chiefly educational; it conducts conferences, holds public meetings, gives lectures, prepares and distributes leaflets which are furnished free on request. Inserts weekly in a newspaper a half-page advertisement usually giving reprints from books or other published articles on pertinent subjects. Executive Secretary assists in the organization of local branches. Services of this officer and of other members of the League may be secured on application to the Executive Secretary. League has representatives in the foreign field. Special committee urges students in colleges, universities, and theological schools to enter the industrial field for a time to learn the experiences and views of the workers and gain first-hand knowledge of facts so that they may more intelligently interpret industrial problems for themselves, the Church, and labor; for further particulars address Miss Grace Hutchins, 94 McDougal St., New York, N. Y. League publishes news-letters at irregular intervals; sent free to members and others on application. Membership includes clergymen and lay members of the Church. Supported by voluntary subscriptions of its members.

Church Peace Union (org. and inc. 1914), 70 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y. To promote international friendship and peace through the churches and religious organizations of the world. Operating largely through the World Alliance for International Friendship through the Churches (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook), it seeks to extend public education in its principles through publicity, propaganda, and through cooperation with other associations, but chiefly through the churches. Union organizes churches and religious bodies to support and take active part in special movements and work including social service and educational activities for the foreign born in this country. Holds an annual meeting. Publishes an Annual Report of its activities; an Annual Report and an Annual Handbook for the World Alliance for International Friendship through the Churches. Not a membership or subscription body. Supported by endowment. Union is a Carnegie foundation.

Church Temperance Society (org. 1881), 88 St. Nicholas Ave., New York, N. Y. An organization of the Protestant Episcopal Church for the promotion of temperance throughout the U. S. Works along lines of moral as well as legal suasion to train the young in habits of temperance and to rescue those who have become addicted to alcoholic drink. Among its agencies are moving-picture theaters, reading and recreation rooms.

Circle for Negro Relief (org. 1917 as the Circle for Negro War Relief to take care of Negro soldiers and their families; reorg. 1919 on permanent peace-time basis), 108 West 136th St., New York, N. Y. For the furtherance of health work among Negroes. Aims to teach Negroes to help finance the health projects themselves. Local units conduct health work among Negroes, including visiting nursing, prenatal care, infant welfare work, and encouraging small communities to establish health centers. Although the Circle plans to work in whatever community needs its assistance, its present activities are mainly in the South. Membership open to interested persons. Annual dues, $1 and up.

Citizens of America. See Allied Citizens of America.

City Planning Conference. See National Conference on City Planning.

Civic Association. See American Civic Association.

Civic League for Immigrants. See North American Civic League for Immigrants.

Civic Secretaries' Association. See National Association of Civic Secretaries.

Civil Service Reform League. See National Civil Service Reform League.

Coast and Geodetic Survey. See Department of Commerce, U. S.

Coast Guard. See Department of the Treasury, U. S.

College Women's Federation. See National Federation of College Women.

Colleges for Negro Youth. See Association of Colleges for Negro Youth.

Collegiate Alumnae Association. See Association of Collegiate Alumnae.

Colored Graduate Nurses' Association. See National Association of Colored Graduate Nurses.

Colored Women's Association. See National Association of Colored Women.

Columbia Institution for the Deaf (inc. 1857), Kendall Green, Washington, D. C. A corporation receiving national aid for the education of the deaf. The educational work is divided between the collegiate department and the primary and grammar department as follows:

Gallaudet College (est. 1864): Non-sectarian institution offering a five-year course, including one preparatory year. Applicants for admission to the preparatory class must be able to express their thoughts in connected English and to comprehend the language of the ordinary textbooks of the common schools. Admission to this class is by examination, or upon certificate from an approved school that the prescribed requirements in arithmetic, history, English, American history, and elementary physics have been fully met, and upon passing tests given by the College faculty in algebra, composition, reading, and grammar. College confers baccalaureate degrees of arts and science and degrees of master of arts or science. Regular charges, including board, lodging, laundry, and tuition, are $500 for the academic year. Average cost for books is $25 a year. Congress provides for free admission for residents of States and Territorial Possessions who are unable to pay. The District of Columbia pays for its own students in the College. Needy deaf persons from outside the District of Columbia, after passing entrance requirements, should make written application with sworn statements of financial circumstances to the president of the College and obtain endorsement of their district Congressmen. Blanks for this purpose are supplied to eligible candidates.

Kendall School for the Deaf (est. 1857): Primary and grammar school especially for white deaf children from the District of Columbia, but also admits white children from the States. Non-sectarian. Roman Catholic children receive instruction at the Church of the Holy Name; Protestant children receive similar training in a Sunday school conducted in the school and at near-by Protestant churches. Pupils are taught by means of speech, lip-reading, and writing where possible. Those who cannot make satisfactory progress in this way are taught manually. All white children of teachable age, of good mental capacity, and properly belonging to the District of Columbia are received free. Others pay $500 a year, which includes all expenses, except clothing, shoe repairs, extraordinary medical attention, and traveling expenses. All pupils reside in the school. The Board of Directors has authority to make special terms for deserving cases. All letters concerning pupils, or applications for admission, should be addressed to the president of the institution.

Commerce Department. See Department of Commerce, U. S.

Commercial Economics Bureau. See Bureau of Commercial Economics.

Commission on Milk Standards (org. 1911), Pres., John F. Anderson, M. D., c/o E. R. Squibb and Sons, New Brunswick, N. J. A voluntary committee of men active in medicine, sanitation, public health and laboratory work, interested in the milk question. Organized to make recommendations regarding standards, ordinances, laws, licenses, and new questions. Standing and special committees study such topics as pasteurization, administrative equipment, labeling and dating of milk, bacteria, bacterial and chemical standards, and microscopic examination of milk. Commission holds an annual meeting. Has drawn up and established standard rules and regulations for the control of milk; these are the result of a study of the printed rules and regulations concerning milk of the cities of the U. S. and foreign countries. Commission prepares reports which are published by the U. S. Public Health Service and which may be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C.

Commission on Social Service. See Universalist Church, Commission on Social Service.

Commission on Social Service and Rural Work. See Reformed Church in the U. S., Commission on Social Service and Rural Work.

Commission on Southern Race Questions. See University Commission on Southern Race Questions.

Commissioners on Uniform State Laws Conference. See National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws.

Committee for Constructive Immigration Legislation. See National Committee for Constructive Immigration Legislation.

Committee for Mental Hygiene. See National Committee for Mental Hygiene.

Committee for the Prevention of Blindness. See National Committee for the Prevention of Blindness.

Committee on Prisons and Prison Labor. See National Committee on Prisons and Prison Labor.

Committee for Teaching Citizenship. See National Committee for Teaching Citizenship.

Commonwealth Fund (org. and inc. 1918), 1 East 57th St., New York, N. Y. For the application to charitable purposes of the income or principal of its property. Is studying the subject of philanthropic and charitable work as a whole in an effort to find the fields which will best fulfill the motives which inspired its establishment. Pending the adoption of special fields of activity, the Fund has given financial assistance to other charitable corporations where there has been peculiar or urgent need, especially where work already begun was in danger of interruption or loss unless immediate assistance was rendered. Grants have been made giving relief to Armenian children, to the intellectual classes of eastern and central Europe, and to European children. Grants in the U. S. have been made more especially for the encouragement of educational investigation and research and to promote child welfare.

Community Board. See National Community Board.

Community Center Association. See National Community Center Association.

Community Motion Picture Bureau (org. 1911, inc. 1915), 46 West 24th St., New York, N. Y. To make the motion picture a social asset; to supply wholesome motion pictures for community recreation and education; to cooperate with local non-theatrical agencies, religious and secular, political and commercial, public and private. Aims to be a universally accessible agency. Bureau's staff, trained in education, religious work, and industrial and economic fields, makes preliminary community studies; Bureau supplies series of moving-picture programs to meet community needs. Estimates of cost of this service are furnished following consultation with headquarters. Bureau directs presentation of selected programs, notifies subscribers of programs to be sent, and furnishes advertising material and stereopticon slides for use between reels. It maintains an up-to-date library with indexes of film resources on every subject; gives information regarding the field of motion pictures. Editorial Board views films released by large film companies of the U. S. and Europe, and analyzes, classifies, and makes available films suited for community purposes. Also reedits films, making available many subjects otherwise of questionable usefulness. Although not primarily concerned with the production of films, the Bureau undertakes the illustration of any wholesome and valuable theme capable of being filmed, if called for and not already filmed. Often secures the production of important films by other agencies. Has specialized public health and general social service moving-picture programs. Maintains branches and distributing stations in the U. S. and many foreign countries. Issues descriptive bulletins and leaflets. Not a membership or subscription body. Supported by money received from rental of films.

Community Service (org. and inc. 1919), 1 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y. To help people of American communities to organize for the employment of their leisure time to the best advantage for recreation and good citizenship. Upon invitation from a responsible group of citizens in a community, national headquarters loans a community organizer to a city for a brief period to help in the organization of a local Community Service Committee representative of all community interests. This committee seeks to discover neighborhood and community needs, and assumes responsibility for meeting them through the planning of a program of community-wide leisure-time activities and the raising of funds to carry on such work. Where necessary, as far as funds and workers permit, national headquarters will provide specialists in games, community music, community drama, and other activities to demonstrate the values which lie in a leisure-time program. When the necessary promotion and organization work has been completed and funds have been raised, the national headquarters' worker is withdrawn and a permanent executive is employed by the community. As a part of its work, Community Service publishes handbooks and other material on various phases of community recreation, much of which is available for use by all individuals and organizations interested in leisure-time problems. Among these handbooks are the following: "Community Recreation" (30 cents), a discussion of the municipal recreation systems and community activities; "Comrades in Play" (30 cents), containing suggestions for leisure-time activities which young men and young women can enjoy together; "Summer Camps—Municipal and Industrial" (30 cents); "Community Music" (50 cents); "Rural and Small Community Recreation" (50 cents); "Pioneering for Play" (30 cents), containing suggestions for arousing public interest in community recreation. Other material available through Community Service consists of pamphlets and mimeographed material on community drama, playgrounds, community center activities, and various other phases of the leisure-time field; these may be secured free or at small cost. A list of publications will be sent on request; information on special problems in recreation may be secured by writing the Consultation and Correspondence Bureau. Two motion-picture films, "Keep 'Em Smiling", and "Play and Be Happy", showing Community Service and community recreation activities of various kinds have been prepared. Communities wishing to use these films as a means of arousing interest in community recreation may secure further information by writing to the central office. Supported by contributions.

Community Service Association. See Intercollegiate Community Service Association.

Comptroller, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

Compulsory Education Officials. See National League of Compulsory Education Officials.

Confederate Veterans, Sons of. See Sons of Confederate Veterans.

Conference of Catholic Charities. See National Conference of Catholic Charities.

Conference on City Planning. See National Conference on City Planning.

Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws. See National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws.

Conference of Social Work. See National Conference of Social Work.

Conference of State and Provincial Health Authorities of N. A. (org. 1885), Secy., C. St. Clair Drake, M. D., 909 South 5th St.,

Springfield, Ill. For the assembling of executive sanitary officers for the exchange of opinions and the consideration of questions relating to the practical administration of public hygiene. Secretary's office acts as a clearing house of information, sending to members data regarding subjects of special importance in connection with public health endeavor, including important Federal and State legislation. Executive Committee meets quarterly, oftener if required, and transacts all business for the Conference in the interim between annual meetings. Research is conducted by special committees on the following topics: drug addiction; recent advance in sanitary practice; progress of full-time health officer legislation; international border health problems; compilation, examination, and interpretation of statistics on causes of rejection for military service; uniform sanitary code for railways; standard methods in child welfare work; communicable diseases; morbidity reports; public health nursing; medical service; venereal diseases; sanitary engineering; service of State public laboratories. Conference publishes Proceedings of annual meetings. Supported by annual dues paid by State boards of health. Is a member of the National Health Council (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook).

Congregational Church, Social Service Commission (org. 1912), 14 Beacon St., Boston, Mass. To promote the causes of industry, community life, social service, organized charity, and social purity. Endeavors to arouse the churches to a sense of obligation for community interests, social service, and justice. Stimulates cooperation of churches with other social agencies. Acts as a clearing house for information relating to industrial and social work among churches. Aims to bring about better understanding between organized labor and organized religion. Seeks to develop a program of social education for the Church which will be an integral part of religious education.

Consular Bureau. See Department of State, U. S.

Consumers' League. See National Consumers' League.

Cooperative League of America (org. 1916), 2 West 13th St., New York, N. Y. To promote cooperative work. Aims to federate the cooperative societies of the U. S. in a union for cooperative education, standardization, and mutual protection. Collects data and serves as a central clearing house of information concerning American cooperative societies. Distributes literature dealing with the history, principles, philosophy, technique, and aims of the cooperative movement. Brings out popular editions of works on cooperation and supplies pertinent books of both foreign and domestic publication. Conducts study courses and sends out lecturers and speakers; for terms for this service apply to the central office. Cooperative Employment Bureau discovers and places cooperative store managers. League organizes national, sectional, and local conventions. Assists in the organization of new cooperative societies. Drafts and promotes laws in the interest of cooperation. Has several tourscoptes on the cooperative movement in England, Russia, and the U. S.; for rent at $5 a night. Publishes pamphlets, for sale at nominal cost. Issues news bulletins to the labor and general press, and prepares articles on cooperation for publication in current periodicals. Publishes a monthly magazine, Cooperation, $1 a year. Membership open to cooperative societies working in conformity with the principles of the League, and to all persons desiring the promotion of the cooperative movement. Supported by subscriptions, and by annual dues, $1 a year.

Council of the Churches of Christ in America. See Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

Council on Education. See American Council on Education.

Council of Higher Education (Matice Vyššího Vzdělání) (org. 1902, inc. 1910), Secy., P. A. Korab, Iowa State Bank, Iowa City, Iowa. Czech society for the encouragement of young men and women of Czech origin to study in American universities and colleges. Loans money without interest to students who can pass the entrance requirements of the best American institutions. Operates in the U. S. only. The Council gives advice and aid to individuals who are desirous of being informed of institutions of higher education. Holds meetings every five years, open to the public, at which questions of interest relative to the advancement along educational lines of the Czech-Slovaks in America are discussed. Membership fee, $5 a year.

Council of Jewish Women (org. and inc. 1893), Pres., Miss Rose Brenner, 252 Carroll St., Brooklyn, N. Y. To organize Jewish women for united efforts in the work of social betterment, through religion, philanthropy, and education. Holds a triennial meeting, open to the public. The Proceedings of these meetings are published and may be secured at 25 cents a copy from the treasurer, Mrs. Alvin Bauman, 5646 Kingsbury Blvd., St. Louis, Mo. Council works through its national standing and special committees and departments and through its local sections which it has organized throughout the U. S., in Cuba and Canada. State officers organize, supervise, and visit the sections, and advise them in regard to their work. National body has also organized throughout the country Junior Auxiliaries which conduct related work. National committees as follows direct the work of local committees similar in name and objects, their particular activities varying according to local needs: Committee on Philanthropy through section committees supports institutions, either wholly or in part, and maintains settlements, educational and recreation centers, vacation homes and day camps for women and children; it also operates dispensaries, dental and baby clinics; maintains kindergartens, reading rooms and libraries. Subcommittee on Tuberculosis conducts and finances local anti-tuberculosis work; contributes to the National Jewish Hospital for Consumptives in Denver, Colo. (this hospital offers free treatment to tubercular patients over 7 years of age, of any race or creed, and of either sex, and is open only to those who are unable to pay), and other national institutions; aids families of tubercular patients; presents lectures on the prevention of tuberculosis; cooperates with organizations working for better housing. Committee also conducts educational work and secures lecturers for public meetings. Subcommittee on the Blind supervises local committees which take censuses of the blind and seek to discover their needs, conduct sales of articles made by them, maintain loan funds for blind students, engage in employment work, and further education in the prevention of blindness. Subcommittee on the Deaf directs work of local committees which take censuses of deaf people, conduct schools in lip-reading, form associations of the deaf, and secure employment for deaf persons. Committee on Education directs local committees which conduct lectures and lecture courses, form study circles, give scholarships, distribute free literature, and maintain loan scholarship funds. Subcommittee on Social Hygiene through local committees conducts lectures, displays motion pictures, organizes mothers' classes and study circles. Committees on Purity of the Press, operated by some sections, censor moving pictures and make protests against indecent and immoral shows. Committee on Civic and Communal Affairs directs the work of the Council and its sections in developing community welfare work. Committee on Legislation studies suggested legislation for the betterment of conditions affecting education, employment of women and children, public health, and community needs; assists in furthering the passage of proposed Federal, State, and city laws. Committee on Work for Jewish Women on Farms conducts work in several States, and proposes to extend it to all States requiring it, as rapidly as possible. A director, and resident and visiting workers supervise activities in behalf of the women in these rural communities. Committee arranges community lectures with the cooperation of the State departments of instruction and other agencies. It organizes classes in English, sanitation, disinfection, dietetics, prenatal care, infant care, canning, preserving, elementary hygiene, and home economics. Committee also has established libraries. Additional activities include surveys of health conditions of children, surveys of local facilities and of boarding and rooming houses, organization of health leagues in public schools, Parent-Teachers Associations, and the observance of religious festivals. Membership in the Council includes interested Jewish women, who pay annual dues of $3. National Council is supported by assessment paid by local chapters, $1 per member.

[Previous ... and better ...]

Department of Immigrant Aid, headquarters, 146 Henry St., New York, N. Y. Organizes branches and committees in the principal ports and cities of Europe and the U. S. Foreign representatives and committees locate persons about whom inquiry is made by their friends and relatives in America; assist girls and unprotected women at ports of embarkation, aid them in securing passage, and notify American section representatives of their pending arrival. Committees and representatives in American ports meet incoming vessels and give protection and help to immigrant girls and women regardless of their race or religion; petition for hospital treatment when necessary; attempt to facilitate their admission to ports; appeal cases of girls and women who have been excluded; explain detention and requirements for admission; locate friends and relatives; secure travel money from relatives and friends; give special attention to girls to be married upon landing. Representatives refer names of girls and unprotected women to branches in the cities to which they are traveling. These local branches further protect them and assist them in adjusting themselves to American life. Sections, under direction of the national office, conduct Americanization work among immigrants, holding public classes in English and teaching mothers in their own homes. National office publishes leaflets in many foreign languages, giving pertinent information to newly arrived immigrants. This literature is distributed free of charge.

Council of Primary Education. See National Council of Primary Education.

Council of Women. See National Council of Women.

Council of Women for Home Missions. See Home Missions Council.

Counselor, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

Country Life Association. See American Country Life Association.

Criminal Law and Criminology Institute. See American Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology.

Crippled and Disabled Men's Institute. See Institute for Crippled and Disabled Men.

Crittenton Mission. See National Florence Crittenton Mission.

Czech Catholics in America Federation. See National Federation of Czech Catholics in America, Supreme Lodge.

Czech Fraternal Union. See Western Czech Fraternal Union.

Czech Women's Union. See Union of Czech Women, Supreme Lodge.

Czech Women, Supreme Lodge. See Union of Czech Women, Supreme Lodge.

Czecho-Slavonian Fraternal Benefit Union (Česko-Slovanská Bratrská Podporující Jednota) (org. and inc. 1884), Pres., August R. Zicha, 516 East 87th St., New York, N. Y. Czecho-Slovak fraternal, educational organization. Operates in the U. S. only. Organizes and supervises individual lodges in local communities. Supreme Lodge sends workers to Czecho-Slovak communities desiring to organize a club and later a new lodge. Supreme Lodge pays the expenses of such visits. Lodges carry on and contribute to community betterment, welfare and educational work. They issue death benefits of $300 to $1,000, paid by assessments on total membership. Lodges in local communities pay sick benefits of $5 or $6 a week while the patient is under doctor's care. The Union holds a quinquennial meeting, open to the public, at which questions of interest to Czecho-Slovaks in America are discussed. Organ C. S. B. P. J. (Organ Č. S.

B. P. J.) (Editor, B. O. Vařku, 400 East 89th St., New York, N. Y.), monthly, published in Czech, 40 cents a year to members, not for sale to the public, is the official publication of the Union. Members' dues are 50 cents a month.

Czecho-Slovak Legion of America. See United Czecho-Slovak Legion of America.

Czecho-Slovak National Alliance (Československé Národní Sdružení) (org. 1914, inc. 1916, reorg. 1919), Secy., Ferdinand L. Musil, 3734 West 26th St., Chicago, Ill. Czecho-Slovak relief organization. Operates at present in the U. S. and Czecho-Slovakia; during the War it worked in Siberia also. For the attainment of its aims, the Alliance uses the following means: (a) it carries on educational work for the improvement of its members and of Czecho-Slovaks in general; (b) it looks after newly arriving countrymen and acquaints them with American institutions so as to fit them to become loyal citizens of the Republic; (c) it interprets to the American people the life of the Czecho-Slovak nation and the development of the free Czecho-Slovak Republic. National office organizes and supervises branches in local communities. Supreme Board at intervals sends a worker to various Czecho-Slovak communities to encourage the organization of branches. Supreme Board pays expenses of these visits. Branches carry on and contribute to community betterment, welfare and educational work; they also collect money and clothing to aid sufferers in Czecho-Slovakia. The Alliance holds annual meetings, open to the public, for the discussion of such topics as the education of its members and of Czecho-Slovaks in general in the ideals of true Americanism, and of problems relative to the relief of war sufferers in Czecho-Slovakia. The Messenger (Poselství), monthly, published in Czech, $1.50 a year, one copy free to branches, is the official organ. Membership dues, $2 and up.

*we have also - for 1914 but as for a publ since 1912
T
public*

Czecho-Slovak National Council of America (Československá Národní Rada v Americe) (org. 1915), Pres., J. P. Pecival, M. D., 3756 West 26th St., Chicago, Ill. Non-sectarian educational organization of men and women, for the good of all Czecho-Slovaks. Operates in the U. S., Canada, and in the Czecho-Slovak Republic. Urges Czecho-Slovaks to become loyal American citizens and assists them in getting acquainted with the institutions of this country. Directs relief work for the needy in the U. S. and in the Republic of Czecho-Slovakia. Takes part in community betterment work. The Council has no branches or departments. Loans lantern slides showing scenes in Czecho-Slovakia. Issues publications on Czecho-Slovaks; some are offered for free distribution, others are for sale at nominal prices. The Messenger (Poselství) (Editor, Ferdinand L. Musil, 3734 West 26th St., Chicago, Ill.), monthly, published in Czech; The New Slovakia (Nové Slovensko) (Editor, Karel Belohlávek, Pittsburgh, Pa.), monthly, published in Slovak, $1 a year; Review (Hlidka) (published at 3207 West 22d St., Chicago, Ill.), the official organs of the Czecho-Slovak National Alliance, the Slovak League of America, and the Union of Czech Catholics, respectively, serve as official organs of the Czecho-Slovak National Council. The National Council is supported by the Czecho-Slovak National Alliance, the Slovak League of America (for description of these see elsewhere in the Handbook), and by the Union of Czech Catholics.

[Signature]

Dairy Council. See National Dairy Council.

Daughters of America. See Catholic Daughters of America.

Daughters of the American Revolution. See National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Daughters of the Confederacy. See United Daughters of the Confederacy.

Daughters of 1812. See National Society U. S. Daughters of 1812.

Daughters of the King (org. 1884, inc. 1887), 84 Bible House, Astor Place, New York, N. Y. For the spread of Christianity among women and the strengthening of parish life. Works through parochial chapters, which offer social service where needed and according to local conditions, and assists in city mission and hospital work. Holds council meetings twice a year, open to the public. Does not employ field workers. Membership is open to women of Protestant Episcopal faith. Issues descriptive leaflets and bulletins, free on application, and a quarterly magazine, The Royal Cross, free to members, 15 cents a copy to non-members. Supported by membership dues, $1 a year.

Deaconess Board. See Methodist Episcopal Church, General Deaconess Board.

Deaf Association. See National Association of the Deaf.

Department of Agriculture, U. S., Washington, D. C. For the promotion of agriculture and related interests. Activities are carried on under its various bureaus as follows:

Bureau of Animal Industry conducts meat-inspection work in a large number of establishments throughout the U. S. to prevent interstate and foreign commerce in unwholesome meat. Inspects animals before and after slaughter and maintains oversight of water supply in packing and slaughter houses. Maintains laboratories for examinations that cannot be carried on at plants. Details veterinarians to stockyard centers and feeding plants for inspection and testing of cattle. Enforces laws prohibiting entry of diseased cattle from foreign countries. Inspects imported meats and meat products at ports. Makes investigations for the extermination of house flies and other insects in establishments operating under Federal meat inspection. Secures sanitary types of plants and sanitary methods of manufacturing and handling butter, cheese, other creamery products, and ice cream. Specialists give instruction in farm butter-making, and conduct educational work among dairymen and milk-handlers; they also investigate city milk supplies and conditions of cows.

Bureau of Biological Survey assists in the control of the bubonic plague and other diseases, by the destruction of rats throughout the country, and ground squirrels in the Pacific Coast region; also in the control of spotted fever by destroying ground squirrels in the Bitter Root Valley, Montana. Conducts campaigns in the western part of the U. S. for the control and suppression of wild animals having rabies.

Bureau of Chemistry enforces the Federal Food and Drugs Act. Controls foods imported, exported, or entering into interstate commerce. Attempts to prevent shipment of foods containing harmful substances, sale of falsely or fraudulently labeled patent medicines and of drugs that are below the standard set by the U. S. Pharmacopoeia or the National Formulary. Develops improved methods for preparing, shipping, storing and handling foods. Through exhibits, press notices, and correspondence, Bureau conducts general educational work for cleanliness in handling foods. Laboratories conduct research work from which data are obtained for use of manufacturers, and agricultural, food, and commercial chemists. Bureau also studies molds which cause food spoilage; conducts color investigations which develop methods for the manufacture of dyes. It cooperates with the Committee on Revision of the U. S. Pharmacopoeia and assists in arriving at proper standards and definitions for drugs. Carries on campaign to prevent dust explosions in mills, elevators, cotton gins, and other industrial plants. Develops an industry for dehydration of foods. Works out methods for chemical analysis.

Bureau of Entomology studies insects in their economic relations to agriculture and agricultural products and to the health of men and animals. Experiments with the introduction of beneficial insects, tests insecticides and insecticide machinery. Identifies insects sent in by inquirers.

Bureau of Markets acquires and gives out information regarding the marketing and distribution of farm and non-manufactured food products. Work is divided into four branches: investigational, demonstrational, service, and regulatory. Through its investigational work it obtains information of fundamental importance regarding marketing methods and conditions; the standardization, transportation and storage of agricultural products and methods used in their grading, handling and packing; methods of accounting and business practice used by agencies engaged in marketing; the organization of rural communities for marketing or purchasing farm products; the milling and baking qualities of grain for which standards have been established under the U. S. Grain Standards Act. Demonstrational work is conducted regarding standardization, grading, packing and shipping of commodities, the use of the accounting systems devised by the Bureau, and other matters. In its service work, the Bureau of Markets issues reports at specified intervals, daily, weekly, and monthly, giving information regarding the supply, commercial movement, disposition, and market prices of fruits and vegetables, live stock and meats, and dairy and poultry products. It also issues a weekly newspaper, The Market Reporter, in which market information is summarized in permanent form. It issues daily a telegraphic marketgram of approximately 1,000 words covering the markets of the country for the week ending on the day of issue, for the benefit of agricultural newspapers and other periodicals. Has inaugurated an experimental wireless news service through which a 500-word market report is broadcasted daily from each of four mail radio stations. Two of these stations also release two live-stock reports daily and one report on grain and potatoes. Inspection of fruits and vegetables in certain markets is also included in this service. Regulatory work is performed in the enforcement of the U. S. Cotton Futures, Grain Standards, and Standard Container Acts in connection with the administration of the U. S. Warehouse Act. The chief of the Bureau represents the Secretary of Agriculture as liquidating officer of the wool section of the War Industries Board.

Bureau of Plant Industry which studies problems relating to crop production, including the investigation of plant diseases and the development of methods for controlling them; also conducts investigations in the breeding and culture of medicinal plants to develop new and advantageous forms of various plants for medicines. It collects information on the production and use of drug plants, with special references to sources; makes miscellaneous laboratory studies and experimental cultures. It undertakes to determine geographical distribution and localization of poisonous plants with particular attention to their nature and the pharmacological action of their constituents. Carries on investigations looking to the introduction of an industry for the production of certain drug plants and trees in the U. S. Gathers and records information possessed by the American aborigines regarding uses of drug plants.

Bureau of Public Roads administers the Federal Aid Road Act, under which the Government cooperates with the States in improvement of post and national forest roads. Studies systems of road management and methods of road building, improvement, and maintenance. Ascertains the location, properties, and value of road materials; builds experimental roads to test substitutes for natural road materials. Investigates the comparative effects of motor and horse traffic on roads. Conducts experiments and research to effect improvement in methods of highway design and construction. Cooperates with colleges and experiment stations and with State highway officials. Exhibits models showing types of roads, culverts, bridges, and road machines. Conducts irrigation and drainage investigations, and studies other rural engineering problems. Lantern slides accompanied by lectures and photographs covering the work of this bureau are available to State and county officials, county agents, the officers of churches, schools, and community organizations, and may be borrowed from the chief of the Bureau. Those using the service pay transportation charges.

Division of Publications furnishes to newspapers, farm and trade papers, magazines and other publications articles on all the Department's lines of work. Issues and distributes bulletins, circulars, and other publications on matters relating to agriculture; some of these have to do with health subjects. Many of these publications can be obtained free upon request; others may be purchased from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C.; price list free on request. Publishes a weekly News-Letter and furnishes the public press with agricultural facts taken from publications and official orders, and from oral statements of specialists. Places at the disposal of investigators an index reference list on agriculture in the U. S. This index is not printed, but reference lists on any agricultural subject, made up from it, will be sent on application to the chief of the Division. Through this office, films illustrating the work and results of the work of the Department are made and loaned, free of charge except costs of transportation, for educational purposes. Field agents and cooperators with the Department are given preference, but in so far as the supply of films will permit they are available to the general public. Application for a list of films, for the films themselves, and for any of the Department's publications should also be made to the chief of the Division.

Forest Service administers 147 National Forests, having a total area of 156,032,053 acres, located in 27 States, and in Alaska and Porto Rico. Maintains service for the suppression of forest fires in and adjacent to National Forests. Provides means whereby the public may secure use of the timber, water, pasture, recreational facilities, and other resources of the forests. These efforts result in the production of material for industrial enterprises, in the protection of watersheds furnishing pure and abundant water to many towns and cities, in securing pasturage for cattle and sheep, and by the building and improvement of roads and trails, in furnishing for recreation seekers playgrounds otherwise inaccessible. Studies conditions and methods of forest utilization, eradication of poisonous plants from grazing lands, and the relation of forests to the public welfare generally. Issues publications on forestry and related problems; these may be obtained on application to the Forester, Washington, D. C. Photographs, lantern slides, lectures, and motion pictures on forestry and related subjects are available for educational purposes to anyone who will pay transportation charges and be responsible for breakage loss. Samples of commercial woods, maps illustrating forest regions, and charts containing information about forest products and the lumber industry may also be borrowed.

Office of Farm Management and Farm Economics studies farming from the standpoint of economics and efficiency of operation; has sections devoted to farm organization, cost of production, land utilization, farm financial relations, agricultural geography, and farm life studies. Gathers material by surveys or through questionnaires. Service is rendered through bulletins, correspondence, and personal advice, for the betterment of agriculture and rural life conditions. Bulletins on farm management and farm economics are issued at intervals; sent free upon application as long as the supply lasts. Issues "Directory of American Agricultural Organizations"; free to officers of farm organizations, libraries, and others interested. Maintains a file of photographic negatives of agricultural subjects, prints of which are available to the press, free on application. Field work is practically all research.

States Relations Service promotes agricultural research through agricultural experiment stations; aids agricultural education in schools; seeks to improve farming and home life through extension work in agriculture and home economics and through investigations in home economics. The extension service carries directly to the farms and homes of the country and endeavors to secure the adoption in practice of the best available information regarding agriculture and all phases of home economics, including nutrition work for undernourished children and others through (1) county agents, who deal with farm problems; (2) home demonstration agents, who deal with problems of the home; (3) club leaders, who carry on extension work with young people; (4) specialists in various branches of agriculture and home economics. Extension service may be secured through the county agricultural or home demonstration agent, or the director of extension at the State agricultural college. Information and data of various kinds relating to the local extension work can be obtained from the local agents, and information relating to the extension work in general through the director of extension at the State agricultural college. The Service publishes Experiment Station Record, a periodical in two volumes of 10 numbers each annually, which gives abstracts of publications reporting investigations in agricultural science in the U. S. and other countries and contains editorials and notes bearing on agricultural research. This periodical may be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C.; annual subscription, $2. Service also issues other publications relating to its work which may be obtained free, as long as the supply lasts, upon application to the chief of the Division of Publications of the Department of Agriculture or which may be purchased from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C.

Weather Bureau issues weather forecasts, and storm, cold wave, frost, and flood warnings. Gauges and reports river stages. Maintains and operates the U. S. Weather Bureau telegraph and telephone lines. Collects and transmits marine intelligence for the benefit of commerce and navigation. Reports temperature and rainfall conditions for agricultural interests. Records climatic conditions of the U. S. Many periodical publications are available upon application to the Chief.

Department of Christian Social Service. See Protestant Episcopal Church in the U. S. A., Department of Christian Social Service.

Department of Commerce, U. S., Washington, D. C. The Secretary of Commerce is charged with the work of promoting the commerce of the U. S. and its mining, manufacturing, shipping, fishery, and transportation interests. His duties also comprise the administration of the Lighthouse Service and the aid and protection to shipping thereby; the taking of the census, and the collection and publication of statistical information connected therewith; the making of coast and geodetic surveys; the collecting of statistics relating to foreign and domestic commerce; the inspection of steamboats, and the enforcement of laws relating thereto for the protection of life and property; the supervision of the fisheries as administered by the Federal Government; the supervision and control of the Alaskan fur-seal, salmon, and other fisheries; the jurisdiction over merchant vessels, their registry, licensing, measurement, entry, clearance, transfers, movement of their cargoes and passengers, and laws relating thereto, and to seamen of the U. S.; the regulation of the enforcement and execution of the act of Congress relating to the equipment of ocean steamers with apparatus and operators for wireless communication; the custody, construction, maintenance, and application of standards of weights and measurements; the gathering and supplying of information regarding industries and markets for the fostering of manufacturing; the formulation (in conjunction with the Secretaries of Agriculture and the Treasury) of regulations for the enforcement of the Food and Drugs Act of 1906 and the Insecticide Act of 1910. He has power to call upon other departments for statistical data obtained by them. The free distribution of many of the publications of the Department is confined to libraries, educational institutions, the press, and commercial organizations. "Coast Pilots", "Inside Route Pilots", "Tide Tables", and "Charts" are sold by the Coast and Geodetic Survey, and remittances for copies should be addressed to that bureau. Remittances for other publications of this Department should be sent direct to the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C., and not to the Department of Commerce. The Department operates through the following divisions: Appointment, Publication, Supplies, Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Navigation, and the Steamboat Inspection Service, as well as the bureaus described below.

Bureau of the Census: The taking of the decennial census, which covers the subjects of population, agriculture, manufactures, mines and quarries (including oil and gas wells), and forestry and forest products, is the chief function of the Bureau. During the years intervening between decennial censuses, statistics are collected at 10-year intervals in regard to dependent, defective, and delinquent classes; wealth, public indebtedness and expenditures, and taxation; religious bodies; transportation by water. The census of agriculture not only forms a part of each decennial census, but is also to be taken in each mid-decennial year. The census of manufactures is likewise included in the decennial census, and, in addition, has been taken in each mid-decennial year; in the future, however, a biennial inquiry is to be made in regard to the products of manufacturing industries. The censuses of electric light and power plants, street and electric railways, and telephones and telegraphs are taken quinquennially. At biennial intervals the "Official Register of the U. S." is compiled and published. Annual inquiries are made relating to births, deaths, finances of cities having over 30,000 inhabitants, "general" statistics of such cities, and finances of States. At quarterly intervals the Bureau collects and publishes statistics as to stocks of leaf tobacco in the hands of manufacturers and dealers. At monthly intervals statistics are published relating to cotton supply, consumption, and distribution; to cotton seed and its products; to hides, skins, and leather; at approximately semi-monthly intervals during the ginning season reports are issued showing the amounts of cotton ginned to specified dates. In addition to conducting the various inquiries specifically provided for by law, the Bureau of the Census from time to time makes such special and miscellaneous investigations as may be ordered by Congress, the President, or the Secretary of Commerce.

Bureau of Fisheries: The work of this Bureau comprises: (1) the propagation of useful food fishes, including lobsters, oysters, and other shellfish, and their distribution to suitable waters; (2) the inquiry into the causes of decrease of food fishes in the lakes, rivers, and coast waters of the U. S., the study of the waters of the coast and interior in the interest of fish culture, and the investigation of the fishing grounds of the Atlantic, Gulf, and Pacific coasts, with the view of determining their food resources and the development of the commercial fisheries; (3) the study of the methods of the fisheries and of the preservation and utilization of fisheries products, and the collection and compilation of statistics of the fisheries; (4) the administration of the salmon fisheries of Alaska, the fur-seal herd on the Pribilof Islands, and the care of the native inhabitants of those islands; (5) administration of the law for the protection of sponges off the coast of Florida.

Bureau of Lighthouses: The U. S. Lighthouse Service is charged with the establishment and maintenance of aids to navigation, and with all equipment and work incident thereto, on the sea and lake coasts of the U. S., and on the rivers of the U. S. so far as specifically authorized by law, and on the coasts of all other territory under the jurisdiction of the U. S., with the exception of the Philippine Islands and Panama. The Bureau publishes Light Lists and Buoy Lists, giving information regarding all aids to navigation maintained by the Lighthouse Service; it also publishes each week, jointly with the Coast and Geodetic Survey, Notices to Mariners, giving the changes in lights, buoys, and the like.

Bureau of Standards: The functions of this bureau are as follows: The custody of the standards; the comparison of the standards used in scientific investigations, engineering, manufacturing, commerce, and educational institutions with the standards adopted or recognized by the Government; the construction, when necessary, of standards, their multiples and subdivisions; the testing and calibration of standard measuring apparatus; the solution of problems which arise in connection with standards; the determination of physical constants and properties of materials, when such data are of great importance to scientific or manufacturing interests and are not to be obtained of sufficient accuracy elsewhere; and other investigations as authorized by Congress. The Bureau is authorized to exercise its functions for the Government of the U. S., for any State or municipal government within the U. S., or for any scientific society, educational institution, firm, corporation, or individual within the U. S. engaged in manufacturing or other pursuits requiring the use of standards or standard measuring instruments. For all comparisons, calibrations, tests, or investigations, except those performed for the Government of the U. S. or State governments, a reasonable fee will be charged.

Coast and Geodetic Survey is charged with the survey of the coasts of the U. S. and coasts under the jurisdiction thereof and the publication of charts covering said coasts. This includes base measure, triangulation, topography, and hydrography along said coasts; the survey of rivers to the head of tidewater or ship navigation; deep-sea soundings, temperature, and current observations along said coasts and throughout the Gulf and Japan Streams; magnetic observations and researches, and the publication of maps showing the variations of terrestrial magnetism; gravity research; determination of heights; determination of geographic positions by astronomic observations for attitude, longitude, and azimuth, and by triangulation, to furnish reference points for State surveys. The results obtained are published in annual reports and in special publications; charts upon various scales, including sailing charts, general charts of the coast, and harbor charts; tide tables issued annually in advance; Coast Pilots, with sailing directions covering the navigable waters; Notices to Mariners (published jointly by the Coast and Geodetic Survey and the Bureau of Lighthouses), issued weekly and containing current information necessary for safe navigation; catalogues of charts and publications; and such other special publications as may be required to carry out the organic law governing the Survey.

Department of the Interior, U. S., Washington, D. C. The Secretary of the Interior exercises supervision over the following bureaus and offices: Alaskan Engineering Commission, Capitol Building and Grounds, Education, Freedmen's Hospital, Geological Survey, Howard University, Indian, Land, Mines, National Parks and Monuments, Patent, Pension, Reclamation, St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Secretary's, Solicitor's, and the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii. The Department issues no list of publications in general. Lists are issued by the following bureaus of the Department: Bureau of Education, Bureau of Mines, General Land Office, Geological Survey, Patent Office, and Reclamation Service. Monthly lists of new publications of the Bureau of Education, Bureau of Mines, and Geological Survey are issued and sent to persons desiring to receive them; separate requests for free publications should be addressed to each bureau, or to the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C., for those publications for which a charge is made.

Board of Indian Commissioners is an unpaid board appointed by the President. Congress appropriates money for the expenses of the office of the Board and for travel, but the Board is not a bureau or division of any department. It is an independent body to which is afforded special opportunities for investigation in order that it may intelligently and impartially fulfill its duties of visiting and inspecting branches of the Indian Service, cooperating with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs of the Department of the Interior in the purchase and inspection of Indian supplies, and reporting to the Secretary of the Interior. It makes inspections and surveys of reservations and the needs of Indians living on them; also of schools, hospitals, agencies, land, and related topics. Issues an Annual Report which may be secured without charge by addressing the Board of Indian Commissioners, Interior Department Bldg., Washington, D. C.

Bureau of Education collects statistics and other information showing the conditions and progress of education in the several States and Territories and all foreign countries. Diffuses information respecting the organization and management of schools, school systems, and methods of teaching. Conducts surveys and research studies, holds conferences, gives lectures and addresses. Field workers of the Bureau go to communities and assist in various kinds of educational work if community will pay traveling expenses. Library makes collections of textbooks and other educational material; compiles and circulates educational bibliographies; issues leaflets and monthly records of current educational publications. Divisions of Child Health, City School Administration, Higher Education, and Kindergarten conduct work along lines indicated by their titles. Rural Division conducts conferences and prepares reports regarding conditions in rural regions. Bureau publishes bulletins on the various phases of education, leaflets on secondary education, circulars, reading courses and lessons. Issues School Life twice a month. Publications available upon application to the Bureau. Moving-picture films and lantern slides also are loaned on application to the Bureau.

Bureau of Mines studies mining, metallurgy, and mineral technology. It conducts inquiries and scientific and technologic investigations concerning mining, and the preparation, treatment, and utilization of mineral substances, with a view to improving health conditions, increasing safety, efficiency and economic development, and conserving resources through the prevention of waste in the mining, quarrying, metallurgical, and other mineral industries. It also makes inquiries into the economic conditions affecting these industries; investigates the mineral fuels and unfinished mineral products belonging to, or for the use of, the U. S., with a view to their most efficient mining, preparation, treatment, and use; investigates explosives and peat; publishes bulletins concerning these subjects. It supervises the oil and coal leases on Government land. The Bureau has 10 mine-rescue stations equipped with motor rescue trucks and 10 mine-rescue railroad cars which are used in the work of teaching mine-rescue and first-aid methods to miners. Bureau gives certificates of training to those who complete 15 hours of intensive work. The mine-rescue course includes wearing of breathing apparatus in irrespirable gases, and the first-aid course includes the applying of proper bandages and the use of correct methods for each kind of injury. Bureau issues, from time to time, miners' circulars and once a year a "Miners' Safety Health Almanac". These are issued in simple language so as to be readily understood by the miners; they tell the miner what to do to make his work safe. These publications are obtainable free on request to the Bureau of Mines. A complete list of Bureau publications may be secured from the Director, Bureau of Mines.

Bureau of Pensions grants and pays pensions arising out of claims in connection with U. S. Army and Navy service rendered prior to October 6, 1917. Receives and answers inquiries relating to individual pension claims, miscellaneous inquiries relative to provisions of the various pension laws and regulations, and also inquiries concerning pension statistics. Special examiners for the investigation of pension cases have no fixed post of duty, but are always under the immediate supervision of the Bureau at Washington. Considers all claims for annuities, refunds, and allowances arising under the Act of May 22, 1920, providing for the retirement of employees in the classified civil service. Publications available for distribution are: Annual Report of the Commissioner of Pensions, pamphlets, leaflets, and mimeographed circulars concerning pensions, pension laws and regulations, and blank forms upon which to prepare claims for pension. The Revolutionary War Section has on file the claims for pension and bounty land on account of service rendered during the War of the Revolution, which records are open to the public and persons in search of historical data. All communications should be addressed to the Commissioner of Pensions.

Freedmen's Hospital (est. 1865), Bryant St. between 4th and 6th

Sts. NW., Washington, D. C. Offers treatment free or at a low cost to colored persons of any age from the District of Columbia and from other localities. Service is not restricted to Negroes, but the majority of patients are colored. Does not receive chronic, contagious, or incurable cases. Maintains a free dispensary and out-patient department. Conducts a training school for nurses with a three-year course. All communications should be addressed to the Surgeon in Chief.

General Land Office surveys and disposes of the public lands. Works through its district land offices and field officers. Publishes circulars on the following and related topics: Alaska, certified copies of records and papers, coal land, desert land, homesteads (enlarged, stock-raising, within national forests), Indian lands, mining, practice, publication of notices, public sales, reclamation, repayments, rights of way, State selections, surveying, timber and stone, and vacant public land. These circulars are issued for general distribution; requests should be addressed to the Commissioner of the General Land Office, Washington, D. C. Photolithographic copies of plats, representing Government surveys and general topography in townships 6 miles square or less (Ala., Ark., Fla., Ill., Ind., Iowa, Kans., La., Mich., Minn., Miss., Mo., Nebr., N. Dak., S. Dak., Ohio, Okla., Wis., and the other States west of the Mississippi River, except Texas), can be secured from this office at 50 cents each. Maps of public-land States are sold by the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, 25 cents each, except that of California, which is 50 cents; a large wall map of the U. S., including Territorial and Insular Possessions, prepared by this office, is sold at $2 a copy by the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C.

Geological Survey has charge of the classification of the public lands and the examination of the geologic structure, mineral resources, and mineral products of the country. Makes topographic and geologic surveys and investigations of water resources; classifies land, prepares maps, and conducts laboratory work. Cooperates with various other Federal departments and bureaus in this work. Maintains the largest geologic library in the country, consisting of books, pamphlets, and maps; available for general reference purposes. Has prepared a collection of geologic photographs which illustrate every phase of geology. Lists of publications are furnished on application to the Geological Survey. Price list of available maps, both topographic and geologic, supplied on application to the Director. Survey has collection of photographs which can be obtained at a moderate charge; list furnished on request.

Howard University (inc. 1867), 6th St., Georgia Ave. and Howard L. NW., Washington, D. C. For the higher education of colored youth of both sexes. Offers the usual college degrees. Its departments are: Academy, Commercial College, Dental College, School of Law, Manual Training School, Medical College, Pharmaceutic College, Teachers' College, and School of Theology. Estimated expenses of students for the school year are $300 to $400, including board but not including railroad fare, clothing and other incidental personal expenses. Opportunities for work in and outside the University enable some students to earn part of their expenses. These opportunities are mainly for young men. A limited fund is available at the discretion of the faculty to meet unusual needs of students. A few prizes for scholarship are offered. University is supported by Congressional appropriations and private donations. Annual Report and information circulars available on application. All communications should be addressed to the president of the University.

National Park Service administers and protects the National Parks and the majority of the National Monuments. General Engineering Department formulates plans for new roads, trails, and bridges, and gathers data on them. Landscape Engineering Department plans the location and development of permanent camps and automobile camps; marks Park entrances; designs buildings and criticizes designs for buildings and bridges to be erected in the Parks; eliminates dead timber; clears vistas and does other landscape work. Service seeks to coordinate the distribution of Park-travel information; supplies information to prospective Park visitors. Photographs of the National Parks are loaned, without charge, for purpose of illustration. Motion-picture films and lantern slides of Park scenes may be borrowed by any interested person or organization, the only expense being the payment of transportation charges in both directions, the loan being conditional on the safe return of slides and films. Publishes illustrated circulars, automobile and other maps, and bulletins describing Parks and Monuments; issued for free distribution or for sale. All communications should be addressed to the Director.

Office of Indian Affairs manages Indian affairs and matters arising out of Indian relations. This involves the promotion of the health of Indians; the education of their children; the development of their lands and the leasing of such surplus land as they cannot handle; the improvement of their live stock; betterment of their homes and the rationing of their needy and destitute; the perpetuation of the best in their native arts; the development of natural resources such as timber, minerals, and oil on their lands; the adjustment of all inheritance matters; the maintenance of law and order among Indians in the interest of their property rights and morals; the equitable distribution of their moneys; and the determination of their competency as a basis for issuing fee patents to their lands. Offers Indian children education through non-reservation boarding schools, reservation boarding schools, and day schools under Government control; also through public schools and mission schools under the care and control of denominational authorities. Field work is organized by reservations, with superintendents in charge of the various jurisdictions, who are administratively responsible for the general educational and industrial interests. Divisions of field work are: Education, Field Inspection and Supervision, Forestry, Health, Irrigation, Liquor Suppression, and Live Stock. Annual Report of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, free on request, is a source of information to anyone interested in the social, educational, and industrial conditions of the Indians.

Patent Office receives and examines applications for patents and for registration of trade-marks, prints, and labels. Publishes Official Gazette, weekly, subscriptions for which at $5 a year should be addressed to the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C.

Reclamation Service builds and operates large irrigation works in the arid western States; investigates and surveys possible additional projects. Has built the highest dam in the world, on the Boise River, Idaho, and the one storing the greatest quantity of irrigation water on the Rio Grande in New Mexico. Has built canals, tunnels, and dams as well as many thousands of bridges, culverts, and other constructions. Projects under way or completed embrace over 3,000,000 acres of land to be irrigated. The Reclamation Service publishes an Annual Report and a monthly Reclamation Record; the former may be obtained free, and the latter at 75 cents a year upon application to the Service.

St. Elizabeth's Hospital (est. 1855), Congress Heights, Washington, D. C. Offers care for the insane of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Public Health Service; insane residents of the District of Columbia; U. S. prisoners before and after conviction; inmates of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, and of the Soldiers' Home, Washington, D. C.; insane American citizens in the Canal Zone whose residence in the U. S. cannot be ascertained; insane interned persons and prisoners of war under the jurisdiction of the Navy or War Departments. Conducts a training school for nurses with a two-year course. All communications should be addressed to the Superintendent.

Department of Justice, U. S., Washington, D. C. The Attorney General is the head of the Department of Justice and the chief law officer of the Government. He represents the U. S. in matters involving legal questions; he gives his advice and opinion, when they are required by the President, or by the heads of the other executive departments, on questions of law arising in the administration of their respective departments; he appears in the Supreme Court of the U. S. in cases of special gravity and importance; exercises a general superintendence and direction over U. S. attorneys and marshals in all judicial districts in the States and Territories; provides special counsel for the U. S. whenever required by any department of the Government.

Attorney in Charge of Pardons handles all applications for executive clemency, except those in Army and Navy cases which are referred to the Secretary of War and Secretary of the Navy, respectively.

Director and Chief of the Bureau of Investigation has general supervision of investigation of offenses against the laws of the U. S. not otherwise specifically provided for, and directs the work of all special agents of the Department for the detection of crimes and the prosecution of offenders.

Superintendent of Prisons, under the direction of the Attorney General, has charge of all matters relating to U. S. prisons and prisoners, including support of such prisoners in State and Federal penitentiaries, reform schools, and county jails. He is president of the boards of parole for U. S. penitentiaries and for U. S. prisoners in each State or county institution used for their confinement.

Department of Labor, U. S., Washington, D. C. The Secretary of Labor is charged with the duty of fostering, promoting, and developing the welfare of the wage-earners of the U. S., improving their working conditions and advancing their opportunities for profitable employment. He is empowered to act as mediator and to appoint commissioners of conciliation in labor disputes whenever in his judgment the interests of industrial peace may require it. He has authority to direct the collecting and collating of full and complete statistics of the conditions of labor, to gather and publish information regarding labor interests and labor controversies in this and other countries; he supervises the immigration of aliens and enforces the laws relating thereto, and to the exclusion of the Chinese; directs the administration of the naturalization laws; directs work of investigating all matters pertaining to welfare of children and child life and causes to be published such results of these investigations as he may deem wise and appropriate.

Bureau of Immigration administers laws relating to immigration, including the alien contract labor and Chinese exclusion laws and laws relating to the expulsion from the country of aliens not lawfully entitled to be or remain here. Maintains immigration stations at ports of entry and on the borders and offices in many of the principal cities of the country. Through the Division of Information, it seeks to promote a beneficial distribution of admitted aliens, and accurately informs immigrant aliens of opportunities awaiting them in this country. Publications of the Division consist of statistical studies and bulletins on the "resources, products, and physical characteristics of each State and Territory". They may be had upon application to the Commissioner.

Bureau of Labor Statistics diffuses useful information on subjects connected with labor in the most comprehensive sense of the word, and especially upon its relation to capital; hours of labor; earnings of laboring men and women, and the best means of promoting their material, social, intellectual, and moral prosperity. Issues series of bulletins: "Wages and Hours of Labor"; "Employment and Unemployment"; "Women in Industry"; "Workmen's Insurance and Compensation"; "Industrial Accidents and Hygiene"; and others. Publishes The Monthly Labor Review, dealing with matters of current interest relating to labor in various phases in the U. S. and foreign countries. To obtain publications, apply to U. S. Commissioner of Labor Statistics, Washington, D. C., except for The Monthly Labor Review which is distributed on subscription basis by the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C., at $1.50 a year.

Bureau of Naturalization supervises the naturalization of aliens, and furnishes general information on the subject. It has administrative supervision over the naturalization of aliens in U. S. and State Courts. Chief Naturalization Examiners have immediate charge of the naturalization districts into which the country is divided. Each Chief Examiner has a staff of Naturalization Examiners who travel through their territory. Service may be obtained by addressing the Bureau in Washington or its nearest field office. Through its Division of Citizenship Training the Bureau promotes in the public schools the organization and maintenance of classes in English and citizenship for candidates for naturalization; supplies free material for this classroom work, and aids and cooperates with official State and national organizations and other groups in the support of the public schools in their Americanization activities. Bureau issues regular publications as follows: "Naturalization Laws and Regulations"; Annual Report of the Commissioner of Naturalization; these may be secured from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. Special publications are: "Federal Citizenship Textbooks", for candidates for citizenship enrolled in the public schools; Teachers' Manuals; "Syllabus of Naturalization Law", for public schools and others concerned.

Children's Bureau is directed by law to investigate and report upon all matters pertaining to children and child life. Investigates the questions of infant mortality and infant care, birth rate, maternity care and maternal mortality, orphanages, juvenile courts, family desertion, dangerous occupations for children, child labor, accidents and diseases of children, and legislation affecting children in the several States and Territories. Conducts children's health conferences especially in remote rural areas and has an experimental motor Child Welfare Conference for this purpose which is in charge of a doctor and nurse and which conducts health examinations free. Makes intensive studies of various aspects of child welfare, social, industrial, economic, and hygienic. Publishes results of such studies in series on the following general subjects: care of children; children's year, children's year follow-up; conference; defective, dependent and delinquent classes; industrial topics; infant mortality; legal topics; rural child welfare; and miscellaneous subjects. Has issued a series of popular bulletins on prenatal, infant, and child care. These have been prepared for the practical use of mothers and are sent free upon application. Also issues an Annual Report, leaflets, circulars, and newsletters. Many of its publications may be secured from the Bureau; others may be bought from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. List of publications sent free on application to the Bureau.

Commissioner on Conciliation represents the Negro race before the Department and seeks to settle labor troubles among Negroes. Has gathered statistical and other data relative to Negro workers. Has issued "Negro Migration in 1916-17", "The Negro at Work during the World War and during Reconstruction", and a bulletin on the approximate trend of industrial employment and unemployment among Negroes; distributed free through the Department or the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C.

U. S. Employment Service promotes the welfare of the wage-earners of the U. S. by advancing their opportunities for profitable employment by maintaining a national system of employment offices in several States. Coordinates the public employment offices by furnishing and publishing information as to opportunities for employment and by maintaining a system for clearing labor between the several States. Through cooperation with State and municipal employment offices, receives applications from employers seeking help and from individuals seeking employment. Information regarding interstate or interzone clearance may be obtained by communicating with the Administrative Offices, Washington, D. C. Publications of this Service are its Annual Reports and a set of 13 pamphlets, "Descriptions of Occupations"; furnished on request. Publishes monthly The Industrial Employment Survey Bulletin, which gives employment information, analyzed and tabulated according to industrial groups and geographical divisions, and employment comments from authoritative sources; free upon application.

Women's Bureau formulates standards and policies designed to promote the welfare of wage-earning women, improve their working conditions, increase their efficiency, and advance their opportunity for profitable employment. Has authority to investigate and report to the Department of Labor upon all matters pertaining to the welfare of women in industry. Lantern slides, a 15-panel exhibit, and an educational exhibit are available for use by State labor departments, schools, colleges, and other organizations. An educational film, "When Women Work", is loaned by the Bureau, or sold for about $175. Publications furnished upon application to the Bureau.

Department of State, U. S., Washington, D. C. The Secretary of State, under the direction of the President, corresponds with public ministers and consuls of the U. S., and with representatives of foreign powers accredited to this country. Negotiates all matters relating to the foreign affairs of the U. S. Grants and issues passports. Publishes laws and resolutions of Congress, amendments to the Constitution, and proclamations declaring the admission of new States to the Union.

Consular Bureau: Consular officers are expected to maintain and promote the rightful interests of American citizens; to protect them in all privileges provided by treaty or conceded by usage; to visé and, when authorized, to issue passports; to take charge of and settle the personal estates of Americans who die abroad without legal or other representatives, and remit the proceeds to the U. S. Treasury if they are not claimed for by a legal representative within one year; to ship, discharge, and, under certain conditions, maintain and send to this country American seamen; to settle disputes arising between masters and seamen of American ships; to investigate charges of mutiny or insubordination on the high seas, sending the offenders to the U. S. for trial; to render assistance to wrecked or stranded American vessels, and in the absence of the master or other qualified person, to take charge of the wrecks and cargoes, if permitted by the laws of the country; to receive the papers of American ships arriving at foreign ports and deliver them when certain obligations have been discharged and proper clearances reduced; to certify to the correct valuation of goods exported to the U. S.; to act as official witnesses for American citizens married abroad; to aid in the enforcement of immigration laws; to protect the health of our seamen by weekly reports on the sanitary and health conditions of the ports where they are stationed and by issuing to ships clearing for this country bills of health describing conditions of vessels, ports, and crews; to perform duties required of notaries public in this country; to promote American commerce by aiding in the establishment of relations between American and foreign commercial houses. Circulars issued on application to the appointment division are: "Information Regarding Appointments and Promotions in the Consular Service of the U. S.", and "Information Regarding Appointments and Promotions in the Student-Interpreter Corps of the U. S. in China, Japan, and Turkey".

Division of Passport Control examines applications for passports and for registration in American consulates in foreign countries. It approves or disapproves applications; issues passports; passes upon evidence concerning the right of American citizens to protection abroad; conducts correspondence with applicants, with their representatives and with American diplomatic and consular officers; controls documentation of alien seamen in American ports and all American seamen in foreign ports; controls the issue of border permits (Canadian and Mexican) for aliens entering the U. S. Clerks of such Federal and State courts as can naturalize aliens execute passport applications in the U. S. American Consuls execute applications for passports and for registration of Americans while abroad. Division keeps records of all the foregoing activities.

Department of the Treasury, U. S., Washington, D. C. The Secretary of the Treasury is charged by law with the management of the national finances. He prepares plans for the improvement of the revenue and for the support of the public credit; superintends the collection of the revenue, and directs the forms of keeping and rendering public accounts and of making returns; grants warrants for all moneys drawn from the Treasury in pursuance of appropriations made by law, and for the payment of moneys into the Treasury; annually submits to Congress estimates of the probable revenues and disbursements of the Government. He controls the construction and maintenance of public buildings; the coinage and printing of money; the administration of the Coast Guard and the Public Health branches of the public service. Publications of the Department may be obtained from the different Bureaus on application.

Bureau of Internal Revenue superintends the collection of all internal revenue taxes and the enforcement of internal revenue laws and the national prohibition act. Through its field workers aims to afford free and convenient local service to taxpayers. Division of Technology receives and examines formulæ of medicinal preparations and flavoring extracts to determine their alcoholic content; makes chemical analyses of narcotic preparations and drugs; analyzes samples of various commodities to determine their taxability under the internal revenue laws. Income Tax Unit administers the income and profit tax laws. Maintains an income tax information service. This service consists of weekly Bulletins which may be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C.; $2 a year. Capital Stock Tax Division serves as a valuation body. Estate Tax Division, mainly a legal unit, administers Federal laws relating to the descent, distribution, and management of property. Child Labor Tax Division administers the Federal Child Labor Tax Law. The basis for this tax is employment of children (a) under 16 in mines or quarries, (b) under 14 in mills, canneries, workshops, factories or manufacturing establishments, (c) between 14 and 16 more than 8 hours in any day or more than 6 days in any week or after 7 p. m. or before 6 a. m. The amount of tax imposed for non-observance of these standards is 10 per cent of the annual net profits of the taxpayer. Division has assembled and made studies of child labor laws and certification forms of the various States. Through its field workers, Division inspects plants where children are employed. Sales Tax Division administers laws relating to sales and miscellaneous taxes. It maintains a sales tax information service which consists of regular monthly Bulletins issued throughout the calendar year, and Cumulative Bulletins issued in July and December. These may be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C.; $1 a year. Prohibition Unit, created for the purpose of enforcing the national prohibition act, cooperates in this work with the law-enforcing officers of States, counties, and municipal governments.

Coast Guard renders assistance to vessels in distress and saves life and property; destroys and removes wrecks, derelicts and other floating dangers to navigation; extends medical aid to American vessels engaged in deep-sea fisheries; protects the customs revenue; operates as a part of the Navy in time of war or when the President so directs; enforces law and regulations governing anchorage of vessels in navigable waters, and law relating to quarantine and neutrality; suppresses mutinies on merchant vessels; enforces navigation and other laws governing merchant vessels and motor boats, and law providing for safety of life on navigable waters during regattas and marine parades; protects game, and the seal and other fisheries in Alaska; enforces sponge-fishing laws; conducts international ice patrol duty; reports findings to the U. S. Navy Department, and sends broadcast warnings of the location of icebergs and field ice along the trans-Atlantic steamship lanes; cruises along the coast during the winter months. Administers laws regulating the anchorage and movement of vessels in certain ports. Issues no publications for general distribution but has a collection of photographs and transparencies which may be borrowed for exhibition purposes by special arrangement with the Commodore Commandant of the Coast Guard, Washington, D. C.

Federal Farm Loan Board administers the Federal Farm Loan Act. It established the 12 Federal land banks; fixed their respective districts, appointed the temporary directors of each of them, supervises their operations, appoints their registrars and appraisers, and has power to grant charters to national farm loan associations and joint-stock land banks. It makes appraisal of farm lands and prepares and publishes amortization tables. It supervises the operation of national farm loan associations and joint-stock land banks. It is its duty to disseminate by publications of its own and through the press, matter setting forth the advantages to borrowers and investors of the system of loans established by the Act. It may authorize Federal land banks to appoint agents for the making of loans to farmers in localities which fail to form farm loan associations. It has the power to revise and alter rates of interest charged by Federal land banks; to grant or refuse to Federal land banks or joint-stock land banks authority to make any specific issue of bonds; to control charges made to borrowers for expenses incident to the making of loans; to require Federal land banks to meet their obligations to each other, and to exercise such incidental powers as are necessary or requisite to fulfill its duties and carry out the purposes of the Federal Farm Loan Act. Free circulars of information are furnished on application to the Board.

Public Health Service operates through its bureaus, some of which are described below.

Division of Domestic (Interstate) Quarantine enforces the act relating to the prevention of the spread of contagious or infectious diseases from one State or Territory into another. This includes the suppression of epidemics and the sanitation of interstate carriers.

Division of Foreign and Insular Quarantine and Immigration: Surgeon General enforces the national quarantine laws and prepares the regulations relating thereto. He has control of 44 Federal quarantine stations in the U. S., and others in the Philippines, Hawaii, and Porto Rico, and supervises the medical officers detailed in the offices of the American consular officers at foreign ports to prevent the introduction of contagious or infectious diseases into the U. S. He has supervision over the medical officers engaged in the physical and mental examinations of all arriving aliens.

Division of Marine Hospitals and Relief provides hospital care and treatment for beneficiaries at 20 marine hospitals and 43 Public Health Service hospitals, including 13 sanatoria for tuberculosis and 9 for mental and nervous diseases. Medical examination and out-patient treatment is provided at 3,072 other relief stations. The beneficiaries include seamen and officers of registered, enrolled, or licensed merchant vessels of the U. S. and of the Coast Guard and Lighthouse Service; keepers and assistant keepers of lighthouses; civil employees injured while in the performance of their duty; discharged sick and disabled soldiers, sailors, and marines, Army and Navy nurses, who are patients of the War Risk Insurance Bureau; seamen employed on vessels of the Mississippi River Commission and of the Engineer Corps of the Army; keepers and surfmen of the Coast Guard; and employees of vessels of the Coast and Geodetic Survey, and of the Bureau of Fisheries. A purveying depot for the purchase and issuance of supplies is maintained at Washington. Physical examinations are made of members of the Coast Guard; claimants under the War Risk Insurance Bureau; claimants under the Employees' Compensation Commission; applicants for vocational training by the Federal Board for Vocational Education; applicants for positions in the classified civil service; and for the detection of color blindness in masters, mates, and pilots. The medical evidence of disability in claims for benefits against the Coast Guard is reviewed.

Division of Sanitary Reports and Statistics collects and publishes information regarding the prevalence and geographic distribution of diseases dangerous to the public health of the U. S. and foreign countries. Court decisions, laws, regulations, and ordinances pertaining to the public health are compiled, digested, and published. Its publications contain articles on subjects relating to the public health. This division issues the Public Health Reports (weekly), and Supplements to, and Reprints from, the Public Health Reports.

Division of Scientific Research conducts the scientific investigations of the Service. Intensive studies of diseases of man, including influenza, malaria, pellagra, pneumonia, trachoma, tuberculosis, and typhoid fever; child, school, mental, and industrial hygiene; of rural sanitation; of public health administration; of morbidity; of milk; of water supplies and sewage are carried on from special headquarters in the field in cooperation with State and local health authorities. Technical and purely laboratory studies are conducted at the Hygienic Laboratory in Washington, at special field laboratories, and at the leprosy investigation station in Hawaii. Information thus obtained is disseminated through publications, correspondence, lectures, and conferences with health authorities concerning the results of field studies in their jurisdictions. Through this division the Department enforces the act of July 1, 1902, to regulate the sale of viruses, serums, toxins, and analogous products, including arsphenamine. The Division is in charge of control measures of trachoma, through the establishment of hospitals and clinics in the Appalachian Mountain district and other points where the disease is prevalent. The Surgeon General is required by law to call an annual conference of State and Territorial health authorities; special conferences may also be called at any time. For advice in respect to scientific investigations he may convene the advisory board of the Hygiene Laboratory.

Division of Venereal Diseases was created "(1) to study and investigate the cause, treatment, and prevention of venereal diseases; (2) to cooperate with State boards or departments of health for the prevention and control of such diseases within the States; (3) to control and prevent the spread of these diseases in interstate traffic." The Division is organized to carry out the duties assigned to it by the Act. Cooperative venereal disease clinics have been established in approximately 300 locations. At these clinics venereally infected persons are receiving modern scientific treatment and are controlled by laboratory methods. The service cooperates with State boards of health in 46 States which have qualified to receive their share of allotments from the Chamberlain-Kahn funds. A comprehensive nation-wide campaign for securing the necessary educational publicity regarding the seriousness of venereal diseases is being carried on. Hundreds of agencies are cooperating with the Public Health Service in the extension of this work. Interstate quarantine regulations to prevent the spread of these diseases in interstate traffic have been promulgated by the Secretary of the Treasury.

General Inspection Section carries out all special investigations and makes inspections of all activities of the Service.

Public Health Education Section aims to constitute itself a national center or clearing house on the subject of public health education. Plans are under way whereby all the ordinary vehicles of publicity and education will be utilized. This will involve the preparation of press bulletins and the utilization of stereomats and plates, the publication of lithographed health posters, the organization of a lecture service, the administration of a loan library of stereopticon slides and moving pictures, the preparation and organization of traveling exhibits, the maintenance of a public health information bureau, and the employment of such other educational methods as the circumstances may indicate. It is planned to carry on these activities in close cooperation with State and local health authorities and with important national health organizations. In addition, the Public Health Bureau issues a great number and variety of health publications, consisting of laboratory and technical bulletins, popular health pamphlets, publications for the assistance of health officers, and also posters, placards, and charts.

Desertion Bureau. See National Desertion Bureau.

Dietetic Association. See American Dietetic Association.

Disaster Relief, Preparedness for. See American National Red Cross.

Disciples of Christ. See United Christian Missionary Society.

Division of Foreign and Insular Quarantine and Immigration. See Department of the Treasury, U. S., Public Health Service.

Division Offices and Chapters, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

Division of Passport Control. See Department of State, U. S.

Domestic Missions Board. See Reformed Church in America, Board of Domestic Missions.

Economic Association. See American Economic Association.

Economic League. See National Economic League.

Economic Research Bureau. See National Bureau of Economic Research.

Education Association. See National Education Association.

Education Board. See General Education Board.

Educational Service, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

Embassies and Legations to the U. S.

- ARGENTINA: Embassy, 1806 Corcoran St. NW., Washington, D. C.
BELGIUM: Embassy, 1780 Massachusetts Ave. NW., Washington, D. C.
BOLIVIA: Legation, 2400 Sixteenth St. NW., Washington, D. C.
BRAZIL: Embassy, 1603 H St. NW., Washington, D. C.
BULGARIA: Legation, 1821 Jefferson Pl. NW., Washington, D. C.
CHILE: Embassy, 1013-1015 Woodward Bldg., Washington, D. C.
CHINA: Legation, 2001 Nineteenth St. NW., Washington, D. C.
COLOMBIA: Legation, 1327 Sixteenth St. NW., Washington, D. C.
COSTA RICA: Legation, 2230 California St. NW., Washington, D. C.
CUBA: Legation, 2630 Sixteenth St. NW., Washington, D. C.
CZECHO-SLOVAKIA: Legation, 1734 N St. NW., Washington, D. C.
DENMARK: Legation, 434 Southern Bldg., Washington, D. C.
DOMINICAN REPUBLIC: Legation, 1631 Massachusetts Ave. NW., Washington, D. C.
ECUADOR: Legation, 1633 Sixteenth St. NW., Washington, D. C.
FINLAND: Legation, 1041-1044 Munsey Bldg., Washington, D. C.
FRANCE: Embassy, 2460 Sixteenth St. NW., Washington, D. C.
GREAT BRITAIN: Embassy, 1301 Nineteenth St. NW., Washington, D. C.
GREECE: Legation, 1838 Connecticut Ave. NW., Washington, D. C.
GUATEMALA: Legation, 2800 Ontario Rd. NW., Washington, D. C.
HAITI: Legation, 819 Fifteenth St. NW., Washington, D. C.
HONDURAS: Legation, The Northumberland, New Hampshire Ave. and V St. NW., Washington, D. C.
ITALY: Embassy, 1400 New Hampshire Ave. NW., Washington, D. C.
JAPAN: Embassy, 1310 N St. NW., Washington, D. C.
LUXEMBURG: Legation, The Powhatan, Washington, D. C.
MEXICO: Embassy, 2829 Sixteenth St. NW., Washington, D. C.
NETHERLANDS: Legation, 1800 Connecticut Ave. NW., Washington, D. C.
NICARAGUA: Legation, Wardman Park Hotel, Washington, D. C.
NORWAY: Legation, The Wyoming, Columbia Rd. and California St. NW., Washington, D. C.
PANAMA: Legation, 2400 Sixteenth St. NW., Washington, D. C.
PARAGUAY: Legation, Room 1672, Woolworth Bldg., New York, N. Y.
PERSIA: Legation, 1513 Sixteenth St. NW., Washington, D. C.
PERU: Embassy, 2726 Connecticut Ave. NW., Washington, D. C.
POLAND: Legation, 2640 Sixteenth St. NW., Washington, D. C.
PORTUGAL: Legation, Wardman Park Hotel, Washington, D. C.
ROUMANIA: Legation, 402 Continental Trust Bldg., Washington, D. C.
RUSSIA: Embassy, 1125 Sixteenth St. NW., Washington, D. C.
SALVADOR: Legation, Wardman Park Hotel, Washington, D. C.
SERBS, CROATS, AND SLOVENES: Legation, 1339 Connecticut Ave. NW., Washington, D. C.
SIAM: Legation, 2308 Wyoming Ave. NW., Washington, D. C.
SPAIN: Embassy, The Calverton, Columbia and Quarry Rds. NW., Washington, D. C.
SWEDEN: Legation, 1201 Sixteenth St. NW., Washington, D. C.
SWITZERLAND: Legation, 2013 Hillyer Pl. NW., Washington, D. C.; 1439 Massachusetts Ave. NW., Washington, D. C.
URUGUAY: Legation, 312 Southern Bldg., Washington, D. C.
VENEZUELA: Legation, 1406 Massachusetts Ave. N.W., Washington, D. C.

Employees' Compensation Commission, U. S., Washington, D. C.
 Under the U. S. Employees' Compensation Act, the Commission furnishes reasonable medical, surgical, and hospital services and supplies in case of injuries sustained by civil employees of the Government while in the performance of duty, and pays compensation when the loss of wages due to disability continues for more than three days. Medical, surgical, and hospital service is furnished as far as practicable by the physicians and surgeons in Government hospitals, but if not practicable, by physicians designated or approved by the Commission. Commission acts in cooperation with Government officials and upon reports from them; also acts upon reports from injured employees themselves. Special agents investigate cases that arise, and visit Government establishments and hospitals when necessary to instruct officials in regard to the administration of the Compensation Act and the furnishing of service under it. The Annual Report is the only regular publication.

Endowment for International Peace. See Carnegie Endowment for International Peace.

Engineering Foundation of New York (org. 1914), 29 West 39th St., New York, N. Y. Joint research organization of representatives of the American Societies of Civil, Mining, Metallurgical, Mechanical, and Electrical Engineers. Has been conducting an investigation into the mental condition of industrial workers and making a study of mentally abnormal persons in industrial plants; this study is discontinued at present. Has cooperated with the National Research Council (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook) and other agencies in performing research connected with engineering. Supported by endowment. Is conducting a campaign for increase of its endowment fund to $5,000,000 for furtherance of research in science, engineering, and public welfare.

Epworth League (org. 1889), 740 Rush St., Chicago, Ill. A young people's organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Organizes Leagues in churches throughout the country. Local groups have departments of spiritual work, world evangelism, social service, recreation and culture, and carry on work along these lines. League holds educational institutes for young people in various parts of the country, particularly during the summer months. These institutes study social service and related subjects. Central office publishes the Epworth League Quarterly and the Junior Workers' Quarterly, each 50 cents a year. Junior Epworth Leagues are also organized under the auspices of the Epworth League.

Estate Tax Division. See Department of the Treasury, U. S., Bureau of Internal Revenue.

Evangelical Association (org. 1807), 1903 Woodland Ave., Cleveland, Ohio. To promote religious and social reform. Sustains domestic and foreign missions; a college; two seminaries; hospitals; a Deaconess Home; two Old People's Homes, and an Orphan Home. Work is carried on by the following organizations: Missionary Society; Woman's Missionary Society; Church Extension Society; Sunday School and Tract Union; Young People's Alliance; Deaconess Board; and Orphan Home Board. Association publishes The Evangelical Messenger, weekly, $2.50 a year; The Missionary Monthly, 50 cents a year; two periodicals in German; and papers in both English and German for Sunday schools and young people's societies.

Evangelical Lutheran Augustana Synod of N. A. (org. 1860), Secy., Rev. Joseph A. Anderson, D. D., Boxholm, Iowa. Supports homes for the aged; primarily for members of the Synod although others may also be received. Maintains six orphanages and receiving homes for children for whom adoption is sought; two immigrant homes; colleges; two seamen's missions with homes; two Deaconess institutions; five hospitals for the sick of every nationality and creed. Holds annual meetings, open to the public. Publishes a weekly newspaper, The Augustana, $1.50 a year, and the Lutheran Companion, weekly, also $1.50 a year. Synod is supported by membership dues and voluntary contributions.

Evangelical Lutheran Church of America. See Finnish Evangelical Lutheran Church of America.

Evangelical Lutheran National Church. See Finnish Evangelical Lutheran National Church of America.

Executive Committee of Home Missions. See Presbyterian Church in the U. S. (South), Executive Committee of Home Missions.

Executive Committee, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

Eye Sight Conservation Council of America (org. 1920), Genl. Dir., Guy Henry, Times Bldg., New York, N. Y. Works for the conservation and improvement of vision by arousing public interest in eye hygiene, especially as it relates to defective vision and the protection of the eyes in hazardous occupations. Plans to disseminate knowledge regarding optics; to circulate literature on the proper lighting of homes, schools, factories, offices, and private and public buildings. Works for the promotion of periodic eye examinations, especially of school children and industrial workers. Plans to conduct a nation-wide "save-your-sight" campaign.

Falcons Alliance of America. See Polish Falcons Alliance of America.

Farm and Garden Association. See Woman's National Farm and Garden Association.

Farm Loan Bureau, Federal. See Department of the Treasury, U. S.

Federal Board for Vocational Education, Washington, D. C. This Board was created by the Vocational Education Act (known as the Smith-Hughes Act), approved February 23, 1917. Its functions are defined in this act, and in two acts subsequently passed, and in several amendments, as follows: The Vocational Rehabilitation Act, providing for the rehabilitation of disabled soldiers, sailors, and marines, approved June 27, 1918, and amended February 26, 1919, and July 11, 1919; the Industrial Rehabilitation Act to provide for the promotion of vocational rehabilitation of persons disabled in industry or otherwise, approved June 2, 1920. Publications of the Board include an Annual Report to Congress, bulletins, and the Vocational Summary, monthly, 50 cents a year. The several acts under which the Board operates are administered under the general direction of the Board and a director, with three assistant directors in charge, respectively, of the Industrial Rehabilitation Division, Vocational Education Division, and the Vocational Rehabilitation Division. The functions of these several divisions are briefly as stated below.

Industrial Rehabilitation Division administers the Industrial Rehabilitation Act which provides that the Board shall cooperate with the States in rehabilitating and restoring to remunerative occupations any persons disabled in industry or otherwise. A State Board for Vocational Education in each State is designated to act as the State agent for cooperation with the Federal Board. The Act provides that the State shall accept the provision of the Federal Act; that it also, require a plan of cooperation between the State workmen's compensation board, or other similar board, and the State Board for Vocational Education. Money is granted under provisions of this Act upon condition: (1) that for each dollar of Federal money expended there shall be expended in the State, under the supervision and control of the State Board, an equal amount for the same purpose; that no portion of the appropriation shall be used by any institution for handicapped persons except for the special training of such individuals as are entitled to the benefits of the Act as determined by the Federal Board; (2) that the State Board shall annually submit to the Federal Board for approval plans showing (a) kinds of vocational rehabilitation and schemes for placement for which it means to use appropriation, (b) a plan of administration and supervision, (c) courses of study, (d) methods of instruction, (e) qualifications of teachers, supervisors, directors, and other administrative officers or employees, (f) plans for the training of teachers, supervisors, and instructors; (3) that the State Board shall make an annual report to the Federal Board; (4) that no portion of money appropriated by the Act shall be used for the erection or repair of buildings; (5) that all courses for vocational rehabilitation shall be open to any civil employee of the U. S. disabled while in the performance of his duty. Persons disabled are described by the law as "persons who have a physical defect or infirmity, either congenital or acquired by accident, injury or disease", who are, "or may be expected to be totally or partially incapacitated for remunerative occupation." The law does not require that the disability arise out of or be incurred in the course of employment. Persons suffering from congenital impairment of members or congenital blindness or deafness, or loss of or impairment of members during childhood are eligible for training on attaining the working age or age of employability if by training they may be rendered fit to engage in remunerative occupation. Industrial rehabilitation funds are not to be used for the maintenance of trainees. In all but a very few States persons injured in industry are given financial assistance through the workmen's compensation laws; in a few States provision has been made by legislative action for maintenance for trainees in addition to compensation payments; public and private agencies in many localities provide financial assistance for maintenance of beneficiaries in training. Applications for rehabilitation should be made to the State Board for Vocational Education.

Vocational Education Division administers the Vocational Education Act, which appropriates Federal money to be expended in the States under plans prepared in and approved by the Federal Board. Federal money is available for payment in aid of salaries of vocational teachers and supervisors and for maintenance of vocational teacher-training. Expenditures of Federal money in the States must be matched dollar for dollar with State or local money. As the co-operating Federal agency, the Board examines the plans submitted each year by the various State Boards, which present in the case of each State a scheme of vocational education in the State for the year, and approves these if found to be in conformity with the provisions and purposes of the Federal Act. The Board is authorized to make, independently and in cooperation with other agencies, studies, investigations, and reports relating to vocational education. It publishes each year statistics relating to vocational schools and classes in the States. As the Federal agency for promoting vocational education in the States, the Board has prepared and published bulletins dealing with administrative problems, with methods of vocational teaching, and with contents of vocational courses in the fields of agricultural trade, industrial home economics, and commercial education. It has further cooperated in the conduct of local surveys upon the results of which vocational education programs have been formulated; has undertaken occupational analyses with reference to the formulation of vocational courses.

Vocational Rehabilitation Division administers the Vocational Rehabilitation Act, providing vocational rehabilitation to any member of the military or naval forces of the U. S., resigned, discharged or furloughed since April 7, 1917, with a disability incurred, increased, or aggravated while a member of such forces, or traceable to service therein, needing vocational rehabilitation to overcome the handicap of his disability. In furnishing training under this Act, the Board imposes no limitations with respect to courses to be pursued, all careers being open to the disabled men. It utilizes existing technical schools, trade and commercial schools, educational institutions, and also shops and factories where "training on the job" may be had. It maintains a limited number of training centers of its own for trainees whose physical or mental conditions make assimilation in existing educational institutions impractical or impossible. In such centers night school and pre-vocational training is offered. It gives training to men in hospitals who are patients of the Bureau of War Risk Insurance; it also arranges for much of the training to be given directly in the trades and industries. The Board allows the disabled man a sufficient sum for his maintenance and support while undergoing training, and, if he has dependents, an allowance for their support during his training period. When the man has been rehabilitated, the Board sees that employment is found for him in the particular line of endeavor for which he has been trained.

Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America (org. 1908, inc. 1919), United Charities Bldg., 105 East 22d St., New York, N. Y. A federation of the majority of the Protestant Evangelical denominations to express their common voice and to unite them in cooperative activities. Its province is limited to the expression of its advice and the recommending of a course of action in matters of interest to the Church, the local councils, and the individual. Special committees and commissions as follows conduct work as indicated in their titles: Editorial Council of the Religious Press; Committee on Foreign Missions; Committee on Home Missions; General Committee on Army and Navy Chaplains; Committee on Negro Churches; Committee on Relations with Mexico; Committee on Christian Work in the Canal Zone; Committee on Religious Conditions in Russia; Committee on the Principles of Ecclesiastical Cooperation; Committee on Boy Scout Work; Commission on International Justice and Free Will; Commission on Relations with the Orient. Commission on Interchurch Federation works for the promotion in every community of some form of organization among the churches for the development of the religious, social, and civic welfare. Through personal visits, correspondence, and distribution of literature the Commission assists in standardizing methods of work. Commission on Evangelism cooperates with pastors and church leaders in developing and maintaining an effective evangelistic movement. Gives free aid in forming commissions, and supplies literature upon request. Acts as a clearing house for information regarding work of all the denominations. Furnishes list of speakers upon request. Commission on the Church and Social Service federates the social service departments of the various church bodies in the effort to promote community work among the churches. To this end it undertakes to establish definite relationships between the churches and other agencies, public and private, of social betterment; carries on research into the social phases of the application of Christianity to modern life, particularly with reference to industry; issues an Information Service and reports on social and industrial problems, and secures the cooperative preparation of the educational literature of social service used by the several denominations; holds conferences in cooperation with the social service departments of the various church bodies and the church federations for the advancement of social Christianity and the application of Christian principles to specific community problems. Commission on Temperance works with denominations and other agencies to promote personal abstinence from intoxicating beverages. Conducts research and stimulates legislation for prohibition. Exhibits, photographs, lantern slides, and literature may be obtained on request. Commission on Christian Education endeavors to correlate the work of the various educational agencies of the churches and to promote a common program of religious education. Gives special attention to the study of qualifications for ordination to the Christian ministry. Cooperates with the Government in plans for sex education and social hygiene. Makes comprehensive study of the field and agencies of religious education in their bearing upon the problems of reconstruction. Commission on Relations with France and Belgium conducts relief and reconstruction work in France and Belgium in cooperation with similar agencies in those countries and assists them in extending their church and institutional work. Commission on Relations with Religious Bodies in Europe seeks to strengthen fraternal relations between the churches of the U. S. and the various nations of Europe. Aids European churches in the betterment of ecclesiastical conditions and in securing physical relief, particularly through cooperation with existing organizations in the U. S. Council publishes The Federal Council Bulletin, monthly, 50 cents a year; The National Advocate, monthly, $1 a year, special rates to pastors, clubs, and Sunday schools; The Youth's Temperance Banner, monthly, 30 cents a year, in clubs of 10 or more 15 cents a year; The Water Lily, monthly paper suited to children between the ages of 5 and 10, 15 cents a year, in clubs of 10 or more 8 cents a year.

Federal Farm Loan Board. See Department of the Treasury, U. S.

Federal Leprosarium (U. S. Public Health Service Hospital, No. 1; formerly known as the Louisiana Leper Home), Carville, La. National institution for the care and treatment of persons suffering from leprosy. Purchased in conformity with Public Act, No. 299, Feb. 3, 1917, by the U. S. Government from the State of Louisiana. Arrangements for admittance and transportation are made by the Public Health Service, U. S. Department of the Treasury (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook) upon proper recommendation of the State health authorities of the several States. Present capacity is limited; additional accommodations are being provided as rapidly as possible. Patients will be admitted upon recommendations of the State health authorities of the respective States as facilities become available for their proper care.

Federation of Arts. See American Federation of Arts.

Federation of College Women. See National Federation of College Women.

Federation of Czech Catholics in America. See National Federation of Czech Catholics in America, Supreme Lodge.

Federation of Day Nurseries. See National Federation of Day Nurseries.

Federation of Jewish Farmers of America (org. 1909), Exec. Secy., Benj. C. Stone, 174 Second Ave., New York, N. Y. To promote agriculture and to assist Jewish farmers. Holds an annual meeting, open to the public. Has been instrumental in establishing cooperative credit unions and in establishing a cooperative fire insurance company. Through its efforts the First Farmers' Savings and Loan Association was organized. Has built cooperative creameries and organized the Jewish farmers' cooperative exchanges for the cooperative buying of supplies for boarding houses as well as for farmers. Has organized boys' and girls' clubs; encourages the establishment of women's organizations. Holds farmers' meetings and demonstrations in various local associations to teach farmers improved and scientific methods of farming. Acts as a mediator in disputes between farmers and their hired men. Assists in carrying out a plan of social improvement. Supported by membership dues.

Federation of Labor. See American Federation of Labor.

Federation of Remedial Loan Associations. See National Federation of Remedial Loan Associations.

Federation of Settlements. See National Federation of Settlements.

Federation of Social Service. See Methodist Federation for Social Service.

Federation of Temple Sisterhoods. See National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods.

Federation of Women's Clubs. See General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Feeble-Minded, Association for the Study of. See American Association for the Study of the Feeble-Minded.

Field Service, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

Finnish Evangelical Lutheran Church of America (Suomi Synod) (org. and inc. 1890), Hancock, Mich. Maintains Suomi College, consisting of High School, Theological Seminary, and Business School for boys and girls. Has local parishes in Finnish settlements in America, which carry on educational and social service as well as religious activities. Board of Home Missions conducts evangelistic service. Board of Foreign Missions carries on work in China. Board of Sunday School Work organizes and extends Sunday schools in Finnish centers. Central office issues books and other publications on educational and religious topics; for sale at small cost. Publishes, in Finnish, Amerikan Suometar, tri-weekly newspaper, $4.50 a year; Astoral News (Paimen Sanomia), a weekly religious paper, $1.50 a year; Aura, monthly agricultural paper, $1.50 a year; papers for college students, Sunday school pupils and other children.

Finnish Evangelical Lutheran National Church of America (org. 1893, inc. 1901), Ironwood, Mich. Maintains the Finnish Evangelical Lutheran Theological Seminary at Ironwood, Mich. Publishes Auttaja, weekly newspaper in Finnish, $2 a year; other educational and religious publications issued at small cost. Parishes carry on social service activities in addition to religious work.

Finnish Friends Temperance Association (org. and inc. 1891), Onondaga, Wis. To promote total abstinence. Composed of both men and women. National office organizes and supervises local branches throughout the country. Members pledge themselves to abstinence and work for temperance in their communities. Association holds an annual convention to which the public is invited to discuss temperance questions. Branch dues vary in different localities. National office is supported by payments from branches.

Finnish National Temperance Brotherhood (org. and inc. 1888), Alpena, Mich. To promote total abstinence. Composed of both men and women. National office organizes and supervises local branches throughout the country. Members pledge themselves to abstinence and work for temperance in their communities. Brotherhood sends out lecturers to local branches, to give talks on temperance and general educational subjects. Branches, in connection with lecturers, sometimes collect money to aid the cause, but expenses of lecturers are paid by headquarters. Organization holds an annual convention, to which the public is invited, to discuss temperance questions. Issues in Finnish a monthly paper, Daybreak (Koitto), $1 a year; an almanac, 75 cents a copy; booklets, sold at small cost. Branch dues vary in different localities. National office is supported by payments from branches.

Fire Protection Association. See National Fire Protection Association.

Fire Underwriters' Board. See National Board of Fire Underwriters.

First Aid, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

First Catholic Slovak Ladies Union of U. S. A. (Prvá Katolícká Slovenská Ženská Jednota ve Spojených Štátoch Severnej Ameriky) (org. 1892, inc. 1899), Pres., Mrs. Františka Jakabcin, 600 South 7th St., Reading, Pa. Operates in the U. S. and Canada. Is an organization of Slovak women for mutual benefit and other welfare work. Upon request of a local community the Supreme Office sends out an organizer to establish new branches. These groups in local communities pay sick benefits of $5 a week while the patient is under doctor's care. Death benefits of $250, $500, and $1,000 are paid by assessments of all branches. All groups in local communities are under the supervision of the Supreme Office. The Union holds an annual meeting at which the interests of all Slovaks are discussed. Ladies' Union (Ženská Jednota) (Editor, Mrs. Anna Husek, Box 156, Middletown, Pa.), semi-monthly, published in Slovak, 75 cents a year, is the official organ of the Union.

First Catholic Slovak Union (Prvá Katolícká Slovenská Jednota) (org. 1890, inc. 1892), Pres., Andrej H. Dorko, Marblehead, Ohio. An organization for mutual benefit operating only in the U. S. Upon request of a local community the Supreme Office sends out an organizer to establish a new local branch and pays all attendant expenses. Supreme Office supervises these local societies. Branches pay sick benefits of $5 a week while the patient is under doctor's care, and death benefits of $250, $500, and $1,000 paid by assessments of all local branches according to rates quoted in the Level Premium Plan. Union conducts other welfare work and organizes Junior Societies. Maintains its own orphanage and its own printing house. Holds a biennial convention in September of the even-numbered years; these meetings are open for the discussion of all subjects pertaining to the benefit and advancement of Slovaks in America. Union (Jednota) (Editor, Joseph Husek, Middletown, Pa.), weekly, published in Slovak, $1.50 a year, is the official organ of the Union.

Five Years Meeting of Friends, Board of Home Missions (org. 1917, inc. 1919), 101 South 8th St., Richmond, Ind. Promotes church extension and religious and social work, particularly among the mountaineers of the U. S. Special work is carried on by Departments of Negro Welfare, Social Service, and Evangelism and Church Extension. Board administers Southland Institute, a school for Negro boys and girls, located near Helena, Ark. Maintains several missions for social and religious work among the Indians in Oklahoma. Publishes the Home Field News, monthly. Stereopticon lectures are in preparation; available at present only to Friends groups. Membership open to appointed representatives. Supported by annual budget raised by subscription by members of the Friends Church.

Florence Crittenton Mission. See National Florence Crittenton Mission.

Foreign Commissions, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

Foreign Language Information Service (org. 1918), 15 West 37th St., New York, N. Y.; Washington office, 824 Mills Bldg., Washington, D. C. Maintains contacts with U. S. Government departments and bureaus, obtaining information from them. It informs the alien in his own language concerning the government and the laws of the country. It explains what the Government expects of him and what it offers him. It aims to clear up his misconceptions and adjust his difficulties in dealing with Governmental agencies. The Service sends daily material to 800 foreign-language papers. It also distributes notices concerning Governmental regulations to approximately 35,000 foreign-language organizations which place these notices on their bulletin boards and circulate them among their mem-many - the following are some of the bers. It aids foreign-born individuals appealing for information on matters regarding Government departments and agencies. From time to time it has issued pamphlets in foreign languages. The Service includes the following divisions: Czecho-Slovak, Danish, Dutch, Finnish, German, Hungarian, Italian, Jewish, Jugo-Slav, Lithuanian, Norwegian, Polish, Swedish, Ukrainian, and an American Press Bureau. The last named furnishes to the native-born American information regarding the foreign-speaking groups in America.

Forest Service. See Department of Agriculture, U. S.

Forestry Association. See American Forestry Association.

Free Sons of Israel. See Independent Order Free Sons of Israel.

Freedmen's Aid Society. See Methodist Episcopal Church, Board of Education for Negroes.

Freedmen's Hospital. See Department of the Interior, U. S.

Freer Gallery of Art. See Smithsonian Institution.

Friendless Society. See Society for the Friendless.

Friends Service Committee. See American Friends Service Committee.

Friends Temperance Association. See Finnish Friends Temperance Association.

Gallaudet College. See Columbia Institution for the Deaf.

General Board, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

General Deaconess Board. See Methodist Episcopal Church, General Deaconess Board.

— General Education Board (org. 1902), 61 Broadway, New York, N. Y. To promote education within the U. S. without distinction of race, sex, or creed; to promote special educational studies and research. Has given over $35,000,000 toward the general endowment of colleges and universities, and over $14,000,000 for the endowment of schools of medicine and for education. Has cooperated with several States in the fields of rural and secondary education and with the Negro Rural School Fund, Anna T. Jeannes Foundation and the John F. Slater Fund (for description of both of which see elsewhere in the Handbook) in developing rural schools for Negroes. Has also contributed to the endowment and support of colleges and rural schools for Negroes. Has conducted several State surveys. Publishes annual and other reports; free on request. Supported by an endowment fund donated by John D. Rockefeller.

General Federation of Women's Clubs (org. 1889, inc. 1904), 415 Maryland Bldg., Washington, D. C. To bring into communication with one another the women's clubs of the world and to unite their activities. Maintains a central office which serves as a clearing house and bureau of information. The central organization includes, besides the usual officers, one director from each State, the District of Columbia, and Alaska, and six chairmen of departments of work. Central organization conducts work through State federations which in turn are composed of local groups. State federations are grouped together into district federations. General Federation holds a biennial convention for delegates and State presidents; on alternate years it holds a Council meeting for the discussion of its problems. State and district federations hold annual meetings. State Clubs conduct activities on a State-wide basis similar to those of the national departments described below. Membership in the General Federation includes State federations and federated or affiliated clubs in other countries. Supported by annual dues, $5 and up, according to membership.

Department of American Citizenship, Chmn., Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, Austin, Tex. "Every club a training camp for citizenship" is the slogan of this department. It works for the creation of a "Citizenship Day" when the boys and girls who have come to their majority during the year, as well as the newly naturalized citizens, shall be publicly welcomed in each community; urges women to attend naturalization courts and see that the ceremonies are conducted with dignity; encourages such Americanization work as is particularly adapted to women through simple human relations; forwards community centers; works for better films and education through moving pictures. It has prepared a simple course in citizenship adapted to club study, and is preparing a much more extended course.

Department of Applied Education, Chmn., Mrs. John D. Sherman, Long's Peak, Colo. Under its Division on Education this department is working for national and State educational laws, and for rallies in every community to emphasize the extreme needs of educational advance in the U. S. Under its Division on Home Economics it is laboring for the study of the home as an institution, for increase in the number and efficiency of home economics departments in schools, and for cooperation with State and Federal agencies. Under its Division on Conservation of Natural Resources it is working on policies for the protection by legislation of parks, forests, and waterways. It supplies study courses covering these subjects.

Department of Fine Arts, Chmn., Mrs. Rose V. S. Berry, Berkeley, Calif. Under three divisions, Art, Music, and Literature, this department provides study courses on various phases and seeks to promote American development in artistic lines.

Department of Legislation, Chmn., Mrs. Edward Franklin White, State House, Indianapolis, Ind. Works for the Smith-Towner Bill, the Sheppard-Towner Bill, the Rogers Bill for Independent Citizenship for Married Women, and the Fess Home Economics Bill. Opposition to measures aimed at exploiting the waters of national parks is also part of the immediate campaign.

Department of Press and Publicity, Chmn., Mrs. James Read, Fayetteville, Ark. Edits General Federation News, monthly, sent free to officers and to clubs holding membership in the General Federation, and to about 1,000 newspapers. Also conducts special newspaper and magazine publicity favoring the matters in which the Federation is interested.

Department of Public Welfare, Chmn., Mrs. Elmer Blair, 129 Wadsworth Ave., New York, N. Y. The Division on Child Welfare works for public protection of maternity and infancy, for child health, and for abolition of child labor. The Division on Public Health is working for a National Department of Health and for the same high moral standard for both men and women. The Division on Industrial and Social Conditions works for industrial cooperation while safeguarding the rights of employer, employee, and the public; for scientific methods for the care and training of prisoners and delinquent children.

General Land Office. See Department of the Interior, U. S.

Geological Survey. See Department of the Interior, U. S.

— Girl Scouts (org. 1912, inc. 1915), 189 Lexington Ave., New York, N. Y. A non-sectarian organization aiming to give girls through natural, wholesome pleasures, in group work and play, those habits of mind and body which will make them useful, responsible women, ready and willing to take a definite part in civic and national affairs.

basis of organization is the individual girl, who, if unable to attach herself to any local group, may become a Lone Scout. Local groups consist of Troops made up of from one to four Patrols, each having eight members. Troops are under supervision of a Captain who must be 21 or over, and officially accepted by National Headquarters to which she is responsible. National Headquarters has established camps and training schools throughout the country where girls may receive training to become Captains. Colleges and higher schools are offering training courses in Scouting for would-be Captains. Many local groups act with the advice and cooperation of a local Girl Scout Council, which is made up of interested citizens. Representatives from local Councils serve as members of the National Council which maintains the National Headquarters and which works through the State and district subdivisions. Girls in local groups learn athletic sports, nature-lore, camp-lore, principles of health and hygiene, cooking, and household work. Members pass tests and receive merit badges according to attainments in some 53 subjects, including: home economics, child care, first aid, home nursing, public health, and personal health. National organization holds an annual meeting, open to the public. Publishes leaflets and pamphlets, some furnished free, others for sale at small prices; a handbook, "Scouting for Girls"; a camp manual, "Campward Ho!" Membership as Brownies or Juniors is open to girls from 6 to 10 years old; to girls from 10 to 18 years old as Girl Scouts; to girls 18 years old or more, as Citizen or Senior Scouts. Special programs are adapted to the needs of these three age groups. Girl Scouts and Brownies pay an annual fee of 25 cents each; Citizen Scouts, Captains, and Lieutenants pay 50 cents, and Council members $1 as annual dues.

Girls' Clubs League. See National League of Girls' Clubs.

Girls' Friendly Society in America (org. 1877, inc. 1895), 15 East 40th St., New York, N. Y. An agency of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the U. S. which endeavors to reach girls of every creed and race, and to give them, at as early an age as possible, high spiritual, intellectual, and social standards. Endeavors to aid in creating conditions of thinking, living, and working under which the ideal of true Christian womanhood may be possible of attainment for all girls. Through its departments it carries on special activities. Department of Candidates is responsible for work with the younger girls. Depart- ment for Extension seeks to widen and deepen the scope of the work, presents the activities of the Society at Church conferences, and sends out field secretaries. Department for Holiday Houses maintains houses at which girls may, during the summer, spend their vacations under pleasant and healthful conditions at a reasonable rate of board; girls not connected with the Society are accommodated when there is room; lists of the houses, which are scattered throughout the U. S., may be obtained from the central office. Department for Literature supplies lists of books and plays, gives plays and pageants, and, by means of classes, seeks to develop in girls a taste for reading. Department for Missions teaches the value of missions, and trains the girls to work for and give to them. Department of Social Service conducts work along the lines of health, housing, industry, and recreation; it maintains lodges, girls' centers, rest and lunch rooms throughout the country. Society publishes The Record of the Girls' Friendly Society, monthly except July, September, and November, 25 cents a year. The Society is composed of candidates, who are under 12 years of age; members, who are unmarried women and girls over 12; married branch helpers, women who have been members previous to marriage; all of these may be of any creed or faith. The associates of the Society must be communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church. Society is supported by membership dues, which are from 60 cents a year up; by income from its endowment funds; and by grants from the Presiding Bishop and Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church. Besides what the Society is doing by, with, and for its own membership, it is engaged in relief and philanthropic work, carried on by the parochial units which give money and personal service to needy individuals and families, and to institutions and organizations.

Girls' Reserve Movement. See Young Women's Christian Associations of the U. S. A.

Gold Star Division. See Service Star Legion.

Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. Through the office of the Superintendent of Documents, prepares a comprehensive index of public documents and a consolidated index of congressional documents; both indexes are furnished free on application. Sells official publications, including many Government reports of great value. Lists of publications are available free on request. There may be obtained from this Office the "Congressional Directory", issued for each session of Congress, including directories of members of Congress, of congressional committees and Federal Government departments and institutions, of the judiciary, diplomatic and consular services, and other material; price 60 cents. Issues The Congressional Record, the daily record of the proceedings of Congress, 3 cents a copy, $1.50 a month.

Government Research Institute. See Institute for Government Research.

Grand Army of the Republic (org. 1866), Headquarters, Nebraska Dept. G. A. R., State House, Lincoln, Nebr. Besides its activities for members and for widows and orphans of members, the Army seeks to promote allegiance to the U. S. based on respect for and fidelity to its Constitution and laws. Aims to discountenance whatever tends to weaken loyalty and to incite insurrection, treason and rebellion. Instituted Memorial Day; makes large use of this and other patriotic occasions and is assisted in all its work by its auxiliaries, the Woman's Relief Corps (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook), the Sons of Veterans, and the Daughters of Veterans. Membership in G. A. R. includes soldiers and sailors of the U. S. Army, Navy, or Marine Corps, who served in the Civil War between April 12, 1861 and April 9, 1865. 5 Grange of Patrons of Husbandry. See National Grange of Patrons of Husbandry.

Gymnastic Organization of America. See Sokol Gymnastic Organization of America.

Gymnastic Union. See American Gymnastic Union.

Gymnastic Union of Sokols. See Slovak Gymnastic Union of Sokols, Supreme Lodge.

Health Council. See National Health Council.

Health Service, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

Hebrew Sheltering and Immigrant Aid Society (org. 1903, inc. 1911), 229 East Broadway, New York, N. Y. To facilitate the lawful entry of Jewish immigrants at various ports of the U. S., and assist in their assimilation into American life. Has organized branches and maintains representatives in a number of port cities of the U. S. and in a few foreign ports. Branches in the U. S. provide immigrants with temporary shelter, food, clothing, and other necessary aid; guide them to their destinations, assist them in securing employment, and seek to + do more be more

prevent them from becoming public charges; discourage their settling in congested cities and advise them of suitable localities to which they should go. These services are offered free of charge without distinction as to nationality or creed. Through its branches in America and in foreign cities, the Society seeks to reunite families separated during the War, to prevent the immigration of ineligible persons to America, and through lectures, meetings, and publications, to make better known the advantages of desirable immigration. Branches in Baltimore, Boston, Chicago, Philadelphia, San Francisco, and Seattle and national directors in over 500 cities in which branches are not located conduct follow-up work, seeking to aid immigrants in finding employment, in obtaining naturalization papers, and in being admitted to night schools and Americanization classes. Society holds an annual meeting, open to the public, ~~Proceedings of which are published in the Society's Bulletin.~~ Maintains at headquarters a Home where immigrants are sheltered until their relatives call for them or until they find work. National Committees as follows conduct work along the lines indicated by their titles: Work in Foreign Countries and U. S., Immigration Stations, Shelter, Distribution and Transportation, Female Immigrants, Employment, Education of Immigrants, Publication, Religious Endeavor, and Oriental Jews. Membership open to interested persons. Supported by contributions, and by annual membership dues, $3 and up.

Helping-Hand Committee. See Shut-in Society.

Higher Education Council. See Council of Higher Education.

Hirsch Fund. See Baron de Hirsch Fund.

Home Economics Association. See American Home Economics Association.

Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

Home Mission Society, American Baptist Woman's. See Woman's American Baptist Home Mission Society.

Home Mission Society, Baptist. See American Baptist Home Mission Society.

Home Missions Council (org. 1908), 156 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y. Is a coordinating body of Protestant organizations doing missionary work in the U. S. and its dependencies and in Canada. Represents 42 different denominational organizations. Through joint annual meetings and committees, it works in close cooperation with the Council of Women for Home Missions, representing 18 different denominational organizations. Holds an annual convention in January, open to the public, for the discussion of problems and exchange of ideas and information. Conducts special work through standing committees on the following subjects: Alaska; church building; cities and urban industrial relations; Hebrews; Indian missions; migrant groups; Mormons; Negro Americans; new Americans; Orientals and Hawaiians; publicity; recruiting the Home Mission force; Spanish-speaking peoples in the U. S.; town and country; and the West Indies. Is conducting a program to relieve strained relationships between white and colored people; between Americans and Orientals, especially the Japanese, in the U. S.; between native Americans and recently arrived or industrially advancing Jews. Council is seeking to formulate literature and outline a program to meet the spiritual demands of Jews who are not affiliated with any religion. Has prepared and distributes to pastors and other Christian leaders a bulletin covering the accomplishments and needs in education, religion, and home and social life of Negroes. Other publications are: "A Study of Mexicans and Spanish-Americans in the U. S."; "Oriental Mission Work"; "Mormonism of To-day"; "A Preliminary Study of Interracial Conditions in Chicago"; "Americanization"; and "The Movement toward Church Unity in Local Communities". Conducts studies of conditions existing among American Indians and allocates neglected areas for evangelization. Reports of these studies are being issued and may be obtained from the Council or through the home mission boards of the various denominations. Central office prepares and distributes literature to members and acts as a clearing house of information. Issues: "Christian American" bulletins (free to ministers) from time to time, containing up-to-date information and suggestions for the use of pastors; Proceedings of the annual meetings, and other literature which may be obtained on request. Membership open, upon application and election, to missionary organizations of any Protestant denomination doing missionary work in the U. S. and its dependencies, or in Canada. Supported by payments from home missionary boards and societies in proportion to their own budgets.

Home Missions Executive Committee. See Presbyterian Church in the U. S. (South), Executive Committee of Home Missions.

Home Service, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

Hospital Association. See American Hospital Association; Catholic Hospital Association of U. S. and Canada.

Hospital Library and Service Bureau of the American Conference on Hospital Service (org. and inc. 1920), 22 East Ontario St., Chicago, Ill. Organized for the collection and dissemination of information in regard to the construction, equipment, and operation of hospitals, sanatoriums, dispensaries, public health centers, and institutions of similar nature. Library contains books, journals, reports, floor plans, photographs, lists, and other data regarding hospitals. Service Bureau answers in person and by correspondence inquiries on any phase of institutional work. It has no branch offices. Offers service, gratuitously, to any individual having a legitimate interest in the construction, equipment, and operation of hospitals and similar agencies. It does not serve commercial concerns nor does it give information in regard to them. Is preparing an exhibit of floor plans of hospitals, nurses' homes, sanatoriums, public health centers, industrial welfare stations, and similar institutions. A permanent exhibit of this material will be maintained in the Library, and special exhibits will be prepared and shown at various national association meetings. Library is under the direction of the American Conference on Hospital Service of which it is a branch. Bureau is supported by voluntary contributions of health, hospital, nursing, social service, medical and surgical organizations and by assistance from the Rockefeller Foundation (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook). Contributions are not solicited.

Hospital Social Workers' Association. See American Association of Hospital Social Workers.

Housing Association. See National Housing Association.

Howard University. See Department of the Interior, U. S.

Humane Education Society. See American Humane Education Society.

Hygiene Reference Board. See Life Extension Institute.

Immigrant Aid Society. See Hebrew Sheltering and Immigrant Aid Society.

— Immigrant Publication Society (inc. 1914), 241 Fifth Ave., New ork, N. Y. For the education and distribution of our immigrants. o supply the immigrant with needed information about the U. S., ; laws, language, history, and ideals; to point out to him his rights id opportunities; to teach him his duties and responsibilities; to help e native born to a knowledge of the immigrant, his background, pirations, and problems; to give our country the benefit of their utual understanding and cooperation. Publishes books, pamphlets, id leaflets giving the immigrant practical help. Collects and distributes tailed and accurate information for the benefit of teachers, librarians, id other workers among immigrants. For complete list of publica- ons, address central office. Membership open to all who are inter- ted; annual dues, $5 and up. Libraries and educational and social orkers belonging to the Society receive, free of charge, publications id information and advice on all phases of educational work with e foreign born. Supported by small profit on sale of books and mphlets and by membership dues and donations.

?
Jewish American book f
1914

Immigrants' Civic League. See North American Civic League for Immigrants.

Immigration League. See National Liberal Immigration League.

Income Tax Unit. See Department of the Treasury, U. S., Bureau of Internal Revenue.

Independent Order of B'nai B'rith (org. 1843), 1226 Tribune Bldg., Chicago, Ill. A national and international Jewish fraternal organization. Through its branches located throughout the U. S. and foreign lands, it unites Jews in promoting their interests and those of humanity. Seeks to develop and elevate the mental and moral character of the people of Jewish faith, to inculcate in them the principles of philanthropy, honor, and patriotism; to support science and art, and alleviate the wants of the needy and the poor. Social Service Department looks after inmates of corrective and penal institutions and endeavors to be of service to them on discharge so that they may rehabilitate themselves. Cooperates with juvenile and children's courts in work with delinquent children. Through its Department of Labor and Immigration, Order cooperates with the Federal government in Americanization work. Through the Anti-Defamation League, an auxiliary of the Order, it endeavors to safeguard and protect the good name and honor of the Jew, to prevent the publication of scurrilous and defamatory articles concerning the Jewish people, to eliminate from the stage and the motion-picture screen the ridiculing of the Jew. The Order has founded and maintains homes for widows and orphans; has established free employment bureaus, asylums for the aged and infirm, schools for the immigrant, hospitals and sanatoria, summer vacation camps for poor children, and cemeteries. Members pay annual dues of $12. Order is supported by members' dues and voluntary contributions.

Independent Order Free Sons of Israel (org. 1849), 21 West 124th St., New York, N. Y. To foster Americanism, fraternalism, and Judaism. The national body officially participates in civic movements, collects funds for worthy projects of a non-sectarian character, and otherwise serves the community. Lodges organized in principal cities of the U. S. offer assistance to institutions, hospitals, members and their families. Service is not limited to members of the Order. Membership open only to Jews. Members pay annual dues to local lodges, and a fixed amount to the national body.

Indian Association. See National Indian Association.

Indian Missions Bureau. See Bureau of Catholic Indian Missions.

Indian Rights Association (org. 1882, inc. 1917), 995 Drexel Bldg., Philadelphia, Pa. Non-political and non-sectarian organization working for the spiritual, moral, and material welfare of the Indians of America. Seeks to secure to Indians their political, civil, and legal rights. Conducts legal defense of individual Indians and groups of Indians whose rights have been violated. Collects and collates facts regarding the Indian's progress in industry and education and his present and future needs. Special agents visit Indian reservations, conduct investigations and make reports. Officers and special agents are available for lecture service. Association maintains an office in Washington, D. C. for legislative purposes. Seeks to arouse public opinion through its publications and through other material released to the newspapers. Publishes an Annual Report and special leaflets and pamphlets; free on application. Membership open to interested persons on election. Supported by membership dues, $2 a year, and by contributions.

Industrial Accident Boards and Commissions Association. See International Association of Industrial Accident Boards and Commissions.

Industrial Aid Society. See Jewish Agricultural and Industrial Society.

Industrial Conference Board. See National Industrial Conference Board.

Industrial Physicians' and Surgeons' Association. See American Association of Industrial Physicians and Surgeons.

Industrial Removal Office (org. 1900), 174 Second Ave., New York, N. Y. To bring about the proper distribution of Jewish immigrants; to relieve congestion in Jewish quarters of New York City, Boston, and Philadelphia, by distributing able-bodied Jews in those sections of the country which offer better social and industrial opportunities. Receives applications for removal; makes examinations of the physical health and character of applicants, and selects communities for which applicants would be fitted and in which they could make respectable living; makes arrangements for reception of Jews in their new quarters, and keeps in touch with them through local agencies and rough traveling agents of the Office. All services are rendered free of charge. Supported by endowed funds and voluntary donations.

Information Bureau. See National Information Bureau.

Information Service, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology. See American Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology.

Institute for Crippled and Disabled Men (org. 1917), 101 East 23d St., New York, N. Y. To provide for the economic and social rehabilitation of disabled men. Conducts free training courses for instruction of disabled men in occupations suited to their condition. Courses include oxyacetylene welding, printing, motion-picture operating, typewriter repairing, mechanical drafting, telephone switchboard repairing, jewelry making, and watch and clock repairing. Training begins at any time and continues until a man is ready to take employment; it usually requires from six weeks to six months, according to occupation chosen and mental capacity of the man. Institute can train about 80 men at one time. Has a department of home industry to provide suitable work for the home-bound cripple. Conducts a shop for the manufacture of artificial limbs from which needy persons or relief organizations can obtain limbs at low cost; payment is made in installments when necessary. Institute has no boarding facilities, but assists out-of-town men in finding suitable quarters. Employment Bureau, open daily from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., finds new industrial opportunities for disabled men, and places them in suitable employment. Library contains material dealing with the crippled and disabled; available to students. Information Service gives advice and information to individuals and organizations without charge, and supplies newspapers and periodicals with up-to-date facts regarding the rehabilitation of disabled men. Institute endeavors to bring about enlightened public attitude towards the physically unfit. It obtains through hospitals, workmen's compensation committees, and social agencies, names of disabled men, and offers them its facilities. Furnishes speakers for public meetings. Has slides, posters, photographs, and films; free on request.

Institute for Government Research (org. and inc. 1916), 818 Connecticut Ave. NW., Washington, D. C. For the scientific study of government administration with a view to promoting efficiency and economy. Aims to develop standards for estimating the efficiency of public work along lines not measurable in terms of money. Suggests means by which the effectiveness of administrative organizations may be increased. Serves as a clearing house of information. Issues material helpful in the formation of public opinion and in the practice of public administration. Works for the adoption of a national budget system. Conducts scientific studies, results of which are published in book and bulletin form. Publications include studies of financial administration, budget systems, retirement and pension systems, principles of administration, and service monographs of the U. S. Government. Supported by private subscriptions.

Institute of International Education. See Carnegie Endowment for International Peace.

Institute for Medical Research. See Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research.

Institute of Social Sciences. See National Institute of Social Sciences.

Institution for the Deaf. See Columbia Institution for the Deaf.

Insular and Foreign Division, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

Intercollegiate Community Service Association (org. 1890, inc. 1894), 93 Tyler St., Boston, Mass. To prepare college girls to meet community and civic responsibility and to develop their sense of social justice. Maintains interest in the College Settlements of Boston, New York, and Philadelphia and aids in their support and management. Stimulates and directs the interest of undergraduates in social welfare activities. Offers three fellowships of $450 each which are supported jointly by the Association and the alumnae of Bryn Mawr, Smith, and Wellesley Colleges. Secretaries, acting under the Executive Committee, organize and supervise the work of alumnae and undergraduate chapters. The Speakers' Board furnishes speakers to the undergraduate chapters. Association arranges observation trips and visits to social service institutions to give college students an understanding of the functions and significance of various social service activities. Aids members of undergraduate chapters to find opportunities for voluntary service weekly during the college year, and makes plans for vacation practice work for them. Conducts semi-annual meetings, at which reports of college conferences and of voluntary services are given. Publishes bulletins regularly, usually descriptive of the Association's work. Supported by annual dues of $1 per member of undergraduate chapters; membership fees of from $1 to $25 per member of alumnae chapters; dues paid by non-college members; regular payments for fellowship stipends; and special contributions.

Intercollegiate Vocational Guidance Association (org. 1919), 1 West Hill Pl., Boston, Mass. To facilitate the interchange of vocational information; to promote the organization of undergraduate committees to study vocational opportunities for college women; to further cooperation of appointment bureaus and students. Holds annual conferences of members for the discussion of problems and policies and the reading of reports on vocational subjects of interest to college women. Encourages vocational conferences in colleges; suggests subjects and speakers and general ways and means for carrying on vocational activities. Issues to members up-to-date material on vocations for women, opportunities for training, and all available information which will be of help to undergraduates in choosing their professional or business careers. Carries on surveys in cooperation with business and scientific men, and members of college faculties; results of these surveys will be made available to the public. Maintains a library on theoretical and practical subjects, and keeps in its files up-to-date data regarding vocational education, guidance, and information; this material may be seen by persons interested. Workers from central office organize new local branches and direct activities in vocational guidance work; for particulars address central office. Issues news-letters, bibliographies, and news notes; sent only to members. Membership is open to any women's college or university in the U. S. which meets the standard requirements of the Bureau of Education, U. S. Department of the Interior (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook). Supported by individual contributions and by annual membership dues of $50.

Interdepartmental Social Hygiene Board, U. S. (org. 1918), 1800 Virginia Ave. NW., Washington, D. C. A Federal agency organized to conserve the human resources of the Nation through the prevention, treatment, and control of the venereal diseases by means of scientific and educational research and development, and by medical and social measures. Receives appropriations from Congress which are divided as follows: a sum is set aside for payments to States for expenditure through their boards of health for the prevention, treatment, and control of venereal diseases; a second appropriation has been made for the establishment of a division of venereal diseases, separate and distinct from the Interdepartmental Social Hygiene Board, in the U. S. Public Health Service (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook); a third grant is made for the purpose of assisting States in caring for civilian persons whose detention, isolation, quarantine, or commitment to institutions is necessary to protect the armed military and naval forces of the U. S. from venereal diseases; a fourth apportionment is made for the purpose of assisting such colleges and other institutions as in the judgment of the Board are qualified for scientific research to discover more effective medical measures for the treatment and prevention of venereal diseases; a fifth appropriation has been provided for the use of universities, colleges, or other suitable institutions or organizations qualified, in the judgment of the Board, for scientific research for the purpose of discovering and developing, in accordance with the rules and regulations prescribed by the Board, more effective educational measures in the prevention of venereal diseases and for the purpose of related sociological and psychological research.* The Protective Social Measures Division, in protecting the military and naval forces from venereal diseases, concerns itself with the gathering of information regarding existing machinery and methods of prostitution, and conditions which favor the spread of venereal diseases and the discovery of individuals who are carriers of venereal diseases; inquiry into the reasons and conditions that have led these individuals to become carriers; the presentation of such information to the proper local officers and agencies; the organization of community forces to assist in permanently improving those conditions which have contributed to the spread of venereal diseases, and to secure for infected men and women proper medical, legal, and social care. Field workers of the Board, located throughout the country in cities adjacent to Army and Navy stations, are engaged in a fight against delinquency, commercialized vice, and venereal diseases. Social case work with delinquent women and girls is done by the women agents.

Office at Washington issues a bulletin of current information, monthly, sent to the active personnel of the Board. Board is composed of the Secretary of the Treasury, Secretary of War, Secretary of the Navy, a representative chosen by the Secretary of the Treasury from the U. S. Public Health Service, a representative chosen by the Secretary of War from the Medical Corps of the U. S. Army, and a representative chosen by the Secretary of the Navy from the Medical Corps of the U. S. Navy. The administrative officer is the Executive Secretary.

Interior Department. See Department of the Interior, U. S.

Internal Revenue, Bureau of. See Department of the Treasury, U. S.

International Association of Industrial Accident Boards and Commissions (org. 1914), Secy.-Treas., Commissioner of Labor Statistics, U. S. Dept. of Labor, Washington, D. C. Holds meetings once a year or oftener, open to the public, "for the purpose of bringing together the officials charged with the duties of administering the workmen's compensation laws of the U. S. and Canada to consider and, so far as possible, to agree on standardizing (a) ways of cutting down accidents; (b) medical, surgical, and hospital treatment for injured workers; (c) means for the reeducation of injured workmen and their restoration to industry; (d) methods of computing industrial accident and sickness insurance costs; (e) practices in administering compensation laws; (f) extensions and improvements in workmen's compensation legislation; (g) reports and tabulations of industrial accidents and illnesses." The Proceedings of the third annual convention and subsequent annual meetings are published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, U. S. Department of Labor, and are available for distribution upon application to the Commissioner of U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, Washington, D. C. Bulletin 276, "Standardization of Industrial Statistics", a description and compilation of all the reports of the Committee on Statistics which had been made by the Association up to the time of its annual meeting in September, 1920, may also be secured from this office. Active membership is open to each State of the U. S. and each Province of Canada having a workmen's compensation law (annual dues $50), and to the U. S. Employees' Compensation Commission, the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, and the Department of Labor of Canada, which three organizations are exempt from dues. Associate membership is granted by vote of Executive Committee; open to organizations or individuals interested in any phase of workmen's compensation or social insurance; annual dues $10. Supported by dues, except for the printing of the Annual Transactions and forwarding under Government frank of the correspondence of the Secretary-Treasurer, both of which items are provided for by the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics.

*Through the Second Deficiencies Act of June 16, 1921, Congress has provided for only one activity, Protective Social Measures, and administration, for the fiscal year commencing July 1, 1921. Appropriations for scientific research for improved medical measures, educational research and development for improved educational methods, and payments to State departments of health for assistance in the control of venereal diseases have been eliminated for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1921.

International Exchange Service. See Smithsonian Institution.

International Friendship through the Churches Alliance. See World Alliance for International Friendship through the Churches.

International Kindergarten Union (org. 1892), Pres., Miss Luella Palmer, 510 W. 123d St., New York, N. Y. To promote the establishment of kindergartens; to gather and disseminate knowledge of the kindergarten movement; to bring into cooperation all kindergarten interests; to elevate the standard of the training of the kindergartner. Is organizing State kindergarten associations throughout the U. S. which conduct campaigns for kindergarten legislation and extension.

During the War it organized and equipped, in conjunction with the American Red Cross, the Kindergarten Unit for France, which is still operating (in 1921). Established a Home for war orphans in Belgrade, Serbia. Holds an annual meeting at which special committees present reports on educational topics of interest to kindergartners. Bureau of Education Committee gathers educational data and prepares reports covering it which are published in bulletin form by the Kindergarten Division of the Bureau of Education, U. S. Department of the Interior (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook), with which the Union is closely allied in work. Propaganda Committee cooperates with the Bureau in the preparation and distribution of extension material. Union publishes an Annual Report, booklets, and leaflets; free upon request. Membership is open to kindergarten associations and individuals interested in kindergarten education. Supported by annual dues from branch organizations which vary according to their membership, and from dues of individual members who pay $1 a year.

International Order of the King's Daughters and Sons (org. 1886, ^{also} c. 1888), 280 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y. Interchurch body. ^{need-} to develop spiritual life and to stimulate Christian activity. Local ^{but in} circles engage in philanthropic, religious, and educational work; provide ^{from} nursing service; supply clothing and food in emergencies or disasters; contribute to child welfare activities and foreign missions; assist students in completing their education; conduct Bible-study classes. Central office acts as a clearing house of information for persons interested in social service. Order has established hospitals, homes for the aged, clinics for crippled children, day nurseries, children's playgrounds, rest rooms, and homes for working girls. Publishes The Silver Cross, ^{Sh} monthly, 10 cents a copy, $1 a year. Membership open to all whose ¹⁵⁷⁹ purposes and aims are in accord with the objects of the Order. Sup- ^{St. 14} ported by sale of supplies and by membership dues, 10 cents a year.

International Order of the Knights of King Arthur (org. 1893), Es., William Byron Forbush, Ph. D., Dreamelden, Route 3, Media, Pa. To adapt to the use of American boys the ancient ideals of chivalry. Organizes boys' fraternities, or "Castles", which are self-governing and under the control of a local church. Non-sectarian.
 Based upon the English legend of the Round Table. Places emphasis on ritual, romance, handicraft, athletics, and camping out. Fosters the dramatic instinct in boys by ritualistic and ceremonial features and by the giving of plays and holding of public conclaves. Cost of outfit for organization is $2. Descriptive pamphlet sent free upon request. The Queens of Avalon, a coordinate but independent organization of girls, is conducted under the same management.

Isabel Hampton Robb Memorial Fund (org. 1910), Secy., Miss Katharine de Witt, 19 West Main St., Rochester, N. Y. To assist in the higher education of nurses. Maintains and administers a fund for the awarding of scholarships, fellowships, and other suitable aid to graduate nurses of approved qualifications desiring such higher education in schools, colleges, and other institutions in which this work may be carried on. Grants each year as many scholarships as the income from the Fund will permit, six of $250 each being offered in 1921. Notices that scholarships are offered are sent to accredited schools of nursing throughout the country, to public health nursing associations, and to central directories for nurses. Application blanks are sent to candidates on request. Executive Committee selects from the list of applicants those to receive the scholarships, usually giving them to nurses who wish to prepare to teach, either in training schools for nurses or in the field of public health. Services are available only to members of the American Nurses' Association (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook) who are registered nurses. No dues are required. Central office occasionally issues circulars of information regarding scholarships. Fund is made up of voluntary contributions of nursing organizations and nurses and other interested persons.

Ivako Farms. See National Florence Crittenton Mission.

Jack London Club. See American Humane Education Society.

Jednota Česko-Slovanských Podporujících Spolků ve Spojených Státech a Kanadě. See Bohemian-Slavonic Benevolent Societies of the U. S. and Canada.

Jednota Českých Dam. See Union of Czech Women, Supreme Lodge.

Jednota Táboritu. See Society of the Taborites.

Jewish Agricultural and Industrial Aid Society (org. 1900), 174 Second Ave., New York, N. Y. Maintains branch offices at 706 Roosevelt Rd., Chicago, Ill.; at 532 Pine St., Philadelphia, Pa.; and at 36 Center St., Ellenville, N. Y. Farm Settlement Bureau gives information and advice to prospective Jewish farmers; assists them in buying farms suited to their needs; prevents them from falling prey to "land sharks"; investigates dishonest deals and helps victims to obtain redress; conducts a publicity campaign through the Yiddish newspapers and through public meetings in large cities. Farm Loan Department, following investigations, grants loans to Jewish farmers to assist them in purchasing farms, erecting or improving farm buildings, paying mortgages, and as working capital. The repayment of the loans is spread over a number of years. There is no bonus, commission, or renewal charge. Farm Employment Bureau secures employment for Jewish laborers, affording them the opportunity of getting farming experience. It also assists farmers in securing much needed help. Educational Extension Bureau seeks to supply Jewish farmers with sound advice on the various phases of farming, both through correspondence and through visits of its field workers. These representatives, cooperating with the extension department of several State universities, advise Jewish farmers in regard to farm management, care of the stock, planting, cultivating, harvesting, buying of supplies, marketing of products, and similar problems. Organizes boys' and girls' clubs, and grants scholarships to sons and daughters of Jewish farmers for the short winter courses in the State agricultural colleges. Makes loans to students in the regular courses in agricultural colleges. Engages in community undertakings—religious, social, and educational. Rural Sanitation Department works for the improvement of sanitary conditions in farming communities. Society publishes The Jewish Farmer, the only agricultural magazine in Yiddish in the world, $2 for a three-year subscription. Supported by the Baron de Hirsch Fund (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook).

Jewish Committee. See American Jewish Committee.

Jewish Farmers. See Federation of Jewish Farmers of America.

Jewish Publication Society of America (org. 1888, inc. 1889), + 1201 North Broad St., Philadelphia, Pa. Publishes in English and distributes to members literature of Jewish interest. It is strictly an educational and not a commercial institution. Issues "The American Jewish Year Book", $2 a copy. Membership open to Jews; non-Jews Jewish Social Research Bureau. See Bureau of Jewish Social Research.

Jewish Social Service Conference. See National Conference of Jewish Social Service.

+ Jewish Welfare Board (org. 1917), 149 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y. Ministers to the religious and spiritual needs of the enlisted men of Jewish faith. Conducts religious services and sends devotional and secular literature to men in camps and on ships. Arranges for the observance of Jewish holidays and festivals in the U. S. and in the Canal Zone, the Philippines, Hawaiian Islands, Haiti, China, and among the men in the American Forces in Germany. Representatives are active in several communities where recreational activities are conducted for men. Personal Service Department, at national headquarters, assists soldiers and sailors now in the service and their families, and also ex-service men and their families in the adjustment of war risk insurance, compensation, allowances, and the like. Maintains an office in Washington to facilitate contact with Governmental bureaus on these matters. The Board cooperates with the American Red Cross in ministering to sick and wounded war veterans in hospitals. It finances activities of local committees who visit the hospitals to distribute refreshments, arrange entertainments, and otherwise provide for the comfort and welfare of the patients. A bureau at national headquarters is engaged in identifying the men of Jewish faith among the soldiers who died in the war. Their graves are located and properly marked with the Star of David by the Cemeterial Division of the War Department on receipt of information gathered by this bureau. Photographs of the graves are taken and transmitted by the Board to the next of kin. Board plans to undertake the promotion of the Jewish Center Movement in communities of the U. S.; this activity comes as a result of the amalgamation of the Jewish Welfare Board and the Young Men's Hebrew and Kindred Associations (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook), which was decided upon by both organizations at their respective annual meetings held in October, 1920.

Jewish Women's Council. See Council of Jewish Women.

John A. Andrew Clinical Society. See Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute.

John A. Andrew Memorial Hospital. See Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute.

John F. Slater Fund (org. 1882), 61 Broadway, New York, N. Y. For the improvement and extension of schools for colored children in the South. Contributes to teacher training or industrial work in a number of colleges and private secondary schools. Has established many county training schools, which provide industrial training as well as the usual academic courses, and include some special preparation for teaching. Property of these county schools belongs to the State, county, or district in which they are located. They are part of the public school system. Training offered at present extends in all schools through the eighth school year, and in about half of the schools through the tenth grade. Fund pays $500 annually towards teachers' salaries in each school on condition that the county in which the school is located give at least $750 for the same purpose. Fund is supported by an endowment of $2,000,000. Works in cooperation with the Negro Rural School Fund, Anna T. Jeannes Foundation (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook).

Johns Hopkins University, School of Public Health. See Rockefeller Foundation.

Julius Rosenwald Fund (org. 1914), Genl. Field Agent for Rural Schools, S. L. Smith, Commercial Club, Nashville, Tenn. Extends aid to southern communities desiring to provide modern rural school houses for Negroes. Operates through the State departments of education in the southern States. Cooperates with public school authorities and other agencies and persons interested in Negro schools. Provides suitable equipment for such schools. The sites and buildings of schools aided by the Fund are the property of the public school authorities. Certain restrictions are imposed: (1) the school site must be approved by the State department of education and the General Field Agent of the Fund; (2) it must include ample space for playgrounds and some agricultural work, a minimum of two acres being acceptable for a one-teacher school; (3) the plans and specifications for every building must be approved by the General Field Agent before construction is begun; (4) precedent to receiving the aid of the Fund the people of the community must secure from other sources an amount equal to or greater than that provided by the Fund (labor, land, and material may be counted as cash at current market value); (5) the community contribution, together with the money received from the Fund, must be sufficient to complete, equip, and furnish the building; (6) monthly reports must be made through the State department of education to the Fund on disbursement of capital; (7) the amount appropriated by the Fund shall not exceed $500 for a one-teacher school, $800 for a two-teacher school, and $1,000 for a three-teacher school, except in localities where larger appropriations are required, in which cases special investigations are made; (8) aid is granted only to schools whose terms run at least five consecutive months; (9) every community must agree to complete, equip, and furnish its school building within eight months after reporting that it has qualified for aid from the Fund. On request the Fund will furnish suggestions, plans, and specifications for school houses. Encourages the building of Teachers' Homes on school grounds and in a limited number of selected localities where the annual school term is eight months or more, Fund will consider cooperation in the construction of such Teachers' Homes. The Fund reserves the right to discontinue its operations in behalf of rural schools after reasonable notice to the departments of education of the several cooperating States. Supported by endowment.

Junior Chamber of Commerce. See U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Junior League of America (org. 1901), 6 East 45th St., New York, N. Y. To unite in one body all the Junior Leagues located in cities throughout the U. S., and to promote their individual purposes. Through local groups the League seeks to foster interest among its members in social, economic, educational, and civic conditions in their own communities, and to make efficient their volunteer services. Holds an annual conference. Central office publishes The Junior League Bulletin, monthly except August, September, and October; 15 cents a copy, $1 a year. Membership open on invitation. Supported by fees from member Leagues.

Junior Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

Justice Department. See Department of Justice, U. S.

Kaleva, Knights of. See Knights of Kaleva.

Kaleva, Ladies of. See Ladies of Kaleva.

Katolícká Jednota Sokol. See Catholic Sokol Union.

Katolícky Slovenský Sokol. See Catholic Slovak Sokol.

Kendall School for the Deaf. See Columbia Institution for the Deaf.

Kindergarten Association. See National Kindergarten Association.

Kindergarten Union. See International Kindergarten Union.

King Arthur, International Order of. See International Order of the Knights of King Arthur.

King's Daughters and Sons. See International Order of the King's Daughters and Sons.

Knights of Columbus (org. and inc. 1882), New Haven, Conn. To unite Roman Catholic men upon a common plane of religious and patriotic devotion. Conducts social service, educational, employment, Americanization, and publicity work, and issues death-benefit certificates under special departments as described below. Consists of Supreme Council, State Councils, and Subordinate Councils, the last-named local in character. Supreme Council acts as the supervisory and central office for the branches. Local bodies provide social and intellectual intercourse among members, and promote educational, charitable, religious, welfare, disaster relief, and other public work, according to needs of communities and without restriction of race or creed. Many local Councils maintain Homes which serve as club houses and community centers; operate day nurseries, endow hospitals, protect Catholic minor wards, build chapels at colleges and universities, conduct free employment bureaus, and do other related work. Local branches are under the jurisdiction of State Councils which meet annually and report to the Supreme Council. National body publishes The Columbiad, monthly, 40 cents a year, and books and pamphlets on Catholicism. Membership open to men of Catholic faith. Supported by per capita assessment paid to Supreme Council by local and State groups.

Insurance Department represents the original purpose of the Knights of Columbus. Seeks to teach the young man to make provision for his wife, children, or other dependents in case of his death. Offers fraternal benefit insurance to those members who desire it. Furnishes mutual aid and assistance to sick and disabled members. Issues policies on the step-rate plan, by which assessment is raised every five years to the age of 55; rate is constant from 55 to 70, and at 70, policy is paid up.

Americanization Department conducts Americanization work among the foreign born in America. Employs lecturers who hold open forums throughout the country. Committees on Citizenship, Publicity, Finance, Speakers, and Education conduct special work and assist local Councils in activities of similar nature.

Education Department has founded a chair of American History in Catholic University of America, Washington, D. C., and has endowed in perpetuity 50 free postgraduate scholarships in this institution. Has established vocational schools in cities throughout the country; free to ex-service men, open to others on payment of small fees. These schools offer high school and vocational training and are conducted on plans adopted by the Knights of Columbus Educational Convention, 1920.

Knights of Kaleva (org. 1898), Seventh Ave. and 43d St., Brooklyn, N. Y. Secret society of Finnish men to promote education among members and others. Organizes and supervises branches in various cities throughout the U. S. National office sends workers on request to aid in establishing new branches. Expenses are usually paid by community, if it is at a distance from headquarters. If close at hand, service is rendered without any charge. Branches have weekly social and educational meetings of members and monthly gatherings, open to the public. National society holds a biennial convention jointly with the Ladies of Kaleva (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook), at which cultural addresses are given; the public is invited to attend the conventions. Publishes, in Finnish, Kalevainen, monthly magazine, $1 a year. Monthly dues in local branches vary. National office is supported by payments from local branches.

Knights of King Arthur. See International Order of the Knights of King Arthur.

Knights of Lithuania (Lietuvos Vyciai) (org. 1912, inc. 1915), 3249 South Halsted St., Chicago, Ill. Lithuanian educational and cultural association for men and women. Operates in the U. S. and Canada. National office organizes and supervises branches in local communities throughout the country. Workers from national headquarters will go to communities desiring to organize a branch to explain procedure. Branches provide lectures, plays, concerts, and various ther forms of entertainment and educational opportunities; these are open to the interested public. Larger branches establish social club rooms for members and their guests. These club rooms sometimes have libraries and reading rooms. National office on request provides lecturers on cultural topics for local branches. Branches pay expenses. National headquarters will purchase for members of branches any books issued in the Lithuanian language in the U. S. Publishes The Knight (Vytis), semi-monthly magazine, issued in Lithuanian, $2 for six months, $3.50 a year, free to members. The annual dues of members are 25 cents per month paid to local branch, which in turn sends the money to national headquarters. Branches raise special funds for their own purposes.

Knoxville College. See United Presbyterian Church, Board of Freedmen's Missions.

Labor Department. See Department of Labor, U. S.

Ladies of Kaleva (org. 1902), Negaunee, Mich. Secret society of Finnish women to promote education among members and others. Organizes and supervises branches in various cities throughout the U. S. National office sends workers on request to aid in establishing new branches. Expenses are usually paid by community, if at a distance. If close at hand, service is rendered without charge. Branches have weekly social and educational meetings of members and monthly gatherings open to the public. National society holds a biennial convention jointly with the Knights of Kaleva (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook); the public is invited to attend the meetings. Monthly dues in local branches vary. National office is supported by payments from local branches.

Ladies of the Maccabees (org. 1886, inc. 1891), Maccabee Temple, Port Huron, Mich. Women's fraternal benefit society. Issues a maternity benefit insurance policy whereby members may receive $50 upon the birth of each child. This is not taken from the amount of protection carried, but is a special benefit over and above insurance. A member to be entitled to this benefit must carry life certificate for $500 or more and must have contributed to the maternity benefit fund for at least one year prior to the birth of her child. The rate of this benefit is in addition to the rate for life insurance and is based on the attained age of the member at the time she applies for enrollment in the Maternity Benefit Plan. Society also issues disability, old-age, and life insurance policies. It has endowed in perpetuity beds in several hospitals where members and children of members may receive free treatment. National office employs field representatives for extension of work and establishment of new branches. Services of field workers may be obtained through correspondence with the president. Society maintains national funds for assistance of members in need as the result of illness, accidents, or other misfortunes; branches administer similar funds to aid local members. Central office issues The Body Maccabee, a monthly paper, and other literature on social and health problems. Has films in preparation; address central office for rules for renting. Membership is open to white women of good moral character between the ages of 16 and 55. Members pay monthly assessments according to age at joining besides 15 cents monthly per capita tax, and local dues. Organization is supported by membership dues and fees.

Land Service Committee. See Woman's National Farm and Garden Association.

League of Compulsory Education Officials. See National League of Compulsory Education Officials.

League of Girls' Clubs. See National League of Girls' Clubs.

League for the Hard of Hearing. See New York League for the Hard of Hearing.

League for Industrial Democracy. See Church League for Industrial Democracy.

League of Nursing Education. See National League of Nursing Education.

League of Teachers' Associations. See National League of Teachers' Associations.

League of Women Voters. See National League of Women Voters.

Legal Adviser, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

Lend-a-Hand Society. See National Lend-a-Hand Society.

Leprosarium. See Federal Leprosarium.

Liaison Service with Federal Board for Vocational Education. See American National Red Cross, Post War Services, Vocational Rehabilitation.

Liberal Immigration League. See National Liberal Immigration League.

Library Association. See American Library Association; Special Libraries Association.

Library of Congress, Washington, D. C. Founded by Act of Congress approved April 24, 1800. Serves as the national library. Operates through the Catalogue, Manuscript, Map, Music, Order, Periodical, Print (Fine Art), and Semitic Divisions, as well as through other divisions described below. Through its interlibrary loan system the Library of Congress places at the disposal of scholars its collections, enabling them to consult at first hand publications otherwise practically inaccessible. This is not a traveling library system. It is intended to meet the need of the scholar for the rare, unusual, or expensive book which the local library cannot afford to own. It is not intended to supply material for club use, for debating purpose, or for the work of the undergraduate in schools and colleges. Librarians before attempting to use the interlibrary loan system should write to the Librarian of Congress for the circular "Interlibrary Loans".

Card Distribution Division is somewhat apart from the rest of the Library, but is a most important division to other libraries. It is the selling agency for the Library of Congress cards. It receives and fills all orders for cards, packs them for shipment, and keeps the necessary accounts. Through its distribution of printed catalogue cards, it places at the disposal of all libraries, large or small, the best expert cataloguing at a price much below the cost of even the crudest manuscript cataloguing, and with advantages of legibility and permanency. The stock of cards for sale by the Card Division represents not only the books in the Library of Congress, but also the books in the more important special Government libraries. During recent years the Card Division has also printed and placed on sale cards prepared in the larger libraries throughout the country. The Card Division has printed a circular of information concerning the sale of cards with the title, "L. C. Printed Cards"; this may be had on application.

Copyright: The Copyright Office is also somewhat apart from the other divisions of the Library. It makes the necessary records for copyright claims and after stamping the publications sent in for copyright, so as to identify them with the copyright entries, forwards them to the Order Division for addition to the Library collections. In this office every safeguard is used to insure a complete and indubitable record, since at any time the entry may be subjected to a challenge in a court of law.

Document Division is mainly a forwarding division, receiving, checking, and making ready for binding and cataloguing public documents of all kinds. It also prepares the Monthly List of State Documents sent regularly to State officials as an acknowledgment of material sent to the Library of Congress, and recognized as a valuable index to a very important group of publications.

Legislative Reference Division offers service to members of Congress in their legislative duties. It furnishes information to members of Congress and committees on all subjects that come before Congress for legislative action.

Periodical Division, besides receiving, checking, and preparing the periodicals for binding, also functions as a service division. In its Reading Room unbound periodicals and newspapers are used. When bound, the periodicals pass into the custody of the Superintendent of the Reading Room as part of the main collection of books.

SERVICE DIVISIONS:

(1) Bibliography Division is in a measure a reference division or bureau of information. It serves to a certain extent as a key to the resources of the Library. Its contact with the public is limited to persons requiring reference and bibliographical aid and not satisfied by the printed material available in the Reading Room. All miscellaneous questions not taken care of by the special divisions are submitted to it. Its replies usually direct to sources of information rather than give the information itself, except where the inquiry comes from some locality devoid of library facilities and the information desired can be comprised in a brief memorandum. The Bibliography Division has in constant preparation reference lists on topics of present-day interest. These are first put in typewritten form and are lent freely to libraries all over the country. If the interest in the subject warrants it, the list is printed either as a separate publication in the series of Library of Congress reference lists or as a contribution to some journal or docu-

The Division's reference lists on social, economic, and political conditions go all over the country, and are used by schools, colleges, and civic societies. The Division also prepares lists of references on all conditions of the day, such as lists on organization of community centers, juvenile courts, rural planning and development, rural life, and organization of chambers of commerce and boards of trade.

2) Reading Room has charge of all the books and pamphlets in the Library excepting those consigned to special divisions. It has complete charge of the circulation of library material, which is practically limited to the Government service, and looks after the inter-library loans. The Reading Room and Periodical Division are the divisions which render the most direct service to the public. Both are open to all readers and are open daily from 9 a. m. until 10 p. m. Through these divisions the Library supplies scholars who come to Washington with material for their studies, and also lends books to libraries all over the country.

Library Workers' Association (org. 1920), Secy., Marian C. Manly, Public Library, Sioux City, Iowa. To promote the interest of library workers, especially those who have not had any library schooling. Serves as a clearing house for the exchange of experiences and information. Seeks to secure broader fields of work and adequate remuneration for library workers. Cooperates with other library organizations to stimulate improvement in the standard of library service in the standardization and accessibility of opportunities for training.

Maintains a bureau of employment information for library workers and libraries. Furnishes such information to other employment agencies and institutions. Holds an annual meeting, open to the interested public. Membership is open to any person or institution in sympathy with the aims of the Association. Supported by annual membership dues; individual, $2 and up, according to salary income of preceding year.

Lietuvas Vyciai. See Knights of Lithuania.

Life Extension Institute (org. and inc. 1913), 25 West 45th St., New York, N. Y. For the prevention and discovery of disease. Maintains a central institute where health examinations are made and which directs up the work of committees and examining physicians acting under its direction who make physical examinations and reports and conduct research. Assists communities in establishing and carrying on public health work. Teaches rules of individual hygiene and healthful living by means of monthly bulletins, popular lectures, scientific papers, addresses, and books of instruction. Offers guidance in medical hygiene but gives no medical or surgical treatment. Provides periodic physical examinations for members either at the office or by designated physicians throughout the country who use Institute methods and forms and who send reports to the central office for analysis. Results of examinations are held as strictly confidential. Examiners and physicians from the head office visit industrial plants and give standard, special, and preferred industrial service for $6, $10, and $15, respectively; all of these services include a study of the personal history, a complete physical examination, a report by the examiner, and free literature and advice as to diet and exercise. Special and preferred services include an analysis of the examination findings by specialists at the head office and subsequent physical inspection throughout the year. The Institute also offers examination to policyholders of certain insurance companies with which it has an agreement. Hygiene Reference Board furnishes information and counsel on the principles of disease prevention and hygiene advocated and taught through the Institute, and has special committees on Public Health Administration; Medicine and Surgery; Chemistry; Bacteriology, Pathology, Physiology, Biology; Statistics; Eugenics; Mental Hygiene; Organized Philanthropy; Education; Industrial Hygiene; Mouth Hygiene; Physical Training. Foreign Advisory Board is available for reference on foreign research. Institute publishes numerous educational leaflets and pamphlets and a monthly journal, How to Live, 10 cents a copy, $1 a year. It also publishes special articles in journals, magazines, and newspapers, and "Keep Well" leaflets on health topics, 4 for 25 cents, 10 for 50 cents, $1 for complete series. Has prepared two exhibits, one showing X-ray work, the other explaining by means of photographs its work and examinations; free on request except for transportation charges. Lantern slide lectures containing slides and stereomotorgraph are for rent at $5, plus transportation and breakage charges. Has posters for sale at 40 cents each, $1.50 a set. Charts, showing community health work, relationship between hospital and community and clinic work, are also available. Physicians, public health workers, and other interested persons are invited to write for reports or data relating to Institute's activities. Membership is open to all interested persons; annual dues $20 and up. Support is partly business and partly philanthropic. Institute issues stock, both preferred and common, to be paid when possible. Two-thirds of ultimate proceeds are to be set aside in a trust fund for public use.

Lifers' Club. See Salvation Army.

Lithuanian Medical Association.

Lithuanian Patriotic Society (Lietuvių Tautiška Draugija) (org. 1896, inc. 1908), 101 Oak St., Lawrence, Mass. Educational and cultural association of men and women, operating only in the U. S. Organizes and supervises branches in local communities. Branches provide lectures and other entertainments and offer cultural opportunities. National office issues educational booklets, free to members. The official organ is The League (Sandara) (327 E St., Boston, Mass.), a weekly newspaper, $2.50 a year. Members pay subscription fee as well as annual dues of $1 a year to the central treasury.

Lord's Day Alliance of the U. S. (org. 1888, inc. 1890), 156 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y. To defend and preserve the Lord's Day as a day of rest and worship, and to secure a weekly rest day for laborers. Holds an annual meeting to which the public is invited. Publishes The Lord's Day Leader, bi-monthly, 10 cents a copy, 50 cents a year. Alliance officially represents 16 denominations, among which are the Baptist, Congregational, Disciples, Methodist Episcopal, Methodist Episcopal (South), Moravian, Presbyterian, Protestant Episcopal, Reformed Church in America, Reformed Church in the U. S., Reformed Episcopal, United American Methodist Episcopal, and the United Brethren of Christ. It is supported by free-will offerings of churches, societies, and individuals.

Louisiana Leper Home. See Federal Leprosarium.

Lutheran Augustana Synod of N. A. See Evangelical Lutheran Augustana Synod of N. A.

Lutheran Church in America. See United Lutheran Church in America; Norwegian Lutheran Church of America.

Lutheran Council. See National Lutheran Council.

Maccabees, Ladies of. See Ladies of the Maccabees.

Malaria Committee. See National Malaria Committee.

Marquette League (est. and inc. 1843), 119 Tompkins Ave., N. Y. A Home for aged and destitute women and daughters of seamen who have served in the Navy. No restriction as to residence of inmates. No other form of mental disease except chronic drugs or vices. Inmates becoming insane are removed. Those who are physically able are expected to render such service as they can for the benefit of the institution. No inmates are permitted to leave the Home to secure work, solicit assistance, or dispose of any article made by themselves except by special permission of the Visiting Committee. If any inmates wish to visit their friends, leave of absence must be obtained from the matron and information rendered as to where they intend to stay and the probable length of visit. Inmates must sign a bond assigning all present and future property to the Asylum. Applicants are received on probation for one year. Capacity 40. Admission fee $200. Supported by admission fees, donations from steamship companies, contributions, and by membership dues, $1 and up.

Marquette League. See Bureau of Catholic Indian Missions.

Matice Vyššího Vzdělání. See Council of Higher Education.

Medical Association. See American Medical Association; National Medical Association.

Medical Missionary Department, Seventh-Day Adventists. See Seventh-Day Adventists, Medical Missionary Department of the General Conference.

Medical Social Service, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross, Post War Services.

Mental Hygiene Committee. See National Committee for Mental Hygiene.

Methodist Child Welfare Society (org. 1911), 150 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y. To develop and extend the child welfare work of the Church. Is affiliated with the Board of Hospitals and Homes of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Emphasizes specialized health care, home finding and supervision, care of the juvenile delinquent, and information in mental hygiene. Acts as a clearing house of information. Extends publicity through conferences and the distribution of literature. Organizes local groups to carry on child welfare work. Studies the problems of juvenile delinquency, mental hygiene, visualization, and similar topics, and issues information regarding them. Services are free except for specialized service and materials. Has prepared slides and health charts which may be borrowed by arrangement. Publishes leaflets and The Child Welfare News quarterly, $1 a year, free to persons subscribing $2 or more to the Society. Membership includes interested persons. Supported by contributions and membership dues.

Methodist Episcopal Church, Board of Education for Negroes (org. 1866), 420 Plum St., Cincinnati, Ohio. Formerly the Freedmen's Aid Society. Name changed in 1920. Maintains 18 institutions for Christian education among the Negro people in the southern States and elsewhere. These schools are as follows: Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C.; Central Alabama Institute, Birmingham, Ala.; Claflin College, Orangeburg, S. C.; Clark University, Atlanta, Ga.; Cookman Institute, Jacksonville, Fla.; Flint-Goodridge Hospital and Nurse Training School, New Orleans, La.; Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta, Ga.; George R. Smith College, Sedalia, Mo.; Haven Institute, Meridian, Miss.; Meharry Medical College, Nashville, Tenn.; Morgan College, Baltimore, Md.; Morristown Normal and Industrial College, Morristown, Tenn.; New Orleans-Gilbert College, New Orleans, La.; Philander Smith College, Little Rock, Ark.; Princess Anne Academy, Princess Anne, Md.; Rust College, Holly Spring, Miss.; Samuel Huston College, Austin, Texas; Wiley College, Marshall, Texas. Instruction in these institutions is given in literary, professional, industrial, and Biblical subjects. Educational Director serves as an ex-officio member of the Committee on Teachers and on Course of Study; he visits and examines schools, holds teachers' meetings, and reports to the Board. Presidents of the several schools make monthly and annual reports to the Board. Corresponding secretaries travel throughout the country and give general supervision to the Board's institutions; they publish information regarding the work of the Board and prepare its Annual Report. Board holds an annual meeting at which are read reports prepared by special and standing committees. Board publishes an Annual Report and The Christian Educator, free on request. Not a membership body. Supported by free-will offerings within the Church.

Methodist Episcopal Church, Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, 1701 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa. Operates through departments, described below. Publishes an Annual Report, and literature covering special phases of missionary and church extension activities. Most of these are available for free distribution on application to the Board.

Department of Rural Work cooperates with various theological seminaries, Methodist colleges and Wesley Foundations at State universities and agricultural colleges throughout the country in offering class instruction and field work both to students preparing for positions in the Church, and other students as well. In addition to the four-year courses, the Department assists in arranging summer courses of three weeks each for which it provides scholarships, available to Methodist ministers. In cooperation with the Church Extension Department, the Rural Department also aids small communities in building churches and parish houses suitable for community service, and in erecting suitable residences for pastors. It organizes rural ministers' associations and rural missionary societies for the purpose of carrying on more adequate programs of relating the church to community welfare. It conducts investigations of rural and community conditions, and publishes the results in pamphlet form. Department also publishes, quarterly, The Rural News-Letter which is distributed to rural ministers. It has a number of illustrated lectures on rural church and community conditions; available for use at a moderate rental.

Department of City Work is in charge of missionary activities in all communities with a population of 10,000 or more. It has practically the same objectives as the Rural Department and conducts its work through city societies and conference boards of home missions and church extension.

Department of Frontier Work is in charge of such work in frontier States as has not been taken over by the other departments. A program in general similar to that of above departments is followed.

Methodist Episcopal Church, Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals (org. 1908), 110 Maryland Ave. NE., Washington, D. C. To promote educational work in behalf of moral reform and social adjustment. Holds an annual conference. Field secretaries attend annual conferences of the denomination and are available at all times to speak in local churches; such services are offered free of charge. Board publishes results of its investigations as to effects of prohibition in different communities; it also publishes and distributes handbooks and leaflets dealing with other questions of social reform; free on request. It issues a periodical which is sent to pastors of the Church. Maintains educational work in Europe, Asia and South America. Lantern slides are lent to churches or other agencies paying for transportation. Supported by annual apportionment from the Church.

Methodist Episcopal Church, General Deaconess Board (org. 1900), Cor. Secy., Rev. Daniel W. Howell, 675 Ellicott Sq., Buffalo, N. Y. Has general supervision of the Deaconess work throughout Methodism. Maintains Deaconess Homes which include Baby Folds, Children's Homes, Homes for Young Women, and Homes for the Aged; these Homes have a total capacity of about 1,000. Deaconess Schools, including Training Schools, Girls' Schools, Boys' Schools, and Girls' and Boys' Schools have a total enrollment of 600. Deaconess Hospitals with training courses for nurses are operated throughout the country; free treatment is offered to needy patients in many of these institutions. Individual Deaconesses minister to the sick and needy, assist travelers at railroad stations, act as probation officers in conjunction with police departments, take children to summer camps and for day's outings. Deaconesses, many of whom are principals and teachers in secondary schools, industrial schools, and daily Bible schools, or superintendents or nurses in Deaconess Hospitals, carry on Americanization work in Deaconess Social Settlements.

Methodist Episcopal Church, Woman's Home Missionary Society (inc. 1884), 420 Plum St., Cincinnati, Ohio. To enlist and organize Christian women to labor in behalf of needy women and children in all parts of our country, without distinction of race; to cooperate with the other societies and agencies of the Methodist Episcopal Church in educational and missionary work. Conducts special work through its standing committees and administrative bureaus and departments (see pages 172-5). Maintains several Esther Homes for working girls in large cities and conducts protective work in Epworth School, St. Louis, Mo. Holds an annual meeting, the Proceedings of which are published in its Annual Report. Special Committees on Literature, Evangelism, Temperance, Missionary Candidates, and the Needlework Bureau conduct work as indicated by their titles. The Society conducts conference work and extends its activities through local conference societies as follows: California, Central New York, Erie, Central Pennsylvania, Genesee (N. Y.), Kansas, Lexington (Ohio), Maine, Michigan, Minnesota, Newark, New England, Southern, North East Ohio, Northern Minnesota, Northern New York, Oregon, Puget Sound, Rock River (Ill.), Southern California, Southern Illinois, West Ohio, West Wisconsin, and Wisconsin. These societies hold annual meetings and report to the national society. National office publishes Woman's Home Missions, monthly, and Children's Home Missions. Supported by membership dues, offerings, subscriptions, and special funds.

(1) Department of Young People's Work, Genl. Secy., Mrs. David Bailey, 2120 North 12th St., Philadelphia, Pa. Supervises local Young Women's Auxiliaries and Queen Esther Circles which give assistance to the Esther Home at Ogden, Utah, and the McCrum Settlement House at Uniontown, Pa., support many Mission teachers and give aid to students through scholarships.

(2) Department of Children's Work, Genl. Secy., Mrs. Annie Hobbs Woodcock, 2523 Elma St., Kansas City, Mo. Through its local branches of Home Guards and Mothers' Jewels, it gives aid to orphanages, missions, and industrial Homes and grants scholarships for many students.

(3) Bureau of Children's Homes, Secy., 101 Comstock Pl., Syracuse, N. Y. Provides homes for dependent and destitute children at York, Nebr. (capacity 100); Polo, Ill. (capacity 12); Tivoli, N. Y.; and Baldwin, La.

(4) Alaska Bureau, Secy., 3507 Sixth Ave., Tacoma, Wash. Maintains a mission home, an orphanage, and a hospital at Nome, Alaska, for native Eskimos; also operates a Home and school at Unalaska.

(5) Chinese Bureau, Secy., Mrs. Lucy McClintic, 1728 Berkeley Way, Berkeley, Calif. Maintains a Chinese Home for Girls at 940 Washington St., San Francisco, Calif.

(6) City Mission Work Bureau, Secy., Mrs. M. E. Taylor, West Newton, Mass. Maintains the Boston Medical Mission at 36 Hull St., Boston, Mass., which gives free dispensary and medical nursing service; the Campbell Settlement at 1108 Indiana Ave., Gary, Ind.; Marcy Center, Chicago, Ill.; and Portland Center, Portland, Oreg.

(7) Indian Work Bureau, Mrs. S. S. Beggs, Topeka, Kans. Maintains Esther Home for Indian girls at Haskell Institute, Lawrence, Kans.; the Pottawatomie Mission at Mayetta, Kans.; the Ponca Mission at White Eagle, Okla.; the Navajo Indian Industrial School at Farmington, N. Mex.; the Stickney Mission for Noonsack Indians at Everson, Wash.; the Digger Indian Mission in California; and the Yuma Indian Mission at Yuma, Ariz.

(8) Japanese and Korean Work Bureau, Secy., Mrs. W. C. Evans, 2025 Pine St., San Francisco, Calif. Maintains Homes for Japanese and Korean girls in Seattle, Wash.; Los Angeles, Calif.; Honolulu, T. H.; and San Francisco, Calif.

(9) Bureaus for Negro Work conduct educational and mission work and maintain Homes for Negroes. These bureaus and the institutions they support may be addressed as follows: in Florida and Mississippi, Secy., Mrs. L. B. Bunyan, 2104 Main St., Richmond, Ind.; the Boylan Home Industrial Training School, Jacksonville, Fla.; Elizabeth L. Rust Home, Holly Springs, Miss.: in Georgia, Secy., Mrs. K. S. Burnett, 4725 Northwood Ave., Frankford, Philadelphia, Pa.; Thayer Home, Atlanta, Ga.; Haven Home, Montgomery Cross Roads, Savannah, Ga.; Atlanta Mission, Atlanta, Ga.: in North Carolina and South Carolina, Secy., Mrs. E. L. Albright, 1227 East 57th St., Chicago, Ill.; Browning Home and Mather Industrial Academy, Camden, S. C.; Allen Industrial Home and Lurandus Beach Industrial School, 241 College St., Asheville, N. C.: in Texas, Secy., Mrs. E. W. Seeds, 74 East Merritts Ave., Atlanta, Ga.; Eliza Dee Home, 1203 East Ave., Austin, Texas; King Industrial Home, Marshall, Texas: in West Central States, Secy., Mrs. Horace T. Dennis, 56 Moss Ave., Highland Park, Mich.; Kent Industrial Home, Greensboro, N. C.; New Jersey Conference Industrial Home, Morristown, Tenn.: in West Southern States, Adeline Smith Home, 1101 Izard St., Little Rock, Ark.; Peck School of Domestic Science and Art, 5323 Pitt St., New Orleans, La.

(10) Porto Rican Bureau, Secy., Mrs. Lillian Leonard Slack, 2303 Clarendon Rd., Brooklyn, N. Y. Maintains an orphanage and four kindergartens and day schools in Porto Rico.

(11) Spanish Work in the Southwest Bureau, Secy., Mrs. John H. Freeman, Prospect, Ohio. Maintains industrial schools at Tucson, Ariz., and Los Angeles, Calif.; and a settlement and dispensary at El Paso, Texas.

(12) National Training School for Missionaries and Deaconesses,

Secy., Miss E. Jean Oram, 1831 East 93d St., Cleveland, Ohio. Supervises work of the Church's training schools at 1150 North Capitol St., Washington, D. C.; 129 Haight St., San Francisco, Calif.; East 15th St. and Denver Ave., Kansas City, Mo.; 26 Nutt Ave., Uniontown, Pa.; Herkimer, N. Y.; 1155 West 9th St., Des Moines, Iowa; 576 George St., New Haven, Conn.

(13) Bureau for Utah, Chmn., Mrs. Silas Sprowls, Los Angeles, Calif. Maintains a Deaconess Home at 347 East 4th St., Salt Lake City, Utah; the Ogden Esther Home at 475 Twenty-Fifth St., Ogden, Utah; community work at Bingham Canyon, Utah.

(14) Bureaus for White Work maintain industrial homes, settlements, and schools for white people. These bureaus and their respective institutions may be addressed as follows: in Alabama and Georgia, Secy., Mrs. Chas. F. Thirkield, Franklin, Ohio; the Rebecca McCleeky Industrial Home and Ellen Augusta Nottingham Primary School, Boaz, Ala.; Deborah McCarty Settlement Home and School, Cedartown, Ga.; in Kentucky, Secy., Mrs. Madison Swadener, 3622 Hemlock Ave., Indianapolis, Ind.; Aiken Hall (boarding and day school) and Erie Home, Olive Hill, Ky.; in Mississippi, Secy., Mrs. Heber D. Ketcham, 429 West Charles St., Muncie, Ind.; Bennett Academy (school) and Bennett Academy Farm, Dickson Industrial Home for Girls, and the Irving and Florence Wood Home for Boys, Mathiston, Miss.; in North Carolina and Tennessee, Secy., Mrs. A. B. Cline, 324 West Market St., Bluffton, Ind.; Ebenezer Mitchell Home, Musenheimer, N. C.; Elizabeth Ritter Home (for girls), Athens, Tenn.

(15) Deaconess Bureaus and their individual groups (New England, Eastern, Central, Western and Northern, Pacific Coast and Northwest) conduct educational and settlement work, give medical aid, maintain Homes, conduct work among the foreign born, serve as child-caring and placing agencies, do home visiting among the sick and the poor, conduct travelers' aid activities, offer training for deaconesses, maintain day nurseries and social centers.

(16) Hospital Bureau, Secy., Mrs. D. B. Street, The Kenesaw, Washington, D. C. Supervises the 10 hospitals which belong to the Society. These are located in Washington, D. C.; Keokuk, Iowa; Springfield, Mo.; Carbondale, Ill.; Rapid City, S. Dak.; Colorado Springs, Colo.; Albuquerque, N. Mex.; Los Angeles, Calif.; Jacksonville, Fla.; Nome, Alaska.

(17) District Associations and Auxiliaries, Young People's ocieties, Home Guards, and Mothers' Jewels also conduct work under the general supervision of the Woman's Home Missionary Society.

(18) Field Work, Secy., Miss Carrie Barge, Delaware, Ohio. Field Secretaries are representatives who visit communities throughout the U. S., advising and assisting local branches in their work and giving public addresses. Summer Schools and girls' conferences are held throughout the country as a part of the Society's field work. Student Secretary and Assistant Student Secretary visit colleges to extend missionary interest among students and awaken a spirit of response in Life Service.

Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Commission on Temperance and Social Service, Chmn., Bishop James Cannon, Jr., Atlanta, Ga. To extend temperance and to develop social service work within the Church. Holds an annual meeting.

Methodist Federation for Social Service (org. 1907), 150 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y. Executive social service agency of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Maintains an information bureau for the compilation and distribution of pertinent literature. Suggests plans for the Annual Conference Social Service Commissions and directs their work. Seeks to extend social evangelism. Officers of the Federation give lectures on social service subjects. Federation publishes The Social Service Bulletin, monthly, 50 cents a year to members; books, pamphlets, leaflets, cards, reading lists, and news-letters. Address central office for names and prices of publications. Membership dues, $1 and up. Supported by dues and voluntary contributions.

Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, Welfare Division (org. 1909), 1 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y. Seeks to educate policyholders and others in personal hygiene by the distribution of specially prepared booklets and pamphlets to teach them the fundamentals of health and the prevention of disease. Maintains visiting nurse service to care for policyholders when ill, and incidentally to teach sanitation and hygiene. Ordinary policyholders are entitled to periodic medical examinations by the Life Extension Institute (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook). Division has developed an Industrial Service Bureau to cooperate with employers of labor in securing better working and living conditions for their work people. The Immigrant Service Bureau furnishes necessary information to policyholders who desire to bring relatives to the U. S. from foreign countries. Division cooperates with health and other officials of States and cities to secure adequate legislation and appropriations for the conduct of constructive and progressive health work. It has prepared exhibits, made sickness and sanitary surveys, carried on "clean up" and baby welfare campaigns, organized a "Health and Happiness League for Policyholders", and assisted health authorities in epidemic situations. There is in progress an investigation as to the cause and cure of influenza. Division has also aided the National Tuberculosis Association (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook) in conducting a Community Health and Tuberculosis Demonstration at Framingham, Mass. Offers assistance and cooperation to officials or agencies working for the health and welfare of the people of the U. S. and Canada.

Military Relief, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

Milk Producers' Association of America. See Certified Milk Producers' Association of America.

Milk Producers' Federation. See National Milk Producers' Federation.

Milk Standards Commission. See Commission on Milk Standards.

Missionary Association. See American Missionary Association.

Missionary Education Movement of the U. S. and Canada (org. 1902, inc. 1907), 150 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y. The cooperating agency of the home and foreign mission boards of the U. S. and Canada for publishing missionary education material and promoting missionary education in the churches. Its home mission books for adults and young people, and stories and programs of suggested service activities for children deal with a variety of community problems as related to the organized work of the mission boards. It conducts interdenominational conferences and institutes for the discussion of problems and for the training of teachers. For prices and lists of publications address central office. Supported by the cooperating mission boards.

Modern Health Crusade. See National Tuberculosis Association.

Motion Picture Bureau. See Community Motion Picture Bureau.

Motion Picture League. See National Motion Picture League.

Motion Pictures Board of Review. See National Board of Review of Motion Pictures.

Municipal League. See National Municipal League.

Municipal Research and Training School for Public Service Bureau. See New York Bureau of Municipal Research and Training School for Public Service.

Národná Slovenská Jednota. See National Slovak Union.

Národní Svaz Českých Katolíků v Americe. See National Federation of Czech Catholics in America, Supreme Lodge.

Národný Slovenský Spolok v Spojených Státoch. See National Slovak Society in the U. S. A.

National Academy of Sciences. See National Research Council.

National Alliance. See Czecho-Slovak National Alliance; Polish National Alliance.

National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (org. 1909, inc. 1911), 70 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y. To abolish racial injustice to Negroes; to stamp out race discriminations and to better race relations; to prevent lynching, burning and torturing of Negroes; to assure to Negroes their rights as American citizens; to compel equal accommodations in railway travel. Seeks through apportionment of public education funds to this end to secure for colored children an opportunity for public school education equal to that given white boys and girls. Carries on educational and protective work through publicity campaigns and through activities of local chapters. Maintains an Anti-Lynching Fund for investigation and publication of facts concerning lynchings and race riots. Seeks to counteract false news reports. Through its Legal Committee gives free legal aid to Negroes. Publishes and distributes literature covering the Association's educational work, anti-lynching campaigns, and branch organization work. Lists and prices may be obtained on application. Holds an annual meeting, Proceedings of which are published. Special work conducted by standing committees on Anti-Lynching and Branches, by the Legal Committee, Division of Publications and Research, and by Field Secretaries. Association issues The Crisis, monthly, 15 cents a copy, $1.50 a year, and The Branch Bulletin, monthly, 25 cents a year. Supported by contributions and by membership fees, $1 and up.

National Association of Civic Secretaries (org. 1911), Secy., Francis T. Hayes, City Club, Cleveland, Ohio. Serves as a clearing house of information for professional secretaries of civic and related agencies. Service rendered only to members includes interchange of literature issued by each agency represented, and furnishing of up-to-date information regarding speakers available for forum meetings and other technical secretarial matters. Publications are also issued only to members. Membership is limited to civic secretaries. Supported by membership dues, $3 a year.

National Association of Colored Graduate Nurses (org. 1908, inc. 1920), Pres., Mrs. Adah B. Thoms, Lincoln Hospital, Bronx, New York, N. Y. To standardize nursing among colored graduate nurses. Holds an annual convention. Maintains a central registry for Negro nurses. Urges young Negro women to become nurses, and secures financial assistance for graduate nurses. National organizer has established local branches in a number of cities; services of this officer are given free. Association publishes an Annual Report, free to members. Membership open to colored nurses graduated from registered schools. Supported by contributions and by membership dues, $3 a year.

National Association of Colored Women (org. 1896, inc. 1904), Pres., Miss Hallie Q. Brown, Wilberforce Univ., Xenia, Ohio. Has affiliated State and city federations and local clubs of colored women in more than half the States of the Union. National organizer stimulates and assists in the formation of federations and clubs. Community requesting this service usually pays expenses. National Association holds biennial meetings, open to the public, at which are discussed civic and social questions and any matters relating to the welfare of the colored race. Proceedings are published; available on request until supply is exhausted. Work is carried on throughout the year by standing committees on Education, Suffrage, Civil Rights, Social Service, Music, and other topics. Committees make reports at biennial meetings. The more important of these reports are included in the Proceedings.

National Association for Constitutional Government (org. 1914), 716 Colorado Bldg., Washington, D. C. To propagate a wider and more accurate knowledge of the Constitution of the U. S. and of the distinctive features of constitutional government. Establishes State and other local chapters for extension of its work. Issues and distributes "Pocket Edition of the Constitution of the U. S.", with a descriptive introduction; for sale at nominal cost. Publishes The Con- stitutional Review, quarterly, $1 a year; pamphlets, bulletins, and other literature furnished free on request. All publications are sent free to members. Citizens of the U. S. and those who have declared their intention to become citizens are eligible for membership. Supported by membership dues, $2 and up.

National Association of the Deaf (org. 1880, inc. 1900), Secy., A. L. Roberts, Kendall Green, Washington, D. C. To advance the intellectual, professional, and industrial status of the deaf, and to inform the public in regard to them. Seeks to improve, develop, and establish schools for the deaf throughout the U. S., and to encourage the use of approved methods of instruction adapted to the needs of individual pupils. Stimulates the educational improvement and social enjoyment of its members by correspondence, consultation, and conferences. Opposes unjust application of liability laws to deaf workers and discrimination against the deaf in employment. Works for the enactment of laws to suppress the imposter evil. Holds annual conventions, open to the public. State organizers assist in forming local associations; this service is offered free. National Association publishes The Nad, quarterly, 10 cents a year, free to members. Membership open to any deaf citizen of the U. S., and to hearing persons interested in the deaf. Supported by membership dues ($1 initiation fee, 50 cents a year, $10 for life membership), and by an endowment fund.

National Association of Negro Musicians (org. 1919), Secy., Miss Alice Carter Simmons, Tuskegee Institute, Tuskegee, Ala. To foster Negro talent and to labor for economic and educational betterment of the Negro. Aims to stimulate racial expression in music. Holds an annual meeting, Proceedings of which are published and sent free to members; available to other interested persons requiring it. Publishes The Negro Musician, monthly, 15 cents a copy, $1.75 a year. Individual membership limited to persons actively engaged in the profession of music and those of definite and sound musicianship. Supported by individual membership dues (initiation $5, annual thereafter $3) and fees from local organizations.

National Association for the Study of Epilepsy and the Care and Treatment of Epileptics (org. 1901), Pres., G. Kirby Collier, M. D., 525 Lake Ave., Rochester, N. Y. To promote the general welfare of sufferers from epilepsy. Studies the causes and methods of cure of epilepsy. Seeks to stimulate interest in epilepsy and to instruct the public regarding the characteristics which are peculiar to the so-called epileptic make-up. Advocates public care for afflicted persons in separate institutions where research may be conducted. Holds an annual meeting, open to the interested public. Publishes Proceedings of annual meetings; free to members, for sale to non-members at $3 a copy. Supported by contributions and by membership dues, $5 a year.

— National Association of Teachers in Colored Schools (org. 1903), Secy., Silas X. Floyd, 1025 Twelfth St., Augusta, Ga. For the promotion of education and the betterment of teachers in colored schools. Has organized State associations throughout the South. Holds an annual meeting, open to the public, for the discussion of problems. Holds mass meetings to arouse public opinion, and further extends publicity through articles in newspapers published by colored people. Publishes a quarterly bulletin, The Note Book, $1 a year; free to members. Membership includes teachers in schools for Negroes, and State associations of such teachers. Supported by membership dues, $2 and up.

— National Association of Travelers Aid Societies (org. 1917), 25 West 43d St., New York, N. Y. Non-sectarian, non-commercial, and non-political. A national federation of local travelers aid societies for the purpose of standardizing methods of their work and extending and improving their activities in cities where needed. Serves as a clearing house of information for social agencies doing protective work for travelers and strangers in cities, and also for transients and newcomers to a city, at railway stations and steamship landings. Originated largely to combat the white slave traffic; operates primarily as a protective agency with special reference to girls, boys, and young women in the emergencies and temptations of travel until they arrive at their proper destination. Holds an annual meeting of delegates from local societies. Field Staff organizes new branches and conducts supervisory and follow-up work. For services of field workers, address central office. Local societies assist all travelers needing help, guidance or protection; meet persons, on request, at stations and docks, see that they are safeguarded to their destinations, or refer them to workers of similar agencies in cities to which they are traveling; assist strangers to find respectable and suitable lodging, to enter responsible institutions, or to return to their own homes; aid strangers in securing employment; place names of strangers with organizations which may develop them socially, mentally, or religiously, and otherwise aid them; furnish information and advice as requested; conduct work for immigrants. All services are rendered free. Designated workers wear the official badge; it is in the shape of a shield, has a red and blue border, shows a palm tree in gilt on white background and bears the words, "Travelers Aid Society". Training School Department conducts training courses for workers and executives; for this no fee is charged. For particulars address central office. Publicity Department issues numerous pamphlets advertising the dangers of cities and describing assistance offered by Travelers Aid Workers; National Travelers Aid Bulletin, bi-monthly, $1 a year; "A Directory of Travelers Aid Work in U. S. and Canada and Cooperative Organizations in Other Countries", 75 cents a copy. Slides and exhibit material are in preparation. Organization membership open to societies accepting definition of work of national organization and promising cooperation in it; this includes non-sectarian associations existing solely for the purpose of aiding travelers; organizations, either sectarian or interdenominational, which regularly carry on the work of aiding travelers, but exist also for other purposes; and societies cooperating in the work of aiding travelers, but maintaining no definitely organized work for this purpose. Annual dues are $10 per organization. Individual membership is open to all interested persons. Supported by contributions and subscriptions, organization membership dues, and occasional donations from local groups.

National Baptist Convention (org. 1880), Secy., R. B. Hudson, Selma, Ala. A Negro Baptist organization. Holds an annual convention. Carries on work through its Boards, named as follows: Foreign Mission, Home Mission, Sunday School Publishing, Educational, Baptist Young Peoples', Church Benefit, Church Extension, and Women's Auxiliary. Conducts the National Theological Seminary at Nashville, Tenn., and the National Training School for Women and Girls at Washington, D. C. The National Baptist Convention maintains mission schools and stations in Africa and South America and sends missionaries to teach and work in them. Educates foreign students in American schools, and contributes towards educating African girls in their own country. Publishes National Baptist Voice, weekly, $2 a year.

The Women's Convention, auxiliary to the above, is an annual meeting, open to the public. Through local branches it conducts studies of conditions among American Negroes and suggests practical methods of bettering them. Advocates higher standards of education for Negro ministers, better church buildings, and better care of churches already built. Urges improved housing conditions and a simple program of recreation for southern Negroes in the North. Field secretary visits churches and homes in various States and organizes branch societies. Convention raises funds with which to train special workers, organize agencies to meet the needs of Negro women in rural districts, establish rural schools, and improve rural churches. Endeavors to secure better working and living conditions for Negro women in domestic service. Publishes an Annual Report, furnished free on request.

National Board of Fire Underwriters (org. 1866), 76 William St., New York, N. Y. An educational, engineering, statistical, and public service organization for the reduction of fire hazard in the U. S. Has branch offices in Chicago and San Francisco. Special work is carried on by its committees described below. Its public service is free. Actuarial Bureau collects, classifies, and tabulates statistical material contained in the records of member fire-insurance companies; makes available information concerning hazards of thousands of fires each year, fire loss in every class of property, and comparative statistics of special hazards in certain classes of occupancy and in certain localities. Committee on Construction of Buildings acts as a clearing house for information upon fire-resistive building construction and similar technical subjects. Keeps in touch with State and city commissions that are preparing building laws, and criticizes and reviews proposed building codes sent to it. Has issued a model building code and a booklet on simple and inexpensive methods for increasing the safety of dwelling houses. Committee on Fire Prevention and Engineering Standards studies systematic measures for fire protection and prevention, and makes free engineering surveys of American cities. Has a force of qualified fire-prevention engineers who operate in field parties, investigating water supply, fire departments, fire-alarm systems, and all local facilities for fire protection. Field parties prepare reports with maps and diagrams, and make practical suggestions for correcting defects. Committee also investigates and reports upon special hazards. Has prepared standard schedule of grading cities and towns with reference to their facilities for fire protection. Committee on Incendiarism and Arson conducts war upon incendiaries. Staff of field investigators cooperates with local officials in the work of apprehending and punishing criminals and eliminating arson. Committee on Laws studies important matters of legislative requirements pertaining to fire regulations, keeps records of court decisions, and sends out such information to member companies. Committee on Public Relations supplements the technical work of other committees by means of educational activities. Underwriters Laboratories, located in Chicago and New York, maintain forces of technical experts who conduct laboratory tests upon articles, supplies, and processes directly associated with fire hazard, fire prevention, or fire fighting. The operation of these laboratories is "For Service—not Profit"; reports are strictly impartial. All requests for service should be addressed to the General Manager. Board publishes Safeguarding America Against Fire, monthly; numerous books, pamphlets, and bulletins; free to anyone interested. The membership of the National Board of Fire Underwriters consists of stock fire insurance companies. Board is supported by assessments upon its members.

National Board of Review of Motion Pictures (org. '1909), 70 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y. A volunteer organization working in cooperation with the motion-picture industry and in behalf of the public for the production of wholesome photoplays. Review Committee at its weekly meetings examines and passes on the majority of moving pictures before their release for exhibition. Membership in this committee is voluntary and based on election; persons connected with the motion-picture business are ineligible. Committee bases its decisions on information gathered by the Advisory Committee which reflects public opinion in different parts of the country. Fee for reviewing pictures is charged to companies producing them, regardless of Committee's decision. National Committee for Better Films conducts propaganda for the establishment of young people's performances in and out of theaters and for the inauguration of family night entertainments with the cooperation of theater managers. Field representatives of the Board will assist community groups to establish such programs; address central office for particulars. After-relation to community work is maintained through Film Progress (see below) and through reports sent by community committees to the national office. Speakers' Bureau will supply lecturers for public meetings; particulars furnished on application. Central office publishes a weekly Bulletin, which is sent free to city officials throughout the country and which carries weekly decisions of the Reviewing Committee; Film Progress, $1 a year, sent to local committees. Has issued lists of selected motion pictures on such subjects as: Americanization and education; pictures suitable for family programs, young people, and for special entertainments; pictures adapted for use in church and semi-religious entertainments. These lists are for sale at 25 cents each. Board also issues pamphlets and leaflets, free, or for sale at nominal prices. National Board is supported by fees for pictures reviewed, through sale of literature and selected lists, subscriptions to Film Progress, and through contributions.

National Bureau of Economic Research (org. and inc. 1920), 175 Ninth Ave., New York, N. Y. For exact and impartial determination of those facts which bear upon social, economic, and industrial problems, in such manner and under such supervision as shall make its findings carry conviction to all. Is precluded by charter from becoming an agency for profit or propaganda. Assumes no obligation to contributors, except to determine and publish facts. Proposes investigations dealing with distribution of income in the U. S. among individuals and through basic sources, wages, interests, rents and profits, and so on; other investigations to deal with topics of national importance, the object being to place present-day discussion upon the basis of facts, distinguishable from partisan opinion. Board of Directors includes representatives of various economic interests and points of view. Permanent staff for scientific work includes statisticians and economists of established reputation. Bureau will publish occasional reports based on investigations. Plans to make special arrangements with any community requiring scientific statistical investigation. Supported by voluntary subscriptions and initial donation from the Commonwealth Fund (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook).

National Catholic War Council. See National Catholic Welfare Council.

National Catholic Welfare Council (org. 1917 as the National Catholic War Council; reorg. under present name 1919), 1312 Massachusetts Ave. NW., Washington, D. C. Composed of the Hierarchy of the U. S., functioning through an Administrative Committee of three Archbishops and four Bishops. Organized for the purpose of unifying, coordinating, and encouraging all of the Roman Catholic activities in the U. S.; to initiate and conduct social welfare work at home and abroad; to aid in the education and care of immigrants; generally to enter into and promote by instruction, publication, and direction all Catholic lay activities in the U. S. The work is divided among five departments which cover the greater fields of Catholic activity.

Department of Publicity, Press and Literature conducts a weekly news service supplying current information and editorial and special feature articles to the Catholic press of the U. S. Issues a monthly editorial sheet; operates at national headquarters a free Information and Clipping Bureau, available to anyone, and also a Book and Pamphlet Bureau which aims to keep in touch with all Catholic publications and to have copies of them on file in its library. All pamphlets are free on application to the office of the Department.

Department of Historical Records is gathering data pertaining to the activities of Catholics and Catholic societies during the World War, as a register of all Catholic soldiers, sailors, and marines, and also a complete roster of Catholic men who died in the service. Will shortly issue in book form a history of Catholic participation in the War; price about $2.

Educational Department seeks to enlighten the public, Catholic and non-Catholic, as to the aims and nature of Catholic education. It is gathering complete data regarding proposed Federal and State legislation affecting education, and will furnish such information to teachers and the public generally. This is supplied free on application to national headquarters. It is also preparing a directory of Catholic education to be published annually; a bibliography of books on education by Catholic authorities; a survey of rural educational conditions; a survey of Catholic educational work among the Negroes. Department plans to carry on a publicity campaign through Catholic churchmen and through the Catholic and general press, protecting Catholic educational systems against destructive opposition and legislation.

Laws and Legislation Department keeps in constant touch with Federal and State departments so that proposed legislation affecting the legal and moral rights of citizens with the church of their affiliation may be safe-guarded. It studies proposed legislation; sees that information relative to legislation may reach interested individuals and organizations; obtains for such organizations whatever advice, aid, and support may be necessary in order that legislation may be intelligently supported or effectively opposed according to the merits of the case.

Lay Organization Department supervises the work of two newly-formed organizations of Catholic men and women as described below.

National Council of Catholic Men: To coordinate all existing Catholic men's organizations so that their united action may be more effective; to help them so far as lies in its power to cover their particular fields; to establish parish and diocesan councils of this body; to promote the cause of Catholic lay activity, both organized and individual, in every parish and diocese of the U. S.; to secure the cooperation of existing agencies in order to meet new needs; to provide agencies for the training of Catholic men in the field of social service; to provide civic centers for Catholic young men; to care for the adolescent boy, and to establish such groups as will meet this problem; to encourage and extend the work of scout troops for Catholic boys; to establish agencies for the caring of immigrants. Holds an annual meeting. Supported by membership dues; individual, $1; organizations, $10 and up.

National Council of Catholic Women: To correlate the work of all Catholic women's organizations. Serves as a medium through which the Catholic women of the country may speak and act as a unit on matters of public interest. Plans to establish a Service Bureau which will give information service, act as an employment exchange, particularly for social workers, and recruit workers for social service. Council will undertake research in special types of social work and serve as a medium for the exchange of ideas and experiences; it will conduct field work especially for the protection of immigrant and young girls. It holds an annual meeting, open to the interested public.

Social Action Department furnishes information and seeks to spread propaganda for Catholic principles and ideals in citizenship and industrial and social service. It conducts lectures on social service, child welfare, delinquents, care of the sick, industrial relations, and similar topics. It issues free to all Catholic papers in the U. S. a weekly newsletter giving current industrial and civic news. Serves as a bureau of information, open to anyone. Department has issued pamphlets on industrial problems, civics, and charity organization. It supervises the work of the Catholic Hospital Association (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook).

National Child Health Council (org. 1920), 17th and D Sts. NW., Washington, D. C. Acts as a clearing house for the literature, plans, programs and itineraries of its constituent organizations so far as they deal with child health. Is a council of national organizations, which, through conferences, reports, and field experimentation, aims to develop methods of coordinating all child health efforts of the constituent organizations, in relation to each other, to other national organizations and public departments, and to State and local agencies.

- National advisory committees on such subjects as health provisions ational Child Labor Committee (org. 1904, inc. 1907), 105 East St., New York, N. Y. Organized to safeguard childhood as affected by industrial and agricultural conditions, and to promote the normal development of children by opportunities of education and health; to create throughout the U. S. an enlightened public opinion in support of these objects, and to secure their progressive realization by enactment and enforcement of appropriate laws. The legislative program of the Committee is chiefly concerned with child labor laws, compulsory education laws, mothers' pension laws, and children's cases. Items in the Committee's whole program include: better child labor laws, better enforced; better school attendance laws, better enforced; better schools with stronger holding power of their own; vocational training, guidance, and placement; health supervision of child in school and at work; physical examination of applicants for working papers; provision of public recreation facilities for children; children's scholarships, mothers' pensions, and other means of relieving overwhelming poverty; all children under 16 in school on full time; all children between 16 and 18 in part-time or continuation schools, unless employed on full time. Investigation and research work is carried on by its staff of specialists in the various child welfare fields related to child labor. Child welfare surveys on a State-wide basis, covering nick-low-60-100 dinner at 5:30 agreed asked continue

+
5-182

O letter written 11-22-

subjects of health, schools, recreation, child labor, rural life, dependency, delinquency, children's institutions, laws and administration are made on invitation as foundation for children's code. Informational function of Committee is performed through publications, publicity and membership campaigns, and public addresses. Holds an annual meeting. Proceedings of which appear in its magazine. Promotes observance of Child Labor Day (last Sunday in January in churches, together with preceding Saturday in synagogues and following Monday in schools, clubs, and the like). Furnishes photographs, slides, and exhibits; apply to central office for particulars. Publishes pamphlets, reports, and The American Child, quarterly, $2 a year, free to members. Membership is open to all friends of children. Supported by annual membership dues, $2 and up. Is affiliated with the National Child Health Council (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook).

National Child Welfare Association (org. 1912, inc. 1914), 70 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y. To direct public interest to the physical, mental, and moral welfare of children, to keep in touch with legislative and social progress in child welfare, and to cooperate with and strengthen the work of all organizations having child welfare for their object. Prepares and issues for sale posters, pictures, educational panels, and other graphic material for educational and campaigning purposes to promote the normal development of children. Treats such subjects as prenatal care; proper care of babies and children; growth of the child through play, study and work; moral and religious training; and other health and educational topics. Special panels adapted to particular needs of any organization may be arranged for. Association also furnishes speakers and lecturers for conferences and other meetings of child welfare agencies and aids in organizing community-wide exhibits and institutes for the advancement of child welfare. For particulars and terms concerning this field and lecture service apply to central office. Publishes "Baby Book", "Childhood and Health", and "Music and Childhood", all illustrated, 25 cents each; lecture to accompany the exhibit of panels on physical care of babies and children, 10 cents a copy; "Child Welfare Handbook", reproducing in miniature the Association's educational panels and containing information on child welfare, 50 cents a copy; "Character Training in Childhood", illustrated, cloth bound, $2.15 a copy by mail. Bulletins of educational panels and field service are supplied free on application. Membership open to interested persons. Supported by sale of exhibit material and literature, by contributions, and by membership dues, $2 and up.

National Children's Fund. See American National Red Cross.

National Civil Service Reform League (org. 1881), 8 West 40th St., New York, N. Y. To advance the merit system and to improve the administration of the civil service throughout the U. S. Serves as a clearing house of information and as a connecting link for its local organizations throughout the country. Holds an annual meeting with sessions open to the public. Informs members of investigations and pending legislation regarding civil service conditions. Recommends measures for enactment by Congress and in State legislatures. Takes appropriate action on bills in Congress affecting administrative efficiency, and investigates reported abuses in executive departments. Supplies information through correspondence to civic organizations, women's clubs, and public-spirited individuals, and furnishes speakers for meetings of clubs and organizations. Makes investigations of alleged violations of the civil service laws in Federal, State, and city departments. Issues a magazine, Good Government, 15 cents a copy, $1 a year; newspaper statements, pamphlets, reports, and special bulletins, the last-named for members. Pamphlets and reports are furnished to any interested person on application to the Secretary. Membership includes local groups of interested persons. Supported by voluntary subscriptions and by membership dues, $25 and up. — washington made red

National Committee for Better Films. See National Board of Review of Motion Pictures.

National Committee for Constructive Immigration Legislation (org. 1917), 105 East 22d St., New York, N. Y. To promote through Federal legislation a flexible immigration system which will admit annually from each country, without racial discrimination, only so many immigrants as it feels can be Americanized and employed without endangering normal American standards of living, labor, and wages; to further a naturalization system which will raise the standards of naturalization and give the privileges of citizenship to everyone who qualifies, regardless of race. Conducts educational campaigns through speakers and the dissemination of literature. Holds frequent conferences for discussion of immigration bills. Publishes results of studies of immigration, and issues reprints of bills already introduced and those about to be introduced; furnishes these free on request. Membership — open to any American citizen. Supported entirely by voluntary contributions; no membership dues.

National Committee for Mental Hygiene (org. 1909, inc. 1916), Penn Terminal Bldg., 370 Seventh Ave., New York, N. Y. Promotes the study of nervous and mental disorders and mental deficiency; collects and disseminates data concerning their causes, treatment, and prevention. Seeks to raise the standards of care and treatment of mental defectives and the mentally diseased. Maintains a library on mental hygiene and related subjects, and serves as a clearing house of information for individuals or organizations interested. Coordinates the work of affiliated State societies and directs the organizing of societies in States where they are not already established. Cooperates with similar local, State, and national organizations. Conducts and supervises surveys or special studies of the care and treatment of the mentally disordered and mentally defective; also studies mental factors involved in education, unemployment, crime, delinquency, prostitution, and pauperism. Works for the enactment of laws relating to the commitment, care, and parole of persons suffering from mental disorders or mental defect. Keeps an active file of such laws with annual revisions. Stimulates interest in the adequate teaching of psychiatry in medical schools, and encourages the establishment of courses in mental hygiene in universities, colleges, and schools. Seeks to advance the establishment of out-patient departments, psychopathic hospitals, psychopathic clinics, and mental wards in general hospitals. Stimulates and coordinates efforts to secure adequate modern care for mentally ill ex-service men. Holds an annual meeting, open to the public. Maintains a Division of Statistics for the classification of the mentally diseased and feeble-minded, and for the establishment of a uniform system of hospital reports. Makes annual census studies of institutions for mental patients, the feeble-minded, epileptic, and inebriate. Maintains a Division of Mental Deficiency which seeks to secure good institutional care for all mental defectives needing it and adequate supervision of mental defectives in communities; works for the establishment of compulsory special classes in public schools, and mental clinics for public schools and courts, and for adequate training in normal schools for teachers of backward and defective children. Membership of National Committee is composed of specialists in psychiatry, neurology, psychology, and mental hygiene; leaders in other closely allied fields; and those personally interested in the socially constructive program of mental hygiene. Publishes Mental Hygiene, a quarterly journal, $2 a year; pamphlets, reports, a "Directory of Out-Patient Clinics", and "Summaries of State Laws Relating to the Insane and Feeble-Minded". Many publications are distributed free of cost; supplied in quantity at cost. Has charts and slides and material for lectures. Committee has no general membership. Supported by voluntary contributions. Is affiliated with the National Health Council (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook).

National Committee for the Prevention of Blindness (org. 1915, inc. 1917), 130 East 22d St., New York, N. Y. To study and investigate any causes, direct or indirect, which may result in blindness or impaired vision, and to extend knowledge concerning the proper care and use of the eyes. Serves as a bureau of information and advice. Prepares and disseminates literature dealing with all phases of preventable blindness, and advocates measures leading to the elimination of the causes. Assists in educational campaigns to show the public the necessity for the enactment and enforcement of model laws for preventing blindness and deterioration of sight. Application for services of field workers should be made to the Secretary. Committee has made surveys of industrial hazards and other local studies which have been published. Prepares and gives lectures and talks to varied groups. No charge is made for such services except in certain cases when lecturer's expenses are paid by applying groups. Suggests formation of local groups, but does not itself organize such local societies. Aids them by providing literature, arranging for lectures, assisting in local problems, and by making intensive studies and reports for them. Committee has large number of lantern slides, free to borrower except for transportation and breakage charges. Has issued a number of exhibit panels and lithographed posters for wall or window display, as well as material for bulletin boards. Some of this material is given away free; some is for sale at nominal prices. Publications include studies of causes of blindness in babies and children as well as adults; summaries of State laws, educational leaflets, scientific reports, popular lectures, and an Annual Report. Booklets on the care of babies' eyes are also published in Yiddish, Italian, and Polish. Individual copies of practically all publications are furnished free on request; some publications are for sale at one-half the cost of production; quantity lots are furnished at cost of printing. Committee publishes The News-Letter, five issues a year, furnished free to members, and to non-members on request. For list of publications and prices, address central office. Committee further extends publicity through articles published in newspapers and magazines. Membership is open to all interested persons. Supported by annual membership dues, $2 and up, by donations, and by grant from the Russell Sage Foundation (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook).

National Committee on Prisons and Prison Labor (org. 1909, reorg. and inc. 1916), Broadway and 116th St., New York, N. Y. To unite and concentrate the efforts of all persons interested in prison reform; to study the whole problem of labor in prisons and correctional institutions, with a view to securing legislation in the States to the end that all prisoners may be employed so as to promote their welfare, and at the same time to reimburse the institutions for expenses of maintenance. Seeks also to prevent unfair competition between prison-made goods and products of free labor, and to secure to prisoners' families a fair proportion of their rightful earnings. Conducts and encourages independent investigations and researches; makes recommendations respecting penal laws and improved conditions of prison administration. Also directs surveys in penal institutions and concerning local prison problems at the request of State and municipal governments. Is seeking to bring about a system of penalizing crime which will be just to the State, the prisoner, the prisoner's family, and the free working man. Holds annual meetings to which the public is invited. Disseminates scientific data, popular printed material and motion pictures for municipal, State, and Federal departments and for foreign governments, for university teaching and public education. Publishes reports of investigations, Proceedings of annual meetings, and numerous leaflets, all of which may be obtained free on request. Membership is open to interested persons. Supported by membership dues, $10 and up, and by voluntary contributions.

National Committee on Red Cross Nursing Service. See American National Red Cross, Nursing Service.

National Committee for Teaching Citizenship (org. 1919), 3421 Lowell St. NW., Washington, D. C. To encourage the education of boys and girls of the U. S. concerning the origin and development of liberty, cooperation, and democracy; the economic, political, and social problems confronting democracy today; the responsibility of citizens n a democracy, and the needs and values of living. Is seeking to introduce social studies into the high school curriculum. Distributes leaflets, and publishes descriptive articles in educational and other magazines. Supported by annual membership dues, $1 and up.

National Community Board (org. and inc. 1920), 1516 H St. NW., Washington, D. C. Plans to transfer its work to Congress and the States within a period of 25 years. Acts as a promoting center and service station; first, to assist local communities to organize themselves on the basis of citizenship; second, to aid community service agencies, both governmental and volunteer, in functioning more effectively and in eliminating waste of money, energy, and good will due to needless duplication. Furnishes lecturers on community subjects; provides social engineers to communities desiring to apply more effectively the community ideals to social and industrial problems. Stimulates the establishment of training courses in colleges for social engineers. Conducts its work through seven departments of activity, one typical community activity being the organization of young men and women under 21 into Citizenship Clubs to equip themselves for the practice of citizenship. Publishes books, booklets, and circulars on the various phases of community organization; offers these for sale at cost. Aims to be self-supporting and to supplement its resources by a temporary endowment fund.

National Community Center Association (org. 1911), Secy., L. E. Bowman, 503 Kent Hall, Columbia Univ., New York, N. Y. For the benefit of persons engaged in the promotion, supervision or conduct of any activities designed to enrich community life. On behalf of such persons it endeavors to provide: (a) occasions for good fellowship; (b) means for the exchange of information, ideas, and inspiration; (c) opportunities for furthering their professional interest; (d) an agency for keeping before the public mind and in the consciousness of government officials the importance and needs of community organization systems. The Association holds an annual national conference, open to the public, and in addition a conference each year covering some one section of the country. It appoints committees for study and investigation and the making of reports. Has no field service. Publishes The Community Center, bi-monthly, $1 a year, free to members. Supported by membership dues, $2 a year.

National Conference of Catholic Charities (org. 1910), Secy., John O'Grady, Ph.D., Catholic Univ., Washington, D. C. To bring about the exchange of information between Roman Catholics engaged in Catholic charities and for the improvement of standards in Catholic work. Encourages further development of literature in which the religious and social ideals of charity shall find dignified expression. Collects information and publishes pamphlets on the organization, problems, and results of Catholic charity; these pamphlets are for sale by the central office at 5 cents a copy, $4 a hundred. Supplies information in regard to activities of the various Catholic institutions and organizations. Holds an annual meeting, the Proceedings of which are published and are for sale by the central office at $2.50 a copy. At its 1920 meeting the Conference organized a special conference for Catholic sisterhoods engaged in social and charitable work. Publishes a magazine, Catholic Charities Review, monthly except July and August, $1 a year. Is preparing a directory of Catholic charities. Composed of members of the Roman Catholic Church. Supported by membership dues, $3 and up.

National Conference of Charities. See National Conference of Social Work.

National Conference on City Planning (org. 1910), 60 State St., Boston, Mass. To advance the science and art of city planning and to spread the knowledge of city planning principles. Special committees conduct research work along these lines. Central office serves as an information bureau and clearing house, particularly for members. Conference holds annual meetings, open to the public, for the discussion of city planning problems. Local organizations wishing services of the Secretary for public meetings should apply to central office. For such visits traveling expenses are charged, together with a fee of $20 a day, to be paid not in cash but by four memberships in the national organization. Slides and other exhibit material are available through the Secretary for conferences and public meetings. Conference publishes Proceedings of annual meetings, for sale at from $1.50 to $2.40 a copy; a list of references on city planning, 50 cents a copy; bulletins at from 10 to 25 cents a copy. All publications may be obtained from the Secretary. Conference is supported by sale of publications and by annual membership dues, $5 and up.

National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws

(org. 1892), Secy., Eugene A. Gilmore, Univ. of Wisconsin, Madison, Wis. Drafts measures on the subjects of which uniformity is considered to be desirable. Holds an annual meeting, open to the public, at which several drafts of each act are discussed, amended after debate, and approved by the body as a whole. Conference uses its influence to secure the adoption in State legislatures of these uniform acts. Special committees as follows conduct studies and present reports on subjects indicated in their titles: Commercial Law; Wills, Descent, and Distribution; Mortgages; Marriage and Divorce; Aviation; Registration of Land Titles; Corporation Laws; Uniformity of Judicial Decisions; Taxation; Tribunal for Settling Industrial Disputes; Status and Protection of Illegitimate Children; Automobile Legislation; to Cooperate with the American Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook); to Cooperate with the American Judicature Society; Declaratory Judgments; Compacts and Agreements between States; Federal Primary Law; Securing Compulsory Attendance of Eye Witnesses of Civil and Criminal Cases; One Day Rest in Seven; on Marking and Labeling Law; on Uniform Drug Law; Prohibition. Conference has drafted, adopted, and recommended uniform laws dealing especially with commercial subjects and also on such subjects as child labor, divorce, extradition of persons of unsound mind, family desertion and non-support, marriage and marriage license, marriage evasion, workmen's compensation, vital statistics, registration of births and deaths, and occupational diseases. Publications, including approved acts, committee reports, and Proceedings of annual meetings, are sent free upon application. Membership includes a varying number of representatives from each of the several States, the Insular Possessions of the U. S., and the District of Columbia, chosen by executive or legislative authority. The Conference is supported by appropriations from a number of the States and the American Bar Association.

National Conference of Jewish Social Service (org. 1899), 114 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y. To promote the organization of communities along the lines of Jewish social service; to stimulate Jewish philanthropic endeavor; to coordinate the work of existing agencies and federations; and to establish uniform national standards in the various phases of Jewish social service. Social Workers' Exchange lists social workers seeking positions and organizations needing workers; handles references and qualifications; arranges for interviews and otherwise assists in placing social workers. Conference maintains the Contributor's Exchange through which is reported the removal of subscribers to other cities. The Exchange notifies the federation in the city of new residence as to the name and address of the potential contributor. Central Registration Bureau for Transient Applicants registers applications for relief of persons traveling from one city to another, and makes possible coordinated effort between communities in the handling of their transient problem. Central Registration Bureau for Tubercular Patients registers applications, admissions, and discharges reported by the two National Jewish Tuberculosis Sanatoria at Denver and other sanatoria treating Jewish dependents. Transportation Committee renders decisions upon cases submitted wherein dependent individuals or families are "passed on" by one community to another. The National Conference of Jewish Social Service holds an annual meeting, the Proceedings of which are published. Its official publication, Jewish Social Service, carries articles, digests of reports, book reviews, presentations of new plans and methods in social service, and various other subjects of interest in Jewish social work; sent to all members of the Conference. Other bulletins and pamphlets are sent free on request. Supported by membership dues of federations, organizations, institutions, and individuals.

○ National Conference of Social Work (org. 1879, inc. 1913), 25 East 9th St., Cincinnati, Ohio. To disseminate information and provide an open forum for the discussion of the problems and methods of social work, thereby increasing the efficiency of agencies and institutions devoted to this cause. Holds an annual meeting of delegates and members, open also to the public. Conference usually lasts one week and is made up of division meetings and general meetings of the entire body. Divisions study the following subjects: children, delinquents and correction, health, public agencies and institutions, the family, industrial and economic problems, the local community, mental hygiene, the organization of social forces, and the uniting of native and foreign-born people in America. These divisions hold section meetings for the presentation of reports and reading of papers covering their particular subjects. Divisions also hold joint meetings with other divisions of the Conference and with national organizations doing related work. A daily bulletin is issued during the Conference to keep members informed of section meetings and other important items. Conference publishes Proceedings of the Conference and The Conference Bulletin, four times a year. Proceedings may be purchased from the University of Chicago Press, Chicago, Ill.; sent free to members. Membership open to any interested person. Supported by contributions, sale of annual Proceedings, and by annual dues, $3 and up.

National Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers Associations (org. 1897, inc. 1900), 1201 Sixteenth St. NW., Washington, D. C. To promote child welfare in the home, school, church, and State; to develop wiser, better trained parenthood; to organize local groups of parents and teachers, and to assist local groups already formed. Local groups bring the home and school into closer relation with one another and attempt to emphasize the community's duty to its children, especially the neglected and dependent. Central office serves as a clearing house of information for local associations. Holds an annual convention, open to the public, for the reading and discussion of reports. Works for legislation concerning child welfare, including laws calling for juvenile courts and probation officers. Has assisted in securing mothers' pension laws and departments of child hygiene in several States. Observes February 17th as Child Welfare Day. Local and State groups conduct surveys of conditions in school buildings which affect the health of pupils, and of living quarters provided for teachers in country, town, and city. Advocates the use of school houses as social centers. Favors the establishment of public playgrounds and the extension of manual training and domestic art courses. Special departments carrying on distinctive work are named as follows: Better Films; Child Hygiene; Legislation, including Child Labor and Child Welfare; Endowment Fund; Community Social Life; Home Economics; Home Education; Juvenile Court and Probation; Kindergarten Extension; Mothers' Study Circles; Maternity Care; Press and Publicity; Marriage Sanctity; Membership; Parent-Teacher Associations in Schools and Churches; Country Life (including Committee on Dress, Chaperonage, and Recreation); Thrift (including Committee for Home and School Gardens); Education (Committees on Children's Books, Humane Education, and Visual Education). Congress issues a large number of loan papers relating to many phases of child welfare; one paper may be kept three weeks, 20 cents; 12 papers as selected from list, may be kept one year, $2. Publishes Child Welfare Magazine (publication address, P. O. Box 4022, West Philadelphia, Pa.); 10 cents a copy, $1 a year; 90 cents in clubs of 10. Membership is open to child welfare organizations, parent-teachers associations, and interested individuals. Supported by gifts and by membership dues: 5 cents per capita for associations in organized States; 10 cents per capita for associations in unorganized States; $1 a year for individual members.

+
17-20
1
National Consumers' League (org. 1899, inc. 1902), 44 East 23d St., New York, N. Y. "To awaken responsibility for conditions under which goods are made and distributed and through investigation, education, and legislation, to mobilize public opinion in behalf of enlightened standards for workers and honest products for all." Specializes in the field of women and minors above 16 in industry. Works for the establishment of minimum wage commissions, a statutory eight-hours' day, and prohibition of night work of women, in all States and the District of Columbia. Seeks to make facts of industry known through: encouragement of Federal and State investigations and publication of facts discovered; investigation by the League itself of such matters within its field as are not adequately covered by public studies; dissemination of authoritative information. Conducts investigations of technical aspects of women's industrial problems for organizations unable to make such studies; also offers technical aid to State minimum wage commissions. State, local, college, and school Consumers' Leagues throughout the country are affiliated with the National League but are autonomous; National League does not exercise supervision over their work but cooperates with them, offering them advice, guidance, and assistance in their programs and practical efforts. National League makes legal defense in courts of the highest resort of the constitutionality of statutes for the protection of standards of living of women and minors. Copies of briefs prepared for this purpose in defense of the shorter work day, prohibition of night work of women, and minimum wage commissions are distributed to universities, law schools, libraries, minimum wage commissions and other labor administrative bodies, and are otherwise made available to the interested public. Ten Years' Program (1920-1930) includes these and additional activities. In some aspects of this new program no actual work has yet been done, while in other phases of it the League follows the lead of organizations specifically devoted to the given field. Among the activities included in this program are protection against industrial poisons; promoting of compulsory health insurance, especially in industries employing women and minors; and an endeavor to make the available supply of food and other products more readily accessible to the consumer at the lowest fair price through Federal regulation of interstate food controlling and distributing agencies, through advocating the promotion by State and local Consumers' Leagues of county and municipal slaughtering houses, food markets, food-storage warehouses, and properly conducted city sorting plants in centers of the rag and shoddy industry. League endeavors to promote an understanding of the best methods of cooperative production and distribution under democratic management. The General Secretary and Field Secretary are available for work in the field; they do legislative work in Congress, cooperate with State leagues, and in States where there are no Consumers' Leagues work with other similar organizations in their activities; they also give lectures and otherwise seek to arouse and make effective public sentiment in favor of the objects for which the League is working. League publishes pamphlets describing the need of Federal regulation of certain industries, on wage-earning women, the minimum wage, the eight-hours' day, night work of women, the food problem, cost of living, and other related subjects. Pamphlets are free or for sale at from 5 cents to 25 cents each; legal briefs are available at prices up to $1 a copy. Membership is open to interested persons. Supported by quotas from constituent Leagues, contributions, and by annual individual membership dues, $2 and up.

National Council of America. See Czecho-Slovak National Council of America.

National Council of Catholic Men. See National Catholic Welfare Council.

National Council of Catholic Women. See National Catholic Welfare Council.

National Council of Primary Education (org. 1915), 1211 University Ave., Columbia, Mo. To promote a greater use of activities in the primary schools, greater freedom of method for the primary teacher, and closer cooperation between primary grades and the kindergarten and the grades above. Holds an annual conference, open to the public, in connection with the meeting of the Department of Superintendence, National Education Association (for description of which Association see elsewhere in the Handbook); holds meetings also in connection with State and county teachers' associations. Local groups are organized for the discussion of professional topics and development of professional interest. Central office serves as a bureau of information and advisory board. Standing committees on subject matter and method, furnishings and equipment for primary schools, books and publications, press and publicity, interests and measures study problems of professional and general interest. Services of leaders in promoting interests of primary education in local communities may be had upon payment of expenses. Annual Report published by the U. S. Bureau of Education (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook), may be obtained at 10 cents a copy from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. Council has published "Report of Committee on Typical Programs", which may be had for 25 cents from Rachel E. Gregg, State Department of Education, Richmond, Va. Membership is open to all interested persons. Supported by membership dues, 50 cents and up.

National Council of Women (org. 1888), Pres., Mrs. Philip N. Moore, 3125 LaFayette Ave., St. Louis, Mo. Member of International Council of Women. To interest women in constructive activities, united effort, and cooperation in the vital work of the world. Provides opportunities for conferences upon questions relating to public welfare and through such conferences unites forces to cooperate in working for larger national needs. Is organized in the interests of no one propaganda. Has no power over the groups which constitute it beyond that of suggestion. Work of a controversial nature can not be carried on in the name of the Council, but must be referred to the member organizations for individual decision. Organizations initiating work of national value may present facts concerning it to the Council for possible cooperation. Proposed lines of activities of member organizations are discussed in conference to prevent duplication of effort and to secure knowledge of special conditions. Standing committees investigate needs of nation-wide movements and correlate special work in the member organizations; they also investigate needs of member organizations and advise them accordingly. Council seeks to further legal, cultural, and educational movements. Holds biennial meetings and sends delegates to quinquennial meetings of the International Council of Women. Has passed unanimous resolutions covering the care of children, equal moral standards for men and women, laws relating to the citizenship of American women married to aliens, preparedness, international arbitration, vital matters of public health and morals, emigration and immigration, and education, physical, mental, and moral. Membership is men to national organizations of women represented in a majority of the States.

National Dairy Council (org. 1915), 910 South Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill. To develop the dairy industry through educating the public to a greater appreciation and use of milk and its products. Aims to standardize all dairy products and to improve production methods. Cooperating with the Government and with colleges, universities, and other educational institutions throughout the country. Has branches located in several of the dairy States; these Councils conduct work similar to that of the National Council. In conjunction with other educational organizations, the Council conducts educational campaigns in the schools, among women's organizations, and through the press. Furnishes to applicants posters, booklets, newspaper advertisements, and slides.

National Desertion Bureau (org. 1911, inc. 1914), 356 Second Ave., New York, N. Y. Jewish organization. Investigates cases of family desertion among Jews and locates Jewish abandoners and induces them to return to their families. To find deserters, Bureau appeals to social agencies in cities throughout the U. S. and also publishes a column called "The Gallery of Missing Husbands", which appears weekly in Yiddish newspapers in several large cities. When unable to prevail upon deserters to assume their family obligations and make proper arrangements for the support of their families, the Bureau prosecutes them in court. Central office seeks to place unemployed men in suitable positions so that they can support their families. Bureau is supported by contributions.

National Economic League (org. 1911), 6 Beacon St., Boston, Mass. Works chiefly through correspondence. Standing Committees on Labor, Education, Americanization, Bolshevism, Immigration, and other topics send to all League members questionnaires on important economic problems to be answered by "Yes" or "No". Results of these questionnaires are compiled in reports which are published. League organizes economic clubs in different cities for the purpose of providing a forum for the discussion of live economic, social, industrial, and political questions. Advances money for organization expenses of these clubs, each club agreeing to pay back after organization is under way. Secures speakers for local clubs. For this service a certain percentage of local membership fee is paid to League. Publishes a quarterly magazine, The Consensus, $2 a year to non-members, $1 a year to educational institutions, teachers, ministers, and libraries. All reports, publications, questionnaires, and magazines are sent to members free of charge. Membership composed of men in every State, representing all interests, chosen by preferential ballot. Supported by membership fees, $5 a year.

National Education Association (org. 1857, inc. 1886), 1201 Sixteenth St. NW., Washington, D. C. To elevate the character and advance the interests of the profession of teaching and to promote the cause of education in the U. S. As a national body and through its State and local branches, the Association seeks to secure enactment of such State and Federal legislation as will give recognition and support to public education, assure adequate compensation for teachers, provide sanitary buildings and modern equipment for schools, and adjust the length of school terms. Field secretaries carry on local work and assist State and local teachers' associations affiliated with the national body. Association holds an annual meeting, open to members only, for the discussion of problems and reading of reports. Through field workers, State and local associations, special committees, and its own departments, the Association investigates and studies educational problems. General committees, including the following, conduct studies and present reports: Commission on the Reorganization of Secondary Education; Committee on Teachers' Salaries, Tenure, and Pensions; Committee on Health Problems and Education; Committee on Vocational Education and Vocational Guidance; Committee on Thrift Education; Committee on the Unification and Americanization of All Our People; Committee on Racial Well-Being; Committee on the Rural Home and the Women on the Farm; Committee on Rural Education. Special departments hold annual meetings and conduct specialized work. There are 21 such departments including the following: Library Department which works through its committees on High School, Normal School, Rural School, Elementary School, and University and College Libraries; Departments of Music Education, Business Education, Superintendence, and Science Instruction which carry on work through their special committees; Department of School Patrons which operates through its Committees on School Revenue and School Health. The National Education Association seeks to stimulate public opinion through correspondence and articles in newspapers and magazines. Publishes the Journal of the National Education Association, monthly, cents a copy, $2 a year; Proceedings of annual meetings, $3 a copy; special reports, which are available at different prices. All publications are free to active or associate members paying $5 a year. Active membership is open to teachers. Persons not actively engaged in teaching but especially interested in education may become associate members. Supported by membership dues, $2 and up.

National Farm and Garden Association. See Woman's National Farm and Garden Association.

National Farm School. See Baron de Hirsch Fund.

National Federation of College Women (org. 1912; in process of incorporation), Secy., Mrs. Flora Warren Seymour, 5547 Dorchester Ave., Chicago, Ill. To bring into communication with one another all college women, in order to secure unity of purpose and action, thereby conserving the power of college women for rendering effective service. Made up of local affiliated units which do philanthropic, civic, and charitable work. Holds a biennial meeting, open to the public, for the reading of reports and discussion of problems. Industrial Service Department, through its local committees, places college girls in suitable positions. Patriotic Education Department stimulates the interest of local clubs in patriotic education in their communities. Better Films Committee works for the presentation of better film subjects. Vocational Aid Bureau assembles and disseminates information concerning vocations for girls. Scholarship Loan Committee through the local clubs creates and grants scholarships to young men and women. Extension Committee organizes local groups. National Federation publishes Proceedings of biennial conventions, and The College Woman, a periodical bulletin for members. All literature is sent free to members. Membership consists of women who have had at least a year's work in college, college women's clubs, and college alumnae clubs. Supported by membership dues, $1 a year, and by tax of 10 cents per capita from member clubs.

National Federation of Czech Catholics in America, Supreme Lodge (Národní Svaz Českých Katolíků v Americe) (org. and inc. 1917), Pres., John Straka, 2752 South Millard Ave., Chicago, Ill. Welfare organization of men and women. Operates in the U. S. and Czechoslovakia. Consists of various Roman Catholic lodges and church societies which have affiliated under the National Federation. Under direction of Supreme Lodge, contributions are made for assistance to poor students, for publication of pamphlets for social work in the U. S., and for aid to Czech Catholic cultural interests, as well as for the relief of war sufferers in Czecho-Slovakia. Federation holds an annual meeting in Chicago for the discussion of topics of interest to the Czech Catholics in America and Europe. The Review (Hlidka) (3307 West 22d St., Chicago, Ill.), monthly, issued free of charge to lodges and societies composing membership, is the official organ.

National Federation of Day Nurseries (org. 1898), 284 Fourth Ave., New York, N. Y. To unite in one central body all day nurseries, and to endeavor to secure standards of work. Acts as a bureau of information in regard to existing day nurseries. Gives advice and information regarding the organization, equipment, and conduct of day nurseries. Provides superintendents and nurses. Furnishes speakers for club meetings and conventions and other occasions. Field worker is available for investigation and assistance in organization, expenses to be paid by the community applying for such service. Holds an annual conference, open to the public. Special committees draw up standards for equipment of and admission to day nurseries. Federation publishes conference reports, 25 cents each; reports of committees, and leaflets on subjects of interest to workers in day nurseries, 10 cents each; also a directory of members. Local day nurseries are joined together in Nursery Centers, which are affiliated with the Federation. Any day nursery conforming to the accepted standards may join the Federation or a Center. Nurseries not members of Centers may also become members of the Federation. Supported by donations and by annual dues of members, $2 a year.

National Federation of Remedial Loan Associations (org. 1910), Secy., J. E. Ryan, 708 Breitmeyer Bldg., Detroit, Mich. To better conditions in the small loan business throughout the U. S. and Canada by securing legislation to curb the operations of the so-called "loan shark". Assists in drafting and securing the passage and enforcement of laws fixing interest charges and otherwise regulating the loan business. Aids and directs persons engaged in such work, and gives information and advice concerning the problems of organization and management of the loan business. Holds an annual meeting, the Proceedings of which are published; available to any one legitimately interested, but not to persons seeking to use them for stock promotion schemes. Financial aid for needy families may be secured through loans made on small monthly payment basis from local remedial loan agencies. Membership is imited to societies formed for the purpose of improving loaning conditions and which lend money at the lowest possible rates and pay dividends of from 4 to 8 per cent, according to locality and money conditions. Supported by membership dues, $10 to $100 annually, according to amount of loans outstanding.

National Federation of Settlements (org. 1911), Secy., Robt. A. Woods, 20 Union Park, Boston, Mass. To reinforce the various phases of federated action among neighborhood agencies; to assemble information regarding settlement experience throughout the country; to secure capable recruits for settlement work; to urge measures of State and national legislation suggested by settlement experience; to promote the better organization of neighborhood life generally. Serves as a conference and research organization. Holds an annual meeting, open to individual members and persons affiliated with constituent membership bodies. From time to time makes studies, some of which are published. National officers occasionally make visits to communities; arrangements may be made by applying to the Secretary. Central office willingly answers questions referred to it regarding neighborhood work, and gives advice and assistance to communities starting new settlements. Federation organizes settlement institutes wherever generally demanded. Publishes a report of the annual conference, free on request, and results of special studies; sent free to members. Constituent members, which are settlement and neighborhood centers, pay annual dues at rate of $2 on each $1,000 of income specifically devoted to neighborhood work. Individual members pay $2 a year. Supported by membership dues and contributions.

National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods (org. and inc. 1913), 52 Duttonhofer Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio. To further the religious and moral development of its members by stimulating spiritual and educational activities in relation to the synagogue. Executive office organizes and assists local Sisterhoods, which conduct religious, philanthropic, and social work in their groups and also outside, and promote student welfare activities and work among defectives and delinquents. National Federation holds a biennial convention, open to the public. It contributes to the scholarship fund of Hebrew Union College. Publishes posters and circulars, sent free to members. Membership includes local Sisterhoods composed of Jewish women. Supported by annual dues, 10 cents per member, and by appropriation from the Union of American Hebrew Congregations of which it is a branch.

National Fire Protection Association (org. 1895), 87 Milk St., Boston, Mass. Establishes standards for checking fire waste, and seeks to educate the public in observance of these standards and to point out economic penalties resulting from ignoring them. Office serves as a clearing house for information on subjects of fire waste, fire protection, and fire prevention. Special committees conduct technical investigations, compile and constantly revise standards covering explosives, gases, oils, electric wire, and fire appliances. Holds an annual convention, open to the public, for the presentation of committee reports and for the discussion and adoption of standards proposed by them. Proceedings of annual conventions are published and sent to members. Issues, in popular form, educational literature based on expert knowledge; sent free or at prices up to 25 cents a copy, with a reduction for quantity lots. These publications include: "Standard Regulations for Fire Protection and Safeguarding of Hazards"; suggested State laws and municipal ordinances for regulating fire hazards; committee reports; special bulletins and special fire reports. For sample copies and lists of publications, address central office. Issues only to members, price included in membership fee: National Fire Protection Quarterly; the Proceedings; National Fire Protection News-Letter, monthly; Year Book and Directory; index to all subjects covered in publications; special reports, bulletins, and miscellaneous literature. Open to any interested person or organization. Annual dues, $10; no admission fee. Supported by membership dues.

National Florence Crittenton Mission (org. 1882, inc. 1898), 218 Third St. NW., Washington, D. C. To aid and encourage destitute, homeless and unfortunate girls, and unmarried mothers. Provides temporary homes and gives training and employment to girls until they can be restored to friends or established in honest industry. Supervises Florence Crittenton Homes, with a total capacity of about 1,000, which it has organized throughout the U. S. These Homes vary in the type of girl admitted, some dealing entirely with unmarried mothers, others with delinquent girls, and others with girls brought before the courts, but all Homes operate under rules of the National Mission. The policy of keeping mothers and their babies together whenever possible, at least through the nursing period, is followed by Homes giving service to mothers. Homes are usually supported by local contributions; some Homes are given assistance from the endowment fund of the National Mission in emergencies, while others receive additional appropriations from their State, county, or city government. For particulars regarding admission to Homes, address central office or local Homes. Circles organized in local communities conduct work in connection with Homes, and in localities where there is no Home seek to give necessary assistance to girls in need. Some local groups maintain maternity hospitals, do employment work, make surveys or offer scholarships in industrial schools; their work varies with the needs of communities. National Mission maintains Ivavota Farms, a national agricultural and industrial training school, at Clifton Station, Southern Railway, Va. This school conducted on the farm-colony plan and is open to friendless, wayward, or delinquent girls who come of their own accord or who may be sent by the courts. It also receives girls from the courts on indeterminate sentences and places them out on probation. Mothers with children are received in the Children's Branch, where training is given in dairying, agricultural and household arts, as well as ordinary grade school work. National office conducts surveys of local vice conditions and of girls in disreputable houses; it has collected statistical data on these subjects and offers assistance to communities closing segregated vice districts. Representatives from local Circles and officials of Homes and of the National Mission attend the annual meeting which is open to the public. Publishes an Annual Bulletin, free on request to central office. Supported by endowment fund and contributions.

National Gallery of Art. See Smithsonian Institution.

National Gold Star Division. See Service Star Legion.

National Grange of Patrons of Husbandry (org. 1867, inc. 1876), Secy., C. M. Freeman, Tippecanoe City, Ohio. A secret fraternal order organized to secure for farmers the advantages of cooperation and mutual improvement. Holds an annual meeting, open to members. Has State and local branches throughout the U. S. Encourages national highway building and the extension of telephone systems and rural mail service. Stimulates legislation for measures for agricultural betterment and opposes legislation which is thought to be injurious. Through its branches, the Grange seeks to train young men and women for community usefulness. Urges cooperation with church and school. Furnishes lecturers to speak at State and local Grange meetings. Fosters agricultural courses in colleges and universities. Advocates a practical farmer and trained administrator as Secretary of Agriculture; a reasonable policy toward reclamation, but no wholesale land-settlement program; extension of postal savings banks and land banks; honest labeling of woolen fabrics; and cheap post rates for library books circulating on rural free delivery routes. Publishes annual Proceedings of National and State Granges. Membership is open to men and women engaged in agricultural pursuits.

National Health Council (org. 1920), 411 Eighteenth St. NW., Washington, D. C., and Penn Terminal Bldg., 370 Seventh Ave., New York, N. Y. Aims to serve as a clearing house and coordinating center for the independent, autonomous agencies represented in its membership. Plans to maintain information, legislative, and statistical bureaus and to hold periodic joint conferences for the coordination of health activities and the development of educational health material. Membership includes: American National Red Cross, American Public Health Association, American Social Hygiene Association, Conference of State and Provincial Health Authorities of N. A., Council on Health and Public Instruction of the American Medical Association, National Child Health Council, National Committee for Mental Hygiene, National Organization for Public Health Nursing, and the National Tuberculosis Association (for description of these see elsewhere in the Handbook).

National Housing Association (org. 1910), 105 East 22d St., New York, N. Y. To improve housing conditions, urban, suburban, and rural, in every practicable way. Helps to organize local associations and committees; aids in campaigns of education, in drafting, enacting, and enforcing legislation, and in developing improved housing companies. For arrangements for obtaining field service in a community, write to the central office. Association acts as a clearing house of information for persons interested in housing improvement. Conducts institutes in different sections of the country; holds an annual conference with meetings open to the public. Publishes (1) the conference Proceedings in a volume, "Housing Problems of America", $3 post-paid, free to members; (2) Housing Betterment, a quarterly magazine, issued only to members; (3) miscellaneous pamphlets, 8 to 32 pages, 25 cents each, free to members. Obtains for distribution to members many reports of other agencies. Has on file photographs, lantern slides, and reports, which may be consulted at the office. Membership open to all persons interested in the purposes of the organization; annual dues, $5 and up. Supported by dues and contributions.

National Indian Association (org. 1879, inc. 1887), 156 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y. To aid in the civilization, Christianization, and enfranchisement of American Indians. Is a Protestant interdenominational missionary organization confining its activities to pioneer mission work among unevangelized tribes of Indians. Establishes missions with necessary buildings, which in some cases have included hospitals, and transfers them when fully organized to the permanent care of Protestant denominational mission boards. Offers information on topics relative to Indian conditions. Seeks to awaken and strengthen public sentiment which shall aid the Government in its present Indian policy, leading to the abolition of the reservation system and giving to Indians the same legal protection, education, and citizenship as enjoyed by other races in America. Holds an annual meeting. Publishes The Indian's Friend, bi-monthly magazine, 10 cents a copy, 50 cents a year; an Annual Report, sent free to members and contributors and to the principal libraries of the country; also issues occasional leaflets, sent free to members and contributors, for sale to non-members. Supported by contributions.

National Industrial Conference Board (org. 1916), 10 East 39th St., New York, N. Y. To make impartial investigations in the field of industrial economics, and to cooperate in such work with individuals, institutions, associations, and agencies of government; to secure the prompt consideration by manufacturers and associations of manufacturers of established economic facts underlying and affecting industrial conditions; to obtain, analyze, and disseminate information concerning industrial problems and experience in the U. S. and other countries. Seeks to promote friendly relations between employees and employers, and understanding between the public and those engaged in industry. Makes the results of its researches and collective experience available to government agencies when industrial and legislative policies are being formulated, in an endeavor to secure sympathetic consideration of its views and opinions. Maintains Research Staff for continuous study of fundamental industrial and economic problems. Has issued reports on the following subjects: workmen's compensation acts; Canadian industrial disputes investigation; war-time strikes; hours of work as related to output and health of workers in numerous industries; women workers in metal trades; periodical changes in wages and cost of living; conciliation and arbitration; definition of eight-hour day; rest periods for industrial workers; industrial readjustment in the U. S.; works councils; profit sharing; experience with work week of 48 hours or less; health service in industry; compulsory health insurance; taxation; post-war industrial problems in Great Britain, France, Italy, and Germany. These reports are sold at from 50 cents to $2.50 a copy. Board also publishes monographs and leaflets on movements and events affecting the conduct of industry. Issues Industrial News Survey, a weekly digest, $2 a year. Supported by voluntary contributions.

1
p
National Information Bureau (org. 1918, inc. 1920), 1 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y. To investigate and work for the standardization of national and interstate organizations engaged in social, civic, and philanthropic work, and to protect the contributing public. Seeks to bring together organizations working in the same field for the comparison of programs, decrease of duplication, and increase of cooperation. Makes investigations of national and interstate agencies appealing to the public for funds. Does not investigate local, political, or denominational agencies, or those which are supported exclusively by limited membership groups. With these exceptions, the Bureau endeavors to secure accurate and helpful information regarding any national or interstate organization devoted to general relief, war relief, civic reform, Americanization, health work, general educational activities, religious work (non-sectarian), and propaganda (non-political). Also investigates such enterprises as Negro schools, semi-fraternal organizations, labor unions, and other groups seeking support from the public. Formal endorsement is confined strictly to national or interstate organizations doing social, civic, or philanthropic work and meeting the established standards of the Bureau.

Reporting Service:

(1) To members the Bureau offers services as follows:

- (a) It issues complete reports concerning organizations about which they inquire;
- (b) It issues a special confidential bulletin;
- (c) It issues general bulletins concerning conditions of interest to contributors;

(2) To the general public it issues a list of endorsed agencies with brief descriptions of their work.

Active membership includes representatives of national organizations endorsed by the Bureau. Representatives of such organizations who may be members of the Board of Directors are not permitted to vote questions of endorsement in which they may be interested. Organizations subject to investigation by the Bureau are not allowed to contribute to its support. Service membership includes individuals and organizations not within the field of the Bureau's investigation; members in this group pay regular membership dues for the service. Bureau supported by contributions and by annual membership dues, $25 and National Institute of Social Sciences (org. 1899, inc. 1912), Secy., Rosina Hahn, 110 West 40th St., New York, N. Y. To promote the study of social science and, either by election to the National Institute or by the bestowal of medals or other insignia, to reward distinguished service rendered in this field. Publishes an annual volume containing reports of committees and papers presented by members and non-members, $2.25 a copy; this book may be purchased through the central office, or from F. W. Faxon, selling agent, 83 Francis St., Boston, Mass. Membership is granted only to persons who have made notable achievements in the field of social science or have performed notable services to the public. Supported by contributions and by membership dues, $5 and up.

1915-2
in ch - Angling
D. M. C.

National Kindergarten Association (org. and inc. 1909), 8 West 14th St., New York, N. Y. To have kindergartens provided for all the Nation's children. Works for the establishment of kindergartens and for the organization of kindergarten classes. Serves as a center of information and advice for organizations interested in early education. Works for the adoption of approved kindergarten laws in the States. Recommends speakers and supplies literature for conventions. Has been instrumental in bringing about the establishment of kindergarten departments in Federal and private agencies. Issues propaganda articles in magazines and newspapers. Supported by voluntary contributions.

AA

National League of Compulsory Education Officials (org. 1910), East Grand River Ave., Detroit, Mich. To promote school attendance and to bring about better enforcement of laws covering compulsory education and child welfare. Holds an annual meeting, open to the public, for the exchange of ideas and discussion of matters relating to school attendance. Membership is composed of attendance officers, school officials, social workers, and others; open to any person interested in the work of the organization. Supported by membership dues, $2 a year.

National League of Girls' Clubs (formerly National League of Women Workers, org. 1885, inc. 1919), 130 East 59th St., New York, N. Y. Organizes and develops clubs for the recreation and education of girls and women, particularly those employed in offices, stores, factories, or homes. The clubs are all non-sectarian, self-governing, and striving toward self-support. As yet there is no uniformity in the names of the individual clubs, some being known as the "Girls' Club of —", the "Girls' City Club of —", the "Girls' and Women's Community Club", and so on. The clubs offer wholesome recreation and social life and conduct educational classes in vocational, cultural, artistic, and utilitarian subjects under professional instructors. They are interested in all community welfare projects. The clubs, many of which are in industrial centers, are grouped in State or Sectional Leagues (Mass., including Vt., N. H., and Maine; R. I.; N. Y., including N. J.; Eastern Pa.; Western Pa.; Conn.; Ohio, not yet fully organized). The Secretaries of State Leagues organize new groups and supervise the work of federated clubs in their districts. Each State League maintains a Vacation House at the seashore or in the country where club girls may enjoy wholesome outdoor fun at a minimum cost. State Leagues print a monthly bulletin of their respective fields. The National League supplements the work of the State Leagues and organizes clubs in new territory. It also acts as a national clearing house for all club information. The National League conducts training courses for recreational workers. It holds a biennial convention at different colleges for women; these meetings are open to members and their guests. It publishes as its official monthly magazine, The Club Worker, $1 a year. The entire control of the organization is in the hands of the members. Membership is open to all girls over 16. Supported by subscriptions and by small dues paid by members.

National League of Nursing Education (org. 1893, inc. 1918), Penn Terminal Bldg., 370 Seventh Ave., New York, N. Y. To consider all questions relating to nursing education and to assist in furthering all matters pertaining to public health. Has organized affiliated State and local Leagues through which it carries on specific work. Employs at times an interstate secretary who conducts field work and assists and organizes branches. Through its branches, the national organization seeks to develop the highest ideals in the nursing profession. Works for the adoption of minimum standards of admission to and graduation from school of nursing. Holds an annual meeting, open to the public. Publishes Proceedings of annual meetings; sent free to members. Special committees study and make reports on nursing and health, public education, international affairs, and education in schools of nursing. Maintains a Bureau of Exchange serving as an employment medium for nurses and hospitals. Headquarters has prepared lantern slides; it issues pamphlets, an Annual Report, a standard curriculum for schools of nursing, and publicity material. Active membership includes officials, such as superintendents, instructors, head nurses and other nurses connected with schools of nursing and engaged in the instruction of students; members of State boards of nurse examiners and head workers in various forms of social welfare education and protective nursing. Supported by membership dues, $5 a year. Has representation on the National Committee on Red Cross Nursing Service (see American National Red Cross). Board of Directors of the League is a member of the joint board of directors of the American Nurses' Association and the National Organization for Public Health Nursing (for description of these see elsewhere in the Handbook).

National League of Teachers' Associations (org. 1912), Pres., Nina Buchanan, Hotel Wintonia, Seattle, Wash. For the advancement of education and the interests of classroom teachers. Local branches conduct relief work among members, giving financial aid to those who are in need. National League holds conventions, open to the public, for the discussion of problems and exchange of ideas and information. Seeks to improve professional standing of teachers. Publishes a Year Book and bulletins, free to members, available to others on request. Membership is open to teachers actually engaged in classroom work. Supported by annual membership dues, 15 cents per member, and extra assessments when necessary.

National League of Women Voters (org. 1919), 918 Munsey Bldg., Washington, D. C. To foster education in citizenship and to support improved legislation. Urges every woman to become an enrolled voter, but as an organization is allied with and supports no party. Consists of affiliated leagues from each State. Holds an annual meeting. Supports desired reforms and urges their adoption in the platforms of the political parties and their enactment into laws. Is conducting an educational campaign through citizenship schools and classes and through committees which investigate, collect, and classify data as to existing needs and laws. Special work is carried on by seven standing committees which publish reports and bulletins and whose program for 1921 is as follows:

Child Welfare Committee supports bills for the public protection of maternity and infancy. It works for increased appropriations for the Children's Bureau, U. S. Department of Labor (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook), and for bills to eliminate child labor in the District of Columbia.

Committee on American Citizenship works for compulsory education of all children between 6 and 16; the education of adults by extension classes of the public schools; compulsory use of English in all schools; independent citizenship for married women, higher qualifications for citizenship, changes in naturalization laws, and for a Federal Department of Education.

Committee on Food Supply and Demand supports bills to regulate the meat-packing industry and for further appropriations for vocational training in home economics.

Committee on Protection of Women in Industry supports the Women's Bureau, U. S. Department of Labor (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook) and works for the establishment of the Federal and State Employment Service with the Women's Bureau. Works for minimum wage laws, the eight-hour day, equal pay for equal work, the retirement system for superannuated public employees, and for the abolition of child labor and night work for women and minors.

Committee on Social Hygiene works for the abolition of commercialized prostitution; for venereal disease control; for better provisions for delinquents, minors, and defectives; and for uniform marriage and divorce laws throughout the U. S.

Committee on Unification of Laws works for 18 years as the minimum age of consent, equal guardianship by both parents, mothers' pensions, equal interest of spouses in each other's real estate, and other means to remove civil disabilities of women.

Committee on Improvement in Election Laws and Methods conducts studies of existing laws and methods with a view to formulating a program of changes needed.

National Lend-a-Hand Society (org. 1914, inc. 1915), Exec. Secy., George Sanderson, Ph.D., 106 Park Row, New York, N. Y. To "lend-a-hand, temporally, morally and spiritually to discharged prisoners." Assists them, irrespective of race, creed or sex, to secure positions of honest employment. Receives prisoners paroled to its custodial care, assists them to procure employment, and advises and supervises them until they are discharged from custody. Executive Secretary makes periodical visits to prisons in many States, addresses prisoners in their prison chapels, holds personal interviews with them, and arranges to assist them to obtain employment when they are discharged. Membership is open to interested persons. Supported by voluntary contributions.

National Liberal Immigration League (org. 1906), 108 East 31st St., New York, N. Y. To preserve the benefits of immigration by admitting desirable and keeping out undesirable immigrants. Endeavors to promote the Americanization of all immigrants, and advocates their better distribution in order to diminish the evils of congestion. Furnishes free information on immigration and Americanization. Advocates the following: maintenance and careful enforcement of laws excluding criminals, paupers, and persons having dangerous contagious diseases; opposition to restrictions beyond these; education and Americanization of immigrants; amendment of contract labor law so as to exempt from its application agricultural and certain skilled labor; deportation of aliens committing crimes after arrival. Publishes and circulates literature on immigration and kindred subjects. Membership is open to any American citizen. Supported by contributions and by membership fees, $2 a year.

National Lutheran Council (org. 1918), 437 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y. To speak for the Lutheran Church and give publicity to its utterances on all matters which require an expression of the common conviction and sentiment of the Church; to be the representative of the Lutheran Church in America in its relations to organized bodies outside itself; to bring to the attention of the Church all such matters as require common utterance or action. Seeks to further the work of recognized agencies of the Church that deal with problems arising out of war and other emergencies; to coordinate, harmonize, and unify their activities, and to create new agencies to meet circumstances which require common action. Strives to combine the activities of the Church and its agencies for the solution of new problems which affect social, economic, and educational conditions. Maintains foreign representatives for the conduct of relief and reconstruction work in Europe. Communities may secure visit from representatives of the Council by special arrangement; address central office. Council holds an annual meeting for the reading of reports and discussion of problems. Publishes an Annual Report, obtainable free from central office. Has issued lantern slides; address central office for particulars. Membership includes the Synods of the United Lutheran Church, the Norwegian Lutheran Church, the United Danish Church, the Lutheran Free Church, and the Danish Lutheran Church; also the Iceland Synod, the Buffalo Synod, the Augustana Synod, and the Joint Synod of Ohio. Council is supported by funds raised within its constituent church bodies.

Lutheran Bureau serves as the publicity body of the Council. It conducts financial campaigns for charitable and educational institutions; promotes publicity for national conventions of constituent bodies of the Council; through the Reference Department, it compiles and furnishes free information regarding the Church, prepares newspaper stories, and pamphlets, booklets, and posters.

National Malaria Committee (org. 1916), Chmn., W. S. Leathers, M. D., Jackson, Miss.; Secy., Surgeon L. D. Fricks, U. S. Public Health Service, In Charge of Field Investigations of Malaria, Court House Bldg., Memphis, Tenn. To stimulate scientific and public interest in malaria problems; to serve as a medium through which societies and individuals may become identified with the study and prevention of malarial diseases; to coordinate the efforts of these agencies with those of constituted Federal, State, and local health authorities. Conducts its work through subcommittees on Administration, Entomological Research, Medical Research, Education and Publicity, Sanitary Engineering, and Statistics. The National Malaria Committee holds an annual meeting, open to the public, with the Southern Medical Association. Papers dealing with malaria problems are read at these meetings, and are published in the journal of the Southern Medical Association. Membership in the National Malaria Committee includes State health officers of those States in which malaria exists as a serious public health problem, and other persons who are interested in malaria. There are no membership dues.

National Medical Association (org. 1895), Genl. Secy., W. G. Alexander, M. D., 48 Webster Pl., Orange, N. J. To promote the science and art of medicine. Local units throughout the country hold health meetings and conduct educational work. Commissions on tuberculosis, pellagra, medical education, and public health conduct special work. Association holds an annual meeting for the discussion and reading of papers and reports, display of exhibits, and holding of clinics.

Association publishes Journal of the National Medical Association (Editor, J. A. Kenney, M. D., Tuskegee Institute, Ala.), quarterly, $2 a year. Membership composed of colored physicians, dentists, and pharmacists. Supported by annual dues, $5 a year.

National Milk Producers' Federation (org. and inc. 1917), 1731 Eye St. NW., Washington, D. C. To promote the interests of the producer and consumer of milk, by improving conditions under which milk is produced, by bettering marketing methods, by standardizing milk products, and by other necessary activities. Gives publicity to information on problems confronting producers. Assists in the preparation of data relating to the cost of milk production and wholesale and retail selling prices of milk and milk products. Assistance in the promotion and development of effective producers' marketing organizations may be secured, provided such associations join the Federation after their organization is completed. Membership is limited to cooperative associations of milk producers. Supported by dues of 10 cents a year for each individual member of constituent associations.

National Motion Picture League (org. 1914, inc. 1920), 381 Fourth Ave., New York, N. Y. To conduct an educational campaign for clever, worthy motion pictures; to coordinate the public demand for these. Selects suitable pictures for wholesome entertainments and organizes and conducts children's matinees and family programs. Works through the schools, women's clubs, and other agencies, and attempts to reach those persons who would be most interested in good pictures. Aims to present only good films to boys and girls and to keep vicious ones away from them. Holds an annual meeting. A special committee reviews all pictures manufactured and issues weekly bulletins which include lists and brief descriptions of those which are of value. Bulletins are sent free to members. Membership is open to any person or corporation not financially interested in the motion-picture industry. Supported by contributions from persons not connected with the motion-picture industry, by annual membership dues, $2 and up, and by subscriptions to bulletins, $1.50 a year.

National Municipal League (org. 1894), 261 Broadway, New York, N. Y. To multiply the numbers, harmonize the efforts, and to ^{to be} combine the forces of those who are interested in good government. ^{we pay} Promotes investigation and discussion of the problems of government ^{in it} and of the methods of selecting and appointing officials in American ^{any thing} _{So} cities. Studies constitutions, laws, and ordinances relating to government; conducts research and makes reports on such topics as civil service efficiency, county government, Federal relations to American municipalities, franchises, model city charters, model municipal indebtedness law, municipal courts, municipal pensions, municipal information, sources of revenue, State government, and uniform city reports. Publishes National Municipal Review, a monthly magazine, devoted to consideration of current governmental topics, 50 cents a copy, $5 a year. Membership is open to interested persons. Supported by subscriptions, and by annual dues, $5 and up.

National Museum. See Smithsonian Institution.

and filed in mugle
National Negro Business League (org. 1900, inc. 1905), 1816 Twelfth St. NW., Washington, D. C. To promote the commercial and financial development of the Negro. Serves as a clearing house for the collection and dissemination of useful information regarding achievements of Negro men and women throughout the country. Holds an annual meeting. Endeavors to keep the white and Negro press fully and correctly informed as to all worthy racial activities, social, commercial, and otherwise. Through publicity seeks to stimulate Negro business enterprise, foster race pride and progress, and mold a healthy public sentiment towards the race question. Has organized local business leagues in cities and towns and through regularly issued bulletins keeps them informed concerning industrial, business, trade, professional, manufacturing, and other opportunities for Negro men and women. Encourages the establishment and increase of business enterprises among Negro people. Seeks to better the conditions of skilled and unskilled Negro labor. Plans to compile a catalogue of Negro business organizations, including individual, partnership, and corporate enterprises, which shall enable the Negro public to distinguish between bogus and "wildcat" schemes and those which are worthy. Seeks to learn of new and successful methods of managing and building up various kinds of businesses, and compiles and publishes material gained in this connection. Disseminates information and suggestions through the National Negro Press Association, in order to bring about a closer alliance of the Negro newspapers now being published and to encourage each local League to support its Negro newspaper. Employs efficiency experts who may be secured to study local conditions and make practical suggestions regarding up-to-date, economical, and successful business methods; expenses to be paid by community applying. Membership is open to State and local business leagues, and to interested individuals. Supported by membership dues. Its affiliated organizations which hold annual meetings at the same time and place as the League are as follows:

National Negro Bankers' Association (org. 1906), Pres., B. M. Roddy, Solvent Savings Bank, Memphis, Tenn. Serves as a central agency to unite the Negro bankers of the country for the exchange of information and experience.

National Negro Bar Association, Pres., Perry Howard, Jackson, Miss.

National Negro Farmers' Association, Pres., R. W. Whetby, Sumter, S. C.

National Negro Insurance Association, Pres., C. C. Spaulding, Durham, N. C.

National Negro Press Association, Pres., Chris J. Perry, Philadelphia Tribune, 526 South 16th St., Philadelphia, Pa.

National Negro Undertakers' Association, Pres., George W. Franklin, Chattanooga, Tenn.

•
National Nursing Association Headquarters (org. 1918), Penn Terminal Bldg., 370 Seventh Ave., New York, N. Y. Acts as a bureau of information on matters pertaining to nursing, and serves as a center for all nursing activities. Makes contacts between nurses and positions in hospitals and schools of nursing and with public health and other agencies. The Headquarters is at present maintained under the direction of the American Nurses' Association, the National League of Nursing Education, and the National Organization for Public Health Nursing with the cooperation of the American National Red Cross. (For description of these agencies see elsewhere in the Handbook.)

National Order of the Daughters of Isabella. See Catholic Daughters of America.

National Organization for Public Health Nursing (org. 1912), Penn Terminal Bldg., 370 Seventh Ave., New York, N. Y. To stimulate the establishment and extension of public health nursing; to facilitate efficient cooperation between nurses, physicians, and other persons especially interested in public health measures. Conducts the following activities:

- (1) Nursing Education: (a) assists in the organization and improvement of postgraduate courses in public health nursing; maintains a central bureau of information and advice for nurses, especially regarding courses of study and scholarships; stands ready to give advice or information concerning public health nursing; (b) through a special scholarship fund assists in increasing the number of public health nursing teachers; (c) encourages the introduction of instruction in subjects relating to public health nursing and field work into the curricula of qualified training schools; (d) encourages special institutes for public health nurses already in the field; (e) has established in practically every State in connection with existing libraries, colleges, or government offices, State Library Centers of public health literature from which public health nurses may borrow material and keep it as long as needed, paying only postal charges; maintains a central reference library at national headquarters from which package libraries of material on the following subjects may be borrowed by interested persons or groups: Americanization, blindness, cancer, child welfare, community hygiene, hospital social service, housing problems, industrial nursing, organization and administration, rural nursing, school nursing, surveys, tuberculosis, and venereal diseases; (f) publishes a monthly magazine (see below).

(2) Recruiting: (a) encourages graduate and student nurses to enter public health nursing; (b) encourages high school and college students to prepare themselves through preprofessional courses of study and to enter nursing.

(3) Employment: maintains a limited employment service which may be developed into a national employment clearing house for public health nurses.

(4) Standardization: studies and assists in establishing standard methods of organization, administration, publicity, financial support, records and reports.

(5) Legislation: Seeks to create public opinion favorable to and assisting in the enactment of public health nursing legislation, such as the appropriation of public funds for public health nursing and the creation of divisions of public health nursing within State departments of health.

Educational Committee acts as a forum for the discussion of questions pertaining to the education of public health nurses. Organization publishes the Public Health Nurse, a monthly magazine, $3 a year; reprints from this magazine, for sale at 5 to 10 cents each; inexpensive publicity leaflets and folders; public health posters, 10 cents each. Has issued a two-reel motion-picture film, "An Equal Chance"; information and prices on request. Membership is open to graduate nurses. The requirements for individual active membership embody the minimum standard for fundamental technical training of nurses, as endorsed by the three national nursing organizations. Graduation from a training school for nurses connected with a general hospital having a daily average of 30 patients or more and a continuous training in the hospital of not less than two years. Training shall include practical experience in caring for men, women, and children, together with theoretical and practical instruction in medical, surgical, obstetrical, and children's nursing. Training may be secured in one or more hospitals. In those States where nurse-practice laws have been secured, registration shall be an additional qualification. Active corporate membership is open to organizations engaged in public health nursing, 60 per cent of whose nursing staff is eligible for active membership, and other groups which incorporate in their by-laws the membership standards of the National Organization for Public Health Nursing; associate corporate membership is open also to bodies which do not employ public health nurses. Members receive the magazine free and have free use of the circulating package library and other printed material. Organization is supported by contributions and by membership dues: individual, $3 and up; corporate, $5 and up. Board of Directors of the National Organization is a member of the joint board of directors of the American Nurses' Association and the National League of Nursing Education. Organization is a member of the National Health Council and the National Child Health Council; is represented on the National Committee on Red Cross Nursing Service (see American National Red Cross); and works closely with the National Tuberculosis Association. (For description of these agencies see elsewhere in the Handbook.)

National Park Service. See Department of the Interior, U. S.

National Parks Association (org. and inc. 1919), 1512 H St. NW., Washington, D. C. To study the national parks and monuments, their history and folklore, and the wild animal life of the parks. To interpret the scenic features of the latter and circulate popular information concerning them; to encourage production of literature on travel; to defend national parks and monuments against assaults of private interests and aggressive commercialism. Works for the extension of the national park system to represent the full range of American scenic features for competition in the world's travel attractions. Seeks to enlist the co-operation of schools, universities, societies, and institutions in using the national parks to the best popular advantage. Does work which Congress does not authorize the U. S. Department of the Interior to perform. Cooperates with conservation associations and State and national bureaus for the protection of wild animal life. Carries on publicity campaign through members. Keeps members informed of new publications purchasable from the Federal Government, and of other publications of interest in conservation work. Refers travel and route inquiries from members to the proper governmental or travel agencies. Issues The Nation's Parks, a bulletin, at least five times a year, and news bulletins as occasion demands. All publications are free and sent only to members. Membership open to interested persons. Supported by membership dues, $3 and up.

National Physical Education Service. See Playground and Recreation Association.

National Plant, Flower and Fruit Guild (org. 1893, inc. 1906), 70 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y. Through the distribution of flowers and fruit, seeks to carry cheer into the lives of the sick and poor of the great cities. Gives persons an opportunity to share with the less fortunate the surplus of their vegetables, fruits, flowers, and jellies. Organizes and supervises city and country branches through which special work is conducted. Branches collect flowers from gardens, from social affairs, hothouses on private estates, and from wholesale and retail florists, and distribute them to the poor and sick in their homes and in hospitals; place window-boxes filled with growing plants in tenement homes; establish backyard and vacant-lot gardens; and distribute free seeds and plants for cultivation. They lay out and assist in maintaining gardens in playgrounds, around institutions, at railway stations, and along the roadsides. Branches also maintain and supervise community gardens where garden space is allotted free to children applying; provide them with seeds at a penny a package; and instruct them in laying out and cultivating their plots. Branches around New York City cooperate with the School Nature League in holding flower shows in public schools. Local groups conduct annual plant markets for the sale of surplus plants from community gardens and plants left over in greenhouses after the planting season. Members give illustrated talks on flowers and gardens in schools and at neighborhood meetings. Guild publishes descriptive leaflets, an Annual Report, and the National Plant, Flower and Fruit Guild Magazine, 50 cents, four issues a year. Membership in local groups is open to all interested persons. National Guild is supported by contributions and a minimum of 5 per cent of the total receipts of branches, in which annual dues vary.

National Prisoners' Aid Society. See American Prison Association.

National Probation Association (org. 1907), 132 State St., Albany, N. Y. To study, establish, extend, and standardize adult and juvenile probation, juvenile courts, domestic relations or family courts, and other specialized courts using the probation system. Supports efforts to prevent or reduce delinquency, and to promote rational and humane treatment of crime and delinquency. Field work is carried on by officers and members; persons desiring their assistance should communicate with the Secretary. Central office serves as a clearing house and bureau of information, answering inquiries, supplying drafts of probation or juvenile court laws, making suggestions regarding probation, and sending out literature on request. Association conducts an annual conference, open to the public, for the discussion and exchange of ideas. Drafts State legislation and works for its enactment. Can furnish model laws to establish probation work and juvenile courts; aids in local campaigns toward these ends. Is carrying on an educational campaign for securing effective probation laws for the U. S. District Courts. Special committees study such subjects as children's courts, courts of domestic relations, rural probation, laws and court decisions, and standards of supervising probationers. Association publishes an Annual Report, which includes the Proceedings of the annual conferences, $1 a copy; also issues leaflets on probation work. Has published a "National Directory of Probation Officers", of which the last edition was that of 1918. Probation and parole officers, judges, and other persons interested in the work or in sympathy with the purposes of the Association are invited to membership. Supported by contributions and by annual dues of members, $2 and up.

National Public Welfare League (org. 1911, inc. 1916), 510 Manhattan Bldg., Kansas City, Mo. To promote city, county, State, and national departments of public welfare. Acts as a clearing house of information regarding all public welfare matters, directing inquiries to agencies where detailed information can be obtained. Serves as an employment exchange between cities or organizations needing trained social workers and men and women who have had the necessary experience and training. Field workers conduct speaking campaigns in communities to show the special needs of the community and to explain the functions of local boards of public welfare; they also organize community welfare committees and assist them in securing necessary city legislation. County campaigns, covering all towns with a population of over 200, are conducted in cooperation with local welfare committees. Institutes of all committeemen are held at the close of county campaigns for the purpose of organizing county conferences of social work. Campaigns are conducted at no expense to communities beyond the collections taken at the meetings; no guarantee is requested. League maintains advisory after-relation with communities where work has been organized. Advises and assists in drafting and securing legislation for city and county boards of public welfare. Has sample ordinances and bills for reference. Publishes occasional literature and a monthly magazine, Public Welfare, 10 cents a copy, $1 a year; free to members subscribing $3 or more. Supported by dues, contributions, and subscriptions to the magazine.

National Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

National Reform Association (org. 1863, inc. 1890), 209 Ninth St., Pittsburgh, Pa. Non-denominational organization seeking to maintain existing Christian features in government, and to promote moral reforms. Prints and distributes annually a large amount of literature. Conducts institutes, conferences, and conventions; supplies speakers for public meetings of various sorts, and otherwise presses reforms. Conducts free summer schools for foreigners. Carries on campaigns in various parts of the country in behalf of enforcement of prohibition, settlement of industrial disputes, world peace, religious education, Sabbath observance, and Bible reading in schools. Has held three World Christian Citizenship Conferences. Departments of Industrialism, Americanization, Bible and School, and Mormonism (anti-Mormon) and subcommittees working on special subjects, conduct investigations and present reports. Publicity Department supplies the secular and religious press with articles and information on reform matters. Association publishes descriptive leaflets and The Christian Statesman, a monthly magazine, 20 cents a copy, $2 a year. Membership is open to all who believe in its principles. Supported by contributions, and by membership dues, $1 or more annually.

National Research Council (org. 1916 under charter of the National Academy of Sciences and with the cooperation of the National Scientific and Technical Societies of the U. S.), 1701 Massachusetts Ave. NW., Washington, D. C. Encourages research in matheatics and the physical and biological sciences, and their application in engineering, agriculture, medicine, and other useful arts. Surveys the larger possibilities of science to formulate comprehensive projects in research, and to develop effective means of utilizing the scientific and technical resources of the country for dealing with these projects. Promotes cooperation in research at home and abroad to secure concentration of effort, to minimize duplication of work, and to stimulate progress, at the same time encouraging individual initiative. Serves as a means of bringing American and foreign investigators into active cooperation with scientific and technical services of the U. S. War and Navy Departments and with the civil branches of the Government. In cooperation with Governmental and other agencies, the Council gathers and makes available scientific and technical information both at home and abroad. Technical work is carried on by its Divisions as follows: Divisions of General Relations: Foreign Relations, Federal Relations, States Relations, Educational Relations, Research Extension, Research Information Service; Divisions of Science and Technology: Physical Sciences, Engineering, Chemistry and Chemical Technology, Geology and Geography, Medical Sciences, Biology and Agriculture, Anthropology, and Psychology. Reports and other publications issued by Divisions may be had on application to the publication office of the Council; some are charged for, while others are sent free. National Research Fellowship Board offers fellowships in chemistry and physics to persons demonstrating a high order of ability in research, to enable them to conduct investigations at educational institutions giving adequate provision for research. Members are chosen by affiliated societies as their representatives to the Council. Supported by endowment and special gifts.

National Safety Council (org. 1913), 168 North Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill. To promote conservation of life and limb, the safety and health of industrial workers and the public generally. Offers service to members which assists them in preventing accidents and occupational diseases and in improving plant sanitation. Maintains an information bureau and reference library to give members information on matters pertaining to accident prevention and industrial hygiene. Council's staff of engineers answers inquiries of a technical nature. Central office circulates package libraries on safety and health subjects. Council holds the Annual Safety Congress, open to the public, for the discussion of problems of accident prevention, health of workers, and allied subjects, and for the examination of safety exhibits. Proceedings of each Congress are printed and distributed among members. Through its own publications and other channels, the Council gives publicity to all matters calculated to promote industrial and public safety. Co-operates with other agencies to conserve human life, health, and welfare. Aids members in obtaining speakers for plant meetings and lends motion-picture films and lantern slides on safety subjects. Seeks to extend safety education in grade schools and in technical schools and universities through cooperation with authorities and through distribution of literature. Council is a member of the American Engineering Standards Committee and assists in the formulation of safety codes to standardize requirements for safety in various industrial operations. The following sections of the Council conduct special activities within their fields: Engineering, Health Service, Marine and Navigation, Metals, Mining, Packers and Tanners, Paper and Pulp, Public Safety, Public Utilities, Rubber, Steam Railroad, Textile, Women in Industry, and Woodworking. Council issues weekly educational posters for use on bulletin boards in industrial establishments to stimulate interest among workmen in accident prevention and health conservation, and to teach them to acquire the habit of doing their work in the safe way. Sets of three or more different posters are sent to member companies each week, the number of sets being determined by the number of employees in each plant. Publishes monthly Safe Practices Pamphlets, which contain practical information regarding the best known methods of dealing with industrial hazards and which are prepared primarily for the use of production managers, superintendents, safety engineers, and foremen. Also publishes a weekly magazine, the National Safety News. Active membership includes all individuals or concerns employing people. Dues are in accordance with the number of employees. Active membership is also open to chambers of commerce, manufacturers' associations, industrial commissions, State labor departments, industrial and public schools, and insurance companies. Individual active membership is open to professional men, safety engineers, and other interested persons. Council is supported by membership dues.

National Scientific and Technical Societies. See National Research Council.

†
16
1
National Security League (org. 1914, inc. 1915), 17 East 49th St., New York, N. Y. To promote patriotism and good citizenship, and to combat socialism, bolshevism, and all forms of radicalism. Conducts nation-wide educational propaganda for Americanism, aimed at the better instruction of all citizens, native and foreign-born, in American ideals and the American form of government. Holds public meetings and conducts street-corner gatherings. Circulates patriotic literature particularly to school children and prospective applicants for citizenship. Supported by contributions and membership dues.

National Short Ballot Organization (org. 1909), 8 West 9th St., New York, N. Y. To explain and secure adoption of the Short Ballot principle and to simplify politics by eliminating petty elective offices in state and county governments. Works for the securing and adoption of the City Manager Plan in municipalities. Conducts research studies and extends information through publicity and lobbying. Field Secretary helps cities to adopt City Manager Plan. Organization issues pamphlets on Short Ballot, City Manager Plan, and County Government Reform; these may be secured from central office. Supported by contributions and by membership fees, $5 a year.

National Slovak Society in the U. S. A. (Národný Slovenský Spolok v Spojených štátoch) (org. 1890), Secy., Joseph Ďuris, Box 593, Pittsburgh, Pa. Slovak mutual benefit fraternal insurance and social welfare organization of men and women. Operates in the U. S. and Canada. National supreme office organizes and supervises lodges in local communities and pays expenses of field worker. Union pays death benefits of $250 to $2,000 paid by assessments on total membership. Local lodges pay sick benefits of $5 a week for the first 13 weeks while the patient is under doctor's care, and $2.50 a week for the succeeding 13 weeks. Sick benefits are paid from members' dues and special funds raised by the lodges. Lodges carry on and contribute to community betterment, welfare, and educational work not only for the benefit of their members but for others as well. Society holds a quadrennial meeting, open to the public, at which questions of interest to the Slovaks in America are discussed. The National News (Národné Noviny) (P. O. Box 120, Pittsburgh, Pa.), weekly, published in Slovak, 90 cents a year to members, $2.50 a year to non-members, is the official organ and is owned by the Society. Local lodge dues are 50 cents a month.

National Slovak Union (Národná Slovenská Jednota) (org. 1909, inc. 1910), Pres., Josef A. Zeliesko, 107 Chartiers Ave., McKees

Rocks, Pa. A mutual benefit organization of men and women, operating only in the U. S. Supreme office supervises branches in local communities. The branches pay sick benefits to members while they are under doctor's care; they also pay death benefits. Sick and death benefits are raised from assessments made on all members. Union has organized a division for the younger generation. American Slavonic Gazette (Amerikánsko Slovenské Noviny) (Editor, Ján Kadlecík, 220 Third Ave., Pittsburgh, Pa.), published weekly in the Slovak language, $2.50 a year, is an official organ of the Union.

National Social Workers' Exchange (org. 1917, in process of inc.), 130 East 22d St., New York, N. Y. An organization of professional social workers, devoted to raising social work standards and requirements. Placement Bureau attempts to secure positions for social workers and supplies workers to 200 social agencies affiliated with the Exchange as institutional members. This service is offered free of charge to qualified social workers. Institutions employing less than five workers must pay $10, those employing less than 25 workers pay $25, while agencies with more than 25 workers must pay $50 and upwards to secure this placement service. Vocational Information Department gives information and advice regarding opportunities in social work, through interviews, correspondence, and pamphlets. Recruiting Department is being organized to coordinate the college recruiting of various national agencies and to present to students the possibilities in the whole field of social work. Research Service is studying the professional needs and characteristics of different social work fields. Extension and Membership Department promotes organization and membership among qualified workers. Exchange publishes The Compass, a monthly news bulletin containing information of professional interest to social workers; sent free to all members. Membership open to professional social workers at $3 a year and up, depending on what the individual feels he can afford. Supported by contributions and membership dues.

National Society of Children of the American Revolution (org. and inc. 1895), Memorial Continental Hall, Washington, D. C. Patriotic and memorial society. Through correspondence and the supplying of information material, national office organizes and supervises local branches operating in cities, towns, villages, or rural communities. State Directors appointed by the National Board of Management promote the forming of new branches; they visit local groups on request. Society holds an annual convention of delegates from the branches. The president of a local branch must be a member of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook). Work carried on by local groups is varied according to needs of community; this includes such activities as: presentation of books and flags to schools for the foreign born; awarding of scholarships to aid in the education of immigrants, southern mountaineers, and others; presenting of prizes and medals for essays in American history; dissemination of information regarding and stimulating loyalty to American institutions. National Society issues an Annual Report, usually published in the annual report of the Daughters of the American Revolution to the Smithsonian Institution (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook). Publishes Children of the American Revolution Magazine, quarterly, 10 cents a copy, 25 cents a year; explanatory leaflets, and Constitution and By-Laws; available on request. Any girl under 18 or boy under 21 is eligible for membership if lineally descended from a man or woman who during the Revolution loyally aided the cause of American independence as a soldier, sailor, civil officer, or recognized patriot. Members pay 50 cents annual dues, one-half of which is retained by the local society, while one-half is forwarded to the national office which is supported by these fees.

National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution (org. 1890, inc. 1896), Memorial Continental Hall, Washington, D. C. To perpetuate the memory and spirit of the men and women who achieved American Independence. Acquires and protects historical spots and erects fitting memorials. Encourages research and publishes results of historical study in relation to the Revolution. Preserves documents and relics and records of individual services of Revolutionary soldiers and patriots. Promotes celebrations of patriotic anniversaries. Assists in the extension of public education, through its Americanization and Patriotic Education Committee. Seeks to maintain and extend institutions of American freedom and to foster patriotism and love of country. Organizes and supervises chapters in every State in the Union and in the Orient. Committees, through which the special work of the organization is carried on, submit reports to the Continental Congress, held each year in April. These reports are published in the Proceedings, $1.50 a copy. Makes an annual report to the Smithsonian Institution, copies of which may be obtained from the Society. Patriotic lectures and lantern slides are available at nominal rental; for detailed information address Chairman. Society publishes, monthly, Daughters of the American Revolution Magazine, $1 a year, free to members. Membership open to women 18 years of age or more claiming direct descent from ancestors serving in the Revolutionary War. Supported by membership dues: initiation, $1; annual, $2.

National Society for the Promotion of Occupational Therapy (org. and inc. 1917), 10 East 39th St., New York, N. Y. For the advancement of occupational therapy, the study of the effects of occupations on human beings, and the dissemination of scientific knowledge on this subject. Holds an annual meeting, the Proceedings of which are published and sent free to members. Has formulated principles or rules for occupational therapy which seek to arouse interest, courage, and confidence in disabled persons. Seeks to teach them to exercise mind and body in healthful activity, to overcome functional disability, and to reestablish capacity for industrial and social usefulness. Has prepared a traveling exhibit, consisting chiefly of photographs, to stimulate the making of more artistic and better designed articles by disabled persons and to furnish fresh inspiration to rural teachers dealing with such persons. Exhibit may be borrowed by subscribers on payment of annual fee of $5 and transportation charges. Standing committees carry on active work: Committee on Finance and Publicity and Publication devises methods for accumulation of funds; Committee on Admission and Positions handles applications for membership, and acts as an employment bureau; Committee on Research and Efficiency conducts pertinent studies; Committee on Installations and Advice keeps in touch with changing conditions of institutions to revise methods and to confer with and advise persons desirous of investigating occupational therapy; Committee on Teaching Methods investigates different methods in vogue and prepares outlines of methods of teaching. All committees present reports at the annual meeting. Active membership is open to those who are practicing occupational therapy, or who are teaching, supervising, or superintending such work; associate membership is open to those who are desirous of doing such work; sustaining membership is open to other persons interested in objects of the Society. Supported by contributions and by annual dues: active and associate, $2; sustaining, $10.

National Society for the Study and Correction of Speech Disorders (org. 1912), Pres., Walter B. Swift, 110 Bay State Rd., Boston, Mass. To study means of preventing or curing speech disorders. Through its affiliated State organizations, the Society seeks to give its members up-to-date information on speech correction by means of "The Speech Circuit", conducted by the president and his students, who deliver lectures on pertinent subjects. The Society holds two annual meetings at the time of that of the National Education Association (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook). Papers read at these meetings discuss such subjects as the education of part-time speech teachers; speech instructors and supervisors; the introduction of special speech-correction training in kindergartens, in all school grades, and in classes for the mentally backward and feeble-minded. Distributes papers prepared by the president, and reprints of articles. Reprints are furnished free upon application to the president. Open to interested persons. Supported by private subscriptions.

National Society U. S. Daughters of 1812 (org. 1892), Pres., Mrs. Clarence F. R. Jenne, Hartford, Conn. For the promotion of patriotism. To preserve and increase knowledge of the history of the American people by the safe keeping of documents and relics, the marking of historic spots, the recording of family histories and traditions, the celebrating of patriotic anniversaries, and especially by the emphasizing of heroic deeds in the civil, military, and naval life of the U. S. between the close of the American Revolution and the close of the War of 1812. Holds an annual convention, open to the public, for the reading of reports and discussion of work. State societies and chapters assist in local social service activities in addition to maintaining the patriotic work of the organization. National Society publishes a news-letter three times a year. Membership is by election and is limited to white women over 18 years of age offering satisfactory proof of lineal descent from an ancestor who rendered civil, military, or naval service to this country between 1784 and 1815. Supported by membership dues.

National Society for Vocational Education (org. 1906), 140 West 42d St., New York, N. Y. To promote further development of vocational education. Through its annual meetings gives interested persons an opportunity for the presentation and discussion of problems related to vocational education. Makes available the results of the experiences of those working in the various fields of vocational education, both in this country and abroad. Central office acts as a clearing house and bureau of information, keeping members advised of the latest developments in vocational education, and literature published on the subject. Through annual meetings and distribution of literature, the Society provides for members a channel for nation-wide expression of ideas; through publicity campaigns creates and crystallizes public opinion in favor of vocational education as an integral part of the public school system. Has stimulated the demand for State educational legislation and worked for the passage of the Smith-Hughes Act, providing Federal aid to vocational education. Inspires and guides vocational surveys. Publishes news-letters, bulletins, and Annual Proceedings; sent free to members. Membership open to all interested persons. Supported by annual membership dues, $3 and up.

National Staff Council, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

National Story Tellers' League (org. 1903), Pres., Miss Mary E. Hargreaves, 1602 Mallers Bldg., 5 South Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill. To encourage the art of story telling among men, women, and children in the U. S. and Canada. Through its local branches seeks to develop the art of story telling in its members and to promote training in story telling in the homes, schools, Sunday schools, libraries, and playgrounds throughout the country. Local Leagues hold training and practice classes in story telling, provide lectures on story telling, and furnish story tellers for public meetings. Branches located within certain limits hold district conferences at least once a year. National field secretary visits local branches giving advice and aid for further development. Other national officers and district officers are often available for local meetings and for organization purposes. No fee is charged for these services other than expenses. Central office serves as a clearing house of information for local association members. Every four years the National League holds a convention, open to the public, at which reports from local Leagues are given. Issues a Year Book and occasional literature. Membership of local chapters is limited to 30 persons, all of whom must be willing to take an active part in story telling or other work essential to the usefulness of the League; number of members in the National League is not limited. Supported by annual dues paid by local Leagues at rate of 10 cents per member and by dues from sustaining and contributing members, 50 cents a year.

National Temperance Brotherhood. See Finnish National Temperance Brotherhood.

National Theological Seminary. See National Baptist Convention.

National Training School for Women and Girls. See National Baptist Convention.

National Tuberculosis Association (org. 1904), Penn Terminal Bldg., 370 Seventh Ave., New York, N. Y. To study tuberculosis in all its forms and relations; to encourage the prevention and scientific treatment of tuberculosis; and to disseminate knowledge concerning it. Is the centralizing and standardizing agency for about 1,200 State and local associations through which local work is conducted. National Association draws up and seeks to introduce and have maintained standards of work for institutions, associations, dispensaries, and other agencies dealing with tuberculosis work. Investigates, formulates, and demonstrates new methods for the treatment or prevention of tuberculosis; a conspicuous example of this work is the Community Health and Tuberculosis Demonstration at Framingham, Mass. Central office acts as a clearing house for the distribution of literature and information regarding tuberculosis. Seeks to stimulate public interest in preventive and curative work, and to extend knowledge concerning it. Provides public health talks, motion pictures, classroom instruction; also issues newspaper and magazine articles. Through State and local organizations, the Association distributes its own literature. Field workers make special investigations and assist local and State organizations in developing their work; address central office for particulars. Field representatives also organize programs of activities for local workers. National Association is conducting the "Modern Health Crusade" through its State and local branches. This movement is designed to teach correct health habits to school children and to provide a supplement to the ordinary courses of hygiene in the schools. Other special work is carried on by Administrative, Field, Medical, Research, Publicity, and Publication Services. Association publishes numerous leaflets and the following monthly periodicals: The Bulletin, a technical organ dealing with methods, programs, and news of the tuberculosis field; The Journal of the Outdoor Life, a popular magazine on tuberculosis, edited particularly for the laity and emphasizing the needs of the tuberculosis patients; The American Review of Tuberculosis, designed primarily to discuss medical and scientific phases of tuberculosis problems. The Bulletin is furnished free on individual personal request; The Journal is $2 a year, free to members; The Review, $5 a year, $2 to members. Association also publishes an annual volume of Transactions, numerous special monographs and studies, and "The Tuberculosis Directory", containing lists of hospitals and sanatoria receiving tubercular patients, 50 cents a copy. Membership is open to interested individuals, organizations, clubs, libraries; $5 a year. One-third of support is from membership dues, and two-thirds from the sale of Christmas seals; this sale also supports State and local work. Association is affiliated with the National Health Council and the National Child Health Council (for description of both of which see elsewhere in the Handbook).

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8 9 10
11 12
13
14
15
16
17
18 19 20 21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28
29
30
31
32
33
34 35
36
37
38
39
40
41 42
43
44
45
46
47
48
49
50
51
52
53
54
55
56
57
58
59
60
61
62
63
64
65
66
67
68
69
70
71
72
73
74
75
76
77
78
79 80
81
82
83
84
85
86
87
88
89
90
91
92
93
94
95
96
97
98
99
100
101
102
103
104
105
106
107
108
109
110
111
112
113
114
115
116
117
118
119
120
121
122
123
124
125
126
127
128
129
130
131
132
133
134
135
136
137
138
139
140
141
142
143
144
145
146
147
148
149
150
151
152
153
154 155
156
157
158
159
160
161
162
163
164
165
166
167
168
169
170
171
172
173
174
175
176
177
178
179
180
181
182
183
184
185
186
187
188
189
190
191
192
193
194
195
196
197
198
199
200 201
202
203
204
205
206 207
208
209
210
211
212
213
214
215
216
217
218
219
220
221
222
223
224
225
226
227
228
229
230
231
232
233
234
235
236
237 238
239
240
241
242
243
244
245
246
247
248
249
250
251
252
253
254
255
256
257
258
259
260
261
262
263
264
265
266
267
268
269
270
271
272
273
274
275
276
277
278
279
280
281
282
283
284
285
286
287
288
289
290
291
292
293
294
295
296
297
298
299
300
301
302
303
304
305
306
307
308
309
310
311
312
313
314
315
316
317
318
319
320
321
322
323
324
325
326
327
328
329
330
331
332
333
334
335
336
337
338
339
340
341
342
343
344
345
346
347
348
349
350
351
352
353
354
355
356
357
358
359
360
361
362
363
364 365
366
367
368
369
370
371
372
373
374
375
376
377
378
379
380
381
382
383
384
385
386
387
388
389
390
391
392
393
394
395
396
397
398
399
400
401
402
403
404
405
406
407
408
409
410
411
412
413
414
415
416
417
418
419
420
421
422
423
424
425
426
427
428
429
430
431
432
433
434
435
436
437
438
439
440
441
442
443
444
445
446
447
448
449
450
451
452
453
454
455
456
457
458
459
460
461
462
463
464
465
466
467
468
469
470
471
472
473
474
475
476
477
478
479
480
481
482
483
484
485
486
487
488
489
490
491
492
493
494
495
496
497
498
499 500
501 502
503
504
505
506
507
508
509
510
511
512
513
514
515
516
517
518
519
520
521
522
523
524
525
526
527
528
529
530
531
532
533
534
535
536
537
538
539
540
541
542
543
544
545
546
547
548
549
550
551
552
553
554
555
556
557
558
559
560
561
562
563
564
565
566
567
568 569
570
571
572
573
574
575
576
577
578
579
580
581
582
583
584
585
586
587
588
589
590
591
592
593
594
595
596
597
598
599
600
601
602
603
604
605
606
607
608
609
610
611
612
613
614
615
616
617
618
619
620
621
622
623
624
625
626
627
628
629
630
631
632
633
634
635
636
637
638
639
640
641
642
643
644
645
646
647
648
649
650
651
652
653
654
655
656
657
658
659
660 661
662
663
664
665
666
667
668
669
670
671
672
673
674
675
676
677
678
679
680
681
682
683
684
685
686
687
688
689
690
691
692
693
694
695
696
697 698
699
700
701
702
703
704
705
706
707
708
709 710
711
712
713
714
715
716
717
718
719
720
721
722
723
724 725
726
727
728
729
730
731
732
733 734
735
736 737
738
739
740
741
742
743
744 745
746
747 748
749
750
751
752
753
754
755
756
757
758
759
760
761
762
763 764
765
766
767
768
769
770
771
772
773
774
775
776
777
778
779
780
781
782
783
784
785 786
787
788
789
790 791
792
793
794
795
796
797
798
799 800
801
802
803
804 805 806
807
808
809
810
811
812
813
814
815
816
817
818
819
820
821
822
823
824
825
826
827
828
829
830
831
832
833
834
835
836
837
838
839
840
841
842
843
844
845
846
847
848
849
850
851 852
853 854
855
856
857
858
859
860
861 862
863
864
865
866
867
868
869 870
871
872
873
874
875
876
877
878
879
880
881
882
883
884
885
886
887
888
889
890
891
892
893
894
895
896
897
898
899
900 901
902
903
904
905
906
907
908 909
910
911
912
913
914
915
916
917
918
919
920
921
922
923
924
925
926
927
928
929
930
931
932
933
934
935
936
937
938
939
940
941
942
943
944
945
946 947
948
949
950
951
952
953
954
955
956
957
958
959
960
961 962
963
964
965
966
967
968
969
970
971
972
973
974
975
976
977 978
979
980
981
982 983
984
985
986
987
988
989
990
991
992
993
994
995
996
997
998
999
1000

National Urban League (org. 1911, inc. 1913), 127 East 23d St., New York, N. Y.; southern office, 200 Auburn Ave., Atlanta, Ga.; western office, 3032 South Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill. For social service among Negroes. As a basis for practical community programs, the League makes local investigations of industrial, housing, recreational, and other social needs of Negroes in cities. Field secretaries organize and supervise branches throughout the country. Many of these branches maintain community houses and room registries, make investigations, serve as employment bureaus, and conduct other welfare work. Educational Committee secures and trains Negro social workers and places them in localities needing their services. Educational secretary lectures to student bodies and teachers' institutes, and arranges for the granting of scholarships. These scholarships are offered to a limited number of Negro students in schools for social work in various cities and are sufficient to cover their living expenses. Research Bureau secures and supplies to the general public and schools and colleges information on matters affecting Negroes. League holds annual conferences, open to the public, to discuss the social and industrial problems of Negroes. Conducts an educational campaign through its publications, through articles appearing in magazines and newspapers, and through lecturers whom it sends to conferences and meetings of national agencies. Publishes bulletins and leaflets and an Annual Report; furnished free on request. Supported by contributions.

National Vocational Guidance Association (org. 1912, reorg. 1920), Secy., Russel H. Allen, 261 Broadway, New York, N. Y. A federation of associations interested in effecting proper adjustments between the individual and his vocational career. Central office serves as a clearing house of information, distributing educational material on vocational guidance to the local associations. Services are rendered free without restrictions as to sex, race, or creed. Association holds national sessions for the discussion and exchange of ideas. Any person interested in problems of vocational guidance may become a member. Supported by membership dues, $1 a year.

National Woman's Christian Temperance Union (org. 1874, inc. 1883), national headquarters, 1730 Chicago Ave., Evanston, Ill.; legislative headquarters, Bliss Bldg., 35 B St. NW., Washington, D. C. Devotes its efforts to the furtherance of the enforcement of the Volstead Act, to the perpetuation of favorable public opinion regarding prohibition, and to the general activities which have always marked the work of the organization. Has been working to destroy the liquor traffic and other harmful influences as they affect the life, health, and morals of America, and has also been conducting campaigns of education and practical effort to safeguard the interests of little children. Through local auxiliaries and individual members, the Union has organized boys of the street, shielded helpless girls, taught tenement mothers how to cook, educated foreigners to speak the English language, secured better conditions for working women, and in many other ways sought to lift the level of living in every relationship of life. Auxiliary-ship is based on endorsement of the constitution and the payment of annual per capita dues. Central office acts as a clearing house and advisory body for auxiliaries organized in every State, in Alaska, Porto Rico, and the Philippines. Union holds an annual convention, open to the public. Among the departments which conduct special work are the following: Americanisation, Dir., Mrs. Culla J. Vayhinger, with Training School and Center at 1638 Blue Island Ave., Chicago, Ill.; Child Welfare, Dir., Mrs. Elizabeth A. Perkins, Ann Arbor, Mich.; Social Morality, Dir., Dr. Valeria H. Parker, 105 West 40th St., New York, N. Y.; Christian Citizenship, Supt., Mrs. Deborah Knox Livingston, Providence, R. I.; Women in Industry, Dir., Mrs. Laura Miller, 1714 Chicago Ave., Evanston, Ill.; Scientific Temperance Instruction, Dir., Mrs. Elizabeth Owens Middleton, Kansas City, Mo.; Scientific Temperance Investigation, Dir., Miss Cora Frances Stoddard, Boston, Mass.; Health, Supt., P. S. Bourdeau-Sisco, M. D., Baltimore, Md. The General Secretary of the Young People's Branch, Mrs. Maude B. Perkins, East Syracuse, N. Y., specializes in organizing in women's colleges "Temperance Committees" for the study of alcohol from the standpoint of science, economics, and corrective agencies. The National W. C. T. U. Publishing House, Evanston, Ill., conducts mail order business in the general and departmental literature of the organization. Catalogue of publications is furnished free on request. The Union Signal, weekly, $1.50 a year, and The Young Crusader, monthly, 35 cents a year, are the official organs.

National Woman's Relief Society (org. 1842, inc. 1892), 28 Bishop's Bldg., Salt Lake City, Utah. An organization for philanthropic, spiritual, and cultural purposes, active in civic and community welfare work of various descriptions. Fosters movements for education and the emancipation of women. Seeks to advance cause of progressive education in public schools through working for the enactment, enforcement, and maintenance of progressive educational bills. Operates through local branches, many of which held temporary health clinics for children during the year 1920. Society provides in its own organization for regularly formed classes where definite subjects may be studied by members. Conducts a school for training practical nurses and nurses' aids, the course of study covering a period of one year; has accommodations for 20 students. Graduates give one month's charity nursing to the community from which they come, under direction of the local body of the Society. Society has been instrumental in the organization of a class in charities and relief work at Brigham Young University, Provo City, Utah. Circulates educational material and conducts courses of studies arranged by the extension divisions of the University of Utah and the Agricultural College of Utah. Charity work is conducted in the local groups by Relief Society officers and visiting teachers; two of the latter are appointed for every 12 families in the organization. Teachers visit families monthly, reporting cases of want and sickness. Relief is given when necessary under direction of the local president. Field workers visit local groups and conduct follow-up work along lines of activities undertaken by the national organization. Society publishes Relief Society Magazine, monthly, available to the public, $1 a year; also an Annual Report, obtainable free upon request. Services are primarily for members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (Mormons) but are not limited to this group. Charity work is supported by contributions; other expenses are covered by membership dues, 25 cents a year.

National Women's Trade Union League of America (org. 1903), ⁺ 64 West Randolph St., Chicago, Ill. To improve the working conditions of women in industry. Its platform calls for the organization of ^{to 40} all workers into trade unions; equal pay for equal work, regardless of ¹⁹² sex; an 8-hour day and a 44-hour week; a living wage; full citizenship ^{and in} for women. Field workers organize local groups into trade unions and ^{later} aid unions already organized. National organization assists in the ^{to an} preparation and enactment of legislation bettering working conditions. ^{made} Strives to educate the public through pamphlets and leaflets, and ^{but} through lectures. Publishes Life and Labor, a monthly magazine, 10 cents a copy, $1 a year. Other literature, descriptive of the organization and of legislation pending and proposed, may be secured by application to the central office. Supported by voluntary contributions, by dues of affiliated unions and other organizations, $5 a year, and by individual membership dues, $1 and up.

Needlework Guild of America (org. 1885, inc. 1896), 505 Franklin Bldg., 133 South 12th St., Philadelphia, Pa. To collect and distribute new, plain, and suitable garments to meet the needs of hospitals, Homes, and other charities. Works through branches organized in cities and towns throughout the country. Members make annual contributions of two or more new articles of wearing apparel or household linen, or a donation of money, no amount specified. Guild makes special requests for warm undergarments, socks and stockings in pairs, mittens, gloves, caps, sweaters, petticoats, dark flannel night wear, broad-soled shoes, blankets and clothes for infants, garments for outgoing hospital patients, and flannel sacks, wrappers, bed shoes, and shoulder shawls for persons in hospitals. Special committee sends annual questionnaire to charitable institutions and hospitals to learn of their needs. Garments collected by branches are sent to the local annual meetings, and are distributed according to needs of various charities as revealed by the questionnaire replies. Guild aids no specific charity but ministers to many charities. Extension and field secretaries and voluntary speakers are available for local work. Guild publishes a biennial report, leaflets, and other descriptive literature; obtainable at national office. Lantern slides, illustrating Guild work, may be rented by branches for $5 plus expressage and breakage charges. Non-sectarian in membership; open to men and women of all creeds and classes. Supported by contributions from branches, no amount specified. Is affiliated with the American National Red Cross and the General Federation of Women's Clubs (for description of both of which see elsewhere in the Handbook).

Negro Business League. See National Negro Business League.

Negro Education Board. See Methodist Episcopal Church, Board of Education for Negroes.

Negro Life and History Association. See Association for the Study of Negro Life and History.

Negro Musicians' Association. See National Association of Negro Musicians.

Negro National Educational Congress (org. and inc. 1900), Pres. J. Silas Harris, 1611 Forest Ave., Kansas City, Mo. To lift the Negro to a higher and more useful plane of American citizenship. Conducts educational work among Negroes. Through its representatives seeks to reach the rural Negro home, church, and school, with a view to improving them and making them more attractive so as to keep at home and away from crowded cities the Negro rural youth. Representatives hold community meetings and organize local branches. The national association holds an annual convention of delegates appointed by the Governors of the several States, for the discussion of plans and programs; open to the public. Exhibits showing race progress along various lines of activities in which Negroes are engaged are displayed at these annual meetings. Membership open to interested persons. Supported by membership dues, $2 a year.

Negro Relief Circle. See Circle for Negro Relief.

Negro Rural School Fund, Anna T. Jeannes Foundation (org. 1907), Box 418, Charlottesville, Va. To assist remote country schools for Negro children. Pays, either wholly or in part, the salaries of trained industrial teachers who are graduates of colored educational institutions and who work on circuits in counties of the South. These teachers seek to improve the physical condition of school children and to better the instruction given in the schools; they introduce and supervise the teaching of simple forms of industrial work in the schools and often conduct institutes for the teachers themselves; give talks and lessons on sanitation, personal cleanliness, and related topics; encourage the improvement of school houses and school grounds. Supervisors also organize and oversee the work of clubs for the benefit of schools and neighborhoods. Supported by endowment fund and by grants from the General Education Board (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook).

Negro Youth Colleges. See Association of Colleges for Negro Youth.

Neighbors' League of America (org. 1917, inc. 1919), Pres., J. Foster Wilcox, 23 East 26th St., New York, N. Y. To extend Americanization among the foreign born, to teach English, and create neighborly feeling. Operates through local branches. Workers teach the English language, especially to mothers and small children who are not able to attend public classes for foreigners, and teach people of all groups in places where no public classes are held. Teachers work voluntarily and without salary. Through its work in the homes, the League seeks to supplement but not duplicate the work of other organizations teaching English. Uses Biblical material for first lessons in English wherever practicable, and supplements this teaching with instruction in home economics, civics, arithmetic, history, preparation for naturalization, or other subjects adapted to the needs of pupils. Publishes literature occasionally. Has posters, which may be seen at central office. Active members, doing personal service in Americanization work, pay annual dues of $1; contributing and other members pay $5 and up. Supported by voluntary contributions and membership dues.

New Era Movement. See Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., New Era Movement.

New York Bureau of Municipal Research and Training School for Public Service (org. 1905, inc. 1907), 261 Broadway, New York, N. Y. To extend research and education in governmental administration, municipal, State, and national. Gives instruction through laboratory or field courses in practical city and State government for public officials and those about to enter official or unofficial public service. Conducts and publishes research studies in problems of government. Furnishes expert service in dealing with special problems such as public works, finance, police, fire, budget-making, accounting, health, schools, taxation, and administrative organization. Makes appraisals for health administration and assists in drawing up constructive health programs. Studies housing from social and economic points of view. Undertakes administrative surveys of city, county, and State governments. Consultant service of staff is free to city officials of New York City and on a service-at-cost basis to all other public officials, private organizations, and to the general public. Students in Training School pay nominal tuition fees. Supported by contributions.

New York Foundation (org. and inc. 1909), Secy., William F. Fuerst, 87 Nassau St., New York, N. Y. Maintains a fund, the income of which is distributed for altruistic purposes, charitable, benevolent, educational, and otherwise, within the U. S. Does not render aid to individuals. Aims principally to aid original efforts through existing organizations.

New York League for the Hard of Hearing (org. 1910, inc. 1912), 126 East 59th St., New York, N. Y. To promote and extend work for the deafened. Conducts a free vocational and information bureau which gives advice and information on lip-reading, recreation for the hard of hearing, medical problems aural in character, and on similar subjects referred to it. Employment, Educational, Welfare, and Industrial Departments conduct special work for the deafened. If expenses are paid, League will send staff workers to other communities to organize and supervise new social service agencies for the deafened. Membership is open to interested persons, both deafened and hearing. Supported by contributions and by membership dues, $2 and up.

North American Civic League for Immigrants (org. 1908), 173 State St., Boston, Mass. To protect immigrant and resident aliens and to interest and instruct them in American ideals and the requirements of American citizenship. Maintains in a number of industrial cities branch offices which conduct information bureaus with foreign-speaking agents in charge. Immigrants may apply to these branches for free information and advice. National League has also organized local leagues which conduct work in accordance with community needs. Through its branches and local Leagues, the organization holds conferences and organizes committees among foreigners for the extension of its educational work; institutes classes for immigrants, teaching them English and simple lessons in civics; holds neighborhood classes for women who are unable to attend classes held in public schools. After classes are well organized, local branches usually turn them over to local institutions and public school systems. Secretaries, speaking foreign languages, visit immigrant homes and give advice and aid. Field secretaries from national office organize work in cities throughout the country; their services may be secured by any community showing need for the League's work. The Industrial Committee, available for lecture service and educational work, may be called to any point in emergency upon payment of expenses. In cooperation with the National Association of Travelers Aid Societies (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook), and other similar agencies, and through its branches and individual members, the League protects and assists immigrants at ports and railway stations. Publishes an Annual Report and a number of pamphlets, "Messages to Newcomers", written in several foreign languages. These pamphlets are descriptive of laws, traditions, history, and methods of naturalization, and are for sale at cost by the central office. Slides showing historical, industrial, educational, and natural features of the U. S. are for rent to private enterprises; they are loaned free to public institutions. Membership is open to interested persons. Supported by contributions and by membership fees, $5 a year.

Order and Liberty Alliance, formed during the War to extend League's work among American soldiers and sailors, acts as a subsidiary body. Has published circulars and handbills for ex-service men among whom the Alliance conducts its present work (1921).

Northern Baptist Convention (org. 1908, inc. 1910), 5109 Waterman Ave., St. Louis, Mo. To give expression to the opinions of its constituency upon moral, religious, and denominational matters, and to promote harmony and efficiency in efforts for the evangelism of the world. Holds an annual meeting, open to the public. Convention publishes a Handbook, $1 a copy, and an Annual Report, 50 cents a copy. These may be secured from the American Baptist Publication Society, 1701 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa. Convention works through five types of agencies:

- (1) Executive Committee, which is the Convention itself between its annual sessions and cares for all its interests;

- (2) Convention Committees, among which are the following: Committee on City Missions which studies questions related to co-operation between City Missions and State Conventions and co-operating organizations of the Convention, and general questions relating to city missionary work throughout the country; Committee on Baptist Brotherhood which furthers the organization of men in Baptist churches for study, fellowship, and service; Committee on Social Service which studies social conditions and needs, ascertains the activities of Baptist churches in the field of social service, organizes and enlists Baptists in practical lines of community service in city and country, cooperates with similar agencies of other religious bodies, and reports its findings and recommendations through the religious press; Committee on Evangelism which promotes organized and cooperative evangelism among the churches; Committee on the Coordination of Baptist Bodies Using Foreign Languages which conducts studies and issues reports;

(3) Cooperating Organizations, which include the following: American Baptist Foreign Missionary Society, Woman's American Baptist Foreign Missionary Society, American Baptist Home Mission Society, Woman's American Baptist Home Mission Society, American Baptist Publication Society (for description of the last three of which see elsewhere in the Handbook);

(4) Incorporated Boards which include: the Ministers' and Missionaries' Relief Board which administers its funds for the benefit of Baptist ministers and missionaries, their wives, widows, and dependent children, either directly or through related organizations, and which cooperates with such organizations in securing uniformity and methods for extension of aid; the Board of Education which promotes religious education in its various phases and holds conferences for cooperating organizations engaged in educational work;

(5) Affiliated State Organizations of Baptists.

*Norwegian Lutheran Church of America (org. 1917 by union of the Hague Synod, the Norwegian Synod, and the United Church; inc. 1917), 425 Fourth St., South, Minneapolis, Minn. Board of Charities maintains hospitals, training schools for nurses and deaconesses, homes for the aged, orphanages, child-placing agencies, city missions carrying on relief work, rescue homes for girls, homes for immigrants, and training schools for mission workers in various cities. Board of Home Missions conducts seamen's homes, distributes books, and carries on evangelistic work. Board of Education maintains colleges and academies in a number of cities.

Nurses' Association. See American Nurses' Association.

*Based on information obtained from reliable sources; official approval of digest not received before going to press.

- Nurses' Relief Fund. See American Nurses' Association.
- Nursing, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.
- Nursing Association Headquarters. See National Nursing Association Headquarters.
- Nursing Education League. See National League of Nursing Education.
- Nutrition, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.
- Office of Farm Management. See Department of Agriculture, U. S.
- Office of Indian Affairs. See Department of the Interior, U. S.
- Oral Advocates' Society. See Society of Progressive Oral Advocates.
- Organization for Public Health Nursing. See National Organization for Public Health Nursing.
- Parks Association. See National Parks Association.
- Passport Control Division. See Department of State, U. S.
- Patent Office. See Department of the Interior, U. S.
- Patriotic League. See American Patriotic League.
- Patrons of Husbandry. See National Grange of Patrons of Husbandry.
- Peace Foundation. See World Peace Foundation.
- Peace Society. See American Peace Society.
- Peace Union. See Church Peace Union.
- Pediatric Society. See American Pediatric Society.
- Peoples of America Society (in process of org.), 7 West 16th St., New York, N. Y. For common counsel and common action in the elimination of friction between native and foreign-born Americans and the promotion of mutual knowledge and good relations between them. Plans to establish an Information Service for the exchange of ideas and information. Will conduct immigration studies and carry on an educational campaign through exhibits, articles in newspapers and magazines, and by other methods. Will attempt to reassert the vital content behind the term, "Americanization", and to redefine the meaning and possibilities of the term, "Americanism". Membership open to all citizens, native and foreign-born. Primarily composed of social workers and students of immigration problems.

People's University—The Temple (org. 1900, inc. 1918), Pres., A. L. Graicunas, M. D., 3310 South Halsted St., Chicago, Ill. Has organized a body of lecturers, composed of American citizens, who speak before foreign-born citizens or future citizens in their native language whenever practicable. Lecturers seek to extend information regarding civics, hygiene, sanitation, preventive medicine, and other topics of kindred nature. Local groups applying for services of lecturers furnish hall and pay expenses. Central office organizes branches or lodges which seek to educate their members in citizenship. Activities are conducted especially among Lithuanians but are not limited to them. Organization is supported by donations and by membership dues, $1 and up.

Phelps Stokes Fund (org. 1910, inc. 1911), 100 William St., New York, N. Y. To originate, stimulate, and encourage activities for social betterment. Works especially to further the education of Negroes and Indians; also assists needy and deserving white students. In cooperation with the U. S. Bureau of Education (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook), the Fund has made a survey of and issued a report on Negro education in the U. S. to provide a source book on education and race relations and a "Who's Who" among Negro schools. (This report, which was published in two volumes, is now out of print.) This survey included a study of the financial support of Negro education and lists of persons and schools and methods concerned in Negro education; it also offered suggestions on educational adaptations, including industrial, rural, and general education. Fund cooperates with other national agencies and with the U. S. Bureau of Education in other educational surveys of the southern States. Maintains Negro probation officers in southern cities. Has assisted in the education of Negro ministers; has made appropriations to the work of the International Sunday School Association in behalf of Negroes. Offers fellowships for white students at the University of Georgia and the University of Virginia. Papers prepared by Fellows are published jointly by the Fund and the institutions they attend. Fund has assisted the University Commission on Southern Race Questions (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook); it also organized the Southern Publicity Committee which compiles and circulates information regarding race questions in the hope of bringing about a better understanding between the two races. Publishes books and reports, available through central office and the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C.; for complete list and prices of publications address central office. Supported by endowment.

Physical Education Association. See American Physical Education Association.

Physicians' and Surgeons' Association. See American Association of Industrial Physicians and Surgeons.

Plant, Flower and Fruit Guild. See National Plant, Flower and Fruit Guild.

Playground and Recreation Association of America (org. 1906), 1 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y. To direct and develop interest in playgrounds; to promote wholesome recreation for young and old; and to assist communities in establishing year-round recreation systems supported and administered by municipal departments. On request sends field workers to communities to study recreational needs and resources, to advise regarding plans of work, to conduct campaigns for obtaining necessary city appropriations, and to help the city in securing trained workers. Association offers follow-up work until city recreational departments are well organized. Communities usually pay expenses of field workers. Central office acts as a clearing house of information on playgrounds, recreational centers, and the various phases of recreation in cities, small communities, and rural districts. It maintains an Employment Bureau to supply recreation agencies with trained workers and to find positions for applicants; these services are free. Central office also suggests lecturers for conferences and public meetings; this service also is free of charge. Local agency pays expenses and fee of speaker. Association holds an annual meeting, open to the public. It conducts athletic badge contests to encourage and standardize the physical efficiency of boys and girls. Has prepared exhibit material which may be borrowed by communities for use in playground campaigns; also photographs which may be rented for 5 cents each a month, $1.50 for each photograph not returned; newspaper and magazine cuts offered free, except for charge made for each cut not returned; slides, which are for rent, $1 a set for each three days in use, or for sale at $25 a set, about 50 in a set, transportation charges to be paid by applying agency. Publishes pamphlets and circulars, free, or for sale at small cost; the "Year Book", 40 cents a copy; The Playground, an illustrated monthly magazine, 25 cents a copy, $2 a year. Membership open to all interested persons. Supported by annual dues, $5 a year.

National Physical Education Service (org. 1918), 309 Homer Bldg., 13th and F Sts. NW., Washington, D. C. Works to secure Federal legislation for physical education; universal physical education in the schools of all States; an effective municipal program of public recreation and physical education. Seeks to stimulate popular opinion which would assure both legislation and its effective operation. Sends representatives to States planning physical education legislation; these field workers organize local and State campaigns, address meetings, and otherwise aid in bringing about the enactment of such laws. Central office compiles up-to-date information regarding the progress of State and Federal legislation for physical education. Has prepared exhibit material. Publishes leaflets and pamphlets, some of which are available in quantities at cost. The Service is supported by voluntary contributions, most of which are given through the Playground and Recreation Association of America.

Polish Falcons Alliance of America (org. and inc. 1894), 1203 Carson St., Pittsburgh, Pa. To regenerate in body and spirit the Polish people in America, and to create of the immigrant a national asset. Organizes local branches known as Falcon Nests, which are open to the Polish youth of both sexes. Central office conducts gymnastic and educational schools for the purpose of providing instructors for districts and Nests; arranges gymnastic and educational lecture courses in districts and Nests; gives lectures, open to the public; arranges general meetings and appoints field drills and gymnastic exercises for members of local bodies. Holds conventions from time to time. Central office also arranges celebrations of national anniversaries. Publishes and distributes among members and the Polish populace of America gymnastic manuals, leaflets, and pamphlets, mostly in Polish, for sale at small cost. Active membership open to persons willing to engage in gymnastic activities of the order; other membership open to interested persons; all members must be of Polish descent. Supported by membership dues, 20 cents a month.

Polish National Alliance (org. 1880, inc. 1896), 1406 West Division St., Chicago, Ill. Local lodges, which are organized throughout the country, furnish aid to the unfortunate and needy. Branches in some cities conduct trade schools; others make loans to Polish students attending universities, preference being given to children of members, although non-members may also apply. Branches also conduct educational lecture courses; maintain libraries, open to the public; give protection to immigrants; pay death benefits to members. The Alliance owns and conducts the Polish Emigration Home at 180 Second Ave., New York City, where immigrants and emigrants find lodging and food at reasonable prices. It has an agent at Ellis Island to look after the problems of immigrants. Membership is limited to Poles, Lithuanians, and Russians in America. Central office publishes the official organ, Zgoda, a weekly, 36 cents a year to members, 70 cents a year to non-members, and Dziennik Zwiazkowy, a daily paper, $6 a year. Alliance is supported by membership dues, which are graded according to the sum of money for which member is insured.

Polish Roman Catholic Union of America (org. and inc. 1887), 984 Milwaukee Ave., Chicago, Ill. A union of Polish Roman Catholics in America for furnishing brotherly aid. Has local lodges throughout the country. Maintains a library, open to the public. Services are offered only to members and their children except when needy families or individuals are brought to the attention of lodges by a member. Publishes Narod Polski, weekly, 60 cents a year for members, $1.20 for non-members. Open to Polish men and women of Roman Catholic faith. Supported by membership dues, which are graded according to amount for which person is insured.

Polish Women's Alliance of America, Pres., A. Emilia Napieralska, 1309 North Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill. A fraternal organization of women, which issues life insurance and carries on educational propaganda. Identified in civic, social, and national work, in general, as well as where women alone are concerned. Has its own home where it conducts classes in citizenship, and maintains its own library and reading rooms. Issues The Women's Voice (Glos Polek), weekly; sent to members. Membership consists of women of Polish birth or extraction in America.

Political Science Academy. See Academy of Political Science.

Post Office Department, U. S., Washington, D. C. The Postmaster General appoints all officers and employees of the Post Office Department except the four Assistant Postmasters General and the purchasing agent, who are Presidential appointees. With the exception of postmasters of the first, second, and third classes, who are likewise Presidential appointees, he appoints all postmasters and all other officers and employees of the service at large. Subject to the approval of the President, the Postmaster General makes postal treaties with foreign Governments; awards and executes contracts; and directs the management of the Foreign Mail Service.

Division of Postal Savings is under the management of the Third Assistant Postmaster General who selects and designates post offices as postal savings depository offices. Any person 10 years old or over may open an account by depositing one dollar or more in any post office authorized to accept postal savings, and may continue to deposit until the balance to his credit amounts to \$2,500. Accounts may be transferred from one post office to another without cost. The account of a married woman is free from interference by her husband. Post office employees are forbidden to disclose the amount of any deposit to anyone except the depositor. Anyone served by a post office which is not authorized to accept postal savings may open an account at a depository office by mail, through his local postmaster, who will give full instructions. After an account has been opened, deposits may be made either in person, by a representative, by money order, or by registered mail if the money-order service is not available. Deposits are acknowledged by certificates. A depositor may at any time withdraw all or any part of his postal savings deposits, upon demand, from the post office where the deposits were made. Postal savings certificates bear interest at 2 per cent a year. Interest begins on the first day of the month following the month in which the certificate is issued and becomes due at the expiration of each full year from the day interest begins as long as the principal remains on deposit. No interest will be paid for a fraction of a year. Amounts less than \$1 may be saved by purchasing postal savings stamps at 10 cents each. A depositor may exchange the whole or a part of his deposit for U. S. postal savings bonds, bearing $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent interest, issued in denominations of \$20, \$100, and \$500. Circulars about the Postal Savings System may be obtained at any post office or by addressing the Third Assistant Postmaster General, Division of Postal Savings, Washington, D. C.

Division of Rural Mails has jurisdiction in matters pertaining to the establishment or discontinuance of and changes in rural delivery and star routes, issuing orders and conducting correspondence relating to the establishment of new service or changes in existing service; the appointment and discipline of rural carriers; issuing of advertisements concerning, and the awarding of contracts for star route service, which class of service is performed under contracts awarded in four-year terms; also with regard to requirements for mail boxes on both classes of routes.

Chief Inspector receives complaints relative to use of the mails for the sending of intoxicants, poisons, explosives and other prohibited articles; advertisements of intoxicants and soliciting orders for these; in furtherance of schemes to defraud the public; for the transmission of indecent, obscene, scurrilous, or defamatory matter, and relative to loss, theft, wrong delivery, tampering with, or interception of mail. Persons sending in complaints of tampering should furnish envelopes or wrappers and in making complaints concerning schemes to defraud, should include a statement of the facts and all letters and literature with envelopes.

Parcel Post: Special treatment and advantage are accorded to shipments of farm products by parcel post. Information as to this service is available at any post office. The domestic parcel post reaches more places than any other transportation agency. It aims to bring producers and consumers into closer contact and thereby aid in reducing the high cost of living.

Post War Services, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

Posture League. See American Posture League.

Preparedness for Disaster Relief. See American National Red Cross.

Presbyterian Church, Board of Temperance and Moral Welfare (org. 1881 as the Permanent Committee for Temperance; reorg. and inc. 1913 under present name; reorg. 1919), 714 Columbia Bank Bldg., Pittsburgh, Pa. Carries on special work through its several departments, each of which employs field workers who render assistance to communities on request, prepare and hold conferences and institutes, supply information, and conduct educational campaigns. Department of Temperance at Home and Abroad conducts nation-wide campaigns against beverage alcohol, and the use of cigarettes and habit-forming drugs, and furnishes speakers and literature to assist in anti-liquor campaigns in the U. S. and foreign countries. Department of Family and Child Welfare studies and endeavors to prevent juvenile delinquency, illegitimacy, and unnecessary infant mortality; urges housing betterment; works for uniform and more rigid marriage and divorce laws. Department of Social Hygiene endeavors to bring into closer contact with one another, social hygiene societies and ministers and other church workers; cooperates with Federal and State governments in an effort to control and prevent social evils. Department of Amusements and Recreation urges supervised community recreation, the establishment of playgrounds and social centers, and investigation of moving pictures and dance halls. Department of Research and Statistics conducts social and rural surveys; furnishes maps, charts, posters, and leaflets on subjects within its field; aims to become a clearing house to give aid to pastors and Christian workers. Department of Delinquent and Defective Classes studies problems of penal institutions and the feeble-minded, insane, epileptic, deaf, dumb, and blind. Services offered by the Board are rendered to the general public as far as size of the staff permits. Board extends publicity through public addresses and printed material. Supported by contributions from individuals and the Presbyterian Church.

— Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., Board of Home Missions (org. 1802), 156 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y. Primarily interested in the development of local church organizations. Field includes U. S., Alaska, and the West Indies. Board cooperates in the holding of social service conferences and the promoting of general social service interests in the Church. In addition to general church activities the departments listed below conduct special work:

Alaskan Work Department has just completed a well-equipped hospital at Point Barrow, Alaska, the northernmost mission point on the American continent. It also maintains a medical mission at Cape Prince of Wales.

Church and Country Life Work Department cooperates with both denominational and non-sectarian educational institutions in conducting summer schools of from one to three weeks each for country pastors, the curricula usually including courses in rural sociology, economics, religious education, and general rural problems. Grants to pastors scholarships covering the major part of the expense of attendance. Conducts the biennial Mountain Workers' Conference for church workers in mountain districts of Tennessee and North Carolina. Has other conferences for denominational field workers, superintendents, and persons in similar supervisory relations. Supplies lecturers on country church work for State farmers' meetings and other rural gatherings. Maintains a hospital and gives general medical service in White Rock, N. C. Maintains folk schools at Burnsville, N. C. and Alpine, Tenn. Cooperates with local churches in the development of various lines of community service. Has made rural surveys in the following States: Arkansas, California, Illinois, Indiana, Maryland, Minnesota, Missouri, New York, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, and Tennessee. The results of these surveys have been published and, with a few exceptions, are available at 10 cents a copy. Department publishes Home Lands, a bi-monthly magazine on country church work, 50 cents a year.

City and Immigrant Work Department, 156 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y.; Pacific Coast headquarters, 278 Post St., San Francisco, Calif. Aims at the sympathetic and efficient organization of churches in city, immigrant, and industrial community service. Conducts service programs for groups of churches in city and industrial communities. Furnishes executive leadership for city church extension boards and for demonstration of city and industrial parish work. Maintains neighborhood houses in immigrant communities. Offers fellowships for men and women in training for the work of the churches in immigrant and industrial communities.

Indian Department has hospital and medical service in three localities and cooperates in the maintenance of three schools for Indian workers.

Porto Rico Department maintains the Polytechnic Institute in Porto Rico.

Spanish-Speaking Work Department maintains hospital and medical service at Bisbee, Ariz., and a dental clinic at Los Angeles, Calif. Has Homes for Neighborly Service at three places in the Southwest which serve the daily needs of Mexican women.

Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., New Era Movement (org. 1918), 156 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y. To coordinate and promote in all congregations the departments, forces, and resources of the Presbyterian Church in a program for evangelistic, educational, social, and financial work. This is carried on through field secretaries and by printed matter distributed from the central office. Divides the U. S. into 14 districts, each having a secretary. Maintains a central receiving agency for collecting benevolences and distributing them to various church boards and agencies. Literature Bureau furnishes stereopticon and motion-picture lectures free of charge, and maintains an information bureau concerning the use of motion pictures in churches. Movement publishes the New Era Magazine, monthly, $1 a year; also manuals and leaflets distributed free to those applying. Supported by budget from the Presbyterian Church.

Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., Woman's Board of Home Missions (org. 1878, inc. 1915), 156 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y. To carry on mission work through schools, hospitals, and community centers. Operates among the Alaskans with an industrial mission school; among Indians, Mexicans, and mountaineers, offering medical work and maintaining for them mission day and boarding schools; in Cuba, with eight schools; in Porto Rico, with a mission hospital and two neighborhood houses. Seeks to promote interest in missions through the organization of new missionary societies for women and children and through dissemination of information. Publishes the Home Mission Monthly, 75 cents a year, and leaflet literature, some free, some for sale at nominal cost. The supporters of the work are the women, young people, and children of the Presbyterian Church who have banded themselves together in societies to carry on this work for missions committed to them by the Church.

Presbyterian Church in the U. S. (South), Executive Committee of Home Missions (org. 1861, inc. 1904), 1522 Hurt Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Conducts evangelistic and mission work among Negroes, mountaineers, and foreign-speaking people in America. The Executive Committee of Publications issues monthly The Missionary Survey at its office at 6 North Sixth St., Richmond, Va.; 75 cents a year. Members of Home Missions Committee are elected by the General Assembly of the Church. Committee is supported by contributions and by collections from the churches.

Preservation Society. See Bureau of Catholic Indian Missions.

Presser Foundation (org. 1916), Middle City Post Office, Philadelphia, Pa. To give aid and relief to music students and needy and retired teachers of music. Department of Scholarships offers loans and scholarships of $200 each to students attending any college having educational standards and practices satisfactory to the Department and who, without this assistance, would be unable to continue their studies. Students must be pursuing practical courses in music as their primary interest, but must also be taking academic studies to the extent of at least one-third of their work. Loans are made preferably to students who aim to become music teachers; scholarships are offered only to those who definitely have this intention. Students receiving scholarships, and institutions to which grants of money have been made furnish the Department with annual reports, giving full information regarding the success and progress of the student during the year and other necessary information. Failure to render these reports disqualifies the institutions or students from future benefits. For application blanks and detailed information, address central office. Scholarships are granted for one year, but may be extended. Loans bear no interest while student is in college, but are due with 4 per cent interest one year after student has left the institution; loans may be extended at increasing rates under certain conditions. Department of Relief administers emergency aid as quickly as possible to musicians and teachers of music in distress. All grants made are of a strictly confidential nature. Blank application forms are forwarded upon request. Foundation is not a membership body. Supported entirely by endowment of Theodore Presser, the founder.

Presser Home for Retired Music Teachers (est. 1906), 101 West Johnson St., Philadelphia, Pa. Admits both men and women, who must be at least 65 years of age and who have followed the profession of music teaching in the U. S. for 25 years as their main means of livelihood. Beneficiaries must be unable to continue active work in teaching at time of application and must bring satisfactory testimonial as to character and professional standing. An entrance fee of $200 is charged; this is refunded, with a reduction of nominal board fee during residence, if the applicant leaves. Residents owning property are required to transfer it to the institution before they are admitted; they receive 6 per cent interest on their principal. Applicants must present certificate of health from a physician and must submit to a further examination by the Home physician before admission. Applicants are not accepted if afflicted with acute, contagious, or chronic diseases or any malady or infirmity which would be a menace to others or which would necessitate special or individual attention and care. Each person received is on probation for three months, the Directors reserving the right of dismissal at this or any other time deemed desirable. For application blanks and further information, address central office.

Primary Education Council. See National Council of Primary Education.

Printing Office. See Government Printing Office.

Prison Association. See American Prison Association.

Prisons and Prison Labor Committee. See National Committee on Prisons and Prison Labor.

Probation Association. See National Probation Association.

— Progressive Education Association (org. 1919), Asst. Secy., Mrs. M. V. Ayres, 1719 Thirty-fifth St. NW., Washington, D. C. An association largely composed of parents who aim to popularize certain principles in education. Holds an annual convention. Efforts up to the present time have been almost wholly limited to the publication of bulletins; free to members, for sale to non-members at from 10 to 25 cents each, special rates for quantity lots.

Progressive Oral Advocates. See Society of Progressive Oral Advocates.

Prohibition Commissioner. See Department of the Treasury, U. S., Bureau of Internal Revenue.

Prohibition Units. See Department of the Treasury, U. S., Bureau of Internal Revenue.

— Protestant Episcopal Church in the U. S. A., Department of Christian Social Service (org. 1910, reorg. 1920), 281 Fourth Ave., New York, N. Y. To unify the social service work of the dioceses of the Episcopal Church and to stimulate interest on the part of clergy and laymen in problems of social work. Collects and publishes literature on social service subjects; distributes it free or at minimum charge on request. Calls the attention of social service workers of the Church to legislation, both State and Federal, which would be of interest to them. Executive Secretary conducts regional conferences of social service workers of the Church, addresses annual diocesan conventions which are held in the interest of social service, and offers assistance to social service departments and commissions which are organized in practically all dioceses of the Church in the U. S. Department issues occasional literature. Supported by annual grants from the Church.

Protestant Hospital Association. See American Protestant Hospital Association.

Prudential Insurance Company of America (org. and inc. 1875), Newark, N. J. To write life insurance, industrial and ordinary. Participates in associated activities. Has been interested in the founding of public health-promoting institutions; gives furtherance to national and international health-conserving efforts, chiefly by making accessible the resources of its world-wide statistics on health and mortality, its library, and its mechanical aids to tabulation and analysis. Such services are available without charge to policy holders and the general public. Company has cooperated in local scientific investigations bearing upon national and international questions of health and welfare. It issues scientific publications covering such subjects as industrial hygiene, health insurance, various diseases, and rural health; statistics bearing on welfare questions; charts on mortality and morbidity; special statistical charts and pamphlets. All publications and charts are sent free, upon application to Statistician's Department.

Prvá Katolícká Slovenská Jednota. See First Catholic Slovak Union.

Prvá Katolícká Slovenská Ženská Jednota ve Spojených Štátoch Severnej Ameriky. See First Catholic Slovak Ladies' Union of the U. S. A.

Public Health Association. See American Public Health Association.

Public Health Education Section. See Department of the Treasury, U. S., Public Health Service.

Public Health Nursing Organization. See National Organization for Public Health Nursing.

Public Health Nursing Service, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

Public Health Service, Bureau of. See Department of the Treasury, U. S.

Public Information Service, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

Public Officials of Charity and Correction Association. See American Association of Public Officials of Charity and Correction.

Public Welfare League. See National Public Welfare League.

Publication Society. See Immigrant Publication Society; Jewish Publication Society of America.

Queens of Avalon. See International Order of the Knights of King Arthur.

Quiet Half-Hour League. See Baptist Young Peoples' Union of America.

Reclamation Service. See Department of the Interior, U. S.

Recreation Association. See Playground and Recreation Association of America.

Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

Red Mogen David. See American Red Mogen David.

Red Shield of David. See American Red Mogen David.

Red Triangle League (org. 1919), 347 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y. To perpetuate among Young Men's Christian Association war workers the fellowship and spirit of unselfish service manifested during the War. Serves as an information bureau and clearing house for local groups in large cities throughout the country and State organizations in several States. Holds a triennial convention. Publishes Red Triangle League Bulletin, quarterly, free to members. Membership is open to men and women who served overseas under the Young Men's Christian Association (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook) or in home camps during the War, and who have received honorable discharge. Supported by membership dues, $1 a year.

Reform Association. See National Reform Association.

Reformed Church in America, Board of Domestic Missions (org. 1832), 25 East 22d St., New York, N. Y. Aids and builds churches and missions. Maintains missionaries to extend the Church in America. Assists Negro churches and schools; maintains the Southern Normal and Industrial Institute at Brewton, Ala., for colored youth. Releases articles in several religious periodicals. Publishes leaflets, and two periodicals: The Mission Field, monthly, 10 cents a copy, 65 cents a year; Christian Intelligencer, weekly, 5 cents a copy, $2 a year.

Reformed Church in the U. S., Commission on Social Service and Rural Work (org. 1920), 15th and Race Sts., Philadelphia, Pa. To assist in making social applications of Christianity in all human relationships. Through leadership, program, and equipment seeks to aid local churches in rendering adequate Christian ministration to their communities. Promotes community service. Issues literature occasionally and distributes informational material. Promotes study courses; conducts conferences; cooperates in the training of religious leaders.

Relief Fund of the American Nurses' Association. See American Nurses' Association, Nurses' Relief Fund.

Religious Education Association (org. and inc. 1903), 1440 East 57th St., Chicago, Ill. To inspire the educational forces of our country with the religious ideal; to inspire the religious forces with the educational ideal; to keep before the public mind the need and value of religious education. Disseminates educational material through existing religious and educational agencies, conferences, exhibits, conventions, and publications. Acts as a clearing house of information giving free service to churches, church boards, schools, and all persons requiring its help. Maintains at central office a special library on moral and religious training; open to the public free of charge. Distributes educational pamphlets. Gives personal advice through correspondence to members and others seeking information. Maintains a free Personnel Service for the placing of professional workers. Holds an annual meeting, open to the public. Has prepared two traveling exhibits which may be rented at low cost to cover expense of shipping. Special committees and groups conduct investigations, studies, and experiments. For services of field workers apply to general secretary. Non-sectarian and international in membership and work. Publishes many pamphlets and Religious Education, bi-monthly magazine, free to members, $4 a year to non-members. Regular members pay annual dues of $4 and up; student members in residence at institutions of learning pay $2. Supported by voluntary contributions and membership dues.

Remedial Loan Associations. See National Federation of Remedial Loan Associations.

Removal Office. See Industrial Removal Office.

Research Council. See National Research Council.

Research Fellowship Board. See National Research Council.

Rockefeller Foundation (org. 1913), 61 Broadway, New York, N. Y. To promote the well-being of mankind throughout the world. Has so devoted its resources to programs of public health and medical education throughout the world that these have come to be regarded definitely as its fields. Accomplishes its work through (1) agencies which it creates to carry out specific programs, and (2) other existing organizations unaffiliated with the Foundation, to which it makes appropriations to enable them to carry out specific items of programs in public health and medical education. Agencies of the first class are (1) The International Health Board; (2) The China Medical Board; (3) The Division of Medical Education.

International Health Board (org. 1913) conducts public health demonstrations and develops cooperative public health programs in different parts of the world. These programs, conducted always in cooperation with government authority, in 1920 were carried on principally in 12 southern States in this country in combating malaria and hook-worm disease, and in 22 foreign countries, states, or islands in combating these diseases and yellow fever. Board has extended its activities to every section of the world where yellow fever is known to exist. Is giving assistance to the Republic of Czecho-Slovakia in the organization of its public health administration and laboratory service. For the purpose of training native personnel and promoting greater efficiency and higher standards in public health, Board provides foreign fellowships for the study of public health in the U. S. The Commission for the Prevention of Tuberculosis in France is continuing in that country its work begun during the War.

China Medical Board develops the Foundation's program of medical education in China. Has planned and is supporting in full a medical center at Peking, including a medical school, premedical school, hospital, and nurse-training school. Through this Board the Foundation gives aid to medical schools and hospitals already established in China, provides fellowships and scholarships to make possible advanced medical study in the U. S. for medical missionaries on furlough and for Chinese physicians and nurses.

Division of Medical Education has conducted investigations of medical education in Canada and western and central Europe.

Other Work of the Foundation includes maintenance of a School of Public Health at Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Md.; studies and demonstrations in mental hygiene and in hospital and dispensary service; support through the National Research Council (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook) of research in physics and chemistry; contributions to medical centers in Canada, London, and Brussels, and emergency aid to medical institutions throughout Europe.

Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research (org. and inc. 1901), 56th St. and Ave. A, New York, N. Y. To conduct, assist, and encourage investigations in the sciences and arts of hygiene, medicine and surgery, and allied subjects; in the nature and causes of disease; and methods of treatment and prevention. Makes knowledge relating to these subjects available for the protection of public health and the improved treatment of disease and injury. The Department of Laboratories conducts research work in subjects relating to general biology, pathology, bacteriology, and chemistry. The Hospital (est. 1910), with a capacity of 60 beds, admits patients suffering from certain diseases chosen for observation and study by the staff; also offers clinical facilities. The Department of Animal Pathology (org. 1915) located near Princeton, N. J., studies diseases of animals which are of great economic importance or which may throw light upon problems of human pathology. The Institute issues a semi-annual list of its publications; this is sent free on application. Reports of investigations made in its laboratories or with the cooperation or support of the Institute are published at irregular intervals under the title, "Studies from the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research"; for sale at $2 a volume. Publishes Journal of Experimental Medicine, monthly, 75 cents a copy, $5 a year; Journal of Biological Chemistry, monthly, $3 a volume; Journal of General Physiology, bi-monthly, $1 a copy, $5 a year. Scientific papers, not published in periodicals, appear as "Monographs"; for sale at various prices. Supported by endowment.

Roman Catholic Union of America. See Polish Roman Catholic Union of America.

Rosenwald Fund. See Julius Rosenwald Fund.

Russell Sage Foundation (org. and inc. 1907), 130 East 22d St., New York, N. Y. For the improvement of social and living conditions in the U. S. For this purpose, by its charter, it may "use any means which from time to time shall seem expedient to its members or trustees, including research, publication, education, the establishment and maintenance of charitable and benevolent activities, agencies, and institutions, and the aid of any such activities, agencies, or institutions already established." It does not relieve individual need. The management of the Foundation is vested in a board of nine trustees, which board is self-perpetuating. The Foundation acts through a number of departments of its own and through a few other agencies which are especially equipped to carry on campaigns against certain evils, such as tuberculosis and bad housing. The Foundation is supported by endowed funds. Its departments are as follows:

Charity Organization Department studies, teaches, and publishes in the field of charity organization, bounding that field broadly to include the better coordination of all social work. Its studies and efforts have been confined chiefly to social case work, to the cooperation of social agencies and their administrative details.

Department of Child Helping promotes improved methods of dealing with dependent, neglected, delinquent, and defective children throughout the U. S.; conducts inquiries concerning the condition, needs, and care of such children; on request makes intensive studies of particular organizations and institutions, and gives information and advice to those who are founding or reorganizing child-caring agencies, or who are interested in legislation relating to the classes of children named above.

Department of Education studies methods of public elementary education and promotes measures designed to increase their efficiency.

Department of Industrial Studies concerns itself with industrial conditions and discovers facts which may be a guide for public opinion and a basis for constructive action for improving conditions of work and industrial relations.

Department of Recreation aids in constructive social organization of leisure time; studies the methods of providing and administering facilities for public recreation and encourages their adoption by public and private agencies. Some of the subjects dealt with are recreation legislation, athletics and games for school children, community use of school plants, holiday celebrations, municipal administration of recreation facilities, and rural recreation.

Division of Remedial Loans conducts a campaign of education regarding the evils of the small loan business, and urges the passage and enforcement of adequate small loan laws.

Department of Statistics prepares statistical reports relating to social conditions, advises the members of the staff of the Foundation and others as to the planning of statistical inquiries, the preparation of schedule forms and tables, and the presentation of statistical results. It revises all statistical material intended for publication by the Foundation.

Department of Surveys and Exhibits studies and develops the social survey and social exhibit as important aids in community improvement; gives advice about local surveys and exhibits; makes plans for them and helps in organizing them.

Library (free to the public, open week-days from 8:45 a. m. to p. m.) contains about 20,000 books and 60,000 pamphlets on sociology and social work. Its files of reports of public and private agencies, institutions, and conferences, national and foreign, are unusually complete. It regularly receives 250 periodicals.

Safety Congress. See National Safety Council.

Safety Council. See National Safety Council.

Safety Institute of America (maintaining the American Museum of Safety) (org. and inc. 1911), 261 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y. To promote industrial safety and hygiene, to visualize the proper safeguarding of machinery, and to introduce sanitary equipment and hygienic methods in industry. Has assembled a large number of approved safety devices, and maintains a technical library for reference purposes. Offers free lecture courses for safety engineers and inspectors. Lectures given in these courses have been published in book form under the title, "Safety Fundamentals"; for sale at $2 a copy. Supplies speakers who deliver lectures in New York City, in industrial plants, and at safety meetings throughout the country; also furnishes engineering consultation service. Conducts conferences for the exchange of information and reading of reports. Holds exhibits of safety devices and special equipment for public inspection. Publishes a monthly magazine, Safety, which, with other literature, is sent free to members. Supported by contributions and membership fees ($10 and up) from corporations and companies which make up its membership. Affiliated with the National Safety Council (for description of which see elsewhere in handbook).

Sailors' Snug Harbor (est. 1801), New Brighton, Staten Island, New York, N. Y. Office for applications, 262 Greene St., New York

N. Y. A Home for aged, decrepit, and worn-out sailors. When an applicant is disabled from causes other than old age, a certificate of diagnosis of the disability is required. No person is admitted who has a contagious disease, or is insane, or who has adequate means of support either by his own labor or from other sources. Native-born applicants must submit proofs of five years', foreign-born of ten years' sea service under the U. S. flag. Service on sounds, bays, rivers, and harbors is not accepted as sea service. Preference in admissions is given to native-born citizens, naturalized citizens following. Evidence of good character must be supplied. Inmates are furnished with medical attendance and with all clothing in addition to food and shelter. No fees are charged. The Home is supported by an endowment. It has a capacity of 900.

St. Andrew's Brotherhood. See Brotherhood of St. Andrew in the U. S.

St. Elizabeth's Hospital. See Department of the Interior, U. S.

St. Vincent de Paul. See Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

Sales Tax Division. See Department of the Treasury, U. S., Bureau of Internal Revenue.

Salvation Army (org. 1865, inc. 1899), 120 West 14th St., New York, N. Y. To preach the gospel to the masses and help the needy, without distinction as to color, age, nationality, or creed. National office directs spiritual, social, industrial, and rescue work of its organized branches throughout the U. S.; operates a number of orphanages and an industrial school for the care of dependent and delinquent children. Army has Training Schools for workers; these are located in New York, Chicago, and San Francisco. National office has organized local Corps and Outposts in cities and towns. These local groups operate under Provincial and Divisional Officers who are responsible to the territorial offices. Local Corps provide food and clothing for the poor; maintain fresh-air camps for mothers and children; offer legal aid to those unable to pay attorney's fees; give Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners to needy families; hold religious services in the open air and in Salvation Army Halls, and conduct special work as directed by the territorial departments of the Army (described on pages 263-4.) Groups in certain cities maintain Convalescent Homes for persons released from hospitals; others conduct free drug dispensaries. Both as a national program and through the local branches, the Army conducts prison work. Members visit prisoners in penal institutions and prisoners' families, and conduct relief work as needed. It has organized the Brighter Day League for prisoners and ex-prisoners, and the Lifers' Club, which latter is composed of men serving life terms in prison. Publishes a quarterly magazine, The New Day, for the Lifers' Club; this magazine is sent only to members. Publishes The War Cry, weekly, $2 a year, sent free to organizations in exchange; Social News, monthly, devoted to social service obligations and relief work of the Army, 5 cents a copy, 50 cents a year. Membership includes persons converted to the religious faith of the Army who are willing to extend its work. Supported by contributions and a yearly 10-day campaign of solicitation. Special work is conducted by territorial departments as follows:

Anti-Suicide Bureau undertakes to prevent suicide by restoring the confidence of the individual.

Department of Men's Social and Industrial Work maintains Industrial Homes for Men throughout the country. These Homes are under the supervision of industrial district officers who are responsible to the territorial secretaries. The Homes provide free food and lodging for men who are without means of support; officials in charge seek to rehabilitate them. Department also operates Working Men's Hotels, which offer lodging at a minimum rate; maintains second-hand or salvage stores where clothing and furniture may be bought at nominal prices.

Department of Women's Social Work conducts Working Women's Hotels, where lodging is offered at minimum rates. Operates Rescue and Maternity Homes for unfortunate girls and unmarried mothers and their babies. These Homes have hospital annexes where surgical and medical aid is furnished to those needing it. Officials in these Homes seek to place girls in suitable positions. Department supervises work of settlements and day nurseries maintained in crowded sections of cities throughout the country, and operated by members of local Corps. Maintains hospitals in several large cities where free care is offered to persons unable to pay; patients able to contribute pay toward their expenses. Training schools for nurses are conducted in connection with these hospitals. Young Women's Boarding Homes, operated throughout the country, offer board and room at minimum prices.

Emergency Department offers assistance in case of disasters.

Inquiry Department directs the work of local branches in seeking to locate missing friends and relatives of persons applying for this assistance. No fee is charged beyond the cost of printing notices in The War Cry.

Interstate Employment Bureau directs the work of local groups of the Army in conducting local bureaus offering free employment service to needy applicants.

Photo-Lecture Department has lantern slides and films descriptive of different phases of the Army's work. These may be purchased or rented; price list on request. Has also prepared posters, photographs, and exhibit material; limited quantity sent free on request.

Bureau of Information, Statistics, and Inspection answers inquiries and gives information concerning Salvation Army work at home and abroad.

Scandinavian Foundation. See American-Scandinavian Foundation.

Scholarship Committees, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

School Citizenship League. See American School Citizenship League.

School Hygiene Association. See American School Hygiene Association.

School Nature League. See National Plant, Flower and Fruit Guild.

School Revenue and School Health Committee. See National Education Association.

Scientific Research Division. See Department of the Treasury, U. S., Public Health Service.

— Scientific Temperance Federation (org. and inc. 1906), 73 Tremont St., Boston, 9, Mass. To inform the public regarding facts which medical and social science have discovered about alcohol. Continues this work under prohibition to remove existing ignorance of the facts concerning alcohol which perpetuate its beverage use. Through its library of material in regard to the effects of alcohol upon health, efficiency, industry, length of life, and race soundness, the central office acts as a bureau of information. It disseminates information through existing agencies such as boards of health, Young Men's Christian Associations, insurance societies, health and welfare exhibitions, missionary societies, and Sunday Schools, as well as through distinctly temperance organizations, and through the temperance and general press. Furnishes lecturers to speak on the scientific and social phases of the alcohol question before churches, schools, clubs, and other public gatherings. Field secretaries assist local societies in organizing and conducting campaigns; the charge for this service is $40 a week plus expenses. Furnishes descriptive literature and exhibit material consisting of charts, diagrams, models, and pictures illustrating scientific, social, and industrial facts about alcohol. Traveling anti-alcohol exhibits may be rented for definite periods by communities carrying on an educational campaign against alcohol. Stereopticon slides are for rent at one cent each a day, the minimum charge being 50 cents. A large number of posters are available for schools and general public information. Federation publishes books and pamphlets dealing with temperance topics and The Scientific Temperance Journal, quarterly, $1.50 a year. Membership is open to interested persons believing in the objects of the Federation. Supported by contributions and by annual membership dues, $2 and up.

Seamen's Church Institute of America (org. 1913, inc. 1920), 25 South St., New York, N. Y. Founded by the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the U. S. to promote and establish religious and philanthropic work for seamen and boatmen in all ports of the U. S. and its dependencies. The organizing secretary, the general secretary, and the assistant general superintendent go into communities to organize or supervise activities toward the establishing of a local Institute. A permanent secretary remains to carry on the executive part of the work in the various ports. Services of Institutes are offered only to men who make their living on or in connection with the water; there are no restrictions as to race, nationality, or religion. The men pay standard prices for everything except the service given them through the Religious, Social, and Medical Departments. Any port desiring to establish work for seamen and wishing the cooperation of the Seamen's Church Institute of America should write to the general secretary. Local Institutes are considered a part of the national body and receive support, financial and otherwise, from it. Institutes have already been established in New York City, Philadephia, San Francisco, Newport (R. I.), Port Arthur (Tex.), and Norfolk (Va.). An exhibit showing the many departments of the model Seamen's Church Institute in New York City is available for use in ports where work is being established under the auspices of the national body. Central office has published a survey of the ports of the U. S., a handbook, a list of Seamen's Church Institutes and affiliated agencies, and pamphlets on related topics. Membership is open to interested persons paying dues of $10 and up. The Institute is supported largely by an appropriation from the Presiding Bishop and Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the U. S. and partially by voluntary contributions from organizations and individuals.

Seamen's Friend Society. See American Seamen's Friend Society.

Security League. See National Security League.

Service Bureau of the American Conference on Hospital Service. See Hospital Library and Service Bureau of the American Conference on Hospital Service.

Service Claims and Information, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross, Post War Services.

Service Star Legion (org. 1919), 2646 Kirkwood Lane, Toledo, Ohio. An amalgamation of several national women's patriotic organizations, including those which functioned during the World War. Seeks to promote the welfare of soldiers, sailors, and marines who served in the World War, to aid their families, and to preserve the memory of those who lost their lives. Plans to erect and maintain local, State, and national memorials. Will establish a system of friendly visits between native and foreign-born families to interpret the meaning of America to immigrant parents and children. Is promoting a nation-wide campaign for the planting of memorial trees. Works through standing committees, local, State, and national. Chapter activities embrace: a systematic study of the Constitution of the U. S.; studies in civics to prepare women for citizenship; the encouragement of Americanism and thrift among school children; friendly visiting and relief work among families of service men. National Gold Star Division enrolls women relatives of men who died in service. Legion publishes Service Star, monthly magazine, 10 cents a copy, $1 a year. Subscriptions should be sent to the publication office, 505 Polk Bldg.,

Des Moines, Iowa. Active membership is open to mother, grandmother, sister, wife, or daughter of any soldier, sailor, marine, or nurse engaged in World War service of the U. S. or allied countries on or before November 11, 1918, Army or Navy nurses, and female lineal descendants of persons eligible to active membership. Active members must be not less than 16 years of age. Supported by membership dues from chapters, 25 cents per capita annually. Junior Branches affiliated with local chapters accept girls under 16 who are sisters, nieces, or female lineal descendants of men or women who served in the World War.

Sesterská Podporující Jednota. See Sisterly Benevolent Union, Supreme Lodge.

Settlements Federation. See National Federation of Settlements.

Seventh-Day Adventists, Medical Missionary Department of the General Conference (org. 1905), Takoma Park, Washington, D. C. For the prevention of disease, care of the sick, and general instruction in health and temperance. Operates sanitariums and hospitals throughout the country in which a rate schedule prevails, but which also offer concessions for certain groups of the needy. Maintains dispensaries in which service is given at nominal cost. Services are offered to anyone in need of them, and are not limited to members of the Adventist Church. Conducts training schools for nurses and medical missionaries. State and district medical secretaries organize courses in home nursing, give instruction in hygiene and home care, give health lectures in schools and churches and at general gatherings, and supervise the health of students in denominational schools. These field workers may sometimes be secured for public addresses and demonstrations. Central office is preparing a series of lantern-slide lectures on questions of health, temperance, and general medical missionary work; these are to be rented at about $2 a set and are to be available to members and occasionally to responsible outside agencies. At central office Department publishes Life and Health, monthly, $2 a year, and at Loma Linda, Calif., The Medical Evangelist, quarterly, 60 cents a year. Department is composed principally of doctors and nurses. Supported by grants from the Church.

Sheltering and Immigrant Aid Society. See Hebrew Sheltering and Immigrant Aid Society.

Short Ballot Organization. See National Short Ballot Organization.

— Shut-in Society (org. 1884, inc. 1885), 129 East 34th St., New York, N. Y. To give cheer and comfort to chronic invalids. Holds an annual meeting. Special work is conducted by Branches and standing committees. Some branches maintain exchanges for the display and sale of articles made by invalid members who are not afflicted with contagious diseases. National committees and departments as follows conduct special work: Wheel Chair Committee supplies wheel chairs, back-rests, book-rests, lifters, tables, trays, invalid beds, and crutches to invalid members who are in need of such articles; Helping Hand Committee supplies invalid members with hot-water bags, rubber air cushions, stationery, stamps, and material for hand work; Young Men's and Boys' Department addresses postal cards weekly to young men and boy invalid members, and sends them gifts on their birthdays and on Christmas, and picture books and reading matter from time to time; Young Women's and Girls' Department conducts similar work for young women and girl invalid members; The Library Committee lends books and magazines to members. Central office publishes an Annual Report and The Open Window, a monthly magazine, 10 cents a year to Shut-in members, 25 cents a year to associate members, and $1 a year to subscribing members. Chronic invalids who are shut in from the outside world by physical disability may upon application be enrolled as "Shut-in members". Persons interested in the Society's work, who are willing to assist in it by writing letters to invalids and calling on them, and otherwise giving service, may become associate members. No Shut-in member may apply to the members of the Society for money, nor may any member urge upon another any particular belief or creed. Society is supported by contributions and by annual membership dues: associate, 75 cents; Shut-in, 15 cents.

— Sisterly Benevolent Union, Supreme Lodge (Sesterská Podporující Jednota) (org. 1890, inc. 1909), Secy., Mrs. Marie Zemanova, 4934 Broadway, Cleveland, Ohio. Czech mutual benefit and social welfare organization of women. Operates in the U. S. only. National office organizes and supervises lodges in local communities. Union pays death benefits of $600 raised by assessments on total membership. Local lodges pay sick benefits of $2 a week while patient is under doctor's care; these benefits are paid from members' dues and special funds raised by the local groups. Lodges carry on and contribute to community betterment, welfare, and educational work, not only for the benefit of their members but for others as well. Some lodges have libraries, open to the public. The Woman's Journal (Ženské Listy) (2646 South Central Park Ave., Chicago, Ill.), semi-monthly, published in Czech, 10 cents a copy, $2.50 a year, free to lodges, is the official organ of this Union and of the Union of Czech Women (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook). Local lodge dues are 50 cents.

Slater Fund. See John F. Slater Fund.

Slavonian Fraternal Benefit Union. See Czecho-Slavonian Fraternal Benefit Union.

Slavonian Union. See Bohemian-Slavonian Union.

Slavonic Benevolent Societies of the U. S. and Canada. See Bohemian-Slavonic Benevolent Societies of the U. S. and Canada.

Slovak Christian Women of the U. S. A., Benefit Society. See Živena, Benefit Society of Slovak Christian Women of the U. S. A.

Slovak Gymnastic Union of Sokols, Supreme Lodge (Slovenská Telocvicná Jednota Sokol) (org. 1896, inc. 1912), Secy., Frank Stas, 283 Oak St., Perth Amboy, N. J. Slovak gymnastic, educational, and fraternal organization of men, women, and children. Operates in the U. S. only. National office organizes and supervises lodges in local communities. When necessary, Supreme Lodge sends a worker at request of community to aid in establishing a local lodge. Community pays expense of visit. Union pays death benefits of $1,000. Death benefits are paid by assessments on total membership. Local lodges pay sick benefits of $5 a week while patient is under doctor's care. Sick benefits are paid from members' dues and special funds raised by the local groups. Lodges carry on and contribute to community betterment, welfare and educational work, not only for the benefit of their members but for others as well. Union holds a quinquennial meeting, open to the public, at which questions of interest to the Slovaks in America are discussed. The Slovak Falcon (Slovenský Sokol), semi-monthly, published in Slovak, $1.50 a year, $1.20 to members, is the official organ. Local lodge dues are $1.50 a quarter.

- Slovak League of America, Supreme Lodge (Slovenská Liga v Amerike) (org. and inc. 1907), Secy., John A. Kocur, 524 Fourth Ave., Pittsburgh, Pa. Slovak relief organization of men and women for Czecho-Slovak and American community causes. Operates in the U. S., Canada, and Czecho-Slovakia. National office organizes and supervises lodges in local communities. When necessary, Supreme Lodge sends a worker at the request of a community to aid in establishing a local lodge. Community pays expenses of visit. Society holds an annual meeting, open to the public, at which questions of interest to the Slovaks in America are discussed. The New Slovakia (Nové Slovensko) (Editor, 1601 Beaver Ave. NS., Pittsburgh, Pa.), monthly, published in Slovak, $1 a year, is the official organ. Membership dues are $1 a year.

Slovak National Alliance. See Czecho-Slovak National Alliance.

Slovak National Council. See Czecho-Slovak National Council of America.

- Slovak Protestant Union (Slovenská Evangelická Jednota), Pres., Jan Bibza, 409 South Second St., Duquesne, Pa. An organization for mutual benefit and other welfare work, operating in the U. S. only. The Supreme Office supervises branches in local communities and upon request sends out an organizer to establish a new branch. The groups in local communities pay sick benefits of $5 a week while the patient is under doctor's care. Death benefits of from $250 to $1,000 are paid by assessments on all branches. The Union holds an annual meeting at which the interests of Slovaks of the U. S. are discussed. The Slovak Herald (Slovenský Hlaskník) (Editor, Karol Belohlávek, 1601 Beaver Ave. NS., Pittsburgh, Pa.), published in Slovak, weekly, $2 a year, is the official organ of the Union.

Slovak Society in the U. S. A. See National Slovak Society in the U. S. A.

Slovak Sokol. See Catholic Slovak Sokol.

Slovenská Evangelická Jednota. See Slovak Protestant Union.

Slovenská Liga v Amerike. See Slovak League of America, Supreme Lodge.

Slovenská Telocvicná Jednota Sokol. See Slovak Gymnastic Union of Sokols, Supreme Lodge.

Smithsonian Institution (est. 1846), Washington, D. C. A scientific establishment founded under the terms of the will of James Smithson, an Englishman, for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge among men". Conducts explorations and researches in practically every branch of science. Has administrative control over a number of Government bureaus, such as the Astrophysical Observatory, Bureau of American Ethnology, International Catalogue of Scientific Literature, International Exchange Service, National Museum, and the National Zoological Park. Maintains an extensive technical Library of over half a million titles. The Institution and its branches issue books and pamphlets known as Smithsonian Annual Reports, Smithsonian Contributions to Knowledge, and Smithsonian Miscellaneous Collections; National Museum Reports, Bulletins, and Proceedings; and Bureau of Ethnology Reports and Bulletins. The Smithsonian series, except the Annual Report, are printed from Smithsonian funds in small editions for distribution principally to libraries and scientific and educational establishments throughout the world. The Annual Report, containing a general appendix consisting of a number of articles illustrating recent advances in nearly every branch of science, is printed by Congressional appropriation.

Bureau of American Ethnology is engaged in the collection of information relating to the habitations, languages, manners, music, customs, and physical characteristics of the American Indians and the aborigines of Hawaii. The results of these researches are published by the Bureau.

National Gallery of Art, the legal repository of art works belonging to the U. S., contains paintings, sculptures, and other art material. Freer Gallery of Art, a unit of the National Gallery of Art, contains unexcelled collections of American and Oriental Art.

National Museum, U. S. serves as a national museum of objects of art and of foreign and curious research, and objects of natural history, plants, and geological and mineralogical specimens belonging to the U. S. Special collections are made by the Department of Anthropology (ethnology, American archeology, Old-World archeology, physical anthropology, musical instruments, ceramics, graphic arts, history, historical costumes, art textiles, anthropological laboratory); Biology (mammals, birds, reptiles and amphibians, fishes, insects, marine invertebrates, echinoderms and onychophores, plants); Geology (chemical and dynamical geology, meteorites, ores, and non-metallic minerals, building and ornamental stones, minerals—systematic series, gems, petrological collections, invertebrate fossils, vertebrate fossils, fossil plants); Arts and Industries (textiles, medicine, woods, foods, wood and mineral technology, and mechanical technology). Museum receives material for free examination and identification; distributes duplicates for educational purposes mainly to schools and colleges. It is gathering together collections illustrating every phase of the World War. Departments conduct research work and explorations, and assist other research organizations in conducting studies by lending them material.

Social Hygiene Association. See American Social Hygiene Association.

Social Hygiene Board. See Interdepartmental Social Hygiene Board, U. S.

Social Resources Information Service, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross, Information Service.

Social Sciences Institute. See National Institute of Social Sciences.

Social Service Commission. See Congregational Church, Social Service Commission.

Social Service Committee. See Universalist Church, Commission on Social Service.

Social Service Exchanges. See American Association of Social Service Exchanges.

Social Work Conference. See National Conference of Social Work.

Social Workers' Exchange. See National Social Workers' Exchange.

Society of Agricultural Engineers. See American Society of Agricultural Engineers.

— Society of American Indians (org. 1911), 711 Twentieth St. NW., Washington, D. C. For the welfare of the Indians of America. Seeks to secure to Indians their legal and civil rights as citizens. Works for the enactment and enforcement of legislation to insure justice to the Indians, and for the establishment of better health conditions among Indians. Maintains an office in Washington, D. C., to represent the needs of Indians to Congress and to the executive departments of the Government. Officials from central office visit Indian reservations and homes and make reports on the conditions observed. No charges are made for these services. Society seeks to inform the public of conditions existing among the Indians. Holds an annual meeting, open to the public. Through central office, representatives may be secured for addresses at public meetings. Contemplates the formation of local organizations among all Indian tribes for regular field work, and supervision of local work by the national Society. Has no regular publication at present (1921). Active membership is open to persons of Indian blood in whole or in part; associate membership is open to other interested persons. Officers give services free. Society is supported by donations and by annual membership dues, $2.50 a year.

Society of Children of the American Revolution. See National Society of Children of the American Revolution.

Society for the Control of Cancer. See American Society for the Control of Cancer.

Society of Daughters of the American Revolution. See National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Society of Equity. See American Society of Equity.

Society for the Friendless (org. 1900, inc. 1901), 414 Massachusetts Bldg., Kansas City, Mo. For the "prevention and cure of crime, the reclamation and restoration of the criminal, and the relief of the friendless and distressed". National office acts as a clearing house of information; supervises the new fields; does pioneer work in preparing the way for new organizations and such other tasks as are delegated to it by the State organizations. State branches hold annual meetings, open to the public, and carry on work through the national Departments; they are supported by membership dues and contributions. Jail and Prison Departments in the national and State groups visit prisons, hold consultation with individual prisoners for the purpose of encouraging them and learning their condition and the needs of their families; they conduct religious services, literary and musical meetings, and entertainments in prisons and jails; assist prisoners by giving relief to their families and performing other tasks for them. Departments of Probation and Oversight find employment for discharged men and men on parole; give them encouragement and offer friendship; care for juvenile court boys, in many places finding country homes for them; are prepared to care for various classes of ex-prisoners. Departments of Relief Work give immediate relief, such as providing clothes, railway tickets, meals, and lodging in cases of absolute necessity, although following the Society's motto, "Not Charity but a Chance". Department of Public Information conducts publicity through addresses, literature, correspondence, and private interviews, and by cooperation with other agencies whose purpose is similar. National office publishes The First Friend, quarterly, 25 cents a year, free to members.

Society for Municipal Improvements. See American Society for Municipal Improvements.

Society of Progressive Oral Advocates (org. 1917), 818 South Kingshighway, St. Louis, Mo. To advance oral training for children made deaf or born deaf, and training in lip-reading and corrective speech for adults. Assists in promulgating information on all problems relating to defects in hearing or speech. Services are free upon application. Holds an annual convention, Proceedings of which are published in the Volta Review, monthly magazine, issued by the American Association to Promote the Teaching of Speech to the Deaf, Volta Bureau (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook). Special committees conduct studies and present reports. Committee on Legislation works on the problem of standardizing schools for the deaf. Membership is open to anyone interested in progressive methods of teaching the deaf. Supported by contributions, and annual dues of $2.

Society for the Promotion of Occupational Therapy. See National Society for the Promotion of Occupational Therapy.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul (org. 1845), 289 Fourth Ave., New York, N. Y. Organization of Roman Catholic laymen. The spirit of the Society is that "the members shall give of their means and their personal service for the poor". Operates through its local Councils and Conferences. Members visit the poor in their homes, give them advice and material aid, furnish fresh-air vacations for children, take care of convalescents, visit persons in hospitals and prisons, conduct juvenile court and Big Brother activities, and do other similar work. Some Councils conduct Waste Bureaus which collect clothing, furniture, and other articles, and distribute them through the Conferences to needy persons and institutions; other Councils supervise boys discharged from reform schools, conduct employment work, facilitate the admission of needy persons to appropriate institutions, and do related work. The Society is supported by the voluntary contributions of its own members, by collections in churches and from poor boxes, and by donations and bequests.

Society for the Study and Correction of Speech Disorders. See National Society for the Study and Correction of Speech Disorders.

Society of the Taborites (Jednota Táboritu) (org. 1880, inc. 1883), Secy., Fr. Černohorský, 3416 East 53d St., Cleveland, Ohio. Social welfare organization of men and women for mutual benefit. Conducts educational activities; gives lectures and publishes informative pamphlets, distributed free. Operates in the U. S. only. Local lodges are under supervision of national office. At request of community, the Supreme Lodge sends a worker to organize a new lodge; expenses are paid by the Supreme Lodge. Union pays death benefits of $100 to $600 raised by assessments on total membership. Lodges carry on and contribute to community betterment, welfare and educational work, not only for the benefit of their members but for others as well. Union holds a quadrennial meeting, open to the public, at which questions of interest to the Czecho-Slovaks in America are discussed. Herald of Society of the Taborites (Vestník Jednoty Táboritu) (Editor, J. R. Šafránek, 3304 East 49th St. SE., Cleveland, Ohio), monthly, published in Czech, is the official organ; sent to members for 15 cents a quarter.

Society of U. S. Daughters of 1812. See National Society U. S. Daughters of 1812.

Society for Visual Education (org. 1919, inc. 1920), 327 South La Salle St., Chicago, Ill. To produce and distribute educational motion-picture films, educational slides and other visual material, and motion-picture projection machines. Under direction of committees composed of American educators, the Society prepares films for use in schools to assist the pupil to gain a clearer, more accurate and more lasting conception of what he studies. These film courses cover such subjects as physical and regional geography, nature, history, economics, civics, physics, hygiene and sanitation. Each film is accompanied by a syllabus outlining and amplifying the subject and giving suggestions for use with individual classes. Films are not intended to displace any other educational aid but rather to make it possible to teach the same amount in less time and to teach it better. Society gives guarantee of accuracy of material upon which films are founded. Films are rented for one day at $3.50 per reel; for from two days to one week, $3.25 a day per reel; for more than one week, $3 a day per reel; $175.00 a year; transportation charges to be paid by lessee. Society publishes Visual Education, monthly except July and August, 10 cents a copy, $1 a year. Supported by subscriptions to magazine and by contributions and rent of films.

Society for Vocational Education. See National Society for Vocational Education.

Sociological Society. See American Sociological Society.

Sokol Gymnastic Organization of America (Sokolská Obec v Americe) (org. and inc. 1917), Secy., Thomas Vonásek, 1647 South St. Louis Ave., Chicago, Ill. For physical and moral education of men, women and children. Operates in the U. S. only. Gives educational lectures and exhibitions of gymnastic exercises; maintains reading rooms; publishes informative pamphlets. Some local Unions (Jednoty) have death benefits of $200, raised by assessment on members. Unions carry on and contribute to community betterment, welfare and educational work, not only for the benefit of their members, but for others as well. National organization holds a quinquennial meeting, open to the public, at which questions of interest to the Czecho-Slovaks in America are discussed. The American Sokol (Sokol Americký) (Editor, Jarka Kosar, 1928 South 63d Ct., Berwyn, Ill.), monthly, published in Czech, $1 a year, to foreign countries $1.25, is the official organ. Dues of local societies are 25 to 50 cents a month.

Sokolská Obec v Americe. See Sokol Gymnastic Organization of America.

Sonner af Norge. See Sons of Norway, Supreme Lodge.

Sons of Confederate Veterans (org. 1896), Commander-in-Chief, N. B. Forrest, Biloxi, Miss. Historical and benevolent body. Records historical data gathered by Confederate veterans. Seeks to correct or eliminate misstatements regarding the Civil War. Aids the few remaining veterans in every possible way. Cooperates in the work of public movements that are not political or religious. Members, who must be direct lineal descendants of Confederate veterans, belong to local Camps. Supported by subscriptions and by membership dues, $1 a year.

Sons of Norway, Supreme Lodge (Sonner af Norge) (org. 1895, inc. 1898), New York Life Bldg., Minneapolis, Minn. Fraternal benefit society for men and women. Supreme Lodge sends out field workers to organize and supervise branches in local communities. Branches conduct and contribute to community betterment, welfare and educational activities, not only for their own members but for others as well. Lectures are a special feature of local work. Some branches maintain clubrooms and libraries for members and their guests. Supreme Lodge holds a biennial convention at which topics of interest to Norwegians in America are discussed. Issues Sonner af Norge, monthly magazine, in Norwegian, 60 cents a year to members. Also publishes educational pamphlets; most of these are free, others are for sale at small cost. Supported by dues of life insurance and sick benefit memberships of varying amounts, and dues of social memberships with insurance features.

Southern Medical Association. See National Malaria Committee.

Southern Race Questions Commission. See University Commission on Southern Race Questions.

Southland Institute. See Five Years Meeting of Friends, Board of Home Missions.

Special Libraries Association (org. 1909), Secy., Miss Estelle L. Liebmann, Ronald Press, 20 Vesey St., New York, N. Y. To promote the interests of commercial, industrial, technical, civic, municipal, and legislative reference libraries and the special library departments of public libraries, welfare associations, and business organizations. Acts as a clearing house for information on the work and problems of special libraries; aims to coordinate data on various lines of research in order to eliminate duplication. Urges the adoption of training courses for special library work in educational institutions. Encourages the organization of special libraries in corporations and business houses. Holds an annual convention for the reading of papers and reports and the display of exhibits and literature. Committee on Employment has lists of librarians available for positions of all kinds, and furnishes free information regarding vacancies. Association publishes Special Libraries, monthly except July and August, 50 cents a copy, $4 a year, free to subscribing members. Membership open to interested persons. Supported by membership dues: $2 for non-subscribing members, $4 for subscribing members.

State Department. See Department of State, U. S.

State Farm Bureau Federation. See American Farm Bureau Federation.

State and Provincial Health Authorities. See Conference of State and Provincial Health Authorities of N. A.

States Relations Service. See Department of Agriculture, U. S.

Statistical Association. See American Statistical Association.

Statistical Service, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

Story Tellers' League. See National Story Tellers' League.

Students Health Association. See American Students Health Association.

Study of the Feeble-Minded Association. See American Association for the Study of the Feeble-Minded.

Study of Methods of Americanization (org. 1918), 522 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y. Under the auspices of the Carnegie Corporation has conducted investigations and made analyses of the work of various Americanization agencies. Has published, in book form, results of studies which deal with the relations of the immigrant to education, home, the neighborhood, health, land tenure, and similar topics; other volumes in preparation treat of the relations of the immigrant to industry, government, the immigrant press, the immigrant before the courts, and include a summary of the studies as a whole. These reports are for sale at $2.50 a volume; they may be secured from Harper and Bros., Publishers, Franklin Sq., New York, N. Y.

Study of Negro Life and History Association. See Association for the Study of Negro Life and History.

+ Sulgrave Institution (org. 1914, inc. 1917), Suite 3903, Woolworth Bldg., New York, N. Y. American-British organization for furthering friendship and preventing misunderstanding between English-speaking peoples. Owns Sulgrave Manor, the ancestral home of George Washington at Northamptonshire, England, and maintains it as a place of pilgrimage. Issues suggestive programs, lists of plays, ceremonies for patriotic celebrations, and pageants, for use by different localities and groups throughout the year. Publishes Sulgrave Review, quarterly. Membership open to all who believe friendship among English-speaking peoples is desirable. Supported by public contributions, foundations, and by membership dues, $5 and up.

Suomi College. See Finnish Evangelical Lutheran Church of America.

Suomi Synod. See Finnish Evangelical Lutheran Church of America.

Survey Associates (org. 1912), 112 East 19th St., New York, N. Y. A cooperative membership organization without shares or stockholders. Aims to advance the cause of constructive philanthropy by the publication and circulation of books, pamphlets, and periodicals, and by conducting any investigation useful or necessary for their preparation. Its chief work is the publication of The Survey, the field of which lies midway between general periodicals and technical journals. The Survey does not attempt to function for any one branch of the social endeavor; rather it draws on many specialized periodicals and books and on a large number of conferences. It digests the results of investigations, public and private. It takes up common factors entering into the work of employers, lawyers, educators, and ministers, as well as social workers and agencies of all sorts; it interprets them to each other, and to the lay public whose interests and backing are essential to such work. In controversial situations, and with respect to neglected reaches of industrial and social life, it carries out staff investigations. The Survey appears in 52 issues, embodying: Weekly News Columns; Fortnightly Departments giving up-to-date information in organization and practice in six spheres of social concern: Civics, Health, Industry, Family Welfare, School and Community, and Child Welfare. The expanded monthly "magazine numbers" of The Survey in text, charts, and photographs interpret the first-hand results of staff investigation, and exhibit the structure of social and industrial problems. Book Department publishes weekly book reviews giving detailed comment on new publications in the specific subject fields of social practice. The Survey has classified advertising columns through which workers and organizations employing them find a medium of communication. It publishes a weekly "Directory of Social Agencies" which serves as an information bureau of welfare work. The yearly subscription to The Survey (52 numbers) is $5; the yearly subscription to the magazine numbers alone is $3. Sample copies are sent free upon request. Supported by subscriptions, and by subscribing memberships, $10 a year.

Svaz Československých Legionářů v Americe. See United Czechoslovak Legion of America.

Taborites' Society. See Society of the Taborites.

Teachers in Colored Schools Association. See National Association of Teachers in Colored Schools.

Teachers' Insurance and Annuity Association. See Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching.

Technology, Division of. See Department of the Treasury, U. S., Bureau of Internal Revenue.

Temperance Association. See Finnish Friends Temperance Association.

Temperance Brotherhood. See Finnish National Temperance Brotherhood.

Temperance Federation. See Scientific Temperance Federation.

Temperance Society. See Church Temperance Society.

Temple Sisterhoods Federation. See National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods.

Tėvynės Mylėtoju Draugija. See Lithuanian Patriots.

Trade Union League of America. See National Women's Trade Union League of America.

Trained Personnel Service, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

Training School for Public Service Bureau. See New York Bureau of Municipal Research and Training School for Public Service.

Training School for Women and Girls. See National Baptist Convention.

Travelers Aid Society. See National Association of Travelers Aid Societies.

Treasurer, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

Treasury Department. See Department of the Treasury, U. S.

Tuberculosis Association. See National Tuberculosis Association.

Turnverein. See American Gymnastic Union.

Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute (est. 1880, inc. 1893), Tuskegee, Ala. A vocational school for Negroes, preparing supervisors of county industrial school work and teachers in academic, industrial, and agricultural subjects. Institute is officered and taught by colored men and women; its ownership and control is vested in a Board of Trustees composed of both white and colored persons. Supported by general donations, endowment funds, students' entrance fees, appropriations, grants from the General Education Board and the John F. Slater Fund (for description of these two agencies see elsewhere in the Handbook), and by appropriations from the State of Alabama.

Organisation of School: The Institute admits Negro young men and women as day school or night school pupils in the following vocational groups: Mechanical Trades, Agriculture, Household Arts, Nurse Training, Bible Training, and Teacher Training. Day school pupils spend three days a week in academic studies and three days in the trades, academic days alternating with the trade days. Students who attend night school are employed each day in the various departments of the institution and attend classes five nights in each week. Elementary training is given in night school classes and the preparatory grades. Secondary subjects are taught three periods each per week in a course lasting four years in the Normal Department. The Teacher-Training Course includes psychology, history of education, methods, management, school administration, reviews and methods in elementary subjects, drawing, physical training, nature study, and 10 weeks of practice teaching at the Children's House, which is a seven-grade school maintained cooperatively by the Institute and the County Board of Education. The Children's House has facilities for manual training, household arts, and a school garden, all constituting a laboratory for observation and practice teaching.

Mechanical Trades Department offers instruction in blacksmithing, brickmasonry, carpentry, elementary engineering, applied electricity, shoemaking, machine-shop practice, plumbing, painting, printing, tailoring, tinsmithing, auto mechanics, and wheelwrighting.

Department of Girls' Industries offers instruction in plain sewing, dressmaking, ladies' tailoring, millinery, cooking, laundering, mattress-making, basketry, and broom-making.

Agricultural Department offers a four-year course in agriculture for undergraduates and a two-year course for graduate students. The four-year course includes study of the following subjects: soils, drainage, insects, farm crops, garden crops, orchard crops, botany, animal husbandry, chemistry, and farm management. The Graduate Course includes advanced courses in these and other agricultural subjects. Students in the Agricultural Department pursue field practice work three days each week.

Bible Training School prepares ministers, Sunday school workers, and social workers. The courses of study include Bible, preaching, history, Christian service and Christian doctrine, with practical field work in the adjacent community.

Nurse Training is given in the Institute's hospital, known as The John A. Andrew Memorial Hospital. The department is inaugurating a postgraduate course in medicine and surgery; it has conducted an annual clinic for the past four years under the auspices and patronage of the John A. Andrew Clinical Society which meets at the Institute.

Music: All pupils receive instruction in vocal music. Special courses are offered in pianoforte.

Department of Research and Records collects statistics and publishes data concerning the educational, religious, and economic progress of the Negro race, and keeps a systematic record of graduates and former students of the Institute. The results of research work are published annually in the "Negro Year Book" (75 cents a copy), issued from the Institute.

Extension Department promotes activities for the improvement of agriculture, business, education, health, home and religious life of the colored people of the U. S. These activities vary from those operating in the community and county adjacent to the Institute, to those of national significance. National activities include those of the National Negro Business League (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook), and the inauguration and promotion of the National Negro Health Week. The Institute conducts The Negro Farmers' and Workers' Conference, which is another phase of its extension work; this is held in January of each year at the Institute. A Farmers' Institute and Short Course in Agriculture is given in connection with this conference. The Department also conducts work in rural school supervision, holds teachers' institutes, organizes boys' clubs and home-makers' clubs, and cooperates with the Julius Rosenwald Fund (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook). Through the Agricultural and Extension Departments, the Institute cooperates with the agricultural extension work of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Union of Czech Women, Supreme Lodge (Jednota Českých Dam) (org. 1870, inc. 1891), Secy., Mrs. Marie Zemanová, 180 Forty-First St., Corona, N. Y. Czech mutual benefit and social welfare organization of women. Operates in the U. S. only. National office organizes and supervises lodges in local communities. When necessary, Supreme Lodge sends a worker at request of community to aid in establishing a local lodge; community pays expenses of such visits. Union pays death benefits of $800, raised by assessments upon total membership. Local lodges pay $2.50 to $4 a week sick benefit while patient is under doctor's care. Sick benefits are paid from members' dues and special funds raised by the local groups. Lodges carry on and contribute to community betterment, welfare and educational activities. Some lodges have libraries, open to the public, and provide lectures and other educational service. Union holds a sextennial meeting, open to the public, and lasting 10 days, at which questions of interest to the Czechs in America are discussed. The Woman's Journal (Ženské Listy) (2646 South Central Park Ave., Chicago, Ill.), semi-monthly, published in Czech, 10 cents a copy, $2.50 a year, free to lodges, is the official organ of this Union and of the Sisterly Benevolent Union (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook). Monthly dues in local lodges are 25 cents.

Unitarian Association. See American Unitarian Association.

Unitarian Laymen's League. See American Unitarian Association.

United Christian Missionary Society (org. 1849 as the American Christian Missionary Society; reorg. and inc. 1920), 1501 Locust St., St. Louis, Mo. A union of six organizations for the U. S. and Canada of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) combining all its national and international missionary and benevolent work. Holds an annual meeting. Acts as a clearing house for the dissemination of information regarding missionary activities, and as an advisory body for its organization members. Field workers organize and direct the work of State, provincial, and local auxiliary societies, having budgets depending on needs of the field. Society publishes The World Call, monthly, $1.50 a year; Year Book, $1.50 a copy; Annual Report; books, leaflets, and pamphlets; catalogue of publications, free on request. Composed of members of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), who are interested in the Society's work. Supported by contributions and membership gifts, $25 and up. The Society works through its various Departments.

Department of Foreign Missions maintains mission stations and missionaries in Africa, Canada, China, India, Jamaica, Japan, Mexico, Porto Rico, and South America. Makes surveys in foreign countries; establishes and conducts schools, hospitals, and orphanages abroad; promotes courses of training in colleges and universities in this country for service in the mission field; maintains the College of Missions, Indianapolis, Ind., for two years of postgraduate training for missionary candidates.

Department of Home Missions establishes churches and brings them to self-support. Maintains mission stations and community houses in districts having considerable foreign-born population in large cities. Conducts mission work among the Indians in the Northwest. Commission on Social Service cooperates with the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook) in carrying on investigations of industrial conditions. Furnishes lectures on community and social problems to local churches and conferences. Endeavors to stimulate a desire for community churches in rural districts. Unites with other agencies in making surveys of rural conditions in order to determine the need for churches. In answer to specific requests, the Department provides equipment and leadership for churches where there is opportunity for service to the whole community. Urges State Boards to send rural preachers to attend institutes and conferences and in some cases helps defray expenses.

Department of Benevolence maintains hospitals and Homes for the care of the aged, widows, orphans, and dependent children. Acts as a clearing house for member institutions. Children's Homes, with a total capacity of 500 (maintained at St. Louis, Mo.; Cleveland, Ohio; Atlanta, Ga.; Denver, Colo.; Dallas, Tex.; Omaha, Nebr.), care for orphan, deserted, or neglected children up to 12 years of age; board children who must earn their living, or whose father or mother, members of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), are dead or have deserted them. These Homes also place children for adoption in families of members of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). Homes for the Aged, with a total capacity of about 225 (maintained at East Aurora, N. Y.; Jacksonville, Fla.; Marion, Ind.; Jacksonville, Ill.; Dallas, Tex.; Walla Walla, Wash.; Long Beach, Calif.), provide care and shelter for aged, needy members of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), especially indigent ministers and their widows. Open to persons from all States. The Department advises application for Home nearest present residence, but admits applicant to other Homes if that one is filled. Minimum admission is $100 per person or $150 for man and wife; to be paid to the Treasurer before applicant is received. Limited to persons 70 years of age or more, except in unusual circumstances. Applicants are admitted on six months' probation. Applicants owning property must secure this to the Society before admission, and turn over to the Society property inherited after admission if they remain in one of its Homes. Such money or property is invested for the benefit of the Home in which owner lives; an annuity of 3 per cent is given to the owner. Residents may depart at will or may be dismissed by action of the Executive Board. Persons leaving receive effects and property brought to the Home, but must pay for admission fee, board at rate of $3 per week during time of residence, and extra expenses incurred by the management in their behalf. Admission fee of those leaving before completion of probation period is returned to donors, minus cost of board for period of residence. Christian Church Hospitals (maintained at Valparaiso, Ind., and Kansas City, Mo.) furnish hospital service to members of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) at reasonable cost to those able to pay, and free to those too poor to pay. Kansas City hospital is not yet affiliated with the Society. Department publishes an Annual Report and assists in publishing The World Call (see page 283). Stereopticon slides are supplied on application. Membership is limited to institutions operated under the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). Supported by contributions.

Department of Church Erection makes gifts and loans to churches desiring to erect church buildings, parsonages, and community houses.

Department of Ministerial Relief provides for the pension and support of disabled missionaries, ministers, and their dependent families. Provides disability, old-age, and death benefits on an annuity basis.

Department of Religious Education conducts schools of method, summer schools, and correspondence schools. Maintains field workers to assist in the administration of Bible school activities and the training of teachers, and to conduct young people's conferences and institutes; such field workers may be obtained by churches desiring their services, expenses to be paid by the church applying. Endows chairs of religious education in colleges and universities, and conducts religious day schools in a number of cities and towns.

Department of Missionary Education seeks to awaken missionary interest, develop missionary zeal, and disseminate missionary information among all churches of the communion. It conducts missionary conferences and summer schools of missions; outlines programs and prepares missionary literature for teaching missions in Sunday schools, in local missionary societies, and in Christian Endeavor Societies; outlines plans, provides material, and otherwise aids the Church School of Missions in every congregation; encourages churches in all missionary activities; conducts missionary rallies, conferences, and institutes; promotes the missionary education of all groups and ages in the Church through mission study classes; provides books, leaflets, articles, maps, charts, posters, and other material. Supplies missionary material for The World Call (see page 283). Publishes The King's Builders, a missionary magazine for children. Prepares and promotes the use of stereopticon lectures.

United Czecho-Slovak Legion of America (Svaz Československých Legionářů v Americe) (org. 1919), Secy., Lada T. Křížek, 3742 East 140th St., Cleveland, Ohio. Relief organization for Czecho-Slovak Legionaries and their families. National office organizes and supervises local posts. When necessary, Supreme Lodge sends a worker at request of community to aid in establishing a local lodge; community pays expense of this visit. Benefits for invalid and sick members are paid as needed. Sick benefits are paid from members' dues and special funds raised by lodges. Local lodges carry on and contribute to community betterment, welfare and educational activities. The Czecho-Slovak Legionary (Československý Legionář) (342 Second Ave., Pittsburgh, Pa.), monthly, published in English, Czech, and Slovak, $2.50 a year, is the official organ. Monthly dues of local lodges are 25 cents.

United Daughters of the Confederacy (org. 1894, inc. 1919), Secy., Mrs. R. D. Wright, Newberry, S. C. Historical, benevolent, educational, and social organization. To honor the memory of those who served the Confederate States; to protect, preserve, and mark places made historic by Confederate valor; to collect and preserve material for the truthful history of the War between the States; record the part taken by Southern women during the struggle during the reconstruction period. Assists survivors and their dependents, and aids descendants of Confederates in securing proper education. Committee on Awarding of University Prize for Confederate Essays gives $100 annually as a scholarship to Teachers' College, Columbia University, New York, N. Y. Committee on Relief arranges for the relief of needy Confederate women in States where there are no local groups of the society to provide for their necessities. Committee on Education receives and distributes scholarships provided for by the Educational Endowment Fund of the society. Standing and special committees conduct studies and make reports to annual conventions, the Proceedings of which are published and furnished free to anyone supplying postage. Membership is limited to men not less than 18 years of age, who are immediate relatives or lineal descendants of Confederate veterans or of those men who were fit for active duty but who loyally gave aid to the Southern cause; also open to Southern women who can give proof of personal service or loyal aid to the Southern cause during the War between the States and the lineal descendants or nieces of such women. Supported by a small membership fee.

The Children of the Confederacy has similar purposes and does related work. It is composed of girls and boys from infancy to 18 years of age who are nieces, nephews, or lineal descendants of Confederate soldiers.

United Lutheran Church in America (org. 1918), 437 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y. To extend active Christian service to the needy. Promotes the organization of Inner Mission Societies in localities where special work needs to be done. Plans for the establishment of institutions of mercy throughout the country. Aims to bring about a more harmonious relation between the United Lutheran Church and its institutions. Seeks to give to each institution the benefit of experience and cooperation in institutional work. Provides for training of workers for both congregational and institutional work. Plans to carry on an educational campaign, holding institutes and distributing literature.

United Presbyterian Church, Board of Freedmen's Missions (org. and inc. 1868), 608 Publication Bldg., Pittsburgh, Pa. To educate the Negro in secular and religious subjects. Maintains missions in various communities, especially in the South, and Knoxville College at Knoxville, Tenn. Offers academic work, some of grammar school grade, and some of high school grade, in practically all the missions; in every mission, the Board provides for industrial training, the teaching of cooking and sewing to girls, and religious instruction for all pupils. It also offers agricultural work at missions owning considerable land. In all missions, Board charges a nominal tuition fee for instruction. Persons living in missions which have boarding facilities pay for their keep. Supported by contributions from the United Presbyterian Church.

— United Society of Christian Endeavor (org. 1881), World's Christian Endeavor Bldg., Mt. Vernon and Joy Sts., Boston, Mass. An interdenominational organization working to promote certain standards of service and definite commitment to those standards. Aims to group together local Christian Endeavor Societies for mutual inspiration and profit. Through its local branches, it acts as a training school to fit young men and young women for work of the church. Local societies maintain playgrounds; institute community athletic contests; hold story hours; conduct services in jails, poor farms, hospitals, and other institutions; carry on special work for immigrants; conduct classes in English for the foreign born; secure employment for needy persons, and do other social service work. Certain State societies have field secretaries who devote their entire time to organizing societies and assisting church and community enterprises. National body holds a biennial convention, open to the public. It publishes The Christian Endeavor World, weekly, 5 cents a copy, $2.50 a year. Membership is made up of State and provincial unions. Supported largely by earnings of its Publication Department.

U. S. Daughters of 1812. See National Society U. S. Daughters of 1812.

U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce (org. 1920), 511 Locust St.; St. Louis, Mo. To stimulate the younger men to active participation and interest in matters of civic and social betterment and commercial progress. Serves as a medium for the exchange of information, methods, and plans. Holds an annual meeting, open to the public.

Upon application and if expenses are paid, a member of an established Chamber will visit communities to assist in the organization of new branches. Central office conducts follow-up work through correspondence. Activities bear on civic improvement and include study of problems of Americanization, of reclamation of swamp and arid lands, development of inland waterways, national budget system, taxation, and good roads. Membership is open to civic organizations which have similar purposes and which are limited to men from 18 to 35 years of age. Supported by membership dues: charter fee of $25, and 25 cents per capita annually.

Universalist Church, Commission on Social Service (org. 1911), Chmn., Prof. Frank O. Hall, D. D., Tufts College, Mass. To establish and encourage the Open Forum Movement in Universalist Churches and to establish community forums in localities where church forums are not feasible. Wherever possible, Commission aims to cooperate with other social service organizations working for peace, organized charity, advanced legislation, and the prevention of unemployment and delinquency. Has established State Commissions in many States. Department of Literature has issued "A Social Service Bibliography"; "Social Service for the Universalist Church"; "Handbook of the Men's League of the Universalist Church, Containing Plan of Service for Men's Clubs"; "Social Implications of Universalism"; and other publications of similar nature. Literature may be purchased from the Secretary.

University Commission on Southern Race Questions (org. 1912), Pres., Josiah Morse, Univ. of S. C., Columbia, S. C. Organized for the purpose of studying questions connected with the relation of the races and the needs and conditions of the Negroes in the southern States. Holds an annual meeting, and publishes occasionally "Open Letters to the College Students of the South". Is composed of representatives of a number of southern State universities.

Urban League. See National Urban League.

Vice-Chairman in Charge of Domestic Operations, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

Vice-Chairman in Charge of Foreign Operations, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

Visual Education Society. See Society for Visual Education.

Vocational Education Board. See Federal Board for Vocational Education.

Vocational Guidance Association. See Intercollegiate Vocational Guidance Association; National Vocational Guidance Association.

Vocational Information Bureau. See Bureau of Vocational Information.

Vocational Rehabilitation Service, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

Volta Bureau. See American Association to Promote the Teaching of Speech to the Deaf.

Volunteer Service, Red Cross. See American National Red Cross.

Volunteers of America (org. and inc. 1896), 34 West 28th St., New York, N. Y. An interdenominational, evangelistic body, military in its method. Seeks to reach and help those people of America who have not been affected by the ministrations of other religious groups. Has organized regiments or divisions supervising local societies, stations, and institutions in large cities throughout the country. Traveling officers from national headquarters assist in organizing local groups; select local advisers from among the clergy, business men, and police officers of the community; and otherwise aid them. Local groups conduct public meetings in Volunteer Halls, churches, prisons, and on the streets; visit the sick and needy in their homes; operate day nurseries; maintain relief stations, and Homes and institutions in which free board and room are offered to unemployed persons and others in need; visit prisoners in jails and other penal institutions and conduct relief work among prisoners' families. Some local branches maintain Emergency Homes for women and children; in these Homes free care and medical treatment are offered. National organization is supported by voluntary subscriptions.

Weather Bureau. See Department of Agriculture, U. S.

Western Czech Fraternal Union (Západní Česko Bratrská Jednota) (org. and inc. 1897), Secy., L. J. Kaspar, 307 Twelfth Ave. E., Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Czech mutual benefit and social welfare organization of men and women. Operates in the U. S. only. National office organizes and supervises lodges in local communities. Supreme lodge keeps a lecturing organizer in the field continuously to aid in establishing new lodges. Union pays death benefits of from $250 to $2,000, raised by assessments upon total membership. Local lodges pay $5 to $10 a week sick benefit while patient is under doctor's care. Sick benefits are paid from members' dues and special funds raised by the local groups. Local lodges carry on and contribute to community betterment, welfare and educational activities. Some lodges have free traveling libraries, open to the public, and provide lectures and other educational service. Union holds a quinquennial meeting, open to the public, lasting 10 days, at which questions of interest to the Czechs in America are discussed. The Fraternal Herald (Bratrský Věstník) (711 Pine St., Omaha, Nebr.), monthly, published in Czech, 10 cents a copy, 50 cents a year, free to lodges, is the official organ. Members' dues in local lodges are from 10 to 50 cents a month.

Woman's American Baptist Home Mission Society (org. 1877, inc. 1878), 276 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y. To promote missionary work throughout the U. S., Alaska, Central America, Cuba, Mexico, and Porto Rico. Carries on evangelistic and educational work in the homes, and through schools, Christian centers, cooperation with churches, and by other means. Holds an annual meeting in connection with that of the Northern Baptist Convention (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook). Standing committees on Missionary Work, Educational Work, Organization, Finance, and Publications conduct special work as indicated by their titles. Committee on Training School supervises the Society's school at 2969 Vernon Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Woman's Board of Home Missions. See Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., Woman's Board of Home Missions.

Woman's Christian Temperance Union. See National Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

Woman's Home Missionary Society. See Methodist Episcopal Church, Woman's Home Missionary Society.

Woman's National Farm and Garden Association (org. 1914, inc. 1919), 414 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y. To promote agricultural and horticultural interest among women. Acts as an information bureau and clearing house for women's agricultural activities. Through its Land Service Committee, the Association offers scholarships to State colleges and agricultural schools, for young women desiring to fit themselves for agricultural and related work. Has organized branches in different sections of the country. Local branches maintain free employment bureaus and through their Active Sales De- partments sell, on small commission basis, home-made food and handiwork prepared by women in rural communities. Association issues a monthly Bulletin, 10 cents a copy, 50 cents a year, to members only. This magazine serves as a medium in which members may advertise their products, and obtain reviews of farm and garden books, notices of Government publications of special value, and answers to inquiries, and through which they are kept in touch with agricultural experiments and branch activities. Whenever possible, samples of goods are submitted to central office before they are advertised. Association assumes no responsibility but endeavors to protect both consumer and producer. Membership is open to cooperating branch associations and women engaged in or otherwise interested in any phase of agricultural development. Supported by sales and contributions and by annual membership dues, $2 and up.

Woman's Relief Corps (org. 1881, inc. 1883), Pres., Mrs. Inez Jameson Bender, 218 Citizens Title and Trust Bldg., Decatur, Ill. To aid and assist the Grand Army of the Republic and to perpetuate the memory of their dead; to cherish and emulate the deeds of our Army nurses and of all women who rendered service to our country in her hour of peril; to maintain true allegiance to the U. S., to inculcate lessons of patriotism and love of country among children, and to uphold universal liberty and equal rights to all. Operates through local Corps which maintain relief funds for veterans of the Civil War and their dependents. National body has general funds available for veterans of all wars and the Victory Fund for the use of World War soldiers and their dependents. The Victory Fund has been raised by voluntary contributions from local Corps. National body and local groups distribute flags and patriotic literature, observe patriotic anniversaries, conduct special work through the departments of Americanization and Child Welfare, and establish scholarships. Central office issues an annual journal. Local Corps are organized as auxiliaries to Posts upon approval of Post Commanders. Membership is open to women, 16 years of age or more, of good character and correct deportment, who have not given aid and comfort to enemies of the Union. National organization is supported by per capita tax received from local units. Is auxiliary to the Grand Army of the Republic (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook).

Woman's Relief Society. See National Woman's Relief Society.

Women in Public Health Association. See Association of Women in Public Health.

Women Voters' League. See National League of Women Voters.

Women's Alliance. See Polish Women's Alliance of America.

Women's Bureau. See Department of Labor, U. S.

Women's Council. See National Council of Women.

Women's Legion. See American Women's Legion.

Women's Trade Union League of America. See National Women's Trade Union League of America.

Woodcraft League of America (org. 1915, inc. 1917), 13 West 29th St., New York, N. Y. To educate, and to build character through recreation. Provides program of outdoor and indoor activities suitable for all seasons of the year. Organizes local groups of boys and girls into separate Lodges, and men and women into Woodcraft Clubs and Adult Groups, which are led by Guides who direct recreation and teach nature study, campcraft, and woodcraft. Holds conferences on camping, and conducts courses of study for Woodcraft leaders. League confers credits or honors for proficiency in athletics. Has prepared exhibit material which may be borrowed. Publishes Totem Board, monthly, 5 cents a copy, 50 cents a year. Has also published "Woodcraft Manual for Boys" and "Woodcraft Manual for Girls"; on sale at headquarters and in book stores, 75 cents for the paper edition, $1.25 for the cloth edition. League is composed of local member organizations which pay annual dues of $5 and up. Supported by contributions and membership dues.

World Alliance for International Friendship through the Churches (org. 1914), 70 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y. An international organization. Works through the religious forces of the world to substitute arbitration for war in the settlement of international disputes and to develop friendship and cooperation between the nations. Has established national councils in 24 countries, which carry on related work and make annual reports.

Council in America has local committees throughout the country, which seek to educate the public in matters pertaining to international relationships, by providing lectures and sermons, publishing bulletins, and organizing study groups. Central office acts as a bureau of information and clearing house for local groups. Makes studies of international relations and strives for a peaceful solution of the problems involved. Works for the enactment or enforcement of legislation that will do away with discriminatory acts in favor of one race as against another. Cooperates in the exchange of preachers between the U. S. and foreign countries. Publishes leaflets and bulletins, free on request, and a monthly magazine, World Friendship, $2 a year. Supported by contributions and by membership dues, $2 and up.

World Brotherhood Federation (org. 1920), Commissioner for North America, Rev. J. Foster Wilcox, 23 East 26th St., New York, N. Y. An international and interdenominational organization conducting educational and social service work. Promotes the organization of Brotherhoods in the local churches and directs them in their studies and activities. Local Brotherhoods function through the local churches and the various agencies in their communities. National body is cooperating with the Government in its health educational program for men. It conducts educational and social service work. Federation is open to all interested men, but its development has been greatest in Protestant churches.

World Christian Citizenship Conferences. See National Reform Association.

— World Peace Foundation (org. 1909 as the International School of Peace, inc. 1910), 40 Mt. Vernon St., Boston, 9, Mass. To educate the people of all nations to a full knowledge of the waste and destructiveness of war, and by every practical means to promote international peace, justice, and good will. Publishes and distributes literature pertaining to international relations. Cooperates with other organizations and with individuals in research and education. Aims to keep fully informed on international relations. Makes a special feature of its information service concerning matters within its scope. Maintains a library which contains books, periodicals, and pamphlets relative to the peace movement and international relations. Publishes League of Nations, bi-monthly, 25 cents a year; bound and indexed, per annual volume, $1. Also publishes a large number of pamphlets; single copies free, price in quantity on application. Supported by endowment funds.

when 1917-many
+
native
How one
in

World's Young Women's Christian Association. See Young Women's Christian Associations of the U. S. A.

Young Men's Christian Associations, International Committee of (org. 1851, inc. 1883), 347 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y. Executive agent of the International Convention of Young Men's Christian Associations of North America. Consists of local units in cities, towns, and rural communities, with many branches at railroad and industrial centers, in schools and colleges, at Army posts and Naval stations, among Negroes and other well-defined groups, including boys in their teens—all seeking to promote the social, physical, educational, spiritual, and economic welfare of men and boys. Affiliated with the International Convention and Committee are State and Canadian Conventions and Committees. These supervising Committees and local units are operated under specially trained secretaries. O note men negroes in schools
Pub
1911
191

The local units maintain club houses which serve as centers from which their community activities are conducted, where gymnasium and club room facilities are offered, and where classes in various courses of study, open to the public, are held. Hotels for men are maintained in a number of cities. State and regional secretaries direct local work and tie it up to the national program. we fine
ywe

Central office maintains separate departments or service bureaus with specialists in charge and with representatives in the field for the assistance and guidance of local groups and of separate Association units, as follows: Army and Navy Work, Boys' Work, City Work, Colored Men's Work, County Work, Educational Work, Industrial Work, Physical Work, Race Relationship Work, Railroad Work, Religious Work, Student Work; Building Bureau, Business Bureau, Friendly Relations Committee, Financial Service Bureau, Bureau of Records, Secretarial Bureau, and the Hospitality League. These departments and bureaus as well as the Association of Employed Officers, the Association of Boys' Work Secretaries, the Conference on the Association Profession, Commissions on Relation to the Churches, on Conservation of the Values of War Work, on Selecting and Training of Community Secretaries, and on Occupation of the Field conduct special work as indicated by their titles; many of them hold annual and other conferences for the discussion of their own particular problems. National organization promotes "keep-fit" campaigns and movements for clean speech, clean habits, and clean sports among boys and men. It is also administering a limited number of collegiate scholarships to discharged service men. It conducts United Y. M. C. A. Schools, giving home-study courses in accounting, advertising, agriculture, architecture, auto mechanics, banking, bookkeeping, building contracting, business English, business law, civil engineering, concrete engineering, drafting, electrical engineering, electricity, English, factory management, farm motor mechanics, foreign languages, illustration, letter writing, machine-shop practice, mathematics, mechanical engineering, plumbing, poultry husbandry, radio operation, salesmanship, steam engineering, stenography, surveying, and over one hundred other subjects. For further information apply to local Y. M. C. A., or address the office of the United Y. M. C. A. Schools Department at 375 Lexington Ave., New York, N. Y. Representatives of the Permanent Committee on Vocational Training visit colleges and summer schools and make reports. This committee directs the educational work of the Association through its colleges, summer schools, and training centers. The international Y. M. C. A. College at Springfield, Mass., offers training for executive or secretarial leadership, or for leadership in physical education. The Association College at Chicago, Ill., with its summer school at Lake Geneva, Wis., and the Association College at Nashville, Tenn., with its summer school at Blue Ridge, N. C., offer similar courses of training. A number of summer schools located throughout the country serve primarily for continuation study and secondarily for introductory or preparatory study for leaders in Association work. The Federation of Training Agencies in connection with the Secretarial Bureau has drawn up a two-year standard course of instruction to be followed in training centers which provide preparation or supplementary training for local Association workers. International Committees promotes the organization and carrying on of the Young Men's Christian Associations in foreign countries, and interests local American Associations in the support of trained American secretaries for these foreign groups. Publication department, known as the Association Press, issues leaflets and pamphlets, free, or for sale at nominal prices, and posters, photographs, and exhibit panels which may be borrowed. Also publishes books and pamphlets on Americanization, Bible study and religion, boy life, camps and social events, community life, country life, health, industrial topics, play and recreation, sex education and hygiene, vocations, and similar subjects; for sale at varying prices. For complete list see Catalogue of Publications, free on request. Association Press issues the following eriodicals: American Youth, monthly except July and August, $2 a year; Association Men, monthly, $1.50 a year; Association Men (Students' Edition), monthly, $2 a year; Association Seminar, monthly, 1 a year. Membership includes local and State Young Men's Christian associations in this country, and foreign groups, whose individual membership is composed of boys and men in sympathy with the ideals of the Association. Supported by contributions and by membership dues.

Committee on Friendly Relations Among Foreign Students (org. 911) seeks to promote international friendship and good-will by welcoming and serving students from abroad irrespective of race, color, or religion. Aims to give to students in foreign lands accurate information and sound advice regarding educational opportunities in the U. S. Students giving the Committee advance notice of their plans to come to America, including name of steamship, port of arrival, and probable date are met at pier on request. Committee assists students in finding hotel accommodations, purchasing railway tickets, handling baggage, and otherwise aids them. Does not loan money or make any guarantees regarding employment for self-supporting students, but endeavors to discover opportunities for students to enable them to earn part of their expenses. Through the Associations in different colleges and universities, the Committee plans social activities for foreign students. Traveling secretaries visit foreign student centers and work through Y. M. C. A. groups, college faculties and townspeople, to make the best provision for the needs of the foreign students. Issues El Estudiante Latino-Americano, monthly during the college year, particularly for Latin-American students and those interested in them; Christian China, monthly during the college year, prepared by the Chinese Students' Christian Association, especially for Chinese students; The Philippine Herald, monthly during the college year, published for Filipino students by the Filipino Students' Federation; Hindustan Christian Student, published for Indian students, obtainable from the editor, J. D. S. Paul, 122 Yale Station, New Haven, Conn. Besides the administrative staff of American secretaries, the Committee has special secretaries for Filipino, Latin-American, Chinese, Japanese, and Russian students. Supported by contributions and by the International Committee of the Y. M. C. A.

Young Men's Hebrew and Kindred Associations, Council of (org. 1913), 114 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y. Serves as a central body for federations of local councils of Young Men's Hebrew Associations and affiliated Jewish organizations located throughout the U. S. Seeks to standardize and develop their work for Jewish boys, girls, young men, young women, and adults. Supervises the work of local branches whose activities are mainly recreational, religious, social, and educational, and which also conduct social service work varying according to community needs. Field workers from the central office organize and advise local groups and assist them in membership and financial campaigns. Council publishes pamphlets and the Y. M. H. A. Quarterly Letter; available to all interested persons and organizations. [The Merger of the Council and the Jewish Welfare Board (for description of which see elsewhere in the Handbook) was authorized at the last convention and will be completed in 1921. Work is to be enlarged.]

Young People's Union of America. See Baptist Young People's Union of America.

Young Women's Christian Associations of the U. S. A. (org. 1873), Headquarters, 600 Lexington Ave., New York, N. Y. To advance the physical, social, intellectual, moral, and spiritual interests of young women. Unites in one body the Young Women's Christian Associations; establishes, develops, and unifies such Associations; participates in the work of the World's Young Women's Christian Association. Holds a biennial national convention in April of the even-numbered years. National Board serves as the executive committee; it has special commissions to study problems of leadership and to establish standards for city Associations. It also has National Departments which conduct special work as indicated by their titles: Conventions and Conference, Field Work, Finance, Foreign and Overseas, General Administration, Office, Publication (Women's Press), Publicity, Research and Method, and Secretarial. Through these departments, work is conducted along the following lines: city, town, county, and district work; work for students, girls in their teens, foreign-born, colored, Indian, industrial, business, and professional women; health, religious, general, and vocational education; pageantry and drama; housing, cafeteria, room registry; employment; business methods, research, and law-reporting service. Field Committee organizes and advises in the development of work of local Associations throughout the U. S. which are affiliated as autonomous bodies and, for administrative purposes, are grouped together into 11 fields, each with a central office. Local Associations usually have the following committees conducting special work: Economic, Employment, General Education, Girls' Work, Health Education, Hospitality, Industrial, Religious Education, Room Registry, and Service. Y. W. C. A. Homes maintained in cities throughout the country serve as centers for local activities of the Association and offer other community interests. These centers usually provide gymnasium and swimming facilities, operate cafeterias, serve as club centers, furnish living quarters for girls at reasonable rates, and maintain investigated, approved room registries for girls who live outside the Association residence. The buildings are also social centers for girls and women. Educational and vocational classes in various subjects are held in the centers. Division of Work for Foreign-Born Women conducts travelers aid, Americanization, and educational work among foreign-born women and girls, and holds international institutes. Girls' Reserve Movement includes girls in grade schools, high schools, and continuation schools; it serves as an apprentice opportunity for girls later to become members of the Y. W. C. A. Student Associations in colleges and universities conduct special activities similar to the national program. The National Association publishes bulletins, pamphlets, and booklets on religious and social subjects, free or for sale; The Association Monthly, $1.50 a year; Foreign-Born (a bulletin of international service), monthly, $1.50 a year. Membership involves privileges of and responsibilities to a local Association. Active membership is based upon membership in Protestant Evangelical Churches except in student associations where an alternative basis exists. The National Association is supported by contributions from individuals and local Associations, and by income from its revenue-producing departments.

Západní Česko Bratrská Jednota. See Western Czech Fraternal Union.

Živena, Benefit Society of Slovak Christian Women of the U. S. A. (org. 1891, inc. 1895), Pres., Mrs. Paulina Novoměský, 175 East Kinney St., Newark, N. J. A mutual benefit and educational organization, operating only in the U. S. The Supreme Assembly supervises branches in local communities and upon request sends a worker to organize a new branch. Contributes to patriotic causes in this country as well as in Czecho-Slovakia, and assists social and community betterment movements. Branches in local communities pay death benefits of $250, $500, $750, and $1,000 each, raised by assessments on all members, and sick benefits of $5 a week while the patient is under doctor's care. As monthly dues, members pay insurance rates according to age. Živena (Editor, Pavel Jamarik, 342 Second Ave., Pittsburgh, Pa.), monthly, published in Slovak, $1.25 a year, is the official organ. The Supreme Assembly also publishes a yearly report of its activities; free on request.

HV89
H498

•

Handbook of social resources of the United States.

[illegible]

the 1990s, the number of people in the world who are under 15 years of age is expected to increase by 1.5 billion (United Nations 1994).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of children in the 1990s. The United Nations has set out a series of goals for children in the 1990s, including the goal of 'improving the quality of life for children' (United Nations 1994). The United Nations has also set out a series of goals for children in the 1990s, including the goal of 'improving the quality of life for children' (United Nations 1994).

The United Nations has set out a series of goals for children in the 1990s, including the goal of 'improving the quality of life for children' (United Nations 1994). The United Nations has also set out a series of goals for children in the 1990s, including the goal of 'improving the quality of life for children' (United Nations 1994).

The United Nations has set out a series of goals for children in the 1990s, including the goal of 'improving the quality of life for children' (United Nations 1994). The United Nations has also set out a series of goals for children in the 1990s, including the goal of 'improving the quality of life for children' (United Nations 1994).

The United Nations has set out a series of goals for children in the 1990s, including the goal of 'improving the quality of life for children' (United Nations 1994). The United Nations has also set out a series of goals for children in the 1990s, including the goal of 'improving the quality of life for children' (United Nations 1994).

The United Nations has set out a series of goals for children in the 1990s, including the goal of 'improving the quality of life for children' (United Nations 1994). The United Nations has also set out a series of goals for children in the 1990s, including the goal of 'improving the quality of life for children' (United Nations 1994).

The United Nations has set out a series of goals for children in the 1990s, including the goal of 'improving the quality of life for children' (United Nations 1994). The United Nations has also set out a series of goals for children in the 1990s, including the goal of 'improving the quality of life for children' (United Nations 1994).

The United Nations has set out a series of goals for children in the 1990s, including the goal of 'improving the quality of life for children' (United Nations 1994). The United Nations has also set out a series of goals for children in the 1990s, including the goal of 'improving the quality of life for children' (United Nations 1994).

The United Nations has set out a series of goals for children in the 1990s, including the goal of 'improving the quality of life for children' (United Nations 1994). The United Nations has also set out a series of goals for children in the 1990s, including the goal of 'improving the quality of life for children' (United Nations 1994).